TRIAL DATE SET TO COMPEL METROMEDIA INTERNATIONAL GROUP TO HOLD ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

NEW YORK, July 18, 2001 -- Elliott Associates, L.P. and Elliott International, L.P. (together "Elliott"), institutional investment firms under common management, have been granted an August 10 trial date by the Delaware Chancery Court to hear the case of Elliott vs. Metromedia International Group, Inc. (AMEX: MMG). Elliott has filed a complaint against MMG under Section 211 of the Delaware General Corporation Law to compel the company to schedule its 2001 annual meeting of stockholders. More than 13 months have passed since MMG's last annual meeting, and as such, the Delaware Court may summarily order MMG to schedule and hold an annual meeting.

Elliott is working with Lens Investment Management, LLC ("Lens"), the shareholder activist specialist, in its dealings with MMG.

"This development sets in motion a process that may finally lead to an annual meeting for the stockholders of MMG," said Richard A. Bennett, a principal of Lens. "We believe the company's delay in holding the annual meeting is unconscionable, especially in light of the decline in the company's stock price. The annual meeting is the cornerstone of corporate governance and stockholder accountability. It is critical that an annual meeting be held so that stockholders are provided a forum to hold their management and board of directors accountable."

Elliott has filed an amended preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the 2001 Annual Meeting of MMG. The proxy nominates two candidates to the MMG Board of Directors and puts forward two stockholder proposals. The amended preliminary proxy statement, which can be found on the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>), discusses a number of issues that Elliott believes have resulted in the downward trend in MMG's stock price.
