NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

APRIL 17, 2001 (Inception) THROUGH APRIL 30, 2001

1. BUSINESS:

Disease Sciences, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company" or "DSCI") is a developmental stage biopharmaceutical/clinical diagnostics company planning to employ a broad array of technologies to detect, identify and quantify substances in blood or other bodily fluids and tissues. DCSI intends to target and develop proprietary pharmaceutical compounds and new technologies, its primary goal will be a Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathy (TSE) test, useful in the diagnosis of TSE diseases such as Scrapie in sheep, Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) in cattle, (commonly known as "mad-cow disease"), Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) in wild deer and elk and Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease (CJD). Test results are to be used in the diagnosis, detection, evaluation, monitoring and potential treatment of diseases and other medical conditions. DCSI's plans to: (1) identify, acquire and exploit rights to new technologies and compounds relating to BSE, CJD and other neurological disorders; (2) enhance the value of those assets through further research and clinical testing; (3) perform clinical studies towards regulatory approval and attempt to market its drugs through profitable licensing agreements with major pharmaceutical companies and (4) work to develop other promising compounds in-house and in collaboration with third parties. DCSI intends to develop corporate partnerships with established and well-capitalized pharmaceutical companies for the clinical development of its compounds and for their production, commercialization and marketing. The Company intends to derive its revenues from patent sub-licensing fees, royalties from pharmaceutical sales, appropriate milestone payments and research and development contracts.

Edgar Filing: AUCTION ANYTHING COM INC - Form EX-99.10THERFINANCIA

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

- A. Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reporting amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- B. Income Taxes - The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 - Accounting for Income Taxes, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse.

3. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

The Company is authorized to issue 100,000,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $.001. The Company issued 60,000,000 shares at par value to its founders.

4. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The Company is offering for sale to persons who qualify as Accredited investors or otherwise qualified investors up to 4,000,000 Units (the Units). Each Unit consists of one share of Common Stock, $.10 par value (the Common Stock) and four common stock purchase warrants designated Series A, Series B, Series C and Series D common stock purchase warrants (collectively the Warrants). The Series A Warrant included in each Unit entitles the holder to purchase one share of Common Stock of the Company at a purchase price of $.30 per share. The Series B Warrant included in each Unit entitles the holder to purchase one share of Common Stock of the Company at a purchase price of $.60 per share. The Series C Warrant included in each Unit entitles the holder to purchase One share of Common Stock of the Company at a purchase price of $1.00 per share. The Series D Warrant included in each Unit entitles the holder to purchase one share of common Stock of the Company at the Purchase Price of $2.00 per share. The Warrants will expire on May 1, 2006. The Company may call any Warrant series or all of the Warrants at a call price of $.001 per underlying share should the Company's Common Stock trade at or above $5.00 per share, based on the reported closing bid price of the Common Stock, for ten consecutive trading days following 15 days prior written notice of the Company's intention to call the Warrants. In the event the Warrants or Warrant series subject to call have not been exercised by written notice within such 15-day notice period, the Warrants will cease to exist. Each Unit will be offered at a price of $1,000. The Units are being offered on a "best efforts" basis. There is no minimum offering and all proceeds received will be deposited directly in the treasury of the Company. The minimum investment is one Unit, subject to the discretion of management to accept subscriptions for a fractional amount of a Unit.
