Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

Edgar Filing: SPRINT CORP - Form 8-K

On October 19, 2004, Sprint Corporation ("Sprint") announced its third quarter 2004 results. The press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

During a review of internal controls relating to its capital assets, Sprint identified, in the 2004 third quarter, a calculation error that had resulted, since 1999, in the overstatement of interest capitalized during the construction of its Wireless capital assets, with a corresponding understatement of interest expense. The error subsequently resulted in an overstatement of depreciation expense after the associated capital assets were placed in service. This error resulted in a cumulative overstatement of capitalized interest costs and a corresponding understatement of interest expense of $265 million from 1999 through June 30, 2004, as well as a cumulative overstatement of depreciation expense of $99 million from 1999 through June 30, 2004. The cumulative impacts of this error as of June 30, 2004, including the related income tax effect, resulted in a $166 million overstatement of net property, plant and equipment, a $61 million overstatement of deferred income tax liability, and a $105 million overstatement of retained earnings.

While Sprint believes the impacts of this calculation error are not material to any previously issued financial statement, Sprint determined, on October 16, 2004, that the cumulative adjustment required to correct this calculation error was too large to record in 2004, and that the calculation error was most appropriately corrected through restatement of previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 and interim financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2004 and June 30, 2004. Sprint advised its current independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), and former independent registered public accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP, of Sprint's determination, and both firms concurred with Sprint's conclusion.

Additionally, during the fourth quarter of 2003, Sprint recorded an adjustment related to an understatement of its long term disability liability of $114 million as of December 31, 2003. The impact of this adjustment on prior years' annual financial statements was fully disclosed and determined not to be material. Because Sprint has restated its previously issued financial statements for the matter discussed above, Sprint has also restated its previously issued financial statements to apply this adjustment to the appropriate pre-2003 periods.

On October 18, 2004 Sprint's Audit Committee discussed the matters disclosed in this Item 4.02(a) with management and KPMG. KPMG informed the Audit Committee that it concurs with Sprint's conclusion described above.

Sprint's decision to restate previously issued financial statements was based on the impact of a cumulative correction on the 2004 financial statements rather than the impact on any previously issued financial statement. Sprint expects to file the restated audited financial statements and related auditors' report by amending its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. Sprint also expects to file its restated unaudited interim financial statements by amending its Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2004 and June 30, 2004. Sprint expects to make these filings before filing its third quarter 2004 Form 10-Q in November 2004.

A summary of the impacts of the matters described above on the indicated financial statements is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.
