MTS Plans a $500 million Syndicated Loan

Edgar Filing: MOBILE TELESYSTEMS OJSC - Form 6-K

Moscow, Russian Federation July 5, 2004 Mobile TeleSystems OJSC (MTS - NYSE: MBT), the largest mobile phone operator in Russia and Ukraine, announces that it has mandated four international banks to arrange a $500 million syndicated loan.

MTS has mandated ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (ABN AMRO), HSBC Bank plc (HSBC), ING Bank N.V. (ING) and Raiffeisen Zentralbank Oesterreich AG (RZB) (together the Mandated Lead Arrangers) to arrange a $500 million Medium-Term Syndicated Credit Facility (the Facility).

The Facility has been fully underwritten by the Mandated Lead Arrangers and has a tenor of three years. The Facility will be used for general corporate purposes and for refinancing existing debt. ABN AMRO, HSBC and ING are Joint Bookrunners with ING also acting as the Documentation and Facility Agent. RZB is the Signing Agent.

Commenting on the Company's plans, Tatiana Evtushenkova, MTS Vice President for Investment and Corporate Development said: Raising $500 million on an unsecured basis in a sector other than oil, gas and metals is expected to establish a landmark for Russian syndicated loans, offering sector diversification to lenders active in Russia.

MTS is currently working with the Mandated Lead Arrangers to prepare a syndication that will be launched later in July.
