Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, Silicon Graphics, Inc. (the Company) is in the process of renewing or replacing its asset-based line of credit, which matures in April 2005. On March 11, 2005, the Company announced that it had amended the Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement (the Loan Agreement) between the Company and Wells Fargo Foothill, Inc. (the Lender) to increase the borrowing base under the line by an amount equal to the lesser of (i) $10 million or (ii) the value of the Company's intellectual property. In connection with this increase in the borrowing base, on March 21, 2005, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Intellectual Property Security Agreement (the IP Security Agreement) with the Lender granting the Lender a security interest in substantially all of the Company's intellectual property. In addition, on March 24, 2005, the Company and Lender entered into an Amendment (the Amendment) to the Loan Agreement that, during the period from March 24 to March 31, 2005, increases the maximum amount that may be borrowed against the value of the Company's intellectual property to $16 million. The descriptions of the IP Security Agreement and the Amendment set forth above are qualified in their entirety by reference to the IP Security Agreement and the Amendment, which are attached as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively.
