ARCADIS SELECTED FOR $ 320 MILLION CONTRACT BY U.S. ARMY

ARNHEM, THE NETHERLANDS June 17, 2005 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF, EURONEXT: ARCAD), the international consultancy and engineering company, announced today that it has been selected for a five-year contract by the U.S. Army through the U.S. Army Environmental Center (USAEC) to provide guaranteed remediation services.

ARCADIS is one of several companies selected to provide services under a multiple award Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity contract for an environmental cleanup at Army installations in support of the broad spectrum of the Army's Cleanup Strategy. The total potential value of the contract ceiling is $320 million. The contract will be implemented through competitively bid task orders that provide the best value to the government for sites that are located throughout the United States, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

The ARCADIS team will be responsible for fully executing each performance-based task order by conducting required environmental restoration services for which the United States Department of the Army (the Army) is statutorily responsible; addressing any and all unforeseen environmental, scheduling, and regulatory issues; and assuming contractual liability and responsibility for the achievement of the performance objectives for the sites specified in each task order, including both on- and off-site contamination for which the Army is responsible.

We appreciate the fact that USAEC has selected ARCADIS for this contract, said Steve Blake, CEO of ARCADIS G&M. Under our GRiP® Remediation Program we have been providing similar services to the Army and USAEC since 2000. We currently have 11 on-going guaranteed remediation projects for the Army alone, and have successfully closed the DOD's only site under this contracting methodology. We are grateful that our valued customer has chosen ARCADIS to continue to provide cost and time savings under our industry leading program.

ARCADIS is an international company that provides project management, consultancy and engineering services to enhance mobility, sustainability and quality of life. Infrastructure Environment Buildings. ARCADIS develops, designs, implements, maintains and operates projects. For companies and governments. With 10,000 employees and 900 million in gross revenue the company is multi-nationally present with a close-knit local network. Expertise and experience are of international significance. Focused on providing added value to clients.
