During the fiscal year 2006, four meetings of the Board of Directors were held. Each of the incumbent Directors attended 75% or more of the aggregate of (1) the total number of Board meetings and (2) the total number of meetings held by all Board Committees on which he served. Non-management Directors were each paid an annual retainer of $22,000 and fees of $2,000 for attendance at each meeting of the Board and $1,000 for attendance at each meeting of any Committee of which a Director is a Member. The Chairman of the Audit Committee receives an additional $10,000 per year for his service in this position. Non-management directors also participate in the Corporation's 1998 Stock Option Plan and each have been granted options to purchase 4,500 shares of the common stock of the Corporation in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Directors who are salaried employees of the Corporation are not separately compensated for their services as Directors. All Directors are reimbursed for travel expenses incurred for attendance at meetings.

Audit and Compliance Committee

All non-management directors are members of this Committee. The Committee met six times during the fiscal year. Each of the members of the Committee is independent as defined under Section 121(A) of the Company Guide of the American Stock Exchange. The Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors which is available at www.cubic.com/corp1/invest/governance. Mr. Weaver has been designated by the Board as the Audit Committee Financial Expert.

The Committee oversees the Corporation's financial reporting process. It is responsible for the appointment, retention and termination of the independent auditors and their compensation. It shall resolve any disputes between management and the auditors. It must pre-approve all audit and non-audit services according to a written plan and budget submitted by the auditors. It meets at least quarterly with the auditors and reviews periodic reports from the auditors. The Committee discusses with the auditors the scope and plan for the audit and includes management in its review of accounting and financial controls, assessment of business risks and legal and ethical compliance programs.

Report of the Audit and Compliance Committee

The material in this report is not soliciting material, is not deemed filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not to be incorporated by reference into any filing of Cubic under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Committee selected Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Corporation for fiscal year 2006. The Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors the audited financial statements of the Corporation for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006. The Committee has also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Accounting Standards No. 61 and has received from Ernst & Young LLP the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the independence of Ernst & Young LLP.

Based on its review of the audited financial statements for fiscal year 2006 and its discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Committee recommended to the Corporation's Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K.

Executive Compensation Committee

The members of this Committee are Dr. Robert S. Sullivan, Chairman, Robert T. Monagan and Raymond E. Peet. The Committee held three meetings during fiscal 2006. Each of the members of the Committee is independent as defined under Section 121(A) of the Company Guide of the American Stock Exchange. The base and bonus compensation of the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers are set taking into consideration individual and corporate performance and compensation of executives employed by competitors.

During the fiscal year, no executive officer of the Corporation served either as a director or as a member of the compensation committee of any other entity whose executive officers served either as a Director or as a member of the Executive Compensation Committee of the Corporation. No member of the Committee is a former or current Officer or employee of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries.

Report of the Executive Compensation Committee

The material in this report is not soliciting material, is not deemed filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not to be incorporated by reference into any filing of Cubic under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Compensation Philosophy

The Corporation's goal is pay for performance and therefore the Corporation uses a merit philosophy. The objective is to reward performance and remain competitive by setting the base salaries and incentive compensation of the Corporation's executive officers to attract and retain qualified people necessary for the continued successful operation and growth of the Corporation and its subsidiaries.

Elements of Executive Compensation

During the last fiscal year, Cubic's compensation structure for executive officers consisted of a combination of base salary and a subjective performance bonus. Executive officers are also entitled to participate in benefit plans generally available to all full-time employees. Historically, the Corporation has not used stock awards as part of its compensation of executive officers. The Chief Executive Officer and other executives may receive stock awards in the future pursuant to the Corporation's equity incentive plan, but there are no current plans to include such awards in the executives' total compensation.

The base and bonus compensation of the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers are set taking into consideration individual and corporate performance and compensation of executives employed by competitors. The Corporation determines what percentage of payroll should be established as a merit fund and used for merit increases. The application of the merit process is carried out within each business unit with the assistance of the Human Resources Department, and the base salary structure is annually reviewed in relation to the practices of companies in similar businesses and of similar size. Competitive input on base, bonus and non-cash compensation is received from at least two nationally recognized compensation surveys, with a focus on technology companies that are comparable to Cubic in revenues. The data is ranked by percentile, from 5th percentile to 95th percentile, and the Corporation's compensation is targeted at the median of the base and bonus compensation, but is below median when non-cash compensation is included. This data is then reviewed with the senior executives of the business units and with the corporate office. The Committee receives and acts upon the relevant salary and bonus recommendations from management.

The Committee is currently considering a new long-term incentive bonus plan covering the three-year period beginning with fiscal 2007. However, the annual incentive bonus plan for fiscal 2006 in which certain executives, recommended by senior management and approved by the Committee, participated, was based on a subjective determination of each individual executive's performance during fiscal 2006 and the objectives attained by such executive's business units. Executive officers' bonuses for fiscal 2006 were generally flat relative to the fiscal 2005 bonuses because of the mixed results of growth in revenue and earnings contribution in the Corporation's defense segment and revenue and earnings issues in the Corporation's transportation segment.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Committee's approach to establishing the compensation of Walter J. Zable, the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, was based upon the analyses discussed above. Mr. Zable's base salary has remained relatively flat for three years. Additionally, Mr. Zable was granted an annual performance bonus of $250,000 for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, which is consistent with the bonus philosophy for all executive officers.

/s/ Robert T. Monagan

/s/ Raymond E. Peet

Nominating Committee

Cubic Corporation has had a Nominating Committee, consisting of two independent directors, since 1991. The current members of the Committee are Robert T. Monagan, Chairman and Raymond E. Peet. The Committee held one meeting during fiscal 2006. The Committee has a Charter, which is available at www.cubic.com/corp1/invest/governance. The Committee has not considered shareholder proposals for nomination as directors in the last eight years and has not received an unsolicited proposal regarding a candidate who might possess appropriate background and experience during that time. The Board consists of nine directors, five of whom are independent. Three of the independent directors were elected 6, 18 and 19 years ago and have served with distinction since their election. No replacement of any director is currently contemplated. The Committee's policy is that it will consider recommendations of the security holders which are received by the Corporate Secretary at least 120 days prior to one year from the date of the previous annual meeting of shareholders. Recommendations of candidates who have at least 20 years of management and defense or transportation industry experience with a company with sales of at least 75% of that of the Corporation, or who could bring appropriate diversity to the Board, or who possess other relevant qualifications (for example finance and accounting, marketing) would be preferred. If a vacancy in the Board occurs, the Committee consults with Board members and senior management personnel to identify candidates whom they would recommend be considered and will review any security holder recommendations on file. It screens and personally interviews appropriate candidates. Selected candidates meet with some additional Board members, certain members of management and the Chairman of the Board. The Committee evaluates responses and recommends to the full Board the name of any candidate it feels should become a management and Board nominee for election or appointment.

In 2000 Gerald R. Dinkel was employed by the Corporation as Vice President of the Corporation and President and Chief Executive Officer of the Defense Group. To assist Mr. Dinkel in the purchase of a home and the relocation of his family from Maryland to San Diego, California, the Corporation loaned Mr. Dinkel the sum of $200,000 on a 5% interest bearing promissory note payable in five equal annual installments commencing in 2006 to be secured by a second trust deed on the property purchased. Mr. Dinkel paid the full principal amount of this loan in fiscal 2006 and the Board of Directors waived the interest on the loan at that time.

The compensation shown does not include contributions by the Corporation under its defined benefit Employees Pension Plan (the Pension Plan) because the amount of such contributions in respect to a specified person cannot be readily calculated. The Corporation's contributions to the Pension Plan are distributed among various funds held by an insurance company. They are actuarially determined for the total of all participants covered by the Pension Plan. The contribution averages about 3% of the participants' remuneration. Generally, all participants in the Pension Plan earn the right to receive a monthly pension at the Pension Plan's normal retirement date of age 65 in an amount equal to 1/12th of 3/4ths of 1% of their total earnings (including bonuses) since 1974. Participants who retire before the age of 65 are entitled to a percentage of the monthly pension, with the percentage being determined by dividing the sum of years of service and age at retirement by 85. The benefits to be paid under the Pension Plan are not subject to adjustments for Social Security benefits or other offsets.

Estimated Annual Benefits Under the Cubic Corporation Pension Plan

Average Annual Compensation	At Retirement Age of 65
	10 Years of Service	20	30	40
$ 50,000	$ 3,750	$ 7,500	$ 11,250	$ 15,000
100,000	7,500	15,000	22,500	30,000
150,000	11,250	22,500	33,750	45,000
200,000	15,000	30,000	45,000	60,000

Compensation calculation for purposes of the Pension Plan is limited by ERISA regulations to $210,000 during the year ended September 30, 2006.

The years of credited service in the Pension Plan for the listed individuals are: 57 years for W. J. Zable, 44 years for W. C. Zable, 23 years for W. W. Boyle, 46 years for R. deKozan, 6 years for G. Dinkel and 29 years for R. Efland.

This Plan has been frozen as of January 1, 2007 and accrued benefits are also frozen, to be paid upon retirement in accord with the Plan.

In lieu of continuing this Plan the Board has amended the Company's Profit Sharing Plan to add a matching contribution to each eligible employee's 401(k) contribution. The matching amount is currently set at 100% of the participant's pre-tax contribution amount, but not in excess of 3% of the Participant's compensation for the pay period.

Transition Protection Plan

The Corporation has adopted a Transition Protection Plan (the Protection Plan). The Protection Plan is intended to be made available to certain of its executive officers and may be offered to other key personnel who are not executive officers. Currently, no executive has been selected to participate in the Protection Plan. Typical for agreements of this type, if there is any change of control of the Corporation (defined to include the acquisition by an unrelated party of sufficient shares of the Corporation to elect a majority of its Board of Directors), and within 24 months thereafter a subject executive's employment terminates without good cause (as defined), or the executive resigns for good reason (as defined), then the Corporation would be obligated for a specified period of time (not exceeding 24 months) following such termination to pay such executive's monthly compensation based upon a five-year average of annual salary and bonuses, and continue welfare plans in which such executive participated. Miscellaneous additional benefits, including outplacement service, could also be provided.

Based solely on a review of SEC Forms 3 and 4 and amendments thereto, furnished to the Corporation during fiscal year 2006, and Forms 5 and amendments thereto furnished to the Corporation with respect to its most recent fiscal year, and written representations received from our directors and officers, no Director, Officer, or beneficial owner of more than 10% of the Common Stock of the Corporation failed to file on a timely basis the reports required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The above graph compares the performance of Cubic Corporation with that of the S&P 500 Index, and a peer group index. Our peer group index is the Space, Aerospace and Defense Index ( SPADE ) which is a modified capitalization-weighted industry index consisting today of 57 publicly traded companies, including Cubic. This index benchmarks performance of companies involved with defense, homeland security and space. This index may be found at www.spadeindex.com, or within the American Stock Exchange, symbol ^DXS , or at Google SPADE Defense Index. The chart assumes that $100 was invested on September 29, 2001, in each of Cubic Corporation, the S&P 500 Index and the peer group index, and compares the cumulative shareholder return on investment as of September 30th of each of the following five years. CONFIRMATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Ernst & Young LLP has audited the Corporation's books and records since 1959 and are continuing as its auditors. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the shareholders' meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board is seeking your confirmation of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2007. Our organizational documents do not require that our shareholders confirm the selection of our independent auditors. We are doing so because we believe it is a matter of good corporate practice. If our shareholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will investigate the reasons for rejection and reconsider whether or not to retain Ernst & Young LLP, but still may retain them. Even if the selection is confirmed, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed in fiscal years 2006 and 2005, respectively, for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the Audit of the Corporation's annual financial statements and internal controls and the review of financial statements included in the Corporation's SEC Form 10-Q were: $1,292,000 and $1,347,000.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed in fiscal years 2006 and 2005, respectively, for assurance and related services by Ernst & Young LLP that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or financial statement review which are not reported under Audit Fees above were $64,200 and $114,500. These fees included attendance at Audit Committee meetings, statutory audits of foreign subsidiaries and employee benefit plans and related matters.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed in fiscal years 2006 and 2005, respectively, for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning were $33,600 and $88,400. These fees were primarily for statutory foreign annual tax returns and compliance.

All Other Fees

No other fees were billed in fiscal 2006 or 2005.

Other Matters

The Audit Committee has adopted policy and procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP. The policy generally pre-approves specified services in the defined categories of audit services, audit-related services, and tax services up to specified amounts. Pre-approval may also be given as part of the Audit Committee's approval of the scope of the engagement of the independent auditor or on an individual explicit case-by-case basis before the independent auditor is engaged to provide each service. The pre-approval of services may be delegated to one or more of the Audit Committee's members, but the decision must be reported to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. During fiscal years 2006 and 2005 the Audit Committee did not waive any requirement for pre-approval of any services by Ernst & Young LLP. The Committee approved all auditor services and fees as required by laws in effect at the time the services were commenced.
