Item 3.01
of Listing

Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer

On March 19, 2007, The AES Corporation (the Company) received a written notice from the NYSE Regulation, Inc. (the NYSE notice), stating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE s continuing listing criteria under Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual because it had not timely filed its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. Under Section 802.01E, the NYSE will monitor the status of the Company s late filing and related public disclosures for up to a six-month period. If the Company does not file its annual report within six months from the filing due date, the NYSE may, in its sole discretion, either delist the Company s securities, which would include the Company s common stock (NYSE symbol: AES) as well as the AES Trust III s Trust Convertible Preferred Securities (NYSE symbol: AES-PC), or allow the Company s securities to trade for up to an additional six months depending on the specific circumstances, as outlined in the rule. The Company currently expects to file its annual report before the expiration of this monitoring period.

The Company s subsidiary, the AES Trust VII (the Trust VII), received a written OTCBB delinquency notification from the NASD (the NASD Notice) stating that the Trust VII is not in compliance with NASD Rule 6530 because the Company did not timely file its report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and, therefore, the Trust VII s Trust Convertible Preferred Securities (OTCCB symbol: AESRO) are subject to delisting from the OTC Bulletin Board after the expiration of a grace period, which ends at the close of business on April 18, 2007. Although the NASD Notice is dated March 19, 2007, the Company did not receive it until March 29, 2007. If the annual report is not filed prior to the expiration of the grace period, the NASD Notice indicates that a hearing may be requested to appeal the determination of delinquency on or before April 17, 2007. If the Company is unable to file its annual report prior to the expiration of the grace period, it intends to request a hearing on behalf of the Trust VII with the expectation that the delisting of the Trust Convertible Preferred Securities from the OTC Bulletin Board would be stayed pending such hearing.
