Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On August 15, 2007, Daniel D. Reichel resigned as Vice President of Finance and Treasurer from PRB Energy, Inc. (PRB). His departure is effective immediately and was not the result of any disagreement with PRB. He will be replaced by Rick H. Lawler as PRB s Vice President of Finance.

Mr. Lawler, age 52, was the Chief Financial Officer of WRC Corporation, an integrated land management and engineering consulting company serving the pipeline, power and transportation industries prior to it being acquired in 2006. Prior to joining WRC, from 1999 to 2005, and again in 2007, Mr. Lawler provided consulting services to a broad range of publicly traded companies, primarily in the energy industry, leading SOX compliance projects to develop and implement Business Process and Internal Control enhancements. Mr. Lawler s consulting experience also includes leadership roles in infrastructure assessment and development, strategy initiation, IT system solutions, GAAP-conforming control policies and banking relationship management. He also performed interim Finance and Accounting management services for several SEC registrant entities and led multiple M&A due diligence teams.

Mr. Lawler is a Texas licensed certified public accountant and is an MBA from Oklahoma City University in 1994. He also holds a BA, Political Science with additional accounting concentration courses, from Texas State University completed in 1978.

Mr. Lawler will receive an annual salary and will be eligible to participate in the Company s Equity Incentive Plan. The salary amount, type and amount of equity incentive awards to be awarded to Mr. Lawler will be discussed and determined by the Board of Directors at their next meeting. A copy of the Company s Equity Incentive Plan is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.23 to the Company s Report on Form 8-K on June 5, 2007.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
