Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 10, 2007, Catalyst Semiconductor, Inc. (Catalyst) entered into Severance Agreements (the Agreements) with the following executive officers of Catalyst: David Eichler, its Vice President of Finance and Administration and Chief Financial Officer; and Scott Brown, its Vice President, Marketing for Analog/Mixed-Signal Products. The Agreements were effective immediately.

Except as otherwise noted below, the Agreements have substantially the same terms. The following is a summary of the material terms of the Agreements:

- In the event of the officer's involuntary termination (as defined in the Agreements), death or disability prior to or more than 12 months following a change in control (as defined in the Agreements) of Catalyst, the officer and Catalyst will negotiate in good faith a consulting arrangement for a period of 6 months (9 months in the case of Mr. Eichler) pursuant to which the officer will be compensated for such consulting services based upon a full-time monthly rate equal to the officer's monthly base salary on the date of termination. If, however, the officer and Catalyst cannot agree upon the terms of the consulting arrangement, the officer will be entitled to a lump-sum severance payment upon the termination equal to 6 months' base salary (9 months in the case of Mr. Eichler). Catalyst will also pay for continuing health insurance coverage for the officers for a period of 6 months following the date of termination (9 months in the case of Mr. Eichler).
 - In the event of the officer's involuntary termination (as defined in the Agreements), death or disability within 12 months following a change in control (as defined in the Agreements) of Catalyst (a Change in Control Termination), the officer and Catalyst will negotiate in good faith a consulting arrangement for a period of 9 months (12 months in the case of Mr. Eichler) pursuant to which the officer will be compensated for such consulting services based upon a full-time monthly rate equal to the officer's monthly base salary on the date of termination. If, however, the officer and Catalyst cannot agree upon the terms of the consulting arrangement, the officer will be entitled to a lump-sum severance payment upon the termination equal to 9 months' base salary (12 months in the case of Mr. Eichler). Catalyst will also pay for continuing health insurance coverage for the officers for a period of 9 months following the date of termination (12 months in the case of Mr. Eichler). In addition, all unvested options and shares of restricted common stock held by the officer will immediately vest upon such termination.
 - The Agreements provide that the officers may not solicit Catalyst's employees or customers for a period of 6 months following any termination of employment (9 months in the case of Mr. Eichler), except that this period will be extended to 9 months following a Change in Control Termination (12 months in the case of Mr. Eichler). In addition, the officers must provide a general release of claims as a condition of the severance payments described above.

- Any successor to Catalyst (whether direct or indirect and whether by purchase, merger, consolidation, liquidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of Catalyst's business and/or assets will assume the obligations under the Agreements and agree expressly to perform the obligations under the Agreements in the same manner and to the same extent as Catalyst would be required to perform such obligations in the absence of a succession.

The foregoing description of the Agreements is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each agreement. The Agreements are attached as Exhibits 10.101 and 10.102 hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.
