Staples Settles Its Offer for All Outstanding Securities of

Corporate Express and Announces Delisting of Corporate Express

Ordinary Shares and ADSs

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., July 9, 2008 Staples, Inc. (Nasdaq: SPLS) and its wholly owned subsidiary Staples Acquisition B.V. (Staples Acquisition) and Corporate Express N.V. (Corporate Express) jointly announce that Staples Acquisition has settled its offer (Offer) for all the issued and outstanding ordinary shares (Ordinary Shares), American depositary shares (ADSs) and depositary receipts for preference A shares (Preference A Shares) that were validly tendered in the Offer (or otherwise defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by Staples Acquisition) in the share capital of Corporate Express and the two percent subordinated convertible bonds due 2010 (Bonds).

Corporate Express shareholders and bondholders who have not yet accepted the Offer may still tender their shares and Bonds until July 16, 2008, 17:30 CET, as earlier announced on July 2, 2008. As soon as possible after July 16, 2008, Staples Acquisition intends to start legal proceedings to acquire 100 percent of the issued and outstanding share capital of Corporate Express. In addition, Corporate Express expects to redeem any Bonds that remain outstanding after July 16, 2008. Bondholders whose Bonds are redeemed after July 16, 2008 will receive the principal amount of EUR 1,000 per Bond plus any and all accrued interest which will be less than the price per Bond of EUR 1,346.71 which will be paid to bondholders who tender their Bonds prior to July 16, 2008 as part of the Offer.

Delisting, Deregistration and Termination of Reporting Obligations

As soon as legally possible, Staples Acquisition and Corporate Express intend to terminate the listing of the Ordinary Shares and Preference A Shares on Euronext Amsterdam (Euronext) and ADSs on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). Accordingly, a Form 25 with respect to the delisting of the ADSs will be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on or about July 9, 2008. It is anticipated that the delisting of the ADSs on the NYSE will take place on or about July 21, 2008 and the delisting of the Ordinary Shares and Preference A Shares on Euronext will take place on August 7, 2008. Therefore, it is expected that the last day of trading of ADSs on the NYSE will be on or about July 18, 2008 and the last day of trading of the Ordinary Shares and Preference A Shares on Euronext will be on August 6, 2008.

Corporate Express intends to file a Form 15F with the SEC on or about July 21, 2008 to deregister its Ordinary Shares and ADSs and terminate its reporting obligations under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Corporate Express reporting obligations under the Exchange Act will be suspended immediately upon the filing of the Form 15F and the definitive deregistration of the Ordinary Shares and ADSs under the Exchange Act will become effective on or about October 20, 2008, after the applicable 90 day waiting period. In light of the delisting of the Ordinary Shares and the Preference A Shares from Euronext, the delisting of the ADSs from the NYSE and the suspension of its Exchange Act reporting obligations, Corporate Express has decided not to publish its financial results for the first half year of 2008 on August 6, 2008.

However, acceptances of the Offer by holders of shares not residing in The Netherlands will be accepted by Staples Acquisition if such acceptances comply with the acceptance procedure set out in the Offer Memorandum. Persons obtaining the Offer Memorandum are required to take due note and observe all such restrictions and obtain any necessary authorisations, approvals or consents. Neither Staples Acquisition, nor Corporate Express, nor any of their respective affiliates or any of their respective directors, employees or advisers accept any liability for any violation by any person of any such restriction. Any person (including, without limitation, custodians, nominees and trustees) who would or otherwise intends to forward the Offer Memorandum or any related document to any jurisdiction outside The Netherlands should carefully read Part I, Section 1, of the Offer Memorandum (Restrictions and Important Information) before taking any action. The distribution of the Offer Memorandum in jurisdictions other than The Netherlands may be restricted by law and therefore persons into whose possession the Offer Memorandum comes should inform themselves about and observe such restrictions.
