Esko Aho to join Nokia on November 1, 2008 - Veli Sundbäck to retire at the end of May, 2009

Espoo, Finland - Nokia today announced that Mr. Esko Aho, 54, will join Nokia on November 1, 2008. He will become a member of the Nokia Group Executive Board as of January 1, 2009, when he assumes the duties of Executive Vice President, Corporate Relations and Responsibility, the position currently held by Mr. Veli Sundbäck.

Veli Sundbäck will step down from the Nokia Group Executive Board as of December 31, 2008, but will continue in Nokia as an executive advisor until his retirement on May 31, 2009 at the age of 63.

Esko Aho is currently heading the Finnish Innovation Fund (SITRA), a position he took up following his retirement from a long and distinguished political career.

Commenting on his new responsibilities, Mr. Aho said, "I'm excited at joining such a great and truly global company as Nokia. I see this as an inspiring new challenge. There is a lot to learn but I believe I will be able to draw on my experience from both a think tank environment as well as from international politics. It is a privilege to serve on Nokia's Group Executive Board and I really look forward to working with the Nokia team."

Said Olli-Pekka Kallasvuo, Nokia CEO, "Veli Sundbäck brought to Nokia valuable experience and knowledge of international affairs, at a time when Nokia was expanding fast into other markets. Together with his team, he has developed Corporate Relations and Responsibility activities to a world-class level in Nokia thereby contributing to the growth of the business. During the years, we have come to appreciate his insight and leadership in a diverse range of global issues. We wish him all the best for the future and extend a warm welcome to Esko Aho."
