Item 2.04 Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

On October 25, 2011, Power-One, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), sent a redemption notice to the registered holders of its 6.0%/8.0%/10.0% convertible senior notes due 2019 (the Notes) calling for the redemption of all outstanding Notes on November 23, 2011 (the Redemption Date). Pursuant to the terms of the indenture governing the Notes (the Indenture), unless converted into equity securities prior to such date, all Notes outstanding on the Redemption Date will be redeemed at a redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof ($1,000.00 for each $1,000 principal amount of Notes). Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture and the Notes and in lieu of receiving the cash redemption price, holders of the Notes may convert their Notes prior to the Redemption Date into shares of the Company's common stock or, at the election of the holder, into non-voting Series C Junior Participating Convertible Preferred Stock (the Junior Preferred Stock). The Company has been advised that all of the holders of the Notes intend to convert the Notes into 36,375 shares of Junior Preferred Stock which will be convertible into 26,944,444 shares of common stock. Under the terms of the Junior Preferred Stock, the holders of such securities are prohibited, subject to certain limited exceptions, from converting the shares of Junior Preferred Stock into common stock if such conversion would result in the holders owning more than 19.9% of the outstanding common stock.

On October 25, 2011, the Company also sent a notice of automatic conversion to the registered holders of its outstanding Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A Preferred Stock). Pursuant to the terms of the certificate of designation governing the Series A Preferred Stock (the Series A Certificate), all Series A Preferred Stock outstanding on November 8, 2011 (the Conversion Date) will be converted into the Company's common stock at a conversion price of $1.35 per share of common stock, which translates to a rate of 740.7407407 shares of common stock for each share of Series A Preferred Stock. Accordingly, all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock will be converted into 17,500,000 shares of the Company's common stock on the Conversion Date.

The foregoing description of the Indenture and the Series A Certificate is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indenture and the Series A Certificate as previously filed with the Commission on May 8, 2009.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

The information set forth in Item 2.04 of this Form 8-K with respect to the Notes, Series A Preferred Stock, Junior Preferred Stock and shares of common stock issuable upon conversion or exercise thereof is incorporated by reference in this Item 3.02. Shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Junior Preferred Stock will be issued in transactions anticipated to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of Section 4(2) (because the holders of the convertible securities are accredited investors and the transactions do not involve a public offering) and/or Section 3(a)(9) thereof (because the conversions entail an exchange by the Company with its existing security holders exclusively, and no commission or other remuneration would be paid or given, directly or indirectly, for soliciting the exchange).

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 27, 2011, the Company issued a press release announcing that it has called for redemption of all outstanding Notes on November 23, 2011 and conversion of all outstanding Series A Preferred Stock on November 8, 2011. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3.
