PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

AdCare Health Systems, Inc. (the Company) has determined that it is unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense for the reasons described below.

As disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 13, 2013, (i) the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the Audit Committee), in consultation with management, concluded that the Company's previously issued financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2012, June 30, 2012 and September 30, 2012 (the Relevant Financial Statements) should no longer be relied upon due to errors in the Relevant Financial Statements which have been identified in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012; and (ii) the Company intends to restate the Relevant Financial Statements by amending its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2012, June 30, 2012 and September 30, 2012. The errors in the Relevant Financial Statements include classifying $21.2 million of indebtedness (consisting of three separate credit facilities) owing to Private Bank and Trust Company as long-term debt instead of a current liability as of June 30, 2012 and September 30, 2012, and additional errors relating to, among other things, the methodology used by the Company in accounting for paid time off since January 1, 2012, as well as certain timing differences between reimbursement accounting methodologies and generally accepted accounting principles.

In light of these errors, the Audit Committee has undertaken a further review of, and inquiry with respect to, certain accounting and financial issues related thereto and has engaged counsel to assist with such matters. The Company will not be able to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 2012 until the Audit Committee completes its review and inquiry, the Company finalizes its review and restatement of the Relevant Financial Statements and, thereafter, the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012 is completed.
