Clarification regarding minority stake in Fortescue

Rio de Janeiro, March 08, 2016 Vale S.A. (Vale) clarifies that the Memorandum of Understanding (announced on March 07, 2016) defines only certain general principles on which Vale and Fortescue Metals Group Ltd. (Fortescue) wish to progress discussions. These discussions include, amongst others, the optionality to undertake joint mining developments together with Fortescue in Australia and the optionality to take a minority stake in Fortescue in the long term.

Vale states that its short to medium term strategic priorities are to complete the S11D project and to deleverage its balance sheet in order to improve its financial flexibility.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
