ConocoPhillips

Welcome to our annual meeting of stockholders website.

Here you will find information about our company, tools to vote your proxy, and access to participate in our virtual annual meeting on Tuesday, May 16th. More on that shortly.

The 2017 Proxy Statement outlines what we will discuss at the meeting. It also provides further information on our company, senior leadership, our policies and the measures we take to provide good corporate governance.

To broaden access and enhance participation, we're changing the meeting format this year. Instead of an in-person event, we will host our meeting online. So regardless of where you live, you can participate via the Internet while having the same opportunity for dialogue among shareholders, management and directors as in the past. Just follow the directions posted on this site.

Whether or not you plan to participate in the meeting, please make sure to vote your shares. You can do so through this website or by mail. Please vote as soon as possible.

During 2016 the entire oil and natural gas industry had to adjust to a new reality: price volatility was here to stay. ConocoPhillips faced difficult decisions, but also saw an opportunity to reposition our business.

Last November, we announced an updated value proposition, which is focused on maintaining a strong investment grade balance sheet, growing the dividend and delivering disciplined growth. We also set out five cash allocation priorities for shareholders:

- First, we will invest enough cash to maintain flat production and pay our existing dividend;
- Second, we will grow our dividend;
- Third, we will reduce our debt levels to target an A credit rating;
- Fourth, we will pay out roughly 20 to 30 percent of our cash from operating activities to shareholders through a combination of the dividend and share buybacks; and

- Fifth, we'll grow production.

By early this year, all five priorities had been activated. And we delivered against all of them.

We believe our strategy will enable us to weather the low-price cycles and outperform during the upcycles.

You can learn more about our performance and how we'll safely execute our plan by joining our virtual annual meeting on Tuesday, May 16th at 9 a.m. Central Time.

Remember, your vote is very important, so please cast your ballot to ensure your shares are represented.

Thank you for your continued support. I look forward to speaking with you soon.
