Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 26, 2018, Greg Smith, who alleges he is a stockholder of PHH Corporation, a Maryland corporation (the Company), commenced an action in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey against the Company and its directors. The plaintiff alleges that the defendants are violating various provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, because the public disclosures the Company has made in its preliminary proxy statement concerning the proposed merger of POMS Corp, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ocwen Financial Corporation (Ocwen), with and into the Company with the Company surviving the merger and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ocwen, on the terms and conditions of that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 27, 2018 by and among Ocwen, Merger Sub and the Company, allegedly are false and misleading. The plaintiff purports to sue on behalf of a class consisting of all of the Company's common stockholders except for the defendants and their affiliates. The plaintiff seeks an injunction preventing consummation of the proposed transaction, the award of damages in an unspecified amount, and the award of litigation expenses in an unspecified amount. The outcome of this lawsuit is uncertain. The defendants believe the action is without merit.
