Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 22, 2018, Cummins Inc. (the Company) entered into a credit agreement (the New 5-Year Credit Agreement) by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries (together with the Company, the Borrowers) and the lenders named therein (the 5-Year Lenders). Under the New 5-Year Credit Agreement, which will mature on August 22, 2023 (the Maturity Date), the Borrowers may obtain revolving and swingline loans and letters of credit, in each case subject to certain amount limitations, in an amount up to $2.0 billion in the aggregate outstanding at any time prior to the Maturity Date. The New 5-Year Credit Agreement replaces the Prior 5-Year Credit Agreement (as defined below).

On August 22, 2018, the Company also entered into a 364-day credit agreement (the New 364-Day Credit Agreement, together with the New 5-Year Credit Agreement, the Credit Agreements) by and among the Company, the other Borrowers party thereto and the lenders named therein (the 364-Day Lenders, together with the 5-Year Lenders, the Lenders). Under the New 364-Day Credit Agreement, the Borrowers may obtain revolving and swingline loans, in each case subject to certain amount limitations, in an amount up to $1.5 billion in the aggregate outstanding at any time prior to August 21, 2019 (the Commitment Termination Date). The New 364-Day Credit Agreement replaces the Prior 364-Day Credit Agreement (as defined below).

The borrowings under the Credit Agreements will not be secured with liens on any of the Company's or its subsidiaries' assets. The Company will guarantee all borrowings by the subsidiary Borrowers under the Credit Agreements.

The Company may from time to time (a) prior to the Commitment Termination Date, increase the maximum availability under the New 364-Day Credit Agreement by up to $500 million and (b) prior to the Maturity Date, increase the maximum availability under the New 5-Year Credit Agreement by up to $1.0 billion, in each case if certain conditions are satisfied, including (i) the absence of any default or event of default under the applicable Credit Agreement, and (ii) the Company obtaining the consent of the Lenders participating in each such increase. In addition, prior to the Commitment Termination Date, the Company may, by notice to the administrative agent and subject to certain other conditions set forth in the New 364-Day Credit Agreement including the absence of any default or event of default thereunder, elect to convert all or a ratable portion of the outstanding revolving loans under the New 364-Day Credit Agreement into term loans (the Term-Out Option) that will mature on the first anniversary of the Commitment Termination Date. The Borrowers will pay a fee to the 364-Day Lenders equal to 0.5% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding revolving loans converted into term loans pursuant to the Term-Out Option.

Borrowings under the Credit Agreements will bear interest at varying rates, depending on the type of loan and, in some cases, the rates of designated benchmarks and the Borrower's election. For all borrowings under the Credit Agreements, Borrowers may choose among the following interest rates: (i) solely in the case of U.S. dollar-denominated loans, an interest rate equal to the highest of (1) the prime rate in effect from time to time, (2) the greater of (A) the federal funds effective rate in effect from time to time and (B) the overnight bank funding rate in effect from time to time, in each case plus 0.5% and (3) the Adjusted LIBO Rate for a one month interest period plus 1.00%; (ii) an interest rate equal to the Adjusted LIBO Rate for the applicable interest period plus a rate ranging from 0.50% to 1.00%, depending on the credit rating of the Company's senior unsecured long-term debt; or (iii) solely in the case of swingline loans, another rate agreed to by the applicable Lender and the applicable Borrower. The Adjusted LIBO Rate is a rate determined by reference to the rate payable on deposits in the relevant currency in the London interbank market. Currently, the Company's senior unsecured long-term debt is rated A2 by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. and A+ by Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC, which would result in a rate of the Adjusted LIBO Rate plus 0.75% under (ii) above. Credit ratings are not recommendations to buy and are subject to change, and each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating. In addition, the Company undertakes no obligation to update disclosures concerning its credit ratings, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

The Credit Agreements contain customary events of default and financial and other covenants, including a financial covenant requiring that the ratio of the total debt of the Company and its subsidiaries to the consolidated total capital of the Company and its subsidiaries as of the last day of each fiscal quarter not be greater than 0.65:1.

There are no material relationships between the Company or its affiliates and any of the Lenders, other than in connection with the Credit Agreements. The description of each Credit Agreement set forth above is qualified by reference to the New 364-Day Credit Agreement and the New 5-Year Credit Agreement, as applicable, filed herewith as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 22, 2018, the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2015, by and among the Company, certain subsidiaries referred to therein and the lenders party thereto (the Prior 5-Year Credit Agreement), was replaced by the New 5-Year Credit Agreement. Under the Prior 5-Year Credit Agreement, which would have matured on November 13, 2020, the borrowers and lenders were able to enter into revolving and swingline loans and issuances of letters of credit, in each case subject to certain amount limitations, in an amount up to $1.75 billion in the aggregate outstanding at any time prior to maturity.

In addition, on August 22, 2018, the 364-Day Credit Agreement, dated as of September 5, 2017, by and among the Company, certain subsidiaries referred to therein and the lenders party thereto (the Prior 364-Day Credit Agreement) was replaced by the New 364-Day Credit Agreement. Under the Prior 364-Day Credit Agreement, under which the commitments would have terminated on September 4, 2018, the borrowers and lenders were able to enter into revolving and swingline loans, in each case subject to certain amount limitations, in an amount up to $1.0 billion in the aggregate outstanding at any time prior to maturity.

The borrowings under both the Prior 5-Year Credit Agreement and the Prior 364-Day Credit Agreement were not secured with liens on any of the Company's or its subsidiaries' assets and contained customary events of default and financial and other covenants. On August 22, 2018, there were no loans outstanding under either the Prior 5-Year Credit Agreement or the Prior 364-Day Credit Agreement.
