Our Board of Directors has considered the experience, qualifications, attributes and skills of its membership in light of our business and structure, and concluded that each of our existing directors should serve on the Board. In particular, the Board considered:

• Mr. Aquino’s experience as a public company chief executive officer and telecommunications executive and his extensive operating experience with digital, high speed data and voice services, as this experience complements Primus’ operating and strategic objectives, including in particular our Growth Services objectives.

• Mr. Scheiwe’s experience as the chief executive and a director of multiple telecommunications companies provides him with relevant industry experience and his ten years of consulting experience provides him with valuable insight into evaluating corporate risk, opportunity and strategic direction, plus his business management experience and experience serving on public company boards of directors and various audit and compensation committees are valuable assets to our Board.

• Mr. Spirtos’ background in investor relations and strategic planning and his significant experience with financings, mergers and acquisitions, telecommunications, technology, legal, tax and regulatory matters are important resources to our Board.

• Mr. Subin’s financial acumen, leadership skills and prior experience enable him to understand the complex business and financial issues that Primus may face and guide Primus to respond effectively to such challenges.

Board of Directors

Size, Composition and Independence of Board of Directors. The size of our Board of Directors is determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, subject to requirements of Primus's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws described below. Under our Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Board resolutions, the number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors has been initially fixed at five (5) directors. See Item 13 "Director Independence" regarding our independence determinations.

Potential Future Additions to our Board of Directors. As of the date of this report, the size of the Board of Directors is fixed at five (5) members, including four current members and one vacancy arising from the resignation of K. ## Board Committees

The Board of Directors maintains a standing Audit Committee, a standing Compensation Committee, and a standing Nominating and Governance Committee.

Audit Committee and Audit Committee Financial Expert

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Audit Committee held 6 meetings. The Audit Committee currently consists of Steven Scheiwe (Chairman), John Spirtos and Neil Subin. The Audit Committee has the authority and responsibility to hire an independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's books, records and financial statements, to discuss with such independent registered public accounting firm the results of such audit and review, to conduct periodic independent reviews of the systems of accounting (including systems of internal control), and to make reports periodically to the Board of Directors with respect to its findings.

The Board of Directors has determined that each Audit Committee member, other than Mr. Spirtos, met the independence requirements applicable to audit committee members under The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (the "Nasdaq Rules") and that each Audit Committee member met the independence requirements of the SEC under Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Prior to becoming our Acting Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Spirtos served on the Audit Committee and met the independence requirements under the Nasdaq rules. After Mr. Spirtos completed his services as our Chief Executive Officer, he was re-appointed to the Audit Committee on November 5, 2010. Although Mr. Spirtos does not currently meet the independent requirements under the Nasdaq Rules, he is deemed by our Board of Directors to be independent under our Corporate Governance Guidelines. Of the current committee members, our Board has determined that Mr. Scheiwe is an "audit committee financial expert" as such term is defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC and that Mr. Scheiwe is independent of management under Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Audit Committee is responsible, among its other duties, for engaging, overseeing, evaluating and replacing the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, pre-approving all audit and non-audit services by the independent registered public accounting firm, reviewing the scope of the audit plan and the results of each audit with management and the independent registered public accounting firm, reviewing the internal audit function, reviewing the adequacy of the Company's system of internal accounting controls and disclosure controls and procedures, reviewing the financial statements and other financial information included in the Company's annual and quarterly reports filed with the SEC, and exercising oversight with respect to the Company's code of conduct and other policies and procedures regarding adherence with legal requirements. The Audit Committee's duties are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at www.ptgi.com.

Compensation Committee

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Compensation Committee held 8 meetings. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Steven Scheiwe and Neil Subin (Chairman). The Compensation Committee is responsible for fixing the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers, deciding other compensation matters such as those relating to the operation of the Primus Telecommunications Group, Incorporated Management Compensation Plan, as amended (the "Management Compensation Plan"), including the award of equity instruments under the Management Compensation Plan, and administering and approving the Company's management bonus plan.

Each of Messrs. Scheiwe and Subin is an "independent director" under our Corporate Governance Guidelines and as that term is defined in the Nasdaq Rules. Under these rules, as applicable, the recommendation and determination of the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's other executive officers rests with the responsibility of those directors who meet the independence requirements prescribed by such rules. A copy of the Compensation Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at www.ptgi.com.

Nominating and Governance Committee; Corporate Governance Guidelines

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Nominating and Governance Committee held 4 meetings. The Nominating and Governance Committee currently consists of Steven Scheiwe and Neil Subin (Chairman). Each Committee member meets the independence requirements under our Corporate Governance Guidelines and as prescribed by the Nasdaq Rules. The Committee is responsible for recommending candidates for election to the Board of Directors for approval and nomination by the Board of Directors. This Committee also is responsible for making recommendations to the Board of Directors or otherwise acting with respect to corporate governance matters, including Board size and membership qualifications, new director orientation, committee structure and membership, communications with stockholders, and Board and committee self-evaluations. The Charter of the Nominating and Governance Committee, as amended, is available on the Company's website at www.ptgi.com.

Nominating and Governance Committee Charter. The Board of Directors has, by unanimous Board consent, approved the Charter of the Nominating and Governance Committee. This Charter provides that the purpose of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall be to (i) identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve as directors of the Company, (ii) serve as a focal point for communication between such candidates, non-committee directors and the Company's senior management, (iii) recommend such candidates to the Board, and (iv) make such other recommendations to the Board regarding affairs relating to the directors of the Company (excluding director compensation, which is the responsibility of the Compensation Committee) and to advise the Board with respect to Board composition, procedures and committees. Our existing directors (other than Mr. Scheiwe) were elected to the Board in connection with the Reorganization, and future directors will be selected in accordance with the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter and Corporate Governance Guidelines, as described herein.

The Nominating and Governance Charter enumerates qualities needed for, and factors impacting, Board service, including: experience, skills, expertise, diversity (“Diversity Considerations”), personal and professional integrity, character, business judgment, sufficient time to devote to Board matters, conflicts of interest and other relevant factors deemed appropriate in the context of the needs of the Board. In evaluating Diversity Considerations, the Nominating and Governance Committee utilizes an expansive definition of diversity that includes differences of experience, education and talents, among other things. While the Nominating and Governance Committee does not have a formal diversity policy, it seeks to achieve a range of talents, skills and expertise on the Board and evaluates each nominee with regard to the extent to which he or she contributes to this overall mix.

Corporate Governance Guidelines. In addition to the Charter of the Nominating and Governance Committee, the Board has approved, following recommendation by the Nominating and Governance Committee, Corporate Governance Guidelines that provide, among other things, that each member of the Board of Directors of the Company shall:

- dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to ensure the diligent performance of his or her duties;
- comply with the duties and responsibilities set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines and Bylaws of the Company;
- exercise business judgment and act with loyalty and care in conformity with governing law; and
- adhere to the Company’s Code of Ethics and policies adopted by the Board.

These Guidelines provide that directors should be persons of good character who possess all of the following personal characteristics: integrity; accountability; responsibility and high performance standards (through which directors should have a history of achievement).

In evaluating the suitability of individual candidates and nominees, these Guidelines provide that the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Board of Directors shall consider relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following minimum qualifications for Board service:

- A candidate’s general understanding of marketing, finance, corporate strategy and other elements relevant to the operation of a publicly-traded company in today’s business environment;
- A candidate’s understanding of the Company’s business; and
- A candidate’s educational and professional background, experience and character.

These Guidelines provide that the Board, in consultation with the Nominating and Governance Committee, will consider actual or potential related party transactions and any associated impact on director independence.

Director Nomination Process; Departure Policies. The Nominating and Governance Committee may use multiple sources for identifying director candidates, including its own contacts and referrals from other Directors, members of management, the Company’s advisors, and executive search firms. The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders, in accordance with applicable law, rule or regulation, and will evaluate such director candidates in the same manner in which it evaluates candidates recommended by other sources. For those potential new director candidates who appear upon first consideration to meet the Board’s selection criteria, the Nominating and Governance Committee will conduct appropriate inquiries into their background and qualifications and, depending on the result of such inquiries, arrange for in-person meetings with the potential candidates. Directors are obligated to complete orientation training concerning the Company and there are limitations on outside activities directors may engage in, absent Board approval.

In making recommendations for director nominees for the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Nominating and Governance Committee considered written recommendations of director candidates by stockholders received by the Secretary of the Company before April 1, 2011. Recommendations are required to include the candidate's name and contact information and a statement of the candidate's background and qualifications, and must be mailed to Primus Telecommunications Group, Incorporated, 7901 Jones Branch Drive, Suite 900, McLean, Virginia 22102, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for reviewing and making a recommendation to the Board regarding the continued service of a director (i) based upon service to the Company during the director's term, attendance, participation, quality of performance and actual or potential conflicts of interest, and (ii) in the event an employee director's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason or a non-employee director changes his/her primary job responsibility since the time such director was most recently elected to the Board. The Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that members of the Company's management serving on the Board of Directors who cease to serve as a member of the Company's management shall offer his or her resignation from the Board of Directors effective with the last date of employment; while the Board of Directors need not accept such offer of resignation, in general, a member of the Company's management shall not continue to serve as a member of the Board of Directors following such cessation of employment. These Guidelines also provide that Members of the Board of Directors will resign from the Board of Directors upon the occurrence of certain specified sanctions, charges or admissions of fault or liability, subject to the Board's refusal to accept such resignations in certain circumstances.

The foregoing Charter and Guidelines are intended to provide a flexible set of criteria for the effective functioning of the Company's director nominations process. The Nominating and Governance Committee intends to review the Charter and Guidelines at least annually and anticipates that modifications may be necessary from time to time as the Company's needs and circumstances evolve, and as applicable legal or listing standards change. The Nominating and Governance Committee and/or Board may amend the Charter and Guidelines at any time, in which case the most current version will be available on the Company's website at www.ptgi.com.

Stockholder Communications with the Board; Annual Meeting Attendance

The Board of Directors welcomes communications from the Company's stockholders and has adopted a procedure for receiving and addressing those communications. Stockholders may send written communications to either the full Board of Directors or the non-employee directors as a group by writing to the Board of Directors or the non-employee directors at the following address: Board of Directors/Non-Employee Directors, Primus Telecommunications Group, Incorporated, 7901 Jones Branch Drive, Suite 900, McLean, Virginia 22102, Attention: Corporate Secretary. Communications by e-mail should be addressed to corpsec@ptgi.com and marked "Attention: Corporate Secretary" in the "Subject" field. The Corporate Secretary will review and forward all stockholder communications to the intended recipient, except for those stockholder communications that are outside the scope of board matters or duplicative of other communications by the applicable stockholder and previously forwarded to the intended recipient. Directors are expected, absent schedule conflicts, to attend our Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Board Leadership Structure

Mr. Aquino currently serves as both our Chairman of the Board and our Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors considers this leadership structure to be suitable for Primus because it allows one person to lead and represent the Company and the Board of Directors, while also providing for effective oversight by an independent Board. The Board believes that having Mr. Aquino serve in the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer is appropriate for Primus and its stockholders at this time, in view of Mr. Aquino's in-depth knowledge of Primus's business and industry. The Board also believes that the strength of its independent directors, each of whom serves on the Board without any affiliation with management or any stockholder group, mitigates the risk of any potential conflicts that might result from combining the roles of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman.

Effective May 24, 2010, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that the Chairman shall be elected annually by the Board following the Annual Meeting of Stockholders and that in the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors is neither a non-executive nor an "independent" director, the Board of Directors shall select another director to serve as "Lead Independent Director" from among the members of the Board of Directors that are determined at that time by the Board of Directors to be "independent." The Chairman of the Board of Directors may be removed as Chairman of the Board of Directors at any time by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. Mr. Subin currently serves as the Company's Lead Independent Director.

Board Role in Risk Oversight

Primus's Board of Directors supervises and has control over Primus's governance and compliance processes and procedures. As part of this role, the Board of Directors has overall responsibility for risk supervision, with a focus on material risks facing the Company. The Board of Directors primarily discharges its risk supervision responsibilities through its Audit Committee and Compensation Committee functions, each of which reports its activities to the Board. The risk supervision responsibilities of the Board's committees include the following:

- Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is responsible for the supervision of risk policies and processes relating to the financial statements and financial reporting processes. This Committee reviews Primus's risk management procedures and policies and discusses with management Primus's material operating and financial risk exposures and the manner in which such exposures are managed.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee is responsible for evaluating potential compensation-related risks and supervising management's assessment of risks related to employee compensation policies and programs.

Primus's Chief Executive Officer and other members of the Company's senior management team primarily design, implement, execute and monitor Primus's risk management policies and procedures. The Audit Committee meets with our senior management team periodically to review Primus's risk management practices.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Our executive officers, directors and 10% stockholders are required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission reports of ownership and changes in ownership in their holdings in our stock. Based solely on an examination of these reports, all such reports have been timely filed.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a Code of Ethics applicable to all directors, officers and employees, including the chief executive officer, senior financial officers and other persons performing similar functions. The Code of Ethics is a statement of business practices and principles of behavior that support our commitment to conducting business while maintaining the highest standards of business conduct and ethics. Our Code of Ethics covers topics including, but not limited to, compliance resources, conflicts of interest, compliance with laws, rules and regulations, internal reporting of violations and accountability for adherence to the Code. A copy of the Code of Ethics is available on our website at www.ptgi.com. Any amendment of the Code of Ethics or any waiver of its provisions for a director, executive officer or senior financial officer must be approved by the Board of Directors. We will publicly disclose any such waivers or amendments pursuant to applicable SEC and the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board regulations.

Narrative Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

Employment Agreement with Peter D. Aquino. In October 2010, we entered into an employment agreement with Peter D. Aquino, our Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Aquino's employment agreement provides for a term of employment beginning on October 12, 2010 (the "Start Date") until the earlier of (1) March 31, 2014, (2) the termination of Mr. Aquino's employment by either party by written notice of termination given to the other party at least six months in advance of such termination, or (3) Mr. Aquino's death or disability. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Aquino will earn an annualized base salary of $650,000 from the Start Date until December 31, 2011, an annualized base salary of $700,000 from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012, and an annualized base salary of $750,000 from January 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014. The respective annualized base salary will be prorated for the time period of the Start Date to December 31, 2010, and for the time period of January 1, 2014 to March 31, 2014. Mr. Aquino will also be entitled to annual calendar year performance bonuses, with a target cash bonus of 100% of his base salary (the “Target Bonus”) upon accomplishment of certain performance objectives established by the Compensation Committee of the Board. Further, while employed, the Company will pay the premiums on a disability insurance policy for Mr. Aquino and reimburse Mr. Aquino for up to $10,000 in out of pocket medical expenses and financial planning services per year and up to $15,000 in out of pocket legal expenses for the negotiation of the employment agreement.

In addition to the foregoing, the employment agreement provides for four different cash, restricted stock or restricted stock unit awards payable to Mr. Aquino. First, Mr. Aquino will receive a grant of 164,500 restricted shares of common stock of the Company (“Initial Award”) pursuant to the Company’s Management Compensation Plan. The shares subject to the Initial Award will vest in three installments of 54,833 shares, 54,833 shares and 54,834 shares, provided Mr. Aquino is still employed with the Company on each such vesting date, on January 1, 2011, January 1, 2012 and January 1, 2013, respectively.

Second, the employment agreement provides for an initial long term incentive award (the “Initial Long Term Incentive Award”) to reflect a significant and substantial increase above the trailing 60 day average share price of the Company’s common stock prior to the Start Date. The Initial Long Term Incentive Award is composed of three separate award tranches, payable on June 30, 2011 in cash or restricted stock unit awards (“RSUs”) at the Company’s option. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $12.00 any time prior to July 1, 2011, Mr. Aquino will receive $657,996 or 54,833 RSUs. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $14.00 any time prior to July 1, 2011, Mr. Aquino will receive $767,662 or 54,833 RSUs. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $16.00 any time prior to July 1, 2011, Mr. Aquino will receive $877,344 or 54,834 RSUs. As of December 31, 2010 Mr. Aquino had earned the first tranche of the Initial Long Term Incentive Award and the Company determined to pay such award in RSUs.

Third, the employment agreement provides for a second long term incentive award (the “Second Long Term Incentive Award” and, together with the Initial Long Term Incentive Award, the “Long Term Incentive Award”) covering the period commencing on July 1, 2011 through March 31, 2014. The Second Long Term Incentive Award is composed of three separate award tranches, payable within 30 days after the target closing price with respect to which an applicable tranche is attained, and is payable in cash or RSUs at the Company’s option. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $12.00 any time between July 1, 2011 and March 31, 2014, Mr. Aquino will receive $657,996 or 54,833 RSUs. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $14.00 any time between July 1, 2011 and March 31, 2014, Mr. Aquino will receive $767,662 or 54,833 RSUs. If the closing price of the Company’s common stock reaches $16.00 any time between July 1, 2011 and March 31, 2014, Mr. Aquino will receive $877,344 or 54,834 RSUs. Each respective tranche will only be awarded to the extent that the corresponding tranche was not previously awarded under the Initial Long Term Incentive Award. Therefore, no amounts are payable pursuant to the Second Long Term Incentive Award that would be duplicative of any amounts paid pursuant to the Initial Long Term Incentive Award.

Fourth, the employment agreement provides for three different short term incentive awards to be granted in 2011, 2012 and 2013 (together, the “Short Term Incentive Awards” and each, a “Short Term Incentive Award”) of up to an aggregate $5,040,000 in cash or RSUs, at the option of the Company. The vesting of each respective Short Term Incentive Award amount will be based on time and performance. At the time each Short Term Incentive Award is first payable or to vest, one-half of the possible total amount of such respective award will be payable or qualified to vest to Mr. Aquino based on his continued employment at that time. The amount of the other one-half of such Short Term Incentive Award that will become payable or vest will be determined at the time such award is first payable or to vest and be based on achievement of certain operational objectives, established by the Compensation Committee of the Board, in the one-year period following the initial grant of the respective Short Term Incentive Award. The first short term incentive award will be in an amount up to $1,560,000 in cash or RSUs and will be payable or vest equally over a three-year period on March 31, 2012, March 31, 2013 and March 31, 2014. The second short term incentive award will be in an amount up to $1,680,000 in cash or RSUs and will be payable or vest equally over a two year period on March 31, 2013 and March 31, 2014. The third short term incentive award will be in an amount up to $1,800,000 in cash or RSUs and will be payable or vest on March 31, 2014. The amount of RSUs will be determined based on the award amount divided by the trailing 10 day average closing price of the Company’s common stock.

The employment agreement also provides for an increase in the number of shares of the Company’s common stock subject to the Initial Award and the Long Term Incentive Award if the Company issues, within 10 months of the Start Date, more than 1,288,000 shares of the Company’s common stock other than in connection with (i) the exercise, conversion or exchange of previously issued equity securities, or (ii) the exercise, conversion or exchange of previously issued or subsequently issued debt securities or securities issued pursuant to clauses (iii) or (iv) below, or (iii) securities issued pursuant to grants to employees and consultants of the Company, or (iv) securities issued pursuant to any public offering. The amount of the increase will be equal to five percent of the shares issued.

Mr. Aquino is subject to non-compete and non-solicit restrictive covenants during the term of his employment and for a period of one year (regardless of how, when or why Mr. Aquino's employment terminates) following the termination of his employment. Mr. Aquino is also subject to restrictive covenants prohibiting disclosure of confidential information and intellectual property of the Company.

Employment Agreement with James C. Keeley. On May 9, 2009, the Company entered into an employment letter with James C. Keeley. Under the terms of the 2009 employment letter, Mr. Keeley received an annual base salary of $170,000 and an annual discretionary bonus of up to 20% of his base salary, based on Company and personal performance. Effective October 16, 2009, Mr. Keeley's base salary was increased to $190,000 upon becoming Vice President, Corporate Controller and Chief Accounting Officer. On October 16, 2010, Mr. Keeley's annual base salary was increased to $334,000 upon becoming the Company's Interim Chief Financial Officer. On March 23, 2011, the Company entered into an amended and restated employment letter with James C. Keeley in connection with his appointment as Acting Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer (Principal Financial Officer) of the Company. Effective April 1, 2011, Mr. Keeley receives an annual base salary of $285,000 and an annual discretionary bonus of up to 50% of his base salary, based on the achievement of certain performance criteria determined by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Keeley's employment letter also provides that he is eligible to participate in the Company's equity award plans, and if the Company terminates his employment without cause, the Company shall pay him severance benefits in the amount of twelve months of his then-current base salary, plus reimbursement for the Company's portion of monthly COBRA premiums for up to twelve months. According to Mr. Keeley's employment letter, "cause" shall include the following, to be determined in the reasonable judgment of the Company: Mr. Keeley's dishonesty, fraud, misappropriation, embezzlement, willful misconduct or gross negligence with respect to the Company, or any other action in willful disregard of the interests of the Company; Mr. Keeley's refusal or willful failure to satisfactorily perform any duties assigned to him; Mr. Keeley's conviction of, or pleading guilty or no contest to (i) felony, (ii) any misdemeanor (other than a traffic violation), or (iii) any other crime or activity that would impair his ability to perform his duties or impair the business reputation of the Company; Mr. Keeley's failure or refusal to comply with Company standards, policies or procedures; or Mr. Keeley's death or incapacity due to physical or mental illness that results in absence from work for twelve consecutive months.

Employment Agreement with John F. DePodesta. The material terms of the employment agreement with John F. DePodesta are discussed under “– Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control – Separation Agreement with John F. DePodesta” below.

Annual Bonus Determinations. Overall cash incentive bonuses for the Named Executive Officers are payable based upon the following criteria: (i) the Company’s operating and financial performance (principally performance relative to revenue and EBITDA goals); (ii) success in strengthening the balance sheet and improving the liquidity position of the Company; (iii) furthering the Company’s strategic position in the marketplace through developing and executing new strategic product initiatives; (iv) ensuring compliance with SEC and Sarbanes-Oxley requirements; and (v) individual contribution. Incentive bonus awards paid for 2010 performance were awarded on a case-by-case basis, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee and without any standardized weighting of the foregoing criteria. Payouts were made after consideration of the foregoing criteria and emphasis on individualized efforts. Incentive compensation consists of cash bonuses and awards made under the Management Compensation Plan, and the objective is to motivate executives annually, and to promote long-term growth. We refer to these opportunities as “bonus” opportunities consistent with historical practice. In the latter half of the first quarter of each year, the Compensation Committee generally decides whether to grant individual cash bonuses and determines the amount of these bonuses and awards. The performance bonus targets for 2010 for the Company’s Named Executive Officers were based on the criteria stated above. The Compensation Committee’s review of bonuses was based on its knowledge of the Company, its contact with the executives throughout the year and a review of performance, with a primary focus on individual performance as described above.

Benefits. The Company’s Named Executive Officers receive limited benefits that would be considered executive benefits. Most benefits are consistent with those offered generally to employees, which consist of life insurance, travel accident insurance, health insurance, dental insurance, short-term and long-term disability and opportunities to participate in the Company’s 401(k) plan. The Company matches up to 50% of the employee’s 401(k) plan contributions, up to the first 6% of such employee’s salary, with a maximum of $2,000 annually for 2009 and $6,000 annually for 2010.

Severance Arrangement with John B. Spirtos. The Company did not have any severance arrangement with Mr. Spirtos.

Separation Agreement with K. Paul Singh. On October 6, 2010, the Company, Primus Telecommunications, Inc. ("PTI" and together with the Company, the "Companies") and K. Paul Singh entered into a Termination Agreement (the "Singh Termination Agreement") in connection with his termination, as of August 31, 2010 (the "Termination Date"). The Company and Mr. Singh were parties to an Executive Employment Agreement dated April 26, 2007 (the "Singh Employment Agreement") that provided that if Mr. Singh is terminated by the Company without "cause," he is entitled to base salary plus the target annual performance bonus in the year of termination divided by 12 and multiplied by two times years of service (not to exceed a total of two years of severance pay) (the "Severance Period"), plus continued participation in the welfare benefit plans of the Company during the Severance Period.

Pursuant to the Singh Termination Agreement and in satisfaction of the Company's obligations under the Singh Employment Agreement, the Companies are required to make total payments of approximately $3.5 million to Mr. Singh. These payments became due as follows: (1) on March 1, 2011, a lump-sum payment of $3,410,000 (calculated as two times Mr. Singh's annual base salary at the time of his termination of $735,000 plus an assumed target annual performance bonus of $800,000, together with an additional amount provided in consideration for, among other things, execution of a release and in lieu of Mr. Singh's continued participation in the Company's welfare benefit plans); and (2) on October 14, 2010, $19,737.00 to reimburse Mr. Singh for medical and financial planning expenses incurred in 2009 and 2010 (but before September 1, 2010), $829.92 to reimburse him for business expenses submitted to the Companies, and $41,442.69 for the value of his accrued but unused vacation as of the Termination Date. The Companies also agreed to reimburse Mr. Singh for reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the Singh Termination Agreement, up to a maximum of $20,000.

The Singh Termination Agreement acknowledges the provisions for the vesting of (1) 76,619 RSUs for common shares granted to Mr. Singh under his July 2, 2009 Restricted Stock Unit Agreement and (2) 19,155 non-qualified stock options granted to Mr. Singh under a Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement dated July 1, 2009, in each case if the Company achieves targeted 2010 Adjusted EBITDA levels as set forth in those agreements. The Singh Termination Agreement modified the methodology for calculating EBITDA, solely for purposes of determining whether Mr. Singh vests in his RSUs and non-qualified stock options, by excluding from the calculation of EBITDA (1) any inorganic corporate events occurring after August 31, 2010 and (2) the payments made to Mr. Singh pursuant to the Singh Termination Agreement. The Company achieved the targeted 2010 Adjusted EBITDA levels and these awards vested. The remaining unvested RSUs and non-qualified stock options previously awarded to Mr. Singh were cancelled in connection with the termination of Mr. Singh's employment.

Pursuant to the Singh Termination Agreement, Mr. Singh will be required to continue to comply with certain restrictive covenants set forth in the Singh Employment Agreement. The Singh Termination Agreement provides that the non-competition covenants in the Singh Employment Agreement will not be deemed to restrict Mr. Singh from (1) engaging or investing in the non-wholesale telecommunications business in countries other than the United States, Canada, Australia or Brazil or (2) providing restructuring or business advisory services (but provides that the confidentiality and non-solicitation provisions of the Singh Employment Agreement continue to apply with respect to these activities, as well as any others in which he engages).

PTI and Mr. Kloster are parties to a Separation Agreement dated July 1, 2009 (the “Kloster Separation Agreement”). The Kloster Separation Agreement provides, among other things, that if Mr. Kloster is terminated by the Company without “cause,” subject to the execution of a general release of claims and continued compliance with certain restrictive covenants, he is entitled to cash severance payable in installments, equal to one year of annual base salary and his annual bonus target (provided that the combined total of such amounts is not to exceed $650,000) and continuation of certain welfare benefits for a period of twelve months following the date of termination. As of the date of the termination of Mr. Kloster’s employment, no bonus target for 2010 had been set.

Pursuant to the terms of the Kloster Separation Agreement, the Kloster Termination Agreement provides that the Companies have made or will make the following payments to Mr. Kloster: (1) on March 1, 2011, a lump-sum payment of $200,000; (2) commencing on March 15, 2011 and on the fifteenth and last day of each month occurring thereafter through and including August 31, 2011, an amount equal to $16,666.67; (3) on March 1, 2011, a lump-sum payment of $125,000; and (4) on March 31, 2011, and on the last day of each calendar month thereafter through and including August 31, 2011, an amount equal to $20,833.34. In addition, for each month of the first 12 months following the termination of Mr. Kloster’s employment that Mr. Kloster elects to receive COBRA continuation coverage, the Companies will reimburse Mr. Kloster for the amount of the COBRA premium required to be paid for such coverage, and the Companies shall pay Mr. Kloster a lump-sum payment of $46,000 on March 1, 2011, in satisfaction of PTI’s obligations under the Kloster Separation Agreement with respect to Mr. Kloster’s right to participate in the Company’s other welfare benefit plans.

The Company achieved the targeted 2010 Adjusted EBITDA levels and these awards vested. The remaining unvested RSUs and non-qualified stock options previously awarded to Mr. Kloster were cancelled in connection with the termination of Mr. Kloster’s employment.

As a condition to receiving the amounts payable under the Kloster Termination Agreement, Mr. Kloster executed a general release for the benefit of the Companies and their affiliates. Also on September 17, 2010, the Company and Mr. Kloster entered into an agreement regarding certain professional consultation services to be provided by Mr. Kloster for a six-month period following the termination of his employment. Under this agreement, Mr. Kloster was paid the sum of $20,000 per month for each of September, October and November 2010, the sum of $10,000 per month for each of December 2010 and January 2011, and the sum of $5,000 for February 2011.

Treasurer of the Companies. Pursuant to the terms of the Guirgis Separation Agreement, the Companies paid to Mr. Guirgis $95,000, which represents six months of Mr. Guirgis' salary. In addition, for each month of the first six months following the termination of Mr. Guirgis' employment that Mr. Guirgis elects to receive COBRA continuation coverage, the Companies will reimburse Mr. Guirgis for the amount of the COBRA premium required to be paid for such coverage. As a condition to receiving the amounts payable under the Guirgis Separation Agreement, Mr. Guirgis executed a general release for the benefit of the Companies and their affiliates.

Separation Agreement with John F. DePodesta. On March 29, 2010, John F. DePodesta resigned from all of his director, officer and employment positions with the Company and all of its subsidiaries in a mutually agreed upon termination of services. In connection with such resignation, the Companies and Mr. DePodesta entered into a Termination Agreement (the "DePodesta Termination Agreement") in connection with the mutually agreed upon termination of all positions of Mr. DePodesta with the Companies and all of their affiliates effective as of March 31, 2010.

The Companies and Mr. DePodesta are parties to a Separation Agreement dated July 1, 2009 (the “DePodesta Separation Agreement”). Under the DePodesta Termination Agreement, Mr. DePodesta executed a general release for the benefit of the Companies and their affiliates and agreed to certain confidentiality, non-solicitation (two years), non-competition (one year), and cooperation covenants and related contractual obligations. The Company and Mr. DePodesta also agreed to an arrangement for certain professional consultation services to be provided by Mr. DePodesta for up to a six-month period following termination. #### Compensation of Directors

Annual Cash Compensation. From the beginning of 2010 and through the third quarter 2010, the Company paid non-employee directors a quarterly fee of $7,500, reimbursed their expenses and paid a $2,500 supplement for each regular quarterly meeting attended. In November 2010, the cash compensation structure for non-employee directors was revised. Commencing in the fourth quarter 2010, the Company pays non-employee directors the following fees on a quarterly basis in arrears: an annual fee of $40,000 for each non-employee director; $20,000 annual retainer for the Lead Independent Director; $15,000 annual retainer for the Chair of the Audit Committee; $10,000 annual retainer for the Chair of the Compensation Committee; $7,500 annual retainer for the Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee; and $5,000 annual retainer for each non-Chair committee membership. Such amounts will be prorated for non-employee directors who are elected during the year. The Company also reimburses non-employee directors for their expenses under the revised cash compensation structure.

Stock-Based Compensation. In addition, on the date of the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, each non-employee director was granted a nonqualified stock option to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock with an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of grant vesting ratably in three installments commencing on the date of grant and on each of the first two anniversaries thereafter, such that 100% of the option will be vested and exercisable on the second anniversary of the grant date (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date).

In November 2010, the stock-based compensation structure for non-employee directors was revised. Commencing with the 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, unless otherwise provided by the Compensation Committee, immediately following each Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of Primus during the term of the Management Compensation Plan and for which equity is available under such plan, each non-employee director will be granted an award of 5,000 RSUs and a nonqualified stock option to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock with an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of grant. Each RSU award will vest in two equal installments on the first and second anniversary of the grant date (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date). Each stock option so granted will vest and become exercisable ratably in three installments commencing on the date of grant and each of the first two anniversaries thereafter (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date). In the event a non-employee director is first elected to the Board other than at an Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Compensation Committee shall grant to such newly elected director, as of the date of the election, pro rata annual director grants for the estimated service period until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders. All other terms and conditions of the grants will be established by the Compensation Committee and set forth in the non-employee director's award agreement.

In addition, in November 2010 in consideration of past services and as an incentive for future continued performance, Messrs. Subin and Scheiwe each received a one- time grant of 50,000 and 5,000 RSUs, respectively. Mr. Subin's RSUs vest 50% on the date of grant, 25% on December 31, 2011 and 25% on December 31, 2012 (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date), and Mr. Scheiwe's RSUs vest one-third on the date of grant, one- third on December 31, 2011 and one-third on December 31, 2012 (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date). Mr. Scheiwe was also granted a non-qualified stock option to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of grant vesting ratably in three installments commencing on the date of grant and each of the first two anniversaries thereafter (subject to continued service as a non-employee director through each applicable vesting date).

Director Independence

Our common stock currently is traded on the OTC Bulletin Board. Accordingly, we are not subject to the rules of any national securities exchange which require that a majority of a listed company's directors meet independence standards prescribed by such rules. For purposes of preparing the disclosures in this report regarding director independence, as required by SEC rules, we have used the definition of "independent director" and related independence standards set forth in the Nasdaq Rules. We have also adopted director independence standards, which our Board of Directors uses to determine if a particular director is independent. The standards are available under the "Corporate Governance" section of our website, www.ptgi.com. Our Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that each of Messrs. ### Pre-Approval Policy

The services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in 2010 were pre-approved in accordance with the pre-approval policy and procedures adopted by the Audit Committee at its February 4, 2004 meeting, as amended at its February 9, 2005 meeting. This policy describes the permitted audit, audit-related, tax, and other services (collectively, the “Disclosure Categories”) that the independent auditor may perform.

On a quarterly basis, the Audit Committee reviews a description of services (the “Service List”) expected to be performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in each of the Disclosure Categories, the status of services and fees incurred year-to-date against the original Service List and pre-approval limits and the forecast of remaining services and fees for the fiscal year.

Services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm during the year and included in the Service List were pre-approved in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Audit Committee.

Any requests for audit, audit-related, tax, and other services contemplated on the Service List must be submitted to the Audit Committee for specific pre-approval and cannot commence until such approval has been granted. Normally, pre-approval is provided at regularly scheduled meetings. However, the authority to grant specific pre-approval between meetings, as necessary, has been delegated to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.
