DIAGEO TO ACQUIRE YPIOCA, THE LEADING PREMIUM CACHACA BRAND IN BRAZIL

Diageo, the world's leading premium drinks business, has reached agreement with Ypioca Agroindustrial Limitada to acquire the leading premium cachaca brand, Ypioca, and certain production assets.

The consideration is BRL 900 million (approximately £300 million) in cash and the transaction is expected to complete in a month. The acquisition is expected to be EPS neutral in year 1 and Economic Profit positive in year 5 using a 12% WACC rate. It expands Diageo's presence in Brazil and enhances access to the growing number of middle class consumers who are driving the growth of premium brands.

The acquired Ypioca brand has net sales of BRL 177 million (approximately £60 million) based on the pro forma adjusted figures as of December 2011.

Cachaca is the largest spirits category in Brazil and Ypioca is the leader in the growing premium cachaca segment. It is the number 2 by value and the number 3 by volume in the overall cachaca category. In addition, Ypioca has an extensive sales and distribution network in the Northeast of Brazil and the second largest retail penetration nationwide.

Paul Walsh, CEO of Diageo commented:

"Brazil is an attractive, fast growing market for Diageo with favourable demographics and increasing disposable incomes. The acquisition of Ypioca gives us the leading premium brand in the largest local spirits category. It will also provide Diageo with an enhanced platform from which to accelerate the long term growth of our premium international spirits brands in Brazil.

"The acquisition meets our return criteria and will be accretive to Diageo's top line growth.

"This investment represents the continuation of our strategy to increase Diageo's presence in the fastest growing economies of the world."

Forward-looking statements

This document contains 'forward-looking statements'. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. In particular, forward looking statements include all statements that express forecasts, expectations, plans, outlook and projections with respect to future matters, including trends in results of operations, margins, growth rates, overall market trends, the impact of interest or exchange rates, the availability or cost of financing to Diageo, anticipated cost savings or synergies, the completion of Diageo's strategic transactions, whether and when any transaction may be eps accretive or economic profit positive and its anticipated impact on margins, anticipated tax rates, expected cash payments, outcomes of litigation and general economic conditions. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements, including factors that are outside Diageo's control. All oral and written forward-looking statements made on or after the date of this document and attributable to Diageo are expressly qualified in their entirety by the 'risk factors' contained in Diageo's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended 30 June 2011 filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Diageo speak only as of the date they are made. Diageo does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Diageo's expectations or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Diageo may make in documents it publishes and/or files with the SEC. All readers, wherever located, should take note of these disclosures. The information in this document does not constitute an offer to sell or an invitation to buy shares in Diageo plc or an invitation or inducement to engage in any other investment activities. This announcement includes information about Diageo's target debt rating. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organisation. Each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating. Past performance cannot be relied upon as a guide to future performance.
