SHANDA REPORTS SECOND QUARTER 2005 FINANCIAL RESULTS

- RECORD NET REVENUES OF US$65.2 MILLION, UP 88.0% YOY AND 8.5% SEQUENTIALLY -

(Shanghai, China, August 9, 2005) Shanda Interactive Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: SNDA), or Shanda, a leading interactive entertainment media company and the largest operator of online games in China, today announced its unaudited financial results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2005.

SUMMARY OF THE SECOND QUARTER 2005:

- o Net revenues increased 88.0% year-over-year and 8.5% quarter-over-quarter to RMB539.5 million (US$65.2 million);
- o Online games revenues, including MMORPG and casual games, increased 72.0% year-over-year and 5.7% quarter-over-quarter to RMB466.7 million (US$56.4 million), accounting for 86.5% of total revenues;
- o Other revenues, which primarily include revenues from online advertising and other value-added services and products, increased 365.1% year-over-year and 31.3% quarter-over-quarter to RMB72.7 million (US$8.8 million), accounting for 13.5% of total revenues;
- o Total peak concurrent users for all Shanda games in commercial service reached 2.5 million; and
- o Net income increased 58.2% year-over-year to RMB223.0 million (US$26.9 million), and diluted earnings per ADS increased 50.0% year-over-year to RMB3.06 (US$0.36).

"Shanda continued to see healthy growth momentum in the second quarter, lifted by MMORPG growth and strong online advertisement sales," said Tianqiao

Edgar Filing: SHANDA INTERACTIVE ENTERTAINMENT LTD - Form 6-K

Chen, Chairman and CEO of Shanda. "As we look at the remainder of this year, we feel very confident that our diversified portfolio of content and our strong online game pipeline will continue to generate sustainable user and revenue growth. In addition to our MMORPG pipeline, which includes RO and Dungeons & Dragons(TM), we also have four casual games next in line. At the same time, we continue to expand the appeal and reach of our interactive entertainment platform by carrying out our home strategy."

FINANCIAL RESULTS (PRELIMINARY UNAUDITED)

Net Revenues. In the second quarter of 2005, Shanda reported record net revenues of RMB539.5 million (US$65.2 million), representing a 88.0% increase compared to RMB287.0 million in the second quarter of 2004 and a 8.5% increase compared to RMB497.0 million in the first quarter of 2005.

Online game revenues increased 72.0% year-over-year and 5.7% quarter-over-quarter to RMB466.7 million (US$56.4 million) in the second quarter of 2005. Total peak concurrent users for all Shanda games in commercial service in the second quarter of 2005 increased to 2.5 million from 2.1 million in the first quarter of 2005.

Revenues from MMORPGs in the second quarter of 2005 increased 60.3% year-over-year and 9.3% quarter-over-quarter to RMB362.0 million (US$43.7 million), accounting for 67.1% of total revenues. The increase in revenues from MMORPGs was primarily due to continued content enhancements, such as the expansion pack of Mir II released in March. The average concurrent users of Shanda's MMORPGs in commercial service increased to approximately 763,000 in the second quarter of 2005 from 748,000 in the previous quarter. The average revenue per user hour, calculated based on net revenues, for Shanda's MMORPGs increased to RMB 0.22 in the second quarter of 2005 compared to RMB0.20 in the previous quarter.

Revenues from casual games in the second quarter increased 130.1% year-over-year and declined 5.1% quarter-over-quarter to RMB104.7 million (US$12.7 million). The quarter-over-quarter revenue decline for casual games was mainly a result of weaker seasonality.

Shanda's other revenues increased 31.3% to RMB72.7 million (US$8.8 million) in the second quarter of 2005 from RMB55.4 million (US$6.7 million) in the first quarter of 2005. The increase in Shanda's other revenues was primarily due to the continued growth of online advertising revenues.

Gross Profit. Gross margin was 68.4% for the second quarter of 2005, up from 62.8% in the second quarter of 2004 and down from 71.0% in the first quarter of 2005. The sequential gross margin decline was due to increased cost of services related to licensing fees for online games.

Income from Operations. Operating income for the second quarter of 2005 was RMB243.8 million (US$29.5 million), representing a 118.2% increase compared to RMB111.7 million in the second quarter of 2004 and a 4.0% decrease compared to RMB253.9 million in the first quarter of 2005. Operating margin was 45.2% in the second quarter of 2005, compared to 38.9% in the second quarter of 2004 and 51.1% in the first quarter of 2005. Operating margin increased year-over-year primarily due to the growth and greater scale of the company's game platform and user base, but decreased as compared with the first quarter primarily due to both an increase in product development expenses caused by an increase in research and development staff and an increase in sales and marketing expenses related to the launch of new games in the second quarter of 2005.

Net Income. In the second quarter of 2005, Shanda had net income of RMB223.0 million (US$26.9 million), representing a 58.2% increase compared to net income of RMB141.0 million (US$17.0 million) in the second quarter of 2004 and a 1.3% increase compared to net income of RMB220.1 million in the first quarter of 2005. Diluted earnings per ADS were RMB3.06 (US$0.36) for this quarter, representing a 50.0% increase compared to diluted earnings per ADS of RMB2.04 in the same period of 2004 and a 2.0% increase compared to diluted earnings per ADS of RMB3.00 in the first quarter of 2005.

The quarter-over-quarter increase in Shanda's net income and diluted earnings per ADS was partially offset by two generally non-recurring factors. First, Shanda recorded an investment loss of RMB 4.6 million (US$0.6 million). Second, Shanda incurred an expense related to the acquisition of Haofang, which reflects a write-off of the valuation of in process research and development of RMB 4.1 million (US$0.5 million) in the second quarter of 2005.

The conversion of Renminbi (RMB) into U.S. dollars in this release is based on the noon buying rate in The City of New York for cable transfers in Renminbi per U.S. dollar as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as of June 30, 2005, which was RMB8.2765 to US$1.00. The percentages stated in this press release are calculated based on RMB.

RECENT BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

In the second quarter of 2005, Shanda continued to build its game pipeline and expanding its content lineup. Shanda recently entered into a license agreement with Gravity Co., Ltd., a developer and distributor of online games in South Korea. Pursuant to the license agreement with Gravity, Shanda holds the exclusive rights to operate Ragnarok Online, a cartoon-style MMORPG, in China. In addition, in July 2005, Shanda commercially launched Magical Land, an in-house developed fantasy cartoon-style MMORPG. These two games appeal more to female and younger age group user segments, which are an important demographic segment for Shanda's home entertainment strategy.

In the second quarter of 2005, Shanda completed the acquisition of the 82.1% of Shanghai Haofang Online Information Technology Co. Ltd., or Haofang, that it did not already own. Haofang is the operator of the largest network PC game platform in China. Shanda has held a minority interest in Haofang since October 2004.

Shanda further strengthened its operational platform with the launch of QuanQuan - a proprietary instant messaging application. Closed beta testing of QuanQuan instant messenger began in July 2005. QuanQuan instant messenger is uniquely bundled with Shanda's attractive online games and other interactive entertainment applications and allows all of our users to communicate in real-time over the Internet with text or voice messages and images. We believe that the addition of QuanQuan instant messenger also will help to consolidate and strengthen Shanda's user community.

In addition, Shanda announced the formation of a strategic partnership with Sichuan Changhong Electric Co., Ltd. and several leading content providers in China and abroad, to jointly launch the Shanda Home Entertainment Station. The Shanda Home Entertainment Station is an integrated device solution to bring home users a portfolio of comprehensive entertainment content, including movies, music, games, online shopping, lifestyle information, and educational content, applications and services.
