E.ON ADRs in US Now More Attractive

E.ON shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in the form of American Depositary Receipts (ADRs). Until now, the exchange ratio between E.ON ADRs and E.ON shares had been 1:1. The price of an ADR thus matched that of a share. E.ON has decided to change the ratio to 3:1 as from March 29, 2005. As a result, three times as many ADRs will henceforth be tradable on the NYSE. The increased liquidity and tradability of E.ON ADRs makes E.ON shares even more attractive to US investors.
