Litigation Matters

On Monday, April 16, 2007, Converium filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against SCOR and Patinex. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Sections 13(d), 14(d), and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, because, among other things, (i) SCOR has unlawfully and unfairly excluded Converium's United States shareholders, a group which we believe represents approximately 22% of Converium's outstanding Shares, from participating in SCOR's unsolicited Offer, and (ii) defendants failed to make proper disclosures in connection with their purchase and ownership of Converium securities.

Converium is seeking an expedited discovery and briefing schedule so as to permit a hearing on a motion for preliminary injunction prior to May 22, 2007, which (unless extended) is currently the last date on which Converium shareholders may tender Shares in connection with SCOR's unsolicited Offer.

Among other things, Converium is seeking an order enjoining SCOR from consummating the Offer until SCOR and Patinex have complied with their obligations under the Williams Act, including SCOR extending the Offer to Converium's United States shareholders and ADS holders.

Open Letter to SCOR Shareholders

On Tuesday, April 17, 2007, Converium published an open letter to SCOR shareholders in which Converium urged SCOR shareholders to vote against the capital increase currently scheduled to be approved at SCOR's extraordinary general meeting on April 26, 2007. If approved, such SCOR Shares would be used as part of the consideration offered to Converium shareholders in connection with the Offer.

April 1 Renewals

On Tuesday, April 17, 2007, Converium issued a press release announcing that Converium reported strong growth of 35% in April 1 open market treaty renewals at improved profitability, which Converium believes reflects Converium's success in regaining business and establishing new client relationships following Converium's ratings upgrade by Standard & Poor's to A- (strong) on February 28, 2007.
