The Audit Committee oversees 1st Source's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the system of internal controls. The Board of Directors has adopted a Charter for the Audit

Edgar Filing: 1ST SOURCE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Committee to set forth its authority and responsibilities. A copy of this Charter was included in the 2001 proxy statement as Exhibit A. All of the members of the Committee are independent as defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

The Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management. The Committee also reviewed the financial statements with 1st Source's independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Committee also considered with the auditors their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of 1st Source's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and 1st Source, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standard Board, and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services provided by the independent auditors to 1st Source with the auditors' independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be incorporated by reference in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(1) Mr. Murphy, Mr. Jones, Mr. Qualey, Mr. Stifel, and Mr. Lentych (the "Executives") signed Employment Agreements (the "Agreements") in April 1998. Mr. Murphy's Agreement provides for a $553,875 base salary at December 31, 2001, with annual increases of not less than 5% effective March 31 of each year, and cash bonus payments based on a formula computed in a manner similar to the awards to executives under the Executive Incentive Plan and Long-Term Executive Award Program. Under the other four Agreements, Mr. Jones, Mr. Qualey, Mr. Stifel and Mr. Lentych receive base salaries of $296,000, $212,000, $190,320 and $158,000, respectively, at December 31, 2001, with annual increases at March 31 each year as may be determined by 1st Source, and cash and stock bonuses determined under the Executive Incentive Plan and the Long-Term Executive Award Program. The Agreements permit gross-up payments necessary to cover possible excise tax payments by the Executives and to reimburse the Executives for legal fees that might be expended in enforcing the Agreements' provisions or contesting tax issues relating to the Agreements' parachute provisions. Mr. Murphy's Agreement is a five-year agreement which is extended an additional year each year unless either party gives notice not to extend. The Agreements for Mr. Jones, Mr. Qualey, Mr. Stifel, and Mr. Lentych expire on December 31 of the years 2003, 2003, 2002, and 2002, respectively. In each case their Agreement will be extended from year to year thereafter unless either party gives notice not to extend. If any of the Executives terminate employment because of any adverse change in their status, he will continue to receive his base salary for a period of twelve months after his termination. If any of the Executives terminate employment within one year of a change in control (which term includes any third party which becomes beneficial owner of 50%, or in the case of Mr. Murphy, 20% or more of the outstanding stock of 1st Source, the election of a majority of new directors in connection with a sale, merger, other business combination or contested Board of Directors election, or any approval of any transaction which results in a disposition of substantially all of the assets of 1st Source), he will receive severance pay in cash equal to 2.99 times his "Annualized Includable Compensation" (as defined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.) The Agreements also include restrictive covenants which provide, among other things, that the Executives not compete with 1st Source in bank or bank-related services within certain designated counties of Indiana or divulge confidential information or trade secrets for a twenty-four month period after termination of employment. In the event of disability, the Executives will receive their base salary for up to one year, in addition to other disability programs in effect for all officers of 1st Source. Additionally, 1st Source has entered into a split-dollar life insurance agreement with Mr. Murphy which insures the lives of Mr. Murphy and his wife for $10.2 million.

- (2) 1st Source has an Executive Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and the 1998 Performance Compensation Plan which are administered by the Executive Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board. Awards under the Plan consist of cash and "Book Value" shares of Common Stock. "Book Value" shares are awarded annually on a discretionary basis and are subject to forfeiture over a period of five (5) years. The Plan shares may only be sold to 1st Source, and such sale is mandatory in the event of death, retirement, disability or termination of employment. 1st Source may terminate or extend the Plan at any time. During February 2001 and February 1996, 1st Source granted special long-term incentive awards (the "Awards") to participants in the Executive Incentive Plan administered by the Committee. The 2001 Award was granted for the attainment of the company's long-term goals for 2000, which were set in 1995. The 1996 Award was granted for the attainment of the company's long-term goals for 1995 which were set in 1990. Each Award was split between cash and 1st Source Common Stock valued at the market price at the time of the award. Such shares are subject to forfeiture over a period of ten (10) years. The first 10% of these shares was vested at the grant of the Award. Subsequent vesting requires (i) the participant to remain an employee of 1st Source and (ii) that 1st Source be profitable on an annual basis based on the determination of the Committee.

1st Source also has a Restricted Stock Award Plan (the "Restricted Plan") for key employees. Awards under the Restricted Plan are made to employees recommended by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Committee. Shares awarded under the Restricted Plan are subject to forfeiture over a five (5) to ten (10) year period. Vesting is based upon meeting certain criteria, including continued employment by 1st Source.

The bonus amounts shown represent the annual cash awards under the Plan, the 1998 Performance Compensation Plan and other cash bonuses. Vested stock under the Plan, the Awards and the Restricted Plan are included in the LTIP Payouts column. The value placed on "Book Value" shares is the book value per share as of December 31 of each year. The value placed on market value shares is market value as of December 31 of each year. Mr. Murphy receives this vested amount in cash.

Unvested stock holdings under the Plan, the Awards and the Restricted Plan as of December 31, 2001, are as follows:

Name	Book Value Shares	Market Value Shares	Calculated Value

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

1st Source officers are reviewed annually by their immediate supervisor. The review includes assessment of management performance and achievement of individual, group, and company goals.

The performance review is a normal part of 1st Source's Salary Administration Program. All positions are rated and placed in a salary range. Annually, with our approval, management establishes a salary performance grid that sets the range of merit increases that may be given to officers depending on their review and their respective position (lower, middle or upper third) in their respective salary range.

The categories of performance under the Company's review program are:

- Substantially and consistently exceeds job requirements
- Often exceeds job requirements
- Meets and sometimes exceeds job requirements

Edgar Filing: 1ST SOURCE CORP - Form DEF 14A

- Meets some job requirements, improvement is required
- Does not meet minimal job requirements

Management awards salary increases as determined under the guidelines of the Salary Administration Program in conformance with the salary performance grid in effect for the year and the annual budget.

All of the officers reported herein, including Mr. Murphy, are under the 1st Source Salary Administration Program. In his case, he is evaluated by us against a series of objectives set in the Company's annual budget plan and in its long-term strategic plan as annually approved by our full Board. In January 2002, we reviewed Mr. Murphy's salary. Under his employment contract described elsewhere in this proxy statement, Mr. Murphy has a right to receive a minimum annual increase of 5%. Mr. Murphy waived his right to a 5% increase for this review due to the Company's 2001 credit performance. With this in mind, we reviewed his performance against the Company's 2001 Plan and his progress toward achieving the Company's long-term plan. Despite the 2001 credit performance, the Company met a number of its other quantitative and qualitative objectives in 2001. We determined that Mr. Murphy's performance "meets and sometimes exceeds job requirements," and he was therefore eligible under the plan to receive up to a 4% base salary increase. We determined it to be in the best interest of the Company to increase Mr. Murphy's salary to $570,000 effective March 31, 2002, up from the previous amount of $553,875 approved by us in January 2001 and effective March 31, 2001.

Bonuses under 1st Source's Executive Incentive Plan are determined annually following the close of the year. The bonus is calculated based on the officer's "partnership level" adjusted for the Company's performance relative to plan and for the individual's performance relative to weighted objectives set at the beginning of the year. In Mr. Murphy's case, the base bonus calculation is 25% of his salary. For each 1% that the company varies from its profit plan for the year, the base bonus is adjusted up or down by 2.5%.

Once the base bonus is calculated, an officer can receive 100% to 300% of the amount depending on their individual performance. As with all Executive Incentive Plan participants, the reviewer assesses performance relative to an agreed upon set of objectives. In Mr. Murphy's case, these are the annual business objectives, including net income, return on equity, return on assets, net charge-offs and the achievement of a set of general management objectives, and a composite of the performance of the senior officers reporting directly to Mr. Murphy. In 2001, the Company recorded an increase in net income despite a more difficult credit environment, significantly expanded its branch network and generally met its qualitative objectives. Accordingly, Mr. Murphy was awarded a bonus of $145,000 for 2001's performance.

Under the Company's Executive Incentive Plan, 50% of the Executive Incentive Plan bonus will be paid in cash in March 2002 to Mr. Murphy. The other 50% is subject to forfeiture over the next five (5) years. The forfeiture lapses ratably for each year Mr. Murphy remains with the Company and for each year or period of years the Company grows its net income by a targeted minimum per year. During this period, the "at risk" portion of the bonus is delineated in book value stock but is paid in cash to Mr. Murphy as the forfeiture lapses.

In addition, the Executive Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Murphy a cash bonus under the 1998 Performance Compensation Plan previously approved by the shareholders and based on goals established by us at the beginning of 2001. For 2001 the award level set was 2.5% of net income, or $962,000, the same percentage as set for the three previous years. However, due to the increase of nonperforming assets and the general deterioration of credit quality in the company, the bonus was reduced to $485,000 (1.26% of net income). This bonus was awarded in recognition of 1st Source's partial achievement of the specific goals.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires executive officers and directors to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of 1st Source Corporation stock with the Securities and Exchange Commission and to furnish 1st Source with copies of all reports filed. Based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to 1st Source and written representations from the executive officers and directors that no other reports were required, 1st Source believes that all filing requirements were complied with during the last fiscal year.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The financial statements of 1st Source are audited annually by independent accountants. For the year ended December 31, 2001 the audit was performed by Ernst & Young LLP. Fees for the last annual audit were $142,000 and all other fees were $181,500, including audit related services of $164,000 and nonaudit services of $17,500. Audit related services generally include fees for pension and statutory audits, accounting consultations, and SEC registration statements. Representatives of the firm of Ernst & Young LLP will be available to respond to questions during the Annual Meeting. These representatives have indicated that they do not presently intend to make a statement at the Annual Meeting. Ernst & Young LLP will continue as 1st Source's independent accountants for the year ending December 31, 2002, as recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

1st Source notified its former accountant, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC") on April 18, 2000 that it would be conducting a request for proposals for a possible change in independent accountants. 1st Source invited PwC to submit a proposal. On May 26, 2000, PwC informed 1st Source that it would not be submitting a proposal in response to 1st Source's request and, therefore, it declined to stand for reelection as 1st Source's independent accountants.

PwC's report on the financial statements of 1st Source for the years ended December 31, 1999 and 1998 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

There was a disagreement with PwC concerning income recognition on securitized loans in accordance with SFAS No. 125, "Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities." The disagreement was resolved to PwC's satisfaction in mid-February, 2000 after 1st Source changed its method of estimating the timing of cash flows and certain assumptions relating to the securitized loans as well as 1st Source's retained interests in such loans. These changes in the estimates used resulted in a difference in the timing of revenue recognition, but had no effect on total cash flows to be derived from the securitized transactions. Such changes resulted in 1st Source filing an amended Form 10-K for 1998, including a revised auditor's report referring to the revisions, and related amended forms 10-Q for the affected periods. The changes increased net earnings for 1998 from $31,020,000 to $31,457,000 (a change of 1.4%) with no change in total earnings for 1999. Management reported regularly to the Audit Committee regarding these matters prior to reaching resolution of the disagreement with PwC. The Audit Committee also discussed the matter directly with PwC on April 18, 2000. 1st Source has authorized PwC to respond fully to inquiries of its successor auditor concerning these matters.

On June 14, 2000 the Audit Committee of 1st Source's Board of Directors engaged the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as independent accountants for fiscal year 2000. The decision to change accountants was recommended and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of 1st Source.
