Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Ligand Pharmaceuticals Incorporated (the “Company” or “Ligand”) and The Salk Institute for Biological Studies (“Salk”) entered into a Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release of All Claims (“Settlement Agreement”) effective September 2, 2008, pursuant to which the parties resolved all disputes that have arisen between them, including Salk’s primary claim in arbitration relating to the sale of Targretin® to Eisai Inc. in 2006. In addition, the parties have agreed to jointly seek dismissal with prejudice of all claims and counter claims asserted in the ongoing arbitration between Ligand and Salk.

Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Company and Salk also agreed to terminate their January 28, 1997 license agreement relating to certain PPAR technology and their April 12, 2002 amended and restated license agreement. The termination of these agreements does not impact any previously granted sublicense or conveyance of rights to any third party. Ligand does not believe that it requires a license from Salk for its ongoing business activities, but, under the Settlement Agreement, Salk has granted to Ligand and its sublicensees a covenant not to sue under any patents or know-how that were the subject of such terminated agreements for any past, present or future use of such patents or know-how. Certain provisions of the April 12, 2002 amended and restated license agreement will remain in effect with respect to bazedoxifene during the life of the remaining applicable patents, but Ligand retains the right to acquire a paid-up license for any new indications of bazedoxifene upon filing of any relevant new NDA with the FDA.

Under the Settlement Agreement, Salk agreed to drop its claim for at least $25 million asserted in the ongoing arbitration and Ligand agreed to pay to Salk $9.5 million immediately upon settlement and an additional $3.5 million six months from the date of settlement.

The foregoing description of the Settlement Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending September 30, 2008.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.
