BDO Hong Kong has served as Deswell’s principal independent accountants and reported on the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2010 and 2011. BDO Hong Kong’s audit reports on the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2010 and 2011 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company’s two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period from April 1, 2011 through the effective date of BDO Hong Kong’s resignation:

(i) there were no disagreements between the Company and BDO Hong Kong on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of BDO Hong Kong, would have caused BDO Hong Kong to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in its reports on the Company’s consolidated financial statements, and

(ii) there were no “reportable events” as that term is defined in Item 16F(a)(1)(v) of Form 20-F.

The Company has provided BDO Hong Kong with a copy of the forgoing statements before furnishing the same to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and requested and received from BDO Hong Kong a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the above statements. During the Company’s two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period from April 1, 2011 through the effective date of BDO China’s engagement, neither the Company nor anyone acting on behalf of the Company, consulted BDO China regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 16-F(a)(2) of Form 20-F.

The Company has provided BDO China with a copy of the foregoing statements, requested that BDO China review them and given BDO China the opportunity to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the SEC containing any new information, clarification of the Company’s expression of its views, or the respects in which it does not agree with the above statements.
