1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 16, 2005, E-Z-EM, Inc. entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) with O Dell Engineering Ltd. and Philip O Dell, the sole shareholder and officer of O Dell Engineering.

Under the Agreement, E-Z-EM has agreed to purchase all of O Dell Engineering s assets related to reactive skin decontamination lotion (RSDL) business and technology. These assets include all licenses, intellectual property, customer orders, contracts and all other assets and properties relating to O Dell Engineering s RSDL business and technology (collectively, the RSDL Assets).

The purchase price for the RSDL Assets is (i) $5.0 million, of which $500,000 was paid upon signing the Agreement, $2.5 million is payable at closing, and the balance of which is payable in three installments over the two years following the closing and (ii) royalty payments, not to exceed $8.0 million in total, on sales of RSDL products over the seven years following the closing.

The closing of the acquisition is expected to occur in 30 to 45 days following the execution date, and is subject to customary closing conditions and to the written consents of the Canadian Ministry of National Defense and the Canadian Commercial Corporation to the transfer of a license and an agreement, respectively, between O Dell Engineering and those entities relating to the RSDL technology.

The Agreement also provides that Philip O Dell will provide consulting services to E-Z-EM over a three-year term, with diminishing time commitments in the second and third years, related to commercialization of the RSDL technology. Under the consulting arrangement, Mr. O Dell is entitled to royalty payments for seven years on net sales of products based on inventions created or developed by him, or introduced to E-Z-EM by him, related to decontamination that are not part of the RSDL technology being acquired by E-Z-EM. O Dell Engineering and Mr. O Dell have also agreed not to compete with E-Z-EM in the sale of RSDL products or other decontamination products anywhere in the world for seven years following the closing of the acquisition.

A copy of the press release dated January 19, 2005, announcing E-Z-EM s entry into the Agreement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
