Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 27, 2010, Lee Enterprises, Incorporated (the “Company”) reported that members of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild, Local 36047 (“Guild”), voted to approve a new contract, which will take effect as of April 1, 2010. Guild members have been operating under the provisions of a contract that expired in June 2009. Significant contract provisions that are changed from the previous contract include the following:

- Wages
  - Reduction in wages of 6% as of April 1, 2010, excluding certain commissioned sales staff
  - Increase in base compensation for certain commissioned sales staff
  - One week unpaid furlough in the six months ending September 2010
  - One week unpaid furlough in each of the years ending September 2011 and 2012
  - 2.5% wage increases effective on each of October 1, 2012, 2013 and/or 2014 if revenue of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch (including an associated business) achieves 2% revenue growth levels in the immediately preceding fiscal year

- Benefits
  - Elimination of postretirement medical coverage
  - Elimination of retiree life insurance
  - Freeze of defined benefit pension benefits
  - Increase in annual Company 401K contributions of $300 per employee.

The new contract will also include a six month moratorium on layoffs for Guild members and relax seniority restrictions in the event of future layoffs. The contract will expire in September 2015.

The Company estimates the contract changes will result in non-cash curtailment gains totaling $14,000,000, which will be recognized in March 2010, and are expected to further reduce operating expenses for the six months ending September 2010 by $1,300,000 and by an average of $1,800,000 on an annual basis over the life of the contract. The Company’s post retirement medical benefit and pension obligations will be reduced by approximately $6,500,000 and $2,000,000, respectively, in March 2010. Curtailment gains and changes in benefit obligations are subject to final actuarial calculations.
