(a) Additional Funding

On June 25, 2013, the Board of Directors of the Company authorized the Company to commence a market canvass for additional sources of financing aside from the Credit Agreement.

Pursuant to Board authorization, the Company began soliciting stalking horse proposals for purchase of all or part of, or joint venture investment in or with, the Company or one or more of its directly or indirectly owned subsidiaries. A request for proposals was circulated in both the United States and the People's Republic of China. The Company also retained a third party firm in each of these respective markets to conduct a market canvas seeking proposals. All proposals were evaluated by the Board of Directors at a meeting held on September 17th and 18th, 2013, and, after negotiation, a stalking horse proposal relating to the Company's PHE segment was deemed in the best interests of the Company and approved by the Board. The proposal is, in essence, an indication of interest and does not provide specific terms nor does it obligate the Company to sell any of its assets. It is subject to negotiation and execution of a mutually acceptable definitive agreement, including provisions allowing the Company to use the proposal as a stalking horse to seek better terms. If such agreement can be negotiated and executed, the Company intends to submit the matter to the stockholders for approval, along with the rest of its 2013 restructuring actions, at the Annual Meeting scheduled for December 10, 2013 (China time). If such definitive agreement is negotiated, the Company presently intends to then seek competing bids with the plan of having a definitive restructuring completed no later than the end of the first quarter of 2014. There is no assurance that any definitive agreement will be negotiated, executed or that the Company's restructuring plan will be approved by its stockholders. Moreover, the Company reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to discontinue or modify any restructuring plan either before or after it is approved by stockholders.

On June 25, 2013, the Board of Directors approved an offer to be made to accredited investors who are currently stockholders of the Company to purchase Exchangeable Subordinated Notes in denominations of $100,000 bearing interest at the rate of 10% per annum, due on June 30, 2015, and exchangeable, at the option of the Company, for restricted common shares at an exchange rate of $0.50 per share. The Exchangeable Subordinated Notes will be subordinate, in all respects, to the indebtedness owed by the Company to Northtech Holdings Inc. The Company plans to conclude the offering on December 7, 2013.

The Exchangeable Subordinated Notes will not be and have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the Securities Act. This communication shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy securities nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification of these securities under the laws of any such state.

(b) Annual Meeting

On September 17, 2013, the Board of Directors selected a record date of October 15, 2013, to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the Company's Annual Meeting to be held on December 10, 2013 (US Time).
