ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 29, 2004, Amgen Inc., exercised its rights pursuant to the terms of a Collaboration Agreement entered into by us and Amgen on January 8, 2002 (the Collaboration Agreement), to terminate its collaboration with us and enter instead into an exclusive license (the License Agreement) whereby we will be granted the worldwide rights to develop and commercialize alfimeprase in exchange for the payment to Amgen of previously negotiated development milestone payments and royalties. The License Agreement was entered into by us and Amgen on November 3, 2004. Under the terms of the License Agreement, Amgen will transfer the technology necessary for the manufacture of alfimeprase to us or a manufacturer acceptable to Amgen. Amgen is required to continue to supply alfimeprase to us during the transition period.

In connection with the termination of the Collaboration Agreement, we also entered into an Opt-Out, Termination, Settlement and Release Agreement with Amgen on October 29, 2004, whereby we made a payment of $8.5 million to Amgen on November 1, 2004, representing primarily the mutually agreed reimbursement of Amgen's costs in the development of alfimeprase.

A press release announcing the License Agreement entitled Nuvelo to Gain Worldwide Rights to Alfimeprase Through Amgen Licensing Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

The Collaboration Agreement will terminate effective 30 days after October 29, 2004, as a result of Amgen's decision to end the alfimeprase collaboration with us and instead enter into the License Agreement. Under the terms of the Collaboration Agreement, we were responsible for leading all clinical development activities for alfimeprase, and Amgen was responsible for leading manufacturing activities. Following completion of the Phase 2 alfimeprase clinical trial in acute peripheral arterial occlusion, or PAO, Amgen exercised its rights pursuant to the Collaboration Agreement to terminate the alfimeprase collaboration with us and instead enter into a licensing arrangement whereby Amgen would license to Nuvelo worldwide rights to alfimeprase.

ITEM 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
