Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 7, 2005, Star Gas LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "General Partner"), which is the general partner of Star Gas Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Partnership" and, together with the General Partner and their affiliates, successors and assigns, the "Company") and Mr. Erik P. Sevin entered into a letter agreement and general release (the "Agreement"). In accordance with the Agreement, Mr. Sevin confirmed his resignation as Chairman of the Board of the General Partner and his resignation from employment as the Chief Executive Officer and President of the General Partner (and its subsidiaries) under the employment agreement between Mr. Sevin and the General Partner dated as of September 30, 2001, in each case effective immediately. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Sevin will not be eligible for any benefits or compensation, other than as specifically provided in the Agreement. Pursuant to the Agreement, for the 13-year period beginning with the month following the five-year anniversary of the termination date, the General Partner will provide Mr. Sevin with a monthly retirement benefit equal to $29,166.67.

Mr. Sevin continues to be a director of the General Partner and will provide consulting services to the Company for a period of five years following the termination date (the "Consulting Period"). Mr. Sevin will be entitled to annual consulting fees of $395,000, payable in equal monthly installments. For a period of two years following the termination date, the General Partner will reimburse Mr. Sevin for all reasonable expenses incurred in maintaining an office to provide the consulting services provided that such expenses shall in no event exceed $50,000 per year. The General Partner will also provide Mr. Sevin with one administrative assistant at the same level as his current assistant during this two-year period. Mr. Sevin executed a general release in favor of the Company, containing certain exceptions.

On March 7, 2005, the General Partner entered into a voting trust agreement (the "Voting Trust Agreement") with Erik P. Sevin, in his capacity as a member of the General Partner, and Erik P. Sevin, Stephen Russell and Joseph P. Cavanaugh in their capacities as trustees under the Voting Trust Agreement (the "Voting Trustees"). Pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement, Mr. Sevin transferred all of his member interests (representing 15.6363% of the membership interests) in the General Partner to a voting trust for his benefit. Under the terms of the voting trust, these interests will be voted in accordance with the decision of a majority of the Voting Trustees. The voting trust created by the Voting Trust Agreement terminates on the earliest of (i) March 4, 2030, unless extended by further agreement as provided by law, (ii) at any time upon the agreement of all three of the Voting Trustees and the holders of voting trust certificates representing all of the interests in the General Partner that are being held in trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement and (iii) the date upon which the Voting Trust Agreement is required to be terminated in order to comply with applicable law.

On March 7, 2005, the General Partner and Audrey L. Sevin entered into a letter agreement and general release (the "Letter Agreement"). In accordance with the Letter Agreement, Ms. Sevin confirmed her resignation from employment as the Secretary of the General Partner (and its subsidiaries), effective immediately. Pursuant to separate letter from Ms. Sevin to the Company, Ms. Sevin also agreed to resign as a member of the Board of Directors of the General Partner, effective immediately. Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, Ms. Sevin will not be eligible for any benefits or compensation, other than as specifically provided in the Letter Agreement. Within 10 days of the termination date, the Company will provide or cause to be provided to Ms. Sevin as severance 26 weeks of her base salary, payable in intervals in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices. Ms. Sevin executed a general release in favor of the Company, containing certain exceptions.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

In connection with the execution of the Agreement, the General Partner and Mr. Sevin agreed that his Employment Agreement and all monetary and other entitlements thereunder would be terminated. The Employment Agreement had an initial term of five years (terminating in September 2006), and was subject to automatic renewal for successive one-year periods, unless earlier terminated by the General Partner or by Mr. Sevin or otherwise terminated in accordance with the Employment Agreement. The Employment Agreement provided for an annual base salary of $675,000 (for fiscal 2005) which was to increase at the rate of $25,000 per year. In addition, Mr. Sevin was able to earn a bonus of up to 80% of his annual base salary (the Targeted Bonus) for services rendered based upon certain performance criteria. Mr. Sevin was also able to earn certain equity incentives if the General Partner met certain performance criteria specified in the Employment Agreement. In addition, Mr. Sevin was entitled to certain supplemental executive retirement benefits (SERP) if he retired after age 65. If a change of control (as defined in the Employment Agreement) of the General Partner occurred and prior thereto the Company terminated Mr. Sevin's employment without cause (if such termination of employment was a condition of the agreement pursuant to which the change in control occurred), or at any time within two years subsequent to such change of control the General Partner terminated Mr. Sevin's employment without cause or Mr. Sevin resigned with good reason or Mr. Sevin terminated his employment during the thirty day period commencing on the first anniversary of a change of control, then Mr. Sevin would have been entitled to (i) a lump sum payment equal to Mr. Sevin's annual base salary through the Termination Date, to the extent not previously paid, plus a prorated portion of that year's Targeted Bonus, plus his anticipated annual base salaries, Targeted Bonuses and equity incentives for the three years following the termination date; (ii) the continuation of Mr. Sevin's group insurance benefits for two years following the termination date; (iii) a cash payment equal to the value of 325,000 senior subordinated units; and (iv) the acceleration of Mr. Sevin's SERP benefits. If Mr. Sevin's employment was terminated without cause or for good reason prior to a change of control, then Mr. Sevin was entitled to items (i) (but not continued equity incentives), (ii) and (iv) (as described in the prior sentence). Upon Mr. Sevin's death or disability, Mr. Sevin (or in the event of his death, his named beneficiary, or, if none, his estate) would have will received a monthly payment beginning on his death or disability and continuing until age 65 (or in the case of his death until he would have reached age 65) equal to 60% of his base salary plus the prior year bonus divided by 12, but each payment would have been reduced by the monthly payment paid under other plans maintained by the General Partner. The Employment Agreement provided that if any payment received by Mr. Sevin was subject to a federal excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, the payment would have been be grossed up to permit Mr. Sevin to retain a net amount on an after-tax basis equal to what he would have received had the excise tax not been payable.
