SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED APRIL 1, 2005

JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

PROPOSED MERGER YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Yellow Roadway Corporation and USF Corporation have agreed on a merger transaction involving our two companies. Before we can complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of our companies' stockholders. We are sending you this joint proxy statement/prospectus to ask Yellow Roadway stockholders to approve the issuance of Yellow Roadway shares pursuant to the merger agreement and to ask USF stockholders to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

In the merger, USF stockholders will be entitled to receive for each share of USF common stock that they own at the effective time of the merger 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock or, upon a valid cash election, $45.00 in cash, subject in each case to proration and allocation provisions that will require adjustment as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The consideration that each USF stockholder will receive is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive cash and approximately one-half of outstanding USF shares receive Yellow Roadway common stock. Based on the number of USF shares outstanding on February 27, 2005, the aggregate cash consideration will be approximately $639 million. Immediately following the merger, approximately 12.8 million shares of Yellow Roadway common stock, representing approximately 20.8% of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock outstanding immediately after the merger, will be held by former holders of USF common stock. Each outstanding share of Yellow Roadway common stock will remain outstanding immediately after the merger. Shares of Yellow Roadway common stock, including shares issued to USF stockholders as a result of the merger, will continue to be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the trading symbol YELL. Shares of USF common stock, which are quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the trading symbol USFC, will be delisted if the merger is consummated.

Each company will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote on the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Completion of the merger requires Yellow Roadway stockholder approval of the stock issuance and USF stockholder adoption of the merger agreement. On the date of either the Yellow Roadway special meeting or the USF special meeting, as applicable, when you are asked to vote on these matters you may not know the exact number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock that will be issued to USF stockholders because the consideration you receive will be subject to change based on the proration and allocation provisions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Whether or not you plan to attend your special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it to us. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR each of the proposals presented. If you do not return your card, or if you do not instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in street name, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting. In some cases, you may be able to exercise your proxy by telephone or the internet. See Voting by Proxy beginning on page 40.

TO BE HELD , 2005

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of stockholders of Yellow Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Yellow Roadway), will be held at :00 a.m., C.D.T., on , , 2005, at Yellow Roadway s corporate headquarters at 10990 Roe Avenue, Overland Park, Kansas 66211. As described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the special meeting will be held for the following purposes:

1. As further described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the merger agreement provides for the merger of USF with and into Sub pursuant to which each outstanding share of USF common stock (other than shares owned directly or indirectly by USF or Yellow Roadway and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock or, upon a valid cash election, $45.00 in cash, in each case subject to the proration and allocation provisions described below.

The consideration to be received by each USF stockholder is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive cash and approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive Yellow Roadway common stock. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers briefly address some commonly asked questions about the special meetings and the merger. They may not include all the information that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes and the other documents we refer to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Frequently Used Terms

We have generally avoided the use of technical defined terms in this joint proxy statement/prospectus but a few frequently used terms may be helpful for you to have in mind at the outset. We refer to:

Yellow Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation, as Yellow Roadway ;

USF Corporation, a Delaware corporation, as USF ;

Yankee II LLC, a newly formed Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow Roadway, as Sub ;

the merger of USF into Sub and the cancellation and conversion of shares of USF common stock into the right to receive shares of Yellow Roadway common stock or, upon a valid cash election, cash (subject in either case to proration and adjustment as this joint proxy statement/prospectus describes) as the merger ;

the agreement and plan of merger among Yellow Roadway, Sub and USF as the merger agreement ;

the special meeting of holders of common stock of Yellow Roadway described on page 38 as the Yellow Roadway special meeting ;

the special meeting of holders of common stock of USF described on page 38 as the USF special meeting ;

the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Yellow Roadway as shares of Yellow Roadway common stock , Yellow Roadway shares or Yellow Roadway common stock ;

the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of USF as shares of USF common stock , USF shares or USF common stock ;

the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, as the HSR Act or the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act ; and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the DGCL .

The Merger

A1: No, it will remain Yellow Roadway Corporation .

Q2: Why are Yellow Roadway and USF proposing the merger?

A2: Our companies are proposing the merger for several reasons, including the following:

the merger will provide the combined company with the increased scale, strong financial base and market reach that are necessary to increase stockholder value and enhance customer service;

the merger has the potential to accelerate Yellow Roadway's strategy of offering a broad range of services for business to business transportation decision makers;

Yellow Roadway and USF have significant complementary aspects in their service bases;

the merger provides the opportunity for both Yellow Roadway and USF to more effectively compete against the industry's leading integrated service providers, numerous less-than-truckload (LTL) competitors and other competitors;

Yellow Roadway and USF expect significant combination benefits, including cost savings; and the near-term and long-term earnings per share and cash flow of the combined entity are favorable compared to the companies near-term and long-term earnings per share and cash flow on a stand-alone basis.

In addition, the Yellow Roadway board of directors considered a number of other factors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement. See The Merger Yellow Roadway's Reasons for the Merger for a more detailed discussion of certain factors the Yellow Roadway board considered in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement. The USF board of directors also considered a number of other factors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, including the amount and form of the consideration that USF's stockholders will receive and in particular that the value of the merger consideration as of the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger and the last trading day prior to news reports of merger discussions represented substantial premiums to the recent trading prices of USF common stock. See The Merger USF's Reasons for the Merger for a more detailed discussion of certain factors the USF board considered in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement.

Q3: What will happen in the merger?

A3: The proposed merger will combine the businesses of Yellow Roadway and USF. As a result of the merger, USF will merge into a Yellow Roadway subsidiary, and Yellow Roadway will continue as a public company. USF stockholders will receive, in the aggregate, approximately $639 million in cash (based on the number of USF shares outstanding as of February 27, 2005) and approximately 12.8 million shares of Yellow Roadway common stock, which shares represent approximately 20.8% of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock outstanding immediately after the merger. The merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. You should read the merger agreement carefully in its entirety. The merger agreement is the legal document setting forth the parties' rights with respect to the merger.

Q4: What will I receive in the merger?

A4: At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of USF common stock (other than any shares owned directly or indirectly by USF or Yellow Roadway and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. You may elect to receive $45.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock for each share of USF common stock you own at the effective time of the merger. You may make a cash election for any whole number of shares of USF common stock you own, but fractional elections are not permitted. (See How do I elect to receive cash instead of Yellow Roadway common stock? below.) The merger consideration to be received by each USF stockholder, however, is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive cash and approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive Yellow Roadway common stock. Based on the number of USF shares outstanding on February 27, 2005, the aggregate cash consideration will be approximately $639 million. If the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock that Yellow Roadway would issue in the merger falls below 45% of the aggregate value of the total consideration, the proration and allocation provisions will require adjustments so that Yellow Roadway pays 45% of the total consideration in Yellow Roadway common stock and 55% of the total consideration in cash.

Q5: How do I elect to receive cash instead of Yellow Roadway common stock?

A5: You may elect to receive cash instead of Yellow Roadway common stock for any whole number of your shares of USF common stock by signing, dating and completing the cash election and transmittal form and mailing it to the exchange agent with your corresponding stock certificates or a guarantee of delivery or faxing the cash election and transmittal form with a guarantee of delivery to the exchange agent for receipt by 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date. This deadline is known as the cash election deadline. You have the right to make a cash election from the time you receive your cash election form until the cash election deadline. As soon as practicable after the closing date is determined, Yellow Roadway and USF each will issue a press release, which will be available on each company's website (see Where You Can Find More Information on page 123), announcing the date of the cash election deadline. You still will not, however, be able to determine every factor that may cause the proration and allocation procedures to apply, and, therefore, your estimate of the consideration you will receive based on your election may not be accurate. PLEASE DO NOT SEND YOUR CASH ELECTION AND TRANSMITTAL FORM WITH YOUR PROXY CARD. If you are a holder of record of USF shares, you will need to follow the procedures on the transmittal form to validly effect a cash election. If your stock is held in street name, you will need to contact your broker and follow the procedures that your broker describes to elect to receive cash for your shares.

Q6: What are the proration and allocation provisions and how do they operate?

A6: Notwithstanding the individual elections of the USF stockholders, 50% of the USF shares will be converted into cash. If more than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, those stockholders that elect to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more stock such that 50% of the shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. If fewer than 50% of the shares elect to receive cash, the stockholders not electing to receive cash will receive proportionately less Yellow Roadway common stock and more cash such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. As a result of these elections and adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately $639 million in cash (based on the number of USF shares outstanding as of February 27, 2005) and the balance will be paid in Yellow Roadway common stock. Assuming all stockholders elect to receive 50% cash and 50% Yellow Roadway common stock, each stockholder will receive $22.50 per share in cash and 0.4512 Yellow Roadway shares (which is one half of the exchange ratio).

Because the aggregate cash component of the consideration is limited, you may not receive the exact consideration you elected on your cash election and transmittal form. In addition to the adjustments described above, the merger agreement requires that at least 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration consists of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. Various events and circumstances have a bearing on whether this requirement can be satisfied, including:

whether there is a significant decline in the price of Yellow Roadway common stock as compared to its price as of the close of trading on February 22, 2005;

the amount of cash deemed to be paid for dissenting shares;

the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares; and a redemption by USF of a large number of shares of its common stock (which would require the consent of Yellow Roadway under the merger agreement), or the acquisition by Yellow Roadway or any parties related to either Yellow Roadway or USF of a large number of shares of USF common stock for consideration other than Yellow Roadway common stock prior to or as part of the merger.

If, after considering the above factors and any other events and circumstances relevant to determining the cash component of the aggregate consideration, the aggregate value of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued to USF shareholders in the merger is less than 45% of the aggregate consideration, then the cash component of the merger consideration will be reduced and the number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued to USF stockholders will be increased so that:

the aggregate increase in the value of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger, based on the average of the high and low trading prices of the Yellow Roadway common stock on the day before the closing of the merger, equals the aggregate decrease in the cash merger consideration; and

the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger is equal to 45% of the value of the total merger consideration as measured on the day before the closing date.

See page 78 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of how the proration and allocation provisions operate.

Q7: Can I change my mind about receiving cash?

A7: Yes. You have the right to change or revoke your cash election at any time, provided that the exchange agent receives written notice of your revocation before 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date. You will be notified of the specific date of the cash election deadline in the manner specified in Question and Answer 5 above as soon as practicable after the closing date of the merger is determined. If a cash election and transmittal form is revoked, it will be treated as if no cash election had been made, and you will receive solely Yellow Roadway common stock, subject to proration and allocation provisions.

Q8: Do I have to return the cash election and transmittal form?

A8: No, but if you do not, your USF shares will be exchanged solely for Yellow Roadway common stock in the merger, subject to proration and allocation.

Q9: Am I entitled to exercise dissenters' appraisal rights?

A9: Yes, if you are a USF stockholder. Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, any USF stockholder who does not wish to accept the merger consideration has the right to dissent from the merger and to seek an appraisal of, and to be paid the fair value (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) for, the stockholder's shares of USF common stock; provided that the stockholder complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. To review your dissenters' rights of appraisal under Delaware law, see pages 69 through 71 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q10: Will the rights of a USF stockholder change as a result of the merger?

A10: Yes. Until the effective time of the merger, USF's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will continue to govern USF stockholder rights. Upon completion of the merger, USF stockholders who receive Yellow Roadway shares in the transaction will become Yellow Roadway stockholders and Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will then govern their rights. Please read carefully the summary of the material differences between the rights of Yellow Roadway stockholders and USF stockholders under "Comparison of Stockholders' Rights" beginning on page 115 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q11: What will happen to shares of Yellow Roadway common stock upon the merger?

A11: Each outstanding share of Yellow Roadway common stock will remain outstanding.

Q12: Are there risks associated with the merger that I should consider in deciding how to vote?

A12: Yes. There are risks associated with all business combinations, including the merger of our two companies. In particular, you should be aware that the number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock that USF stockholders will receive for each share of USF common stock they own is fixed, subject to proration and allocation, and will not change as the market prices of USF common stock and Yellow Roadway common stock fluctuate in the period before the merger. Accordingly, the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock that

USF stockholders will receive in return for their USF common stock may be less than or more than the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock as of the date of the merger agreement, the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the date of the USF special meeting. There are a number of other risks that are discussed in this document and in other documents incorporated by reference in this document. Please read with particular care the more detailed description of the risks associated with the merger discussed under Risk Factors beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q13: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A13: Yellow Roadway and USF currently expect to complete the merger in the summer of 2005. However, we do not know how long after the special meetings the closing of the merger will take place because fulfilling some of the conditions to the merger is not entirely within our control. Yellow Roadway and USF hope to have the significant conditions, including the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, satisfied so that the closing can occur one business day after the special meetings. However, there can be no assurance that such timing will occur or that the merger will be completed in summer 2005 as currently expected.

Q14: Will USF stockholders be able to trade the Yellow Roadway common stock that they receive in the merger?

A14: The shares of Yellow Roadway common stock issued in connection with the merger will be freely tradable, unless you are an affiliate of USF, and the prices for those shares will be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol YELL. Generally, persons who are deemed to be affiliates (generally directors, executive officers and controlling stockholders) of USF must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock they receive in the merger.

Q15: What are material federal income tax consequences of the merger?

A15: The parties to the merger agreement intend that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code).

It is a condition to the closing of the merger that tax counsel to Yellow Roadway and tax counsel to USF each deliver opinions to Yellow Roadway and USF, respectively, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, USF stockholders who exchange all their USF shares for Yellow Roadway shares will recognize neither gain nor loss, while USF stockholders who exchange some or all of their USF shares for cash will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of:

the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger, and the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow Roadway shares as of the effective time of the merger and the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger exceeds the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the USF shares.

If the U.S. holder holds USF shares as a capital asset, gain recognized upon the exchange generally will be capital gain, and any recognized capital gain will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held the USF shares for more than one year. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 72 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The summary of material United States federal income tax consequences contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is not a substitute for an individual analysis of the tax consequences of the merger to you. You are urged to consult a tax advisor regarding the particular federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger in light of your own situation.

Tax matters are complicated, and the federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to some of USF's stockholders. The tax consequences of the proposed transactions to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you as a result of the merger.

Q16: Where can I find the voting results of the meetings?

A16: The preliminary voting results of each special meeting will be announced at that special meeting. The final results will be published in a press release issued by Yellow Roadway upon consummation of the merger and in Yellow Roadway's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending _____, 2005.

Special Meetings; Votes Required

Q17: When are the special meetings?

A17: Yellow Roadway's special meeting of stockholders will take place on _____, 2005 at _____ a.m. C.D.T. USF's special meeting of stockholders will take place on _____, 2005 at _____ a.m. C.D.T. The location of each special meeting is specified on the cover page of this document.

Q18: What will happen at the special meetings?

A18: At the USF special meeting, USF stockholders will vote on a proposal to adopt the merger agreement, and on a proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal. At the Yellow Roadway special meeting, Yellow Roadway stockholders will vote on the issuance of Yellow Roadway common stock to USF stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement and will vote on a proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the stock issuance proposal. We cannot complete the merger unless, among other things, USF's stockholders adopt the merger agreement and Yellow Roadway's stockholders approve the stock issuance.

Q19: Who is entitled to vote at the special meetings?

A19: Yellow Roadway stockholders of record as of the close of business on _____, 2005 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Yellow Roadway special meeting or any reconvened meeting after any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. USF stockholders of record as of the close of business on _____, 2005 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the USF special meeting or any reconvened meeting after any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

Q20: What is a quorum?

A20: A quorum is the number of shares that must be present to hold the meeting. The quorum requirement for each of the special meetings is the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock that the company had as of the record date, present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the special meeting. A proxy submitted by a stockholder may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by the proxy are not being voted with respect to a particular matter. Proxies that are marked "abstain" or for which votes have otherwise been withheld and proxies relating to "street name" shares that are returned to the relevant company but not voted will be treated as shares present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum on all matters.

Q21: How many shares can vote?

A21:

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

On the record date, Yellow Roadway had outstanding _____ shares of common stock, which constitute Yellow Roadway's only outstanding voting securities. Each Yellow Roadway stockholder is entitled to one vote on each proposal for each share of Yellow Roadway common stock held as of the record date. On the record date, USF had outstanding _____ shares of common stock, which constitute USF's only outstanding voting securities. Each USF stockholder is entitled to one vote on each proposal for each share of USF common stock held as of the record date.

Q22: What vote is required?

A22: The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of USF common stock entitled to vote at the USF special meeting is required to adopt the merger agreement. The approval of the share issuance requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes cast at the Yellow Roadway special meeting on this proposal in person or by proxy. For each company, approval of a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the other proposal(s) requires the vote of a majority of shares present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and actually voted at that special meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the Yellow Roadway special meeting, the officers of the company or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting may adjourn or postpone the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the USF special meeting, the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting may adjourn the meeting.

Even if the votes set forth above are obtained at the special meetings, we cannot assure you that the merger will be completed, because the completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q23: What do I need to do to vote?

A23: Mail your completed and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at your special meeting. To assure that we obtain your vote, please vote as instructed on your proxy card even if you currently plan to attend your special meeting in person. In some cases, you may be able to exercise your proxy by telephone or the internet. See Voting by Proxy beginning on page 40.

The members of the USF board of directors unanimously recommend that USF stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The members of the Yellow Roadway board of directors unanimously recommend that Yellow Roadway stockholders vote FOR the issuance of the Yellow Roadway shares pursuant to the merger agreement.

The enclosed proxy card contains instructions for voting by mail. Please follow these instructions carefully. The proxies identified on the proxy card will vote the shares of which you are stockholder of record in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and return your proxy without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the proposals. If you do not return your proxy, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting.

Q24: How do I vote my shares if my shares are held in street name ?

A24: You should vote this proxy in accordance with the instructions that your bank, broker or nominee provides to you. If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account, your broker will not vote your shares unless the broker receives appropriate instructions from you.

A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders whose shares are held in street name to direct their vote by the internet or telephone. This option, if available, will be reflected in the voting instructions from the bank or brokerage firm that accompany this joint proxy statement/prospectus. If your shares are held in an account at a bank or brokerage firm that participates in such a program, you may direct the vote of these shares by the internet or telephone by following the voting instructions enclosed with the proxy from the bank or brokerage firm. Votes directed by the internet or telephone through such a program must be received by 11:59 p.m., New York, New York time, on _____, 2005. Directing the voting of your shares will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting; however, you must first obtain a signed and properly executed proxy from your bank, broker or nominee in order to vote your shares held in street name at the special meeting. Requesting a proxy prior to the deadlines described above will automatically cancel any voting directions you have previously given by the internet or by telephone with respect to your shares. The internet and telephone proxy procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to give their proxy instructions and to confirm that those instructions have been properly recorded.

Q25: May I change my vote even after returning a proxy?

A25: Yes. If you are a USF stockholder and want to change your vote, you may do so at any time before the USF special meeting by sending to the Secretary of USF a properly executed and signed proxy with a later date. Alternatively, you may revoke your proxy by delivering to the Secretary of USF a written revocation prior to the USF special meeting or by voting in person at the USF special meeting. Similarly, if you are a Yellow Roadway stockholder and want to change your vote, you may do so at any time before the Yellow Roadway special meeting by sending to the Secretary of Yellow Roadway a properly executed and signed proxy with a later date. Alternatively, you may revoke your proxy by delivering to the Secretary of Yellow Roadway a written revocation prior to the Yellow Roadway special meeting or by voting in person at the Yellow Roadway special meeting. For telephone and internet voting only, you may revoke your proxy by submitting a valid, later dated proxy prior to the telephone and internet voting deadline. USF stockholders that require assistance in changing or revoking a proxy should contact Computershare Investor Services, L.L.C., USF's transfer agent, at (800) 810-7514. Yellow Roadway stockholders that require assistance in changing or revoking a proxy should contact UMB Bank, N.A., Yellow Roadway's transfer agent, at (800) 884-4225. Simply attending the applicable special meeting without voting will not revoke your proxy.

Q26: How will the proxies vote on any other business properly brought up at the special meetings?

A26: By submitting your proxy, you authorize the persons named on the proxy card to use their judgment to determine how to vote on any other matter properly brought before the special meeting. The proxies will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and return your proxy without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the proposals. If you do not return your proxy, or if your shares are held in street name and you do not instruct your bank, broker or nominee on how to vote, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting.

The boards of directors of Yellow Roadway and USF do not intend to bring any other business before the meeting and, pursuant to the terms of USF's and Yellow Roadway's respective by-laws, only the business that is specified in the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders may be presented at the special meetings.

Q27: What is a broker non-vote?

A27: A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker or other nominee submits a proxy that indicates that the broker does not vote for some or all of the proposals, because the broker has not received instructions from the beneficial owners on how to vote on these proposals and does not have discretionary authority to vote in the absence of instructions.

Q28: Will broker non-votes or abstentions affect the results?

A28: If you are a Yellow Roadway stockholder, broker non-votes and abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to the stock issuance or adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If you are a USF stockholder, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If your shares are held in street name, we urge you to instruct your bank, broker or nominee on how to vote your shares for those proposals on which you are entitled to vote.

Q29: What happens if I choose not to submit a proxy or to vote?

A29: If a USF stockholder does not submit a proxy or vote at the USF special meeting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, but, so long as a quorum is present, will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If a Yellow Roadway stockholder does not submit a proxy or vote at the Yellow Roadway special meeting, it will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals relating to the stock issuance and adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

General

Q30: Should I send in my USF stock certificates now?

A30: If you elect to receive cash in the merger, you should complete the cash election and transmittal form that will be sent to you and send in your USF stock certificates now. If you want to receive Yellow Roadway common stock, Yellow Roadway would prefer that you complete the cash election and transmittal form and send in your stock certificates now. However, if you do not complete the cash election and transmittal form and you do not send your stock certificates now, you will be sent written instructions after the merger is completed for sending in your USF stock certificates. If you send in your stock certificates now and the merger agreement is terminated, your stock certificates will be returned to you as soon as practicable after the date of termination.

Q31: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

A31: Your shares are probably registered in more than one account. You should vote each proxy card you receive.

Q32: If I have more questions about the merger or the two companies, where can I find answers?

A32: In addition to reading this document, its annexes, and the documents we have incorporated in this document by reference, you can find more information about the merger or about the two companies in our companies' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the Nasdaq National Market. Please see page 123 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. USF Corporation provides comprehensive supply chain management services in four business segments through its operating subsidiaries. In the less-than-truckload segment, carriers provide regional and inter-regional delivery throughout the United States, certain areas of Canada and throughout Mexico. USF's truckload segment offers premium regional and national truckload services. USF's logistics segment provides dedicated fleet, cross-dock operations, supply chain management, contractual warehousing and domestic ocean freight forwarding services throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico. USF's corporate and other segment performs support activities for its business segments including executive, information technology, corporate sales and various financial management functions. Principal subsidiaries in USF's less-than-truckload segment are USF Holland Inc., USF Bestway Inc., USF Reddaway Inc. and USF Dugan Inc. USF Glen Moore Inc. is USF's truckload carrier. Logistics consists of USF Logistics Services Inc.

In December 2003, USF began offering transportation and logistics services in Mexico and across the United States/Mexico border through a joint venture with the shareholders of Autolineas Mexicanas S.A. de C.V. (ALMEX). ALMEX, a nationwide less-than-truckload carrier in Mexico, has a network of 52 terminals providing service to virtually the entire country.

In May 2004, USF shut down USF Red Star, USF's former Northeast carrier. Subsequent to the closure of Red Star, USF announced plans to expand USF Holland's operations into the Northeast.

On February 25, 2005, USF sold 100% of the stock of USF Processors Inc. for $4.5 million in cash to Carolina Logistic Services Inc. USF Processors Inc. was USF's food and pharmaceutical reverse logistics operation and was previously included in USF's Logistics segment. USF Processors Inc. had revenue of $33 million in 2004.

USF employs approximately 20,000 people and its principal executive offices are located at 8550 West Bryn Mawr Ave., Ste. 700, Chicago, Illinois 60631.

On February 27, 2005, the companies agreed to the merger between USF and Sub under the terms of the merger agreement described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and attached in Annex A. The merger agreement is the legal document that governs the merger, and we urge you to read that agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, USF will merge with and into Sub. Sub will be the surviving company and remain a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow Roadway. The separate corporate existence of USF will cease at the effective time of the merger. Sub will fully assume all of the assets, rights and obligations of USF.

Exchange of USF Shares (pages 76-80)

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of USF common stock (other than any shares owned directly or indirectly by USF or Yellow Roadway and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. You may elect to receive $45.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock for each share of USF common stock you own at the effective time of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 76 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You may make a cash election for any whole number of shares of USF common stock you own, but fractional elections are not permitted. (See How do I elect to receive cash instead of Yellow Roadway common stock? below.) However, the merger consideration to be received by each USF stockholder is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive cash (resulting in aggregate cash consideration of approximately $639 million based on the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding on February 27, 2005) and approximately one-half of the outstanding USF shares receive Yellow Roadway common stock, as described below.

Notwithstanding your election:

if you elect to receive some portion of your merger consideration in cash and more than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, you and the other stockholders that elect to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more Yellow Roadway common stock so that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock;

if you elect to receive some portion of your merger consideration in stock and fewer than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, you and the other stockholders that did not elect to receive only cash will receive proportionately less Yellow Roadway common stock and more cash such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock; and the merger agreement requires that at least 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration to be paid to USF stockholders in the merger as measured on the day before the closing date consists of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock and, if this condition is not satisfied, the cash component will be reduced and the number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued to USF stockholders will be increased so that:

the aggregate increase in the value of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock, based on the average of its high and low trading prices on the day before the closing of the merger, equals the aggregate decrease in the cash merger consideration; and the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger is equal to 45% of the value of the total consideration as measured on the day before the closing date.

You will not be able to determine every factor that may cause the proration and allocation procedures to apply and, therefore, your estimate of the consideration you will receive based on your election may not be accurate. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and The Merger Agreement Proration and Allocation .

The following table shows the per share value you will receive in cash or Yellow Roadway common stock (based on assumed prices of each share of Yellow Roadway common stock as of the closing date) resulting from the merger based on whether you elect to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock or $45.00 in cash for one share of USF stock, subject to the proration and allocation provisions described above. This table is provided for illustrative purposes only and the Yellow Roadway common stock closing price may be less or more than the illustrative amounts.

(SUBJECT TO PRORATION AND ALLOCATION PROVISIONS)*
0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock		$ 40.61	$ 45.12	$ 49.63	$ 54.14	$ 58.66
$45.00 in cash	45.00

* The merger consideration that each USF stockholder will receive is subject to proration and allocation provisions described on pages 78 and 79. In addition, no fractional shares of Yellow Roadway common stock will be issued in the merger. All Yellow Roadway shares that a USF stockholder is entitled to receive will be aggregated and any fractional Yellow Roadway shares resulting from this aggregation will be paid in cash, as described below.

Cash elections may be made only for whole shares, and fractional elections are not permitted. However, you can elect to receive Yellow Roadway common stock for a portion of your USF shares and cash for a portion of your USF shares. As described further under The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration , notwithstanding the individual elections of the USF stockholders, 50% of the USF shares will be converted into cash. The following examples assume a closing price for Yellow Roadway common stock on the closing date of the merger of $55.00 per share, which may be more or less than the actual closing price on such date.

If you own 100 shares of USF common stock, you may elect to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock with respect to 50 of those shares and $45.00 in cash with respect to 50 of those shares, in which case you would receive 45 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock and $2,256.60 in cash (including, at a $55.00 closing price for Yellow Roadway s common stock, $6.60 in lieu of fractional shares), subject to proration and allocation.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

If more than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, those USF stockholders electing to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more Yellow Roadway common stock such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. For example, if 75% of the USF shares were to elect cash, an additional 25% of all USF shares would be converted into Yellow Roadway common stock. Under these circumstances, if you own 100 shares of USF common stock and elect to receive cash with respect to all of such shares, you would receive $45.00 in cash with respect to 75 of such shares (totaling $3,375.00 in cash) and 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock with respect to 25 of such shares, which, after adjustment for fractional shares, would result in $3,405.80 in cash and 22 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock.

If fewer than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, those USF stockholders electing not to receive cash will receive proportionately less Yellow Roadway common stock and more cash such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. For example, if 75% of the USF shares were to elect Yellow Roadway common stock, an additional 25% of all USF shares would be converted into cash. Under these circumstances, if you own 100 shares of USF common stock and elect to receive Yellow Roadway common stock with respect to all of such shares, you would receive $45.00 in cash with respect to 25 of such shares (totaling $1,125.00 in cash) and 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock with respect to 75 of such shares, which, after adjustment for fractional shares, would result in $1,162.40 in cash and 67 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock.

The effects of the adjustments described above will be spread as nearly pro rata as possible among all affected USF stockholders, but fractional shares of Yellow Roadway common stock will not be issued. Further, if less than 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration to be paid to USF stockholders in the merger as measured on the day before the closing date consists of Yellow Roadway common stock, USF stockholders electing to receive cash with respect to some or all of such shares may instead receive Yellow Roadway common stock with respect to some or all of such shares. See The Merger Agreement Proration and Allocation .

No fractional shares of Yellow Roadway common stock will be issued in the merger. All Yellow Roadway shares that a USF stockholder is entitled to receive will be aggregated. Any fractional Yellow Roadway shares resulting from this aggregation will be paid in cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the market value of a Yellow Roadway share, determined using the average of the high and low trading prices of Yellow Roadway common stock on the day before the closing as reported on the Nasdaq National Market, rounded to the nearest cent.

Treatment of USF Stock Options (page 87)

Each USF stock option that USF issued will be cancelled as of the effective time of the merger and, to the extent the exercise price of the applicable option is lower than the deemed per share merger consideration, the holder of such option will receive a cash payment. For purposes of discussing the treatment of USF stock options and USF phantom stock units, the deemed per share merger consideration will be equal to (x) $22.50 plus (y) the product of (A) 0.4512 and (B) the average of the high and low prices of Yellow Roadway common stock on the date before the closing, as reported on the Nasdaq National Market. Holders of USF stock options with an exercise price less than the deemed per share merger consideration will receive cash in an amount equal to:

the deemed

(per share exercise price of the USF stock option) x number of USF shares subject to the USF stock option

merger consideration

A holder of USF stock options with an exercise price that is equal to or greater than the deemed per share merger consideration will be cancelled, and the holder of the USF stock option shall not be entitled to receive any consideration for the USF stock option.

Yellow Roadway's board of directors received a written opinion from one of its financial advisors, IFL Capital LLC (IFL), to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration that Yellow Roadway will pay pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Yellow Roadway from a financial point of view. The full text of IFL's written opinion, dated February 27, 2005, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. IFL's opinion was provided to Yellow Roadway's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote with respect to the merger agreement, the issuance of Yellow Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

Opinion of USF's Financial Advisor (page 56)

In connection with the proposed merger, USF's financial advisor, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, delivered a written opinion to USF's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement to the holders of USF common stock. The full text of Morgan Stanley's written opinion, dated February 27, 2005, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. Morgan Stanley's opinion was provided to USF's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to any matters relating to the merger or the form of merger consideration, if any, to be elected by any stockholder.

Immediately following the merger, the Yellow Roadway board will increase from ten directors to eleven directors. The Yellow Roadway board will then elect one of the existing USF directors to fill the newly created vacancy. Such director will serve until the Yellow Roadway 2006 annual meeting of stockholders or until he dies, resigns or his successor is elected and qualified.

At the close of business on the record date for the Yellow Roadway special meeting, directors and executive officers of Yellow Roadway and their affiliates were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock outstanding on that date.

At the close of business on the record date for the USF special meeting, directors and executive officers of USF and their affiliates were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of USF common stock outstanding on that date.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (page 63)

In considering the recommendation of the USF board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that certain members of USF's management and the USF board of directors have interests in the transaction that are or may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a USF stockholder. These interests include, among other things, the following:

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, one of the seven members of the USF board will be appointed as a director of Yellow Roadway.

Table of Contents

Under the terms of the severance protection agreements entered into between USF and certain of its officers, if an officer's employment with USF (or its successor) is terminated other than for cause during the severance period or the officer resigns for good reason (as each such term is defined in the officer's severance protection agreement), that officer is entitled to severance benefits, including excise tax gross-up payments for excess parachute payments received in connection with the merger.

Subject to the terms of the executive retention program, USF will make retention payments in an aggregate amount of $4.7 million to certain executive officers of USF. USF will pay a retention payment to the applicable executive if either:

the executive is employed on the effective date of the merger and on the 12-month anniversary thereof or if the executive is involuntarily terminated without cause, resigns for good reason (as each such term is defined in the executive retention program), becomes disabled or dies before the 12-month anniversary of the merger.

Pursuant to a letter agreement entered into between USF and Paul J. Liska, Executive Chairman of USF, dated February 27, 2005, USF will pay Mr. Liska at the effective time of the merger a transaction fee in the amount of $2.19 million if USF completes the merger, provided that Mr. Liska has not voluntarily resigned as Executive Chairman prior to that time.

Each option to purchase USF shares granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become fully vested and fully exercisable at the effective time and, depending on the exercise price of the option, the holders of certain options may receive a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation and termination of such unexercised options.

Each share of restricted USF stock granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become fully vested and all restrictions relating to such USF shares shall lapse at the effective time.

Each phantom stock unit granted under a USF stock plan or under another agreement (each, a PSU) will become fully vested and USF will be required to pay the holder of such PSU a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation and, termination of the PSU.

Under the merger agreement, Yellow Roadway has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of USF for certain liabilities arising both before and, in some cases, after the merger.

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow Roadway has agreed that it will provide USF's current officers and directors certain liability insurance.

The Yellow Roadway and USF boards of directors were aware of these arrangements during their respective deliberations on the merits of the merger and in deciding to recommend that you vote FOR the approval of their respective proposals.

Covenant to Use Reasonable Best Efforts to Obtain All Necessary Regulatory Approvals

The parties are required to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the merger, including obtaining and making all necessary regulatory approvals and filings. However, Yellow Roadway is not obligated to agree to any divestitures or take any other action at the government's request if the action would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of Yellow Roadway, USF and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after the merger.

Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived. These conditions include the following:

adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding USF shares entitled to vote at the USF special meeting;

approval of the issuance of Yellow Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the votes cast at the Yellow Roadway special meeting;

receipt of all authorizations, consents, orders, or approvals of governmental entities, including expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, required to be obtained prior to the effective time of the merger except where the failure to obtain them would not have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on USF or Yellow Roadway;

absence of any statute, rule, regulation, decree, order, or injunction in effect restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; receipt of opinions by Yellow Roadway and USF from their respective tax counsel that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

continued effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part and the absence of a stop order by the Securities and Exchange Commission suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement; accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement, except as would not have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on the party making the representations or, to the extent that the breach is with respect to a party's representations concerning its capital structure, the breach renders such representations inaccurate in any material respect; and compliance in all material respects by each party with its covenants in the merger agreement.

The merger agreement may be terminated:

by either Yellow Roadway or USF if:

the parties fail to consummate the merger on or before December 31, 2005, unless the failure is the result of a material breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking the termination; approval by the USF stockholders of the merger agreement is not obtained at a duly convened special meeting of USF stockholders or at any reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof;

its board of directors authorizes USF, subject to complying with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal;

Yellow Roadway does not make, within the time period specified under Covenants and Agreements - No Solicitation, an offer that the USF board of directors determined, in good faith after consultation with its financial advisors, is at least as favorable, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of USF as the superior proposal; and by USF within 20 business days following the date on which Yellow Roadway's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to USF, its recommendation of the share issuance.

by USF if:

there has been a breach of any representation or warranty made by Yellow Roadway or Sub in the merger agreement, or any such representation or warranty shall have become untrue;

the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct has had, or is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on Yellow Roadway or, to the extent the breach is with respect to Yellow Roadway's representations and warranties concerning its capital structure, the breach renders such representations and warranties inaccurate in any material respect; and

by USF if:

there has been a breach of any covenant or agreement made by Yellow Roadway or Sub in the merger agreement such that Yellow Roadway and Sub will not have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under the merger agreement on or prior to the closing of the merger; and

by Yellow Roadway within 20 business days following the date on which USF's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow Roadway, its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement, or if USF's board of directors approves or recommends any superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) made or received after February 27, 2005.

such breach or condition is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within 30 calendar days after written notice thereof is given by Yellow Roadway to USF.

USF must pay a termination fee of $26 million to Yellow Roadway if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Yellow Roadway or USF, if:

the approval of the USF stockholders has not been obtained at a duly convened special meeting of USF stockholders or at any reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof, after February 27, 2005 and prior to the USF special meeting, a third party has made a bona fide written acquisition proposal that has been publicly disclosed and not publicly withdrawn prior to the USF special meeting, and within nine months of the termination of the merger agreement, USF or any of its subsidiaries enters into any acquisition agreement pertaining to, or consummates, a merger or other business combination or a third party acquires more than 50% of the equity or assets of USF;

by USF because it seeks to accept a superior proposal, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions described above; or by Yellow Roadway because USF's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow Roadway, its recommendation of the merger agreement.

Yellow Roadway must pay a termination fee of $26 million to USF if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Yellow Roadway or USF because the approval of the Yellow Roadway stockholders has not been obtained at a duly convened special meeting of Yellow Roadway stockholders or at any reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof; or by USF because Yellow Roadway's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to USF, its recommendation or approval of the share issuance.

In general, each of Yellow Roadway, Sub and USF will bear its own expenses in connection with the merger agreement and the related transactions except that Yellow Roadway and USF will share equally the costs and expenses in connection with printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

No Solicitation by USF (page 85)

The merger agreement generally restricts the ability of USF to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a proposal to acquire a significant interest in USF. However, if:

USF receives an acquisition proposal from a third party that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, to USF stockholders than the terms of the merger agreement or an acquisition proposal that the USF board determines in good faith could lead to such a superior proposal and

USF complies with specified procedures contained in the merger agreement, then USF may furnish nonpublic information to that third party and engage in negotiations regarding an acquisition proposal with that third party, subject to specified conditions.

Accounting Treatment (page 67)

The merger will be accounted for as a business combination using the purchase method of accounting. Yellow Roadway will be the acquiror for financial accounting purposes.

Certain Differences in the Rights of Stockholders (page 115)

As a result of the merger, the holders of USF shares will become holders of Yellow Roadway shares. Although both USF and Yellow Roadway are Delaware corporations that the DGCL governs, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of USF currently govern the rights of USF stockholders and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Yellow Roadway currently govern the rights of Yellow Roadway stockholders.

See page 115 for summaries of material differences between the rights of USF stockholders and Yellow Roadway stockholders arising because of differences in the certificates of incorporation and bylaws.

The merger is subject to antitrust laws. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the parties cannot complete the merger until they have notified and furnished information to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and specified waiting periods expire or are terminated. Yellow Roadway filed the information required under the HSR Act on March 14, 2005, and USF filed the information required under the HSR Act on March 15, 2005. Unless earlier terminated or extended by a request for additional information, the waiting period will expire at 11:59 P.M. on April 14, 2005. If extended by a request for additional information, the waiting period will, unless earlier terminated, expire 30 days after substantial compliance by both parties with respect to the request for additional information, or on the next regular business day if the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday.

At any time before or after completion of the merger, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or the FTC may, however, challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. Private parties could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking an injunction prohibiting or delaying the merger, divestiture or damages under certain circumstances. Additionally, at any time before or after the completion of the merger, notwithstanding expiration of the applicable waiting period, any state could take action under its antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, USF and Yellow Roadway will prevail.

- (1) The net losses in 2002 are largely due to a first quarter 2002 non-cash charge of $75.2 million for the impairment of goodwill related to Jevic Transportation, Inc. (a subsidiary of SCST) and a third quarter 2002 non-cash charge of $52.6 million for the difference between the carrying value of SCST and the fair value, as determined by the market capitalization of SCST at the spin-off date.
- (2) Excludes amounts related to discontinued operations.
- (3) The accounting for Yellow Roadway's asset backed securitization (ABS) facility has changed during the periods presented above. Prior to December 31, 2002, activity under the ABS facility was treated as a sale of assets for financial reporting purposes. As a result, Yellow Roadway did not reflect the receivables sold and the related ABS obligations on its Consolidated Balance Sheets, and ABS facility charges were shown as a separate line in the nonoperating expenses section of its Statements of Consolidated Operations. On December 31, 2002, Yellow Roadway amended the ABS agreement to, among other things, provide Yellow Roadway the right to repurchase 100% of the receivable interests. Because of this amendment, ABS borrowings and related receivables are included on Yellow Roadway's Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2002. Starting in 2003, ABS facility charges are included in the interest expense line of Yellow Roadway's Statements of Consolidated Operations.

The following is a summary of Yellow Roadway's ABS facility history since 2000:

Table of ContentsSelected Unaudited Condensed Combined Pro Forma Financial Data

We derived the following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial data from Yellow Roadway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and USF's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004. The financial data has been prepared as if the proposed merger and the consummation of Yellow Roadway's currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger had occurred on January 1, 2004 for the operating data and as of December 31, 2004 for the balance sheet data. The process of valuing USF's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as well as evaluating accounting policies for conformity is still in the preliminary stages. Material revisions to our current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized. The unaudited pro forma operating data set forth below is not necessarily indicative of the results that actually would have been achieved had the proposed merger and the currently contemplated financing transactions related to the merger been consummated on January 1, 2004, or that may be achieved in the future. The unaudited pro forma financial statements do not reflect any benefits from potential cost savings or revenue changes resulting from the proposed merger. You should read this information in conjunction with Yellow Roadway's Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, Yellow Roadway's consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto, USF's Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, USF's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto and the Unaudited Condensed Combined Pro Forma Financial Data included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or included in Yellow Roadway's and USF's Annual Reports on Form 10-K incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE INFORMATION

The following table presents income from continuing operations and book value per common share data separately for Yellow Roadway and USF on a historical basis, Yellow Roadway and USF on an unaudited pro forma combined basis per Yellow Roadway share and unaudited pro forma combined basis per USF equivalent share. The unaudited pro forma earnings per share data for the year ended December 31, 2004 reflects the assumption that the merger was effective as of January 1, 2004. The unaudited pro forma per share data gives effect to the proposed merger as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

The unaudited pro forma Yellow Roadway income per share data is based upon the historical weighted average number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock outstanding, adjusted to include the number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock that would be issued in the proposed merger based upon the exchange ratio of 0.9024 and the assumption that 50% of the shares of USF common stock had been converted into shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. We have based the unaudited equivalent pro forma per share data for USF on the unaudited pro forma Yellow Roadway amounts per share, multiplied by 0.9024.

You should read the information below together with the historical financial statements and related notes of Yellow Roadway and USF contained in each company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 123 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma combined data below is presented for illustrative purposes only. The companies may have performed differently had they actually been combined during the periods presented below. You should not rely on this information as being indicative of the historical results that would have been achieved had the companies always been combined or the future results that the combined company will experience after the proposed merger.

RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to approve the merger, you should carefully consider all of the information we have included in this document and its annexes and all of the information we have included in the documents we have incorporated by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 123 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, you should pay particular attention to the following risks related to the merger and the business of the combined company:

Risks of the Merger

The merger is subject to certain conditions to closing that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, as set forth in the merger agreement. The conditions to the merger include, among others, the receipt of required approvals from Yellow Roadway's stockholders and USF's stockholders. If any of the conditions to the merger is not satisfied or, if waiver is permissible, not waived, the merger will not be completed. In addition, under circumstances specified in the merger agreement, Yellow Roadway or USF may terminate the merger agreement. As a result, we cannot assure you that we will complete the merger or that we will complete it without effecting some divestitures or other changes to our respective business, assets or operations. If we do not complete the merger, the price of Yellow Roadway common stock or USF common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price of both Yellow Roadway common stock and USF common stock reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. Furthermore, our respective businesses may be harmed to the extent that customers, suppliers and others believe that Yellow Roadway and USF cannot effectively compete in the marketplace without the merger, or otherwise remain uncertain about either of us. Yellow Roadway and USF will also be obligated to pay certain investment banking, financing, legal and accounting fees in connection with the merger, whether or not the merger is completed. Moreover, under specified circumstances, Yellow Roadway and USF may be required to pay a termination fee of $26 million to the other in connection with the termination of the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement beginning on page 76 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a further description of the terms of the merger agreement, conditions to the merger, including approval of the Department of Justice or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, and termination fees and expenses.

We may face difficulties in achieving the expected benefits of the merger.

Yellow Roadway and USF currently operate as separate companies. Management has no experience running the combined business, and we may not be able to realize all of the operating efficiencies, synergies, cost savings or other benefits expected from the merger. In addition, the costs we incur in implementing synergies, including our ability to terminate, amend or renegotiate prior contractual commitments of Yellow Roadway and USF, may be greater than expected. We also may suffer a loss of employees, customers or suppliers, a loss of revenues, or an increase in operating or other costs or other difficulties relating to the merger.

Certain directors and executive officers of USF have interests and arrangements that are different from USF's stockholders and that may influence or have influenced their decision to support or approve the merger.

When considering the recommendation of USF's board of directors with respect to the merger, holders of USF common stock should be aware that certain of USF's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as USF stockholders and the interests of USF stockholders generally. These interests include, among other things, the following:

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, one of the seven members of the USF board will be appointed as a director of Yellow Roadway.

Under the terms of the severance protection agreements entered into between USF and certain of its officers, if an officer's employment with USF (or its successor) is terminated other than for cause during the severance period or the officer resigns for good reason (as each such term is defined in the officer's severance protection agreement), that officer is entitled to severance benefits, including excise tax gross-up payments for excess parachute payments received in connection with the merger.

Subject to the terms of the executive retention program, USF will make retention payments in an aggregate amount of $4.7 million to certain executive officers of USF. USF will pay a retention payment to the applicable executive if either:

the executive is employed on the effective date of the merger and on the 12-month anniversary thereof or if the executive is involuntarily terminated without cause, resigns for good reason (as each such term is defined in the executive retention program), becomes disabled or dies before the 12-month anniversary of the merger.

Pursuant to a letter agreement entered into between USF and Paul J. Liska, Executive Chairman of USF, dated February 27, 2005, USF will pay Mr. Liska at the effective time of the merger a transaction fee in the amount of $2.19 million if USF completes the merger, provided that Mr. Liska has not voluntarily resigned as Executive Chairman prior to that time.

Each option to purchase USF shares granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become fully vested and fully exercisable at the effective time and, depending on the exercise price of the options, the holders of certain options may receive a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation and termination of such unexercised options.

Each share of restricted USF stock granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become fully vested and all restrictions relating to such USF shares shall lapse at the effective time.

Each phantom stock unit granted under a USF stock plan or under another agreement (each, a PSU) will become fully vested and USF will be required to pay the holder of such PSU a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation, and termination of the PSU.

Under the merger agreement, Yellow Roadway has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of USF for certain liabilities arising both before and, in some cases, after the merger.

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow Roadway has agreed that it will provide USF's current officers and directors certain liability insurance.

As a result, these directors and executive officers may be more likely to support and to vote to approve the merger than if they did not have these interests. Holders of USF common stock should consider whether these interests may have influenced these directors and officers to support or recommend approval of the merger. As of the close of business on the record date for the USF special meeting, these directors and executive officers were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of USF common stock outstanding on that date. These and additional interests of certain directors and executive officers of USF are more fully described in the sections entitled Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 63 and Board of Directors and Management of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger beginning on page 69 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The market value of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock that USF stockholders will receive in the merger will vary because the exchange ratio is fixed, potentially resulting in USF's stockholders receiving a lower dollar value of Yellow Roadway common stock at the time of completion of the merger.

The exchange ratio is a fixed ratio and will not be adjusted as a result of an increase or decrease in the price per share of Yellow Roadway common stock or for any increase or decrease in the price per share of USF common stock. The prices of Yellow Roadway common stock and USF common stock at the time the merger is completed may be higher or lower than their price on the date of this document or on the date of the special meetings of Yellow Roadway stockholders and USF stockholders. Changes in the business, operations or prospects of Yellow Roadway or USF, market assessments of the benefits of the merger and of the likelihood that the merger will be completed, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions, or other factors may affect the prices of Yellow Roadway common stock or USF common stock. Most of these factors are beyond our control.

Because the merger will be completed only after the special meetings of our respective stockholders are held, there is no way to be sure that the price of the Yellow Roadway common stock now, or on the date of the special meetings, will be indicative of its price at the time the merger is completed. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of both Yellow Roadway common stock and USF common stock. Neither Yellow Roadway nor USF has a right to terminate the merger agreement based upon changes in the market price of either USF common stock or Yellow Roadway common stock.

Because of the proration and allocation provisions of the merger agreement, you may not receive the exact consideration you elect in the merger.

Notwithstanding the individual elections of the USF stockholders, 50% of the USF shares will be converted into cash. If more than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, those stockholders that elect to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more stock such that 50% of the shares outstanding will receive cash, and 50% will receive stock. If fewer than 50% of the shares elect to receive cash, the stockholders not electing to receive cash will receive proportionately less Yellow Roadway stock and more cash such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. As a result of these elections and adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately $639 million in cash (based on the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding as of February 27, 2005) and the balance will be paid in Yellow Roadway common stock. In addition, the merger agreement requires that at least 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration consists of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. Various events and circumstances have a bearing on whether a reallocation among cash and Yellow Roadway common stock is necessary so that 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration consists of Yellow Roadway common stock. Because the aggregate cash component of the consideration is limited and you will not be able to determine every factor that may cause the proration and allocation procedures to apply, you may not receive the exact consideration elected on your cash election and transmittal form and your estimate of the consideration you will receive based on your election may not be accurate.

The pro forma financial data included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary and our actual financial position and results of operations may differ significantly and adversely from the pro forma amounts included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Because of the proximity of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the announcement of the proposed merger, the process of valuing USF's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities, as well as evaluating USF's accounting policies for conformity is still in the very preliminary stages. Material revisions to current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized.

The unaudited pro forma operating data contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is not necessarily indicative of the results that actually would have been achieved had the proposed merger and Yellow Roadway's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the merger been consummated on January 1, 2004, or that may be achieved in the future. We can provide no assurances as to how the operations and assets of both companies would have been run if they had been combined, or how they will be run in the future, which, together with other factors, could have a significant effect on the results of operations and financial position of the combined company.

Yellow Roadway will have higher levels of indebtedness than either Yellow Roadway or USF had before the merger.

You should consider that following the merger Yellow Roadway will have higher levels of debt and interest expense than either company had immediately prior to the merger on a stand-alone basis. As of December 31, 2004, after giving effect to the merger and other currently contemplated related financings, the combined company and its subsidiaries would have had approximately $1.5 billion of indebtedness outstanding. The significant level of combined indebtedness after the merger may have an effect on our future operations, including:

limiting our ability to obtain additional financing on satisfactory terms to fund our working capital requirements, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments, debt service requirements and other general corporate requirements; increasing our vulnerability to general economic downturns, competition and industry conditions, which could place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that are less leveraged; increasing our exposure to rising interest rates because a portion of our borrowings will be at variable interest rates; reducing the availability of our cash flow to fund our working capital requirements, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments and other general corporate requirements because we will be required to use a substantial portion of our cash flow to service debt obligations; and limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry in which we operate.

See Proposed Financings on page 121 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger

We are subject to general economic factors that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Our business is subject to a number of general economic factors that may significantly reduce our operating margins and income, many of which are largely out of our control. These include recessionary economic cycles and downturns in customers' business cycles and changes in their business practices, particularly in market segments and industries, such as retail and manufacturing, where we have a significant concentration of customers. Economic conditions may adversely affect our customers' business levels, the amount of transportation services they need and their ability to pay for our services. Customers encountering adverse economic conditions represent a greater potential for loss, and we may be required to increase our reserve for bad-debt losses.

The transportation industry is affected by business risks that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Businesses operating in the transportation industry are affected by risks that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income. These factors include weather, excess capacity in the transportation industry, interest rates, fuel prices and taxes, terrorist attacks, license and registration fees, and insurance premiums and self-insurance levels. Our results of operations may also be affected by seasonal factors.

We operate in a highly competitive industry, and our business will suffer if we are unable to adequately address potential downward pricing pressures and other factors that may adversely affect our operations and significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Numerous competitive factors could impair our ability to maintain our current profitability. These factors include the following:

We compete with many other transportation service providers of varying sizes, some of which have a lower cost structure, more equipment and greater capital resources than we do or have other competitive advantages.

Some of our competitors periodically reduce their prices to gain business, especially during times of reduced growth rates in the economy, which limits our ability to maintain or increase prices or maintain significant growth in our business.

Our customers may negotiate rates or contracts that minimize or eliminate our ability to continue to hedge fuel price increases through a fuel surcharge on our customers.

Many customers reduce the number of carriers they use by selecting so-called "core carriers" as approved transportation service providers, and in some instances we may not be selected.

Many customers periodically accept bids from multiple carriers for their shipping needs, and this process may depress prices or result in the loss of some business to competitors.

The trend towards consolidation in the ground transportation industry may create other large carriers with greater financial resources and other competitive advantages relating to their size.

Advances in technology require increased investments to remain competitive, and our customers may not be willing to accept higher prices to cover the cost of these investments.

Competition from non-asset-based logistics and freight brokerage companies may adversely affect our customer relationships and prices.

If our relationship with our employees were to deteriorate, we may be faced with labor disruptions or stoppages, which could adversely affect our business and reduce our operating margins and income and place us at a disadvantage relative to non-union competitors.

Yellow Transportation, Roadway Express, New Penn Motor Express and Reimer Express, all operating subsidiaries of Yellow Roadway, have employees who are represented by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (the "IBT"). These employees represent approximately 80% of Yellow Roadway's workforce. USF Holland, USF Reddaway, USF Bestway, USF Dugan and USF Logistics, all operating subsidiaries of USF, also have employees who are represented by the IBT. These employees represent approximately 55% of USF's LTL workforce and approximately 43% of USF's overall workforce.

USF Reddaway's collective bargaining agreement with the IBT expired on December 31, 2004. USF Reddaway and the IBT currently are operating under a temporary extension to such agreement and currently are engaged in negotiations concerning a new collective bargaining agreement. USF can provide no assurance that a new collective bargaining agreement will be entered into by USF Reddaway or, if entered into, that the terms of such agreement will not be materially less favorable to USF than the terms of the expired collective bargaining agreement.

USF Bestway's collective bargaining agreement with the IBT will expire on December 31, 2005. USF can provide no assurance that a new collective bargaining agreement will be entered into by USF Bestway or, if entered into, that the terms of such agreement will not be materially less favorable to USF than the terms of the current collective bargaining agreement.

Each of Yellow Transportation, Roadway Express and USF Holland employ most of their unionized employees under the terms of a common national master agreement as supplemented by additional regional supplements and local agreements. This current five-year agreement will expire on March 31, 2008. Other unionized employees are employed pursuant to more localized agreements. The IBT represents relatively a number of employees at USF Reddaway, USF Bestway and USF Logistics under these localized agreements, which have wages, benefit contributions and other terms and conditions that better fit the cost structure and operating models of these business units.

USF is regularly subject to a variety of actions by unions and individuals acting on behalf of unions that can adversely affect USF's assets and business operations. These actions may include, among other things, efforts to organize non-union employees and actions relating to already organized employees with respect to wages, work rules and other matters covered by existing or to-be-agreed-upon labor agreements.

USF has been subject to IBT efforts to seek union representation for employees at USF Dugan and its former operating unit, USF Red Star. The IBT has focused its organizing efforts on employees at USF Dugan and has been successful in winning representation elections at three of the six USF Dugan terminals where elections were held in 2004. Prior to these elections, the IBT did not represent any USF Dugan employees. In 2004, the IBT also attempted to organize certain employees at USF Red Star's Philadelphia terminal. On May 21, 2004, unionized employees commenced a strike against all USF Red Star terminals. On May 23, 2004, USF shut down USF Red Star's operations as a result of the economic damage caused, or expected to be caused, by the strike. There are now a number of outstanding lawsuits by employees against USF Red Star seeking back pay claiming that USF Red Star failed to provide adequate notice of the shut down as required by the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification (WARN) Act. The IBT also has brought an action against USF and USF Red Star claiming that the shutdown was a breach of collective bargaining agreements and the National Labor Relations Act. USF and USF Red Star have countersued the IBT, claiming the strike against USF Red Star was a breach of these agreements. The IBT also has requested the National Labor Relations Board to bring an unfair labor practice charge against USF and USF Red Star for these alleged breaches.

USF and its subsidiaries also are regularly subject to grievances, arbitration proceedings and other claims concerning alleged past and current non-compliance with applicable labor law and collective bargaining agreements.

Neither USF nor Yellow Roadway nor any of their respective subsidiaries can predict the outcome of any of the actions, activities or claims discussed above. These actions, activities and claims, if resolved in a manner unfavorable to USF, could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, businesses and results of operations of USF.

After the acquisition, the operating units of Yellow Roadway, including the USF operating units, will seek to address with their employees and the IBT leadership the various issues, lawsuits and charge requests arising from the IBT organizing efforts at USF. In addition, the differences among the wages, benefit contributions and work rules in the various localized contracts and the national master agreement could become a point of issue at one or more of the operating units.

If the combined company is unsuccessful in addressing these labor issues to the satisfaction of its employees and the IBT, it is possible that the combined company could become subject to work stoppages or other labor disturbances, any of which could reduce its operating margins and income. Similarly, any failure to negotiate a new labor agreement to replace an expiring agreement might result in a work stoppage that could reduce its operating margins and income and place the combined company at a disadvantage relative to non-union competitors. Finally, any new labor agreement could have disadvantageous wages, benefit contributions or work rules, that could reduce the combined company's operating margins and income and make it more difficult to compete against non-union competitors.

Ongoing insurance and claims expenses could significantly reduce our income.

Our future insurance and claims expenses might exceed historical levels, which could significantly reduce our earnings. Yellow Roadway currently self-insures for a portion of its claims exposure resulting from cargo loss, personal injury, property damage and workers' compensation. If the number or severity of claims for which we are self-insured increases, our earnings could be significantly reduced. Yellow Roadway also maintains insurance with licensed insurance companies above the amounts for which Yellow Roadway self-insures.

We will have significant ongoing capital requirements that could reduce our income if we are unable to generate sufficient cash from operations.

The transportation industry is very capital intensive. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash from operations in the future, we may have to limit our growth, enter into additional financing arrangements, or operate our revenue equipment for longer periods, any of which could reduce our income. Revenue equipment includes, among other things, tractors and trailers. Our ability to incur additional indebtedness could be adversely affected by any increase in requirements that we post letters of credit in support of our insurance policies. See Ongoing insurance and claims expenses could significantly reduce our income. Lack of availability of surety bonds in the future could result in our having to post additional letters of credit, which would in turn reduce borrowing availability under our credit agreement. If needed, additional indebtedness may not be available on terms acceptable to us.

We operate in a highly regulated industry, and costs of compliance with, or liability for violation of, existing or future regulations could significantly increase our costs of doing business.

The U.S. Department of Transportation and various state and federal agencies exercise broad powers over our business, generally governing such activities as authorization to engage in motor carrier operations and safety. We may also become subject to new or more restrictive regulations imposed by the Department of Transportation, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration or other authorities relating to engine exhaust emissions, the hours of service that our drivers may provide in any one time period, security and other matters. Compliance with these regulations could substantially impair equipment productivity and increase our costs.

The Environmental Protection Agency has issued regulations that require progressive reductions in exhaust emissions from diesel engines through 2007. These reductions began with diesel engines manufactured late in 2002. The regulations currently include subsequent reductions in the sulfur content of diesel fuel in 2006 and the introduction of emissions after-treatment devices on newly manufactured engines in 2007. These regulations could result in higher prices for tractors and increased fuel and maintenance costs.

We are subject to various environmental laws and regulations, and costs of compliance with, or liabilities for violations of, existing or future regulations could significantly increase our costs of doing business.

Our operations are subject to environmental laws and regulations dealing with, among other things, the handling of hazardous materials, underground fuel storage tanks and discharge and retention of stormwater. We operate in industrial areas, where truck terminals and other industrial activities are located, and where groundwater or other forms of environmental contamination may have occurred. Our operations involve the risks of fuel spillage or seepage, environmental damage, and hazardous waste disposal, among others. If we are involved in a spill or other accident involving hazardous substances, or if we are found to be in violation of applicable laws or regulations, it could significantly increase our cost of doing business. Under specific environmental laws, we could be held responsible for all of the costs relating to any contamination at our past or present terminals and at third party waste disposal sites. If we fail to comply with applicable environmental regulations, we could be subject to substantial fines or penalties and to civil and criminal liability.

The IRS may issue an adverse tax determination concerning a deduction taken by USF in connection with its disposition of USF Worldwide.

On October 30, 2002, USF disposed of the stock of USF Worldwide, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of USF at such time, and other interests for no consideration. In connection with this disposition, USF claimed a worthless stock deduction with respect to such stock on USF's U.S. federal tax return for the tax year ended December 31, 2002, and established a reserve on USF's financial accounts in light of the possibility that the IRS might not agree with USF's tax position on this matter. USF is currently under tax audit for the 2002 tax year and, as part of such audit, the IRS is reviewing the USF Worldwide worthless stock deduction. The IRS may determine that USF was not entitled to an ordinary deduction as a result of the USF Worldwide disposition, but rather that USF should have claimed a capital loss deduction as a result of such disposition. In the event of such a determination, USF estimates that it could have additional tax liability of up to $48,000,000 (net of the benefit of offsetting capital gains realized within the capital loss carryover period to date, but not including (i) interest and penalties, if any, or (ii) offsetting capital gain, if any, that might be generated within the remaining carryover period). USF would be required to pay the amount of such additional tax liability to the IRS upon final adjudication of the dispute.

We may be obligated to make additional contributions to multi-employer pension plans.

Yellow Transportation, Roadway Express and New Penn Motor Express contribute to approximately 90 separate multi-employer health, welfare and pension plans for employees covered by collective bargaining agreements (approximately 80% of total Yellow Roadway employees). Similarly, USF Holland and USF Reddaway contribute to approximately 24 separate multi-employer health, welfare and pension plans for employees covered by collective bargaining agreements (approximately 38% of total USF employees). The largest of these plans, the Central States Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Plan (the Central States Plan), provides retirement benefits to approximately 53% of Yellow Roadway's total employees and 31% of USF's total employees. The amounts of these contributions are determined by contract and established in the agreements. The health and welfare plans provide health care and disability benefits to active employees and retirees. The pension plans provide defined benefits to retired participants. We recognize as net pension cost the required contribution for the period and recognize as a liability any contributions due and unpaid.

Yellow Transportation, Roadway Express, New Penn Motor Express, USF Holland and USF Reddaway each have collective bargaining agreements with their unions that stipulate the amount of contributions each company must make to union-sponsored, multi-employer pension plans. The Internal Revenue Code and related regulations establish minimum funding requirements for these plans. Under recent legislation, qualified multi-employer plans are permitted to exclude certain recent investment losses from the minimum funding formula through 2005. The Central States Plan, in particular, has informed the Company that its recent investment performance has adversely affected its funding levels and that the fund is seeking corrective measures to address its funding. During the benefit period of the recent legislation, the Central States Plan is expected to meet the minimum funding requirements. In the unlikely event that the Central States Plan does not elect to receive the benefit of the legislation, the Company believes that the plan would not meet the minimum funding requirements that the Code and related regulations require. If any of these plans, including the Central States Plan, fails to meet minimum funding requirements and the trustees of such a plan are unable to obtain a waiver of the requirements or certain changes in how the applicable plan calculates its funding level from the IRS or reduce pension benefits to a level where the requirements are met, the IRS could impose an excise tax on all employers participating in these plans and contributions in excess of our contractually agreed upon rates could be required to correct the funding deficiency. If an excise tax were imposed on the participating employers and additional contributions required, it could have a material adverse impact on the financial results of Yellow Roadway.

Due to the shutdown of USF Red Star, USF is subject to withdrawal liability for up to 11 multi-employer pension plans. While we cannot estimate the final amount of USF's withdrawal liability, in 2004, USF made payments of $4,988,000 to certain of these funds under the Multi-Employer Pension Plan Amendment Act of 1980 (MEPPA), and USF accrued a contingent liability of $2,083,000 for two plans. However, USF is entitled to review and contest liability assessments that various funds provided as well as determine the mitigating effect of USF Holland's expansion into certain of the geographic areas that USF Red Star previously covered. USF continues to gather information to determine the extent of the withdrawal liability from each of the plans. Given the lack of current information, complexity of the calculations and the expected mitigation relative to the USF

Holland expansion, the final withdrawal liability, which may be material to our financial position, cannot currently be estimated for the remaining nine plans, and therefore USF has not accrued any costs related to these nine plans. USF believes the process to determine withdrawal liability will likely take at least several months, but it could extend to a year or more for the following reasons: the time it will take to obtain information from the pension plans and analyze such information; substantial negotiations with these pension plans over withdrawal liability; and any potential arbitration of the issues, other legal proceedings, and the unknown mitigating effect of the USF Holland expansion.

Our management team is an important part of our business and loss of key personnel could impair our success.

We benefit from the leadership and experience of our senior management team and depend on their continued services to successfully implement our business strategy. Other than our Chief Executive Officer, William D. Zollars, and James D. Staley, President and Chief Executive Officer of Roadway LLC, Yellow Roadway has not entered into employment agreements for a fixed period with members of our current management. The loss of key personnel could have a material adverse effect on our operating results, business or financial condition. USF has entered into retention agreements with certain executives, which are intended in part to make the services of these executives available through the completion of the merger and for one year after the closing of the merger.

Our business may be harmed by anti-terrorism measures.

In the aftermath of the terrorist attacks on the United States, federal, state and municipal authorities have implemented and are implementing various security measures, including checkpoints and travel restrictions on large trucks. Although many companies will be adversely affected by any slowdown in the availability of freight transportation, the negative impact could affect our business disproportionately. For example, we offer specialized services that guarantee on-time delivery. If the new security measures disrupt or impede the timing of our deliveries, we may fail to meet the needs of our customers, or may incur increased expenses to do so. We cannot assure you that these measures will not significantly increase our costs and reduce our operating margins and income.

Yellow Roadway's stock price may be volatile in the future, which could cause you to lose a significant portion of your investment.

The market price of Yellow Roadway common stock could be subject to significant fluctuations in response to certain factors, such as variations in our anticipated or actual results of operations, the operating results of other companies in the transportation industry, changes in conditions affecting the economy generally, including incidents of terrorism, analyst reports, general trends in the industry, sales of common stock by insiders, as well as other factors unrelated to our operating results. Volatility in the market price of Yellow Roadway common stock may prevent you from being able to sell your shares at or above the price you paid for them.

We may face difficulties in achieving certain expected benefits of the December 2003 acquisition of Roadway Corporation.

Prior to December 11, 2003, when we acquired Roadway Corporation through the merger of Roadway Corporation with and into one of our subsidiaries, Yellow Roadway Corporation and Roadway Corporation operated as separate companies. We may not be able to continue to realize all of the operating efficiencies, synergies, cost savings or other benefits that we expect from that merger. In addition, the costs we incur in implementing further synergies, including our ability to terminate, amend or renegotiate prior contractual commitments of Yellow Roadway and Roadway, may be greater than expected.

Yellow Roadway's contingent convertible notes may result in dilution to our common stockholders.

Yellow Roadway has $250 million of 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes and $150 million of 3.375% contingent convertible senior notes maturing on August 8, 2023 and November 19, 2023, respectively. Most of these notes have a net share settlement feature that will require settlement of any conversions for a combination of cash for the accreted value of the notes and shares for the conversion premium; the remaining notes are required to be settled in shares. The issuance of shares resulting from the conversion of these notes, or pursuant to the change in control feature of the notes, could cause holders of our common stock to experience dilution. Furthermore, the trading price of our common stock could suffer from significant downward pressure as note holders convert these notes or these shares are issued and such holders sell such shares of common stock, encouraging short sales by the holders of such notes or other stockholders.

The words "expect", "will", "look forward to" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

The expectations set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference regarding, among other things, accretion, returns on invested capital, achievement of annual savings and synergies, achievement of strong cash flow, sufficiency of cash flow to fund capital expenditures and achievement of debt reduction targets are only the parties' expectations regarding these matters. Actual results could differ materially from these expectations depending on factors such as:

the factors described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the factors that generally affect Yellow Roadway's and USF's businesses as further outlined in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the companies' Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, and this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including inflation, labor relations (i.e., disruptions, strikes or work stoppages), inclement weather, availability of fuel and the price of fuel as it affects the general economy, competitor pricing activity and the general impact of competition, expense volatility, capacity levels in the freight transportation industry, changes in and customer acceptance of new technology, changes in equity and debt markets, our ability to control costs and uncertainties concerning the impact terrorist activities may have on the economy and the freight transportation industry, the state of international, national and regional economies and the success or failure of our operating plans, including our ability to manage growth; and the fact that, following the merger, the actual results of the combined company could differ materially from the expectations set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference depending on additional factors such as:

the combined company's cost of capital;

the ability of the combined company to identify and implement cost savings, synergies and efficiencies in the time frame needed to achieve these expectations;

any loss of customers or suppliers that the combined company may suffer as a result of the merger; any loss of employees or increased operating costs related to USF's non-union employees and labor activities or the merger;

the combined company's actual capital needs, the absence of any material incident of property damage or other hazard that could affect the need to effect capital expenditures and any currently unforeseen merger or acquisition opportunities that could affect capital needs; and the costs incurred in implementing synergies including, but not limited to, our ability to terminate, amend or renegotiate prior contractual commitments of Yellow Roadway and USF.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

Yellow Roadway's plans regarding the maintenance of the separate Yellow Roadway and USF brands and networks, the focus on administrative and back office synergies and workforce rationalizations are only its current plans and intentions regarding these matters. Actual actions that the combined company may take may differ from time to time as the combined company may deem necessary or advisable in the best interest of the combined company and its stockholders to attempt to achieve the successful integration of the companies, the synergies needed to make the transaction a financial success and to react to the economy and the combined company's market for its transportation services.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

Yellow Roadway and USF each continually evaluate strategic opportunities as a part of their ongoing evaluation of the commercial transportation marketplace. In December 2003, Yellow Roadway (then known as Yellow Corporation) closed its acquisition of Roadway Corporation. Since the closing of that transaction, Yellow Roadway has successfully executed its stated objectives of maintaining the distinct brands of Yellow Transportation, Roadway Express, New Penn Motor Express, Reimer Express and Meridian IQ in the transportation marketplace, while at the same time successfully realizing many of the cost savings and operational synergies that the companies had identified during their discussions leading up to the transaction. That strategy has allowed Yellow Roadway to maintain customer loyalty and achieve improved financial results in what remains the very competitive and fractured transportation industry. The successes that Yellow Roadway has realized by successfully executing the company's Roadway strategy are helping it to achieve one of its primary strategic goals of providing a full portfolio of highly efficient transportation services to all of its customers.

Since the late 1990s, Yellow Roadway has focused on expanding its portfolio of services to include both asset and non-asset transportation services. In addition to their basic less-than-truckload service offerings, Yellow Transportation and Roadway Express have penetrated their respective customer bases with sales of premium branded, asset-based services such as Exact Express[®], Yellow Transportation's expedited and time-definite service, Time Critical, Roadway Express's expedited and time-definite service, Definite Deliver[®], Yellow Transportation's guaranteed transit time service, Time Advantage, Roadway Express's guaranteed transit time service, and the tradeshow businesses of both Roadway Express and Yellow Transportation.

New Penn Motor Express maintains excellent brand identity for its regional next-day less-than-truckload service offering in the northeastern United States. Recently, Yellow Transportation launched its first next-day service through its Standard Ground service offering in an area extending from Wisconsin through upstate New York and from northern Michigan into Tennessee. Expansion of next-day service capabilities is a growing segment of the heavyweight ground transportation industry, and a segment that has traditionally been served by the many regional trucking companies including USF Holland Inc. (Holland), USF Bestway Inc. (Bestway), USF Reddaway Inc. (Reddaway) and USF Dugan Inc. (Dugan).

Meridian IQ, Yellow Roadway's non-asset-based transportation service offering continues to grow at a rapid pace and is establishing brand recognition throughout the marketplace. These offerings include, among other things, transportation management, international freight forwarding, domestic guaranteed freight forwarding, truckload brokerage and customs brokerage. The expansion of these non-asset branded services has significantly broadened the overall service portfolio for the customers of Yellow Roadway's portfolio of companies.

During the summer of 2004, USF management conducted an evaluation of USF's businesses, capital structure and strategic opportunities. In connection with this evaluation, USF engaged Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (Morgan Stanley) as its financial advisor, which was subsequently confirmed in an engagement letter with USF dated August 11, 2004. During the second and third quarters of 2004, USF management, with the assistance of Morgan Stanley, among others, and reporting to the USF board of directors, considered the possibility and implications of effecting a variety of possible transactions and operating strategies. Among the transactions considered at that time were business combination transactions with a variety of potential partners, including Yellow Roadway. At the time, Yellow Roadway was viewed as one of the companies for whom USF might be a good fit, but USF believed that Yellow Roadway would likely not be interested in a transaction with USF until Yellow Roadway completed the integration of its December 2003 merger with Roadway. After considering the full range of alternatives, the USF board of directors decided in July 2004 to pursue a business plan focused on improving the profitability of USF's existing businesses while remaining alert to the possibility of effecting a significant value-increasing transaction.

During the fall of 2004, Yellow Roadway's management publicly stated that it was looking at several opportunities to accelerate its business strategy of offering a broad portfolio of asset-based and non-asset-based transportation services to its customer base, including through acquisitions. Concurrently, in early November 2004, following changes in the management of USF, William D. Zollars, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Yellow Roadway, contacted Paul Liska, Executive Chairman of the Board of USF, by telephone in order to gauge his interest in exploring potential strategic transactions between the two companies. Mr. Liska informed USF's other directors about Yellow Roadway's contact. Mr. Liska did not immediately respond to Mr. Zollars.

In mid-December 2004, Mr. Zollars contacted Mr. Liska again and expressed an interest in some form of business combination. Mr. Zollars and Mr. Liska then agreed to meet on January 7, 2005, to discuss the potential transaction in further detail.

On January 7, 2005, Mr. Zollars, Stephen Bruffett, Senior Vice President of Corporate Development and Investor Relations of Yellow Roadway, and Donald G. Barger, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Yellow Roadway, met with Mr. Liska and Thomas Bergmann, interim Chief Executive Officer of USF, to discuss in greater detail the structure of a potential transaction and the potential synergies that the parties could achieve in a business combination. During this meeting, Mr. Zollars and Mr. Liska also discussed the potential complementary fit of USF's regional next-day offerings with Yellow Roadway's subsidiaries' long-haul less-than-truckload offerings, as well as the potential opportunities that could be realized by joining Meridian IQ and USF Logistics. Following those conversations, Mr. Zollars directed members of his senior management team and IFL, which had been retained as Yellow Roadway's financial advisor pursuant to an engagement letter dated December 7, 2004 (which was supplemented on February 27, 2005), to prepare financial analyses to help Yellow Roadway determine the feasibility of an acquisition of USF.

On January 10, 2005, USF's board met telephonically to discuss the potential transaction. Mr. Liska updated the board regarding recent discussions with Yellow Roadway. After discussion of the potential merits of the possible transaction, the board authorized Mr. Liska and Mr. Bergmann to continue their discussions with Yellow Roadway and to proceed with the proposed due diligence process.

During the week of January 10, 2005, Mr. Zollars and Mr. Liska each instructed additional members of his respective senior management team to begin compiling key documents about each company's respective operations that the other party would need to review as part of a legal and financial due diligence process and to take the steps necessary to begin negotiating the terms of a transaction.

On January 12, 2005, USF and Morgan Stanley modified their engagement letter by entering into an addendum pertaining to a potential transaction with Yellow Roadway.

After entering into a mutual confidentiality arrangement, the parties agreed that during the next several weeks, they would each begin gathering documents for inclusion in secure, electronic data sites that would be available for review by the first week of February. As part of the due diligence process, each company's financial and legal representatives provided detailed due diligence requests for documents to be included in the data sites.

On January 19, 2005, Mr. Zollars, Mr. Bruffett and Mr. Barger participated on a telephone conference call with Mr. Liska and Mr. Bergmann to provide Yellow Roadway with financial information, including information as to USF's financial outlook and potential transaction synergies, to allow Yellow Roadway to express an indicative valuation range for the acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of USF by way of merger.

On January 25, 2005, Mr. Zollars and Mr. Liska met in person in New York, New York and discussed, among other things, a range of prices per share that Yellow Roadway would consider paying to USF shareholders for all of USF's outstanding capital stock and the importance of completing any agreed transaction. They discussed a price per share between $45 and $50 at this meeting, which would be paid in an approximately 50% cash and 50% stock transaction.

On February 1, 2005, USF's board held a regularly scheduled meeting during which it discussed the potential transaction with Yellow Roadway. Mr. Liska discussed with the board the strategic rationale of the potential transaction and updated the other directors regarding the status of discussions with Yellow Roadway, including the possible terms and proposed timing of providing Yellow Roadway with access to USF due diligence materials. At this meeting, Morgan Stanley reviewed with the USF board certain financial issues and updates to its preliminary analyses that had previously been discussed with the board in the summer of 2004 regarding, among other things, industry trends, including consolidation, USF continuing as a stand-alone company, USF engaging in strategic alternatives other than a transaction with Yellow Roadway and USF engaging in a potential transaction with Yellow Roadway. Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed with the USF board their fiduciary duties under Delaware law. During the discussion, the USF board assessed the risks and opportunities associated with conducting an auction with other potential transaction partners. The USF board, after consultation with outside financial and legal advisors, determined at that time that the risks outweighed the possible benefits of an auction, particularly in light of the proposed financial terms and material legal terms discussed with Yellow Roadway. The USF board directed management and its outside advisors to seek to minimize impediments to receiving and accepting a superior proposal if one should emerge after signing a merger agreement with Yellow Roadway. The USF board authorized the continued exploration of a potential transaction with Yellow Roadway, including the delivery of due diligence materials and preparation of a draft merger agreement.

On February 3, 2005, Yellow Roadway's board held a special meeting to discuss, among other things, the potential acquisition of USF. Mr. Zollars provided the other directors with a profile of USF, including a description of its four regional less-than-truckload companies, its truckload company and its logistics business, and described the strategic rationale of a combination of USF and Yellow Roadway, including the potential fit of USF's regional businesses with New Penn Motor Express's business, the potential fit of USF's truckload business with Meridian IQ's truckload brokerage business and the potential fit of USF's logistics business with Meridian IQ. Also at this meeting, Messrs. Bruffett and Barger of Yellow Roadway and James Hamilton of IFL described the economics behind the possible transaction including possible synergies, a range of potential purchase prices and possible financing scenarios.

After this board meeting, Credit Suisse First Boston and JP Morgan Chase were also retained to provide various financial advisory services in connection with a possible transaction with USF to complement the services of IFL.

During the following week, each party's legal advisors began drafting and negotiating written documentation for a possible transaction and reviewing materials that the other party had placed in its respective electronic data site. Review of the documents continued until the parties signed the merger agreement.

On February 11 and 12, 2005, a team from Yellow Roadway's senior management and outside financial and legal advisors traveled to Chicago to discuss with USF's senior management and outside financial and legal advisors a broad range of business, operating, legal and financial matters that had emerged from initial review of the documents made available in USF's electronic data site. Among matters that the parties discussed were details about USF and its subsidiaries' operational and organizational structure, contingent liabilities, labor relations, financial plan, strategic plan and potential synergies. Additionally, USF's senior management and legal and financial advisors discussed a number of matters that had emerged from its review of documents that Yellow Roadway had made available in Yellow Roadway's electronic data site.

During the week following the February 11 and 12, 2005 meetings, the parties began negotiating a merger agreement. On February 15, 2005, Mr. Zollars, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Liska and Mr. Bergmann again met in person in Naples, Florida to continue discussing the structure of the possible transaction, including the price and form of consideration that Yellow Roadway would pay to USF stockholders.

On February 18, 2005, Mr. Barger, Mr. Bruffett, Mr. Staley and Mike Smid, President of Enterprise Services for Yellow Roadway, together with Yellow Roadway's outside financial advisors, traveled to Chicago to hold additional talks with USF's interim CEO Thomas Bergmann, his senior management team and USF's outside financial advisors on potential synergy savings that the parties could realize through a business combination.

On February 21, 2005, Mr. Zollars and Mr. Liska again met in person in Chicago, Illinois to continue discussing the structure and terms of the possible transaction, including the price that Yellow Roadway would pay to USF stockholders.

Negotiations continued through the following week, and the parties completed a significant portion of their due diligence review. On February 23, 2005, a national business newspaper published an article that stated that USF and Yellow Roadway were involved in negotiations. This article prompted other speculative investment research and news stories, but the parties made no comment on these rumors.

On February 24, 2005, USF's board of directors met to discuss the status of negotiations with Yellow Roadway. Mr. Liska briefed the board on the status of the potential transaction with Yellow Roadway, including the expected receipt on February 26, 2005, of Yellow Roadway's final proposal on economic terms and other material transaction terms. Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed with the board their fiduciary duties under Delaware law regarding the potential transaction. During the meeting, USF's board discussed, among other things, the proposed terms of the potential transaction and the likely risks and opportunities presented by the potential transaction and by maintaining USF as a stand-alone entity. The USF board again considered whether to delay negotiations with Yellow Roadway to conduct an auction of USF and concluded that, in light of the risks discussed at the USF board's previous meeting and given that the rumors in the press of a potential transaction with Yellow Roadway had not resulted in any expressions of interest from any third party regarding an alternative transaction, the risks associated with conducting an auction outweighed any likely benefits. Morgan Stanley then reviewed its preliminary analysis of the proposed financial terms of the potential merger based on the consideration expected to be offered to USF shareholders by Yellow Roadway, as well as certain preliminary analyses associated with maintaining USF as a stand-alone entity and pursuing other strategic alternatives. Sullivan & Cromwell then presented to the USF board the material terms of the draft merger agreement, including a comparison of such terms with the 2003 Yellow Corporation/Roadway Corporation transaction. The USF board then received a presentation from Deloitte & Touche LLP (D&T) concerning certain compensation and benefits arrangements contemplated to be entered into with Mr. Liska, certain executive officers of USF and other employees of USF, in connection with the proposed transaction with Yellow Roadway (see "Certain Interests of Persons in the Merger"), which arrangements had previously been discussed at a compensation committee meeting of the USF board. D&T discussed the material terms of the compensation and benefits arrangements with the USF board and compared the arrangements with arrangements entered into by public companies in recent merger transactions. The USF board then authorized management, subject to receiving a final proposal from Yellow Roadway on terms discussed at the board meeting and receipt of USF board approval, to seek to finalize the terms of the merger agreement and the related compensation and benefits arrangements. No other action was taken by the USF board at this meeting.

On February 26, 2005, Yellow Roadway's board met to discuss the status of the negotiations with USF. During this meeting, Yellow Roadway's board discussed, among other things, the terms of the proposed transaction, other strategic alternatives under consideration and the impact that an acquisition of USF would have on those potential alternatives. IFL reviewed its financial analysis of the merger agreement and the merger consideration and rendered to Yellow Roadway's board an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 27, 2005, that the consideration to be paid by Yellow Roadway to the USF stockholders in the merger was fair from a financial point of view to Yellow Roadway. Yellow Roadway's board unanimously approved the acquisition at this meeting, subject to satisfactory completion of the negotiation of the definitive merger agreement, and authorized the officers of Yellow Roadway to make a proposal to USF that would offer USF shareholders for each USF share owned either 0.9024 shares (a fixed exchange ratio) of Yellow Roadway common stock or, upon a valid cash election, $45.00 in cash, subject in either case to proration and adjustment, as described in further detail in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Yellow Roadway's board also unanimously recommended that Yellow Roadway's stockholders vote for approval of the issuance of Yellow Roadway shares pursuant to, and in accordance with, the merger agreement.

On February 27, 2005, USF's board of directors met telephonically to discuss the terms of Yellow Roadway's proposal and the negotiations regarding the merger agreement and other aspects of the proposed transaction. Mr. Liska updated the other members of the USF board as to the negotiations with Yellow Roadway since February 24, 2005, particularly regarding the merger consideration, and communicated to the other members of the USF board the proposal presented by Yellow Roadway. Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed with the USF board the status of the negotiations of the terms of the merger agreement. Morgan Stanley reviewed its financial analysis of the merger consideration with the board and rendered to USF's board an oral opinion, confirmed later that day in writing, to the effect that as of February 27, 2005 and based on and subject to the considerations, assumptions and limitations in its opinion, the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of USF common stock. After discussion, the USF board, acting unanimously, approved the merger agreement and the related compensation and benefits arrangements, authorized USF to enter into such agreement and arrangements, declared the merger agreement's advisability, determined to recommend the merger agreement to USF stockholders for adoption and recommended that USF stockholders adopt the merger agreement at the USF special meeting of stockholders.

Following the USF board meeting, Yellow Roadway and USF completed negotiations on the merger agreement, signed it and issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement on Sunday, February 27, 2005.

Yellow Roadway's Reasons for the Merger

The Yellow Roadway board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger and unanimously recommends that Yellow Roadway stockholders vote FOR approval of the Yellow Roadway proposal.

In reaching its conclusion, the Yellow Roadway board considered among other factors:

The complementary operations and capabilities of the combined company with the increased scale (including expected combined revenue in excess of $9 billion per year), strong financial base and market reach necessary to increase stockholder value and enhance customer service. Specifically, the merger would allow the combined company to:

enhance its position in the highly competitive domestic and global transportation marketplace; continue to invest and grow the brands of both companies;

implement best practices over a broader customer base;

leverage service capabilities and technologies for the benefit of customers, allowing the costs of improvements to spread out over a larger revenue base for the benefit of customers; and introduce additional non-asset-based transportation management services and next-day less-than-truckload services to a broader customer base.

The potential for the merger to accelerate the portfolio strategy of offering a broad range of services for business to business transportation decision makers.

The significant complementary aspects of the Yellow Roadway service base with the USF service base.

The opportunity to allow each company to more effectively compete against the industry's leading integrated service providers, specifically United Parcel Service, Inc., FedEx Corporation, DHL, CNF Inc., Overnite Corporation and Arkansas Best Corporation.

The opportunity to compete more effectively with numerous less-than-truckload competitors.

The creation of a more competitive position against other competitors, such as third party logistics providers, freight forwarders/consolidators and truckload competitors.

The financial performance and condition, business operations and prospects of each of Yellow Roadway and USF.

The structure of the transaction and terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the financing arrangements for the cash portion of the merger consideration to be paid to USF stockholders. See The Merger Agreement beginning on page 76 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Expected combination benefits, including cost savings. Yellow Roadway expects to realize approximately $40 million in net synergies within the twelve months following the merger, along with run rate annual synergies of $80 million after the first twelve months with the possibility of additional cost synergies, as well as revenue synergies, in the longer-term. See Forward-Looking Statements beginning page 37 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The near-term and long-term earnings per share and cash flow of the combined entity compared to Yellow Roadway on a standalone basis. Yellow Roadway expects the transaction to be accretive to earnings per share within 12 months after closing and provide a return in excess of its weighted average cost of capital on a consolidated basis in the second year. See Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 37 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The relative market capitalizations of Yellow Roadway and USF, and the expected capital structure of the combined entity after the merger, including the availability of financing for the transaction at relatively low interest rates.

The opinion of IFL described below, including IFL's conclusion that the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Yellow Roadway as of the date of its opinion. The IFL opinion is based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein.

The compatibility of the corporate cultures of the management teams and employees of both companies, the willingness of the leadership team of USF's operating units to continue serving the combined company and the willingness of one USF director to join the board of Yellow Roadway.

The Yellow Roadway board considered the factors above as a whole and did not assign specific or relative weights to those factors. The Yellow Roadway board believes that the merger is an opportunity for Yellow Roadway stockholders to participate in a combined, more successful enterprise that has significantly greater business and financial resources than Yellow Roadway would have absent the merger.

Recommendation of the Yellow Roadway Board of Directors

After consideration of the factors discussed above, and without weight to any specific factor, the members of Yellow Roadway's board of directors voting on the merger have approved the merger agreement and the issuance of Yellow Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

The Yellow Roadway board recommends that Yellow Roadway stockholders vote at the Yellow Roadway special meeting FOR the approval of the issuance of Yellow Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

Opinion of IFL Capital LLC, Financial Advisor to Yellow Roadway Corporation

IFL acted as financial advisor to Yellow Roadway in connection with the proposed merger. At the February 26, 2005 meeting of Yellow Roadway's board of directors, IFL delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of February 27, 2005, the merger consideration that Yellow Roadway will pay in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Yellow Roadway.

The full text of IFL's written opinion, dated February 27, 2005, which discusses, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by IFL in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders are urged to read IFL's opinion in its entirety. The following summary, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of IFL's opinion, discusses the material terms of the opinion. IFL's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote with respect to the merger agreement, the stock issuance or any other matter.

In connection with IFL's role as financial advisor to Yellow Roadway, and in arriving at its opinion, IFL, among other things, reviewed publicly available business and financial information concerning Yellow Roadway and USF and the industries in which they operate and internal financial analyses, forecasts and other information prepared by Yellow Roadway and USF. IFL also held discussions with the management of Yellow Roadway and USF regarding the past and current business operations of Yellow Roadway and USF, the financial condition and operations and future prospects of Yellow Roadway and USF, the effects of the merger on the financial condition and future prospects of Yellow Roadway and certain other matters IFL believed necessary or appropriate. In addition, IFL:

reviewed the merger agreement and certain related documents;

reviewed the current and historical market prices of the common stock of each of Yellow Roadway and USF and certain publicly traded securities of other companies IFL deemed relevant;

compared the financial and operating performance of Yellow Roadway and USF with publicly available information concerning certain other companies IFL deemed relevant;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies IFL deemed relevant and the consideration paid for such companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Yellow Roadway and USF prepared by the managements of Yellow Roadway and USF, as well as the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings, revenue generation and related expenses expected to result from the merger (referred to in this section as the synergies); analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger, before and after giving effect to the synergies, on, among other things, Yellow Roadway's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and performed such other financial studies and analyses, and considered other information, as IFL deemed appropriate.

In preparing its opinion, IFL relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or Yellow Roadway or USF furnished to IFL or IFL otherwise reviewed, and IFL did not assume any responsibility or liability therefor. IFL did not conduct any valuations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities. No such valuations or appraisals were provided to IFL. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to IFL, including the synergies, IFL assumed that they had been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by the managements of Yellow Roadway and USF as to their expected future results of operations and financial condition to which such analyses or forecasts relate. IFL expressed no view as to such forecasts, including the synergies, or the assumptions on which they were based. IFL also assumed that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. IFL relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification or liability for, the assessment of Yellow Roadway's legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to the legal, tax and regulatory matters relating to the merger. IFL's opinion was necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to IFL as of February 27, 2005, the date of its opinion.

IFL was not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to any alternative transaction to the merger, and IFL expressed no opinion as to whether any alternative transaction might be more favorable to Yellow Roadway than the merger.

In rendering its opinion, IFL assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis:

the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated as described in the merger agreement;

the representations and warranties of Yellow Roadway and USF contained in the merger agreement are true and correct;

Yellow Roadway and USF will each perform all of the covenants and agreements to be performed by it under the merger agreement without any consents or waivers of the other parties to the merger agreement;

all conditions to the obligation of each of Yellow Roadway and USF to consummate the merger will be satisfied without any waiver of such conditions; and all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents necessary in connection with the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Yellow Roadway or USF or on the contemplated benefits of the merger.

Below is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by IFL in connection with its opinion.

Historical Stock Performance. IFL reviewed and analyzed recent and historical market prices and trading volume for Yellow Roadway common stock and USF common stock and compared these market prices to certain stock market indices.

Analysis of Selected Publicly Traded Companies. IFL compared financial information and commonly used valuation measurements for USF to corresponding information and measurements for a group of eight publicly traded companies in the LTL industry (referred to in this section as the selected companies):

Arkansas Best Corporation

Central Freight Lines, Inc.

CNF Inc.

Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc.

Overnite Corporation

SCS Transportation, Inc.

Vitran Corporation Inc.

Yellow Roadway Corporation

The financial information and valuation measurements that IFL compared included, among other things:

diluted equity market valuation, operating performance, ratios of diluted equity market value as adjusted for debt and cash, or enterprise value, to:

revenue, earnings before interest expense, income taxes and depreciation and amortization (or EBITDA) and

earnings before interest expense and income taxes (or EBIT) and ratios of common equity market prices per share, to earnings per share, based on the fully-diluted number of shares.

To calculate the trading multiples for USF and the selected companies, IFL used publicly available information concerning historical and projected financial performance, including published historical financial information and revenue, EBITDA, EBIT and earnings estimates as reported by Multex. Multex is a data service that Reuters owns and operates, which monitors and publishes compilations of financial estimates by selected research analysts with respect to companies that have securities that trade in U.S. and foreign markets.

In each case assuming a notional merger consideration of $45.00 to $48.00 per USF share, IFL calculated that, on a trailing twelve month basis:

the multiple range of enterprise value to revenue was 0.60x to 0.64x for USF, compared to a range of 0.4x to 1.1x, with a median of 0.5x, for the selected companies;

the multiple range of enterprise value to EBITDA was 6.6x to 7.1x for USF, compared to a range of 4.8x to 8.1x, with a median of 5.8x, for the selected companies; and the multiple range of enterprise value to EBIT was 12.4x to 13.2x for USF, compared to a range of 7.8x to 13.3x, with a median of 9.1x, for the selected companies.

None of the companies used as a comparison is identical to USF. Accordingly, IFL believes the analysis of publicly traded comparable companies is not simply mathematical, but rather it involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in IFL's opinion, concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the selected companies.

Analysis of Selected Precedent Transactions. IFL reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of seven mergers and acquisition transactions with enterprise values greater than $100 million since 1992 involving companies in the less-than-truckload industry (referred to in this section as the selected transactions). IFL calculated various financial multiples and premiums over market value based on certain publicly available information for each of the selected transactions and compared them to corresponding financial multiples and premiums over market value for the merger. The transactions reviewed were:

Date announced	Target	Acquiror
November 1992	Preston Corporation	Yellow Corporation
November 1992	Central Freight Lines, Inc.	Roadway Services
July 1995	Worldway Corporation	Arkansas Best Corporation
June 1999	Jevic Transportation, Inc.	Yellow Corporation
November 2000	American Freightways Corporation	FedEx Corporation
August 2001	Arnold Industries, Inc.	Roadway Corporation
July 2003	Roadway Corporation	Yellow Corporation

In each case assuming a notional merger consideration of $45.00 to $48.00 per USF share, IFL calculated that:

the multiple range of enterprise value to trailing twelve month revenue was 0.60x to 0.64x for the merger compared to a range of 0.2x to 1.1x, with a median of 0.5x, for the selected transactions;

the multiple range of enterprise value to trailing twelve month EBITDA was 6.6x to 7.1x for the merger compared to a range of 5.6x to 7.8x, with a median of 6.4x, for the selected transactions; and the multiple range of enterprise value to trailing twelve month EBIT was 12.4x to 13.2x for the merger compared to a range of 8.9x to 11.1x, with a median of 10.2x, for the selected transactions.

IFL calculated that the selected transactions were effected at a premium to the acquired companies' per share market price five days prior to the announcement of the transaction ranging from 5.5% to 80.0% (with a median of 45.0%), compared to a premium of 31.6% to 40.4% for the merger, based on a notional merger consideration of $45.00 to $48.00 per USF share and USF's per share price five days prior to February 22, 2005 (the last trading day prior to reports in the press regarding a potential transaction between Yellow Roadway and USF). IFL also calculated that the selected transactions were effected at a premium to the acquired companies' per share market price 30 days prior to the announcement of the transaction ranging from 16.2% to 93.0% (with a median of 39.5%), compared to a premium of 35.3% to 44.3% for the merger, based on a notional merger consideration of $45.00 to $48.00 per USF share and USF's per share price 30 days prior to February 22, 2005.

All multiples for the selected transactions were based on public information available at the time of announcement of that transaction, without taking into account differing market and other conditions during the twelve-year period during which the selected transactions occurred.

Because the reasons for, and circumstances surrounding, each of the precedent transactions analyzed were so diverse, and due to the inherent differences between the operations and financial conditions of USF and the companies involved in the selected transactions, IFL believes that a comparable transaction analysis is not simply mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in IFL's opinion, concerning differences between the characteristics of these transactions and the merger that could affect the value of the subject companies and businesses and USF and Yellow Roadway.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. IFL performed a discounted cash flow analysis for USF. IFL calculated the discounted cash flow values for USF as the sum of the net present values of:

the estimated future cash flow that USF will generate for the years 2005 through 2009, plus the value of USF at the end of that period.

The estimated future cash flows were based on the financial projections for USF for the years 2005 through 2009 prepared by Yellow Roadway's management. The terminal values of USF were calculated based on projected EBITDA for 2009 and a range of multiples of 5.3x and 6.3x. IFL used discount rates ranging from 7.0% to 9.0%. IFL used these discount rates based on its judgment of the estimated weighted average cost of capital of USF, and used these multiples based on its review of the trading characteristics of the common stock of the selected companies as well as the transaction multiples implied by the selected transactions. This analysis indicated a range of values of $32.19 to $47.27 per share, excluding synergies. IFL also calculated the discounted cash flow values of the synergies. The estimated future cash flows associated with synergies were based on projected synergies for the years 2005 through 2009 prepared by Yellow Roadway's management. The terminal values of the synergies were calculated based on projected 2009 synergies and a range of multiples of 5.3x and 6.3x. IFL used discount rates ranging from 7.0% to 9.0%. This analysis indicated a range of synergy values of $31.34 to $38.17 per share.

Pro Forma Combined Earnings Analysis and Credit Statistics. IFL analyzed certain pro forma effects of the merger on the combined earnings of Yellow Roadway and USF. Based on this analysis, IFL computed the resulting dilution/accretion to the combined company's earnings per share estimates for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, before and after taking into account any synergies identified by Yellow Roadway management and before non-recurring costs relating to the merger. IFL noted that, based on a $47.00 notional merger consideration comprised of equal portions of cash and Yellow Roadway's stock, Yellow Roadway's earnings per share as estimated by Yellow Roadway's management, combined on a pro forma basis with USF's estimated earnings for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, the merger would be dilutive by approximately 5.4% and 4.2% to the combined company's earnings per share for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, respectively. IFL also noted that after taking into account the synergies for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, respectively, the merger would be accretive by approximately 1.8% and 14.8% to the combined company's earnings per share for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, respectively.

IFL also noted that the ratio of net debt to EBITDA for Yellow Roadway for the trailing twelve months was 1.0x as compared with a ratio of 1.9x for the same period on a combined basis. On a pro forma basis for the merger, and using Yellow Roadway's earnings per share as estimated by Yellow Roadway's management, combined with USF's estimated earnings for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, the ratio of net debt to EBITDA for the combined company would be 1.3x and 1.0x for the fiscal years ending 2005 and 2006, respectively.

The preceding summary describes all analyses and factors that IFL deemed material in its presentation to Yellow Roadway's board of directors, but is not a comprehensive description of all analyses performed and factors considered by IFL in connection with preparing its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving the application of subjective business judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. IFL believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of its analyses and of the factors considered without considering all analyses and factors could create a misleading view of the process underlying the opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, IFL did not assign specific weights to any particular analyses.

In conducting its analyses and arriving at its opinion, IFL used a variety of generally accepted valuation methods. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of enabling IFL to provide its opinion to the Yellow Roadway board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view to Yellow Roadway of the consideration to be paid by Yellow Roadway to the USF stockholders in the merger and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty. In connection with its analyses, IFL made, and was provided by Yellow Roadway management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Yellow Roadway's or USF's control. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual past or future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Yellow Roadway, USF or their respective advisors, neither Yellow Roadway nor IFL nor any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

The terms of the merger were determined through negotiations between Yellow Roadway and USF and were approved by the Yellow Roadway board of directors. Although IFL provided advice to Yellow Roadway during the course of these negotiations, the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of the Yellow Roadway board of directors. IFL expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision by the management or board of directors of Yellow Roadway to engage in the merger. As described above, the opinion and presentation of IFL to the Yellow Roadway board of directors were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Yellow Roadway board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger. IFL's opinion was provided to the Yellow Roadway board of directors to assist it in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote with respect to the merger, the stock issuance or any other matter.

Yellow Roadway selected IFL as a financial advisor in connection with the merger based on IFL's knowledge of Yellow Roadway and its industry and IFL's qualifications, expertise, reputation and professional experience in mergers and acquisitions generally. Yellow Roadway retained IFL as a financial advisor with respect to a potential transaction with USF pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 27, 2005, supplementing a general engagement letter dated December 7, 2004. As compensation for IFL's services in connection with the merger, Yellow Roadway agreed to pay IFL a fee payable as described below:

$2,000,000 upon public announcement of the transaction;

$2,000,000 upon receipt of all material governmental consents or approvals required to be obtained in order to consummate the transaction;

$2,000,000 upon consummation of the transaction;

minus any retainer fees paid by Yellow Roadway to IFL pursuant to the general engagement letter up to and including the transaction consummation date. The retainer fee payable to IFL pursuant to the general engagement letter is $50,000 per calendar quarter beginning with the fourth quarter of 2004.

Regardless of whether the merger is consummated, Yellow Roadway has agreed to reimburse IFL for reasonable fees and disbursements of IFL's counsel and all of IFL's reasonable travel and other out-of-pocket expenses incurred by IFL in performing its engagement in connection with the merger, up to $100,000 in the aggregate.

Yellow Roadway has also agreed to indemnify IFL and certain related persons to the full extent lawful against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws arising out of its engagement or the merger.

IFL is an investment banking firm whose professionals are experienced in providing advice in connection with mergers and acquisitions and related transactions. IFL and its affiliates have, from time to time, provided investment banking services to Yellow Roadway or its affiliates for which they have received compensation. Pursuant to the general engagement letter dated December 7, 2004 between Yellow Roadway and IFL, IFL has been retained to advise Yellow Roadway on various strategic, business and financial matters for which IFL receives compensation. IFL and its affiliates may actively trade securities of Yellow Roadway or USF for their own account or the account of their customers and, accordingly, may from time to time hold a long or short position in such securities.

USF's Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the USF board of directors consulted with USF's management, as well as with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, and considered a number of factors, including:

The amount and form of the consideration to be received by USF's stockholders, and in particular that:

The value of the merger consideration as of the last trading day before the announcement of the merger and the last trading day prior to news reports of merger discussions represented substantial premiums to the recent trading prices of USF common stock.

The consideration consisted of a combination of cash and stock, with the stock portion of the merger consideration having a fixed exchange ratio, thus fixing the value in cash for 50% of the USF common stock and providing the opportunity (and corresponding risk) to share in the stock price performance of Yellow Roadway for the remainder of the USF common stock.

The fact that the merger is structured to permit the tax free exchange of shares of USF common stock for Yellow Roadway common stock in the merger.

The USF board of directors' belief, based in part upon due diligence by USF management and its financial advisor, including due diligence about Yellow Roadway's performance in integrating the 2003 combination of Yellow and Roadway, that Yellow Roadway was well managed and well perceived by investors and as a result that its chances of meeting or exceeding operational and financial expectations, including synergy expectations for the merger, were good and that meeting or exceeding those expectations could translate into continued strong stock price performance relative to its peer companies.

The results of a 2004 examination of USF's strategic alternatives, during which the USF board of directors considered a variety of transactions available to USF as an independent company and continuing to execute its existing business plan, as well as the possible sale of USF to a variety of potential purchasers.

The opinion of Morgan Stanley to the USF board of directors that, as of February 27, 2005, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, considerations and limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of USF common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to those holders. See Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Financial Advisor to USF Corporation beginning on page 56 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The likelihood of completion of the merger, given the conditions and regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger and the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

The terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties, covenants and conditions to their respective obligations, including, among others:

the exclusion from the definition of a material adverse effect of any adverse effects resulting from or arising out of labor or union activities after the date of the merger agreement as well as the other exclusions from the definition of material adverse effect;

Yellow Roadway's contractual commitment to use reasonable best efforts to obtain promptly all regulatory approvals (as described in detail in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements Covenant to Use Reasonable Best Efforts to Obtain All Necessary Regulatory Approvals);

the absence of any financing condition;

the ability of USF's board of directors to consider unsolicited, superior acquisition proposals from third parties, subject to compliance with the terms of the merger agreement; and the size of the termination fee provided in the merger agreement and the circumstances in which it is payable, which the USF board of directors believes would not reasonably be expected to discourage competing business combination proposals from third parties.

The fact that some directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, their interests as stockholders. See Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 63 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition to the above factors, in the course of its meetings, the USF board of directors reviewed and considered a wide variety of information relevant to the merger, including:

information concerning USF's and Yellow Roadway's businesses, historical financial performance and condition, operations, properties, assets, customers, competitive positions, prospects and management;

the current industry, economic and market conditions and trends; and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to USF common stock and Yellow Roadway common stock.

The USF board of directors also considered countervailing factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including:

the possibility that the merger might not be completed, or that completion might be unduly delayed, and the potential adverse consequences to USF's business as a result of the pendency of the merger and attendant operational disruption and customer concerns;

the fact that USF did not conduct an auction prior to entering into the merger agreement;

the fact that Yellow Roadway requires the approval of its stockholders to issue the Yellow Roadway common stock in the merger;

the fact that the trading price of Yellow Roadway common stock had increased by more than 160% since February 2004 and the possibility that this rate of increase could increase the risk of a stock price decline in the event of any failure to meet operational or earnings expectations;

the risk that the potential benefits sought in the merger might not be fully realized, recognizing the many management challenges associated with successfully combining the USF and Yellow Roadway businesses;

the risk that, because of potential proration, USF stockholders may receive a form of consideration in the merger different from that which they elected to receive; and various other risks associated with the merger and the businesses of USF, Yellow Roadway and the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The USF board of directors recognized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above. The USF board of directors concluded, however, that the potential advantages outweighed the potential risk of completing the transaction.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the USF board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the USF board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors, both positive and negative, considered by the USF board of directors, the USF board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise seek to assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the USF board of directors may have given different weight to different factors and may have applied different analysis to each of the material factors considered by the USF board of directors.

Recommendation of the USF Board of Directors

After consideration of the factors discussed above, including the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, and without weight to any specific factor, the members of USF's board of directors have unanimously approved the merger agreement and declared it advisable.

The USF board of directors unanimously recommends that USF stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement at the USF special meeting of stockholders.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Financial Advisor to USF Corporation

Morgan Stanley has acted as sole financial advisor to USF in connection with the merger. USF's board of directors selected Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor based on Morgan Stanley's qualifications, expertise and reputation and its knowledge of the business of USF. The full text of Morgan Stanley's opinion, dated February 27, 2005, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations of the reviews undertaken in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of Morgan Stanley's fairness opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its opinion. USF stockholders should read this opinion carefully and in its entirety. Morgan Stanley's opinion is directed to the board of directors of USF, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of USF common stock, pursuant to the merger agreement, and does not address any other aspect of the merger. Morgan Stanley's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholders of USF as to how such stockholders should vote with respect to the proposed transaction or what election they should make with respect to the consideration offered.

In addition, Morgan Stanley assumed that the merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without any waiver, amendment or delay of any terms and conditions, including, among other things, that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. Morgan Stanley did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of USF, nor was it furnished with any such appraisals. Morgan Stanley is a financial advisor only and it relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of Yellow Roadway and USF and their legal, tax, regulatory or accounting advisors with

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its opinion of February 27, 2005. Although each financial analysis was provided to the USF board, in connection with arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis described below. Some of these summaries include information in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses.

In arriving at its opinion regarding the fairness of the consideration to be paid to holders of USF common stock, Morgan Stanley calculated the implied blended merger consideration. This calculation was made on the basis that, in the aggregate, USF stockholders would receive 0.4512 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock plus $22.50 in cash for each USF share they hold at the time of closing. As a result, Morgan Stanley calculated that the implied blended merger consideration was $47.47 per share of USF common stock as of February 22, 2005, which was the sum of $22.50 in cash plus $24.97 (which equals 0.4512 multiplied by $55.35, the closing price of Yellow Roadway common stock on February 22, 2005, the last trading day prior to reports in the press regarding a potential transaction between USF and Yellow Roadway).

Historical Share Price Analysis

Morgan Stanley performed an historical share price analysis to obtain background information and perspective with respect to the relative historical share prices of USF common stock and Yellow Roadway common stock. Consequently, Morgan Stanley reviewed the historical price performance of USF common stock from February 22, 2004 through February 22, 2005. For the one-year period ended February 22, 2005, the closing prices per share of USF common stock ranged from approximately $28.00 to $39.00. Morgan Stanley noted that the closing price of USF common stock on February 22, 2005 was $33.36 per share and the closing price of Yellow Roadway common stock was $55.35 per share. Morgan Stanley also noted that the implied blended merger consideration was $47.47 as of February 22, 2005.

The following table displays the implied percentage premium of the $47.47 implied blended merger consideration as of February 22, 2005 as compared to USF common stock prices over various periods. The following analysis was performed to provide perspective on the historical trading price of USF common stock versus the implied merger consideration.

Consideration	Implied Blended Merger Consideration as Compared to USF's Common Stock Price for Period Ending 2/22/05
	2/22/05	30 Day Average	60 Day Average	6 Mo. Average	1 Yr. Average

Analyst Price Targets

Morgan Stanley analyzed the analyst price targets for USF to derive an implied value for USF. Morgan Stanley gathered the publicly available 12-month price targets for USF from Wall Street equity research analysts available as of February 22, 2005. To estimate the current value of USF's common stock, Morgan Stanley discounted the high and low end of these targets by an estimated cost of equity of 11%, yielding a range of prices of approximately $29.00 to $35.00 per share of USF common stock. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for USF common stock was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

Comparable Companies Analysis

Morgan Stanley performed a comparable company analysis, which attempts to provide an implied value for Yellow Roadway and USF by comparing them to similar companies. For purposes of its analysis, Morgan

Table of Contents

Stanley reviewed certain public market trading multiples for the following six public companies which, based on its experience with companies in the trucking industry, Morgan Stanley considered similar to USF in size and business mix:

Arkansas Best Corporation

CNF Inc.

Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc.

SCS Transportation, Inc.

Vitrin Corporation Inc.

Morgan Stanley reviewed the following selected multiples for USF, Yellow Roadway and each of the comparable companies:

the per share price divided by 2004 actual and 2005 estimated earnings per share; and the aggregate market value (defined as public equity market value plus total book value of debt, total book value of preferred stock and minority interest, less cash and other short term investments, and sometimes referred to as the aggregate value) divided by earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA , for 2004 actual and 2005 estimated.

Morgan Stanley calculated these financial multiples and ratios based on publicly available financial data as of February 18, 2005. The earnings per share and EBITDA estimates were based on actual figures for 2004 and I/B/E/S consensus estimates for 2005. For USF, the 2005 figures are based on the financial projections provided by USF for this period.

A summary of the range of market trading multiples of the comparable companies and those multiples calculated for USF is set forth below:

Metric	Comparable Companies Range of Multiples	Median Multiple for Comparable Companies	USF
Price / 2004 Earnings	13.5x-22.3x	16.7x	17.4x
Price / 2005 Earnings	12.4x-17.2x	12.4x	13.3x
Aggregate Value / 2004 EBITDA	5.2x-20.6x	6.3x	4.9x

Morgan Stanley noted that for purposes of its analysis, the ranges of multiples for the comparable company group were quite large and, if such ranges were used, would lead to large implied valuation ranges for USF. Based on its review of the multiple ranges for the comparable companies, Morgan Stanley selected for its comparable company analysis on USF, a representative multiple range based on (i) the per share price divided by 2004 earnings of 14.0x to 17.5x and (ii) the per share price divided by estimated 2005 earnings of 11.5x to 15.5x.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range for USF common stock of approximately $28.00 to $37.00 per share based on an average of (i) the USF share price divided by the 2004 earnings multiple range and (ii) the USF share price divided by the estimated 2005 earnings multiple range. Morgan Stanley calculated the per share implied valuation range based on the multiple range for price to USF's 2004 and estimated 2005 earnings, respectively, by multiplying the low and high ends of the multiple range by USF's 2004 and estimated 2005 earnings, respectively, and then dividing the resulting product by the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2004.

Table of Contents

Although the comparable companies in this analysis were compared to USF for purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley noted that no company utilized in this analysis is identical to USF because of differences between the business mix, labor/union relations, regulatory environment, operations and other characteristics of USF and the comparable companies. In evaluating the comparable companies and in selecting the multiple ranges it used in its analysis, Morgan Stanley necessarily made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of USF, such as the impact of competition on the business of USF and on the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of USF or the industry or in the markets generally. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

Discounted Equity Value Analysis

Morgan Stanley analyzed USF by discounting future estimates of the USF share price. For its discounted equity value analysis, Morgan Stanley estimated the USF share price in 2007 by applying a multiple of earnings to the 2007 earnings per share estimates from two financial forecasts: (i) estimates provided by USF management for fiscal years 2005 through 2008 and (ii) a Moderate Case reflecting projected growth rates and operating ratios consistent with the past financial performance of USF. The multiple of earnings applied in this analysis was the same as the range used in the comparable company analysis, or 11.5x to 15.5x estimated 2007 earnings per share. Morgan Stanley discounted the 2007 share price estimate using an 11.0% cost of equity, yielding a range of prices from approximately $34.00 to $45.00 per share. Morgan Stanley also conducted this analysis using the Moderate Case, which yielded a range of prices from approximately $24.00 to $32.00 per share. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for USF common stock was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

Precedent transactions analysis

Morgan Stanley analyzed USF relative to the values that have been paid in precedent transactions using two approaches: precedent purchase price multiples and premiums paid in precedent transactions.

Precedent purchase price multiples

Using publicly available information, Morgan Stanley reviewed the implied enterprise values and purchase price multiples in the following five selected transactions involving less-than-truckload carriers in the trucking industry:

Acquiror	Target
Yellow Corporation	Roadway Corporation
Overnite Corporation	Motor Cargo Industries, Inc.
Roadway Corporation	Arnold Industries, Inc.
FedEx Corporation	American Freightways Corporation
FedEx Corporation	Caliber System, Inc.

All multiples for the selected transactions were based on publicly available financial information. Financial data for USF was based on USF's public filings. Morgan Stanley reviewed enterprise values in the selected transactions as a multiple of the latest 12 months EBITDA. Morgan Stanley then applied a range of selected multiples of the latest 12 months EBITDA derived from the selected transactions to corresponding financial data for USF. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity reference range for USF of approximately $42.00 to $53.00 per share. Morgan Stanley noted the implied blended merger consideration was approximately $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

Premiums paid in precedent transactions

Morgan Stanley also analyzed the implied value of USF by analyzing the average premium paid for U.S. public targets over the past 15 years. Using data from Thomson Financial, Morgan Stanley estimated that for transactions with an aggregate value of over $100 million, the average premium paid was 41.1%. Morgan Stanley applied this precedent transaction premium to the range of values derived from the comparable company analysis ($28.00 to $37.00 per share). Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range for USF common stock of approximately $40.00 to $52.00 per share based on this valuation methodology. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

USF Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Morgan Stanley also analyzed USF using a discounted cash flow analysis. This type of analysis is designed to provide insight into the value of a company as a function of its future cash flows and expenditures. This analysis of USF was a four-year discounted after-tax unlevered free cash flow, calculated as of June 30, 2005 and was based on the same financial cases described above. Morgan Stanley estimated a range of terminal values calculated in 2008 based on a last twelve months EBITDA multiple of 4.5x-5.5x. Terminal value refers to the value of all future cash flows from an asset at a particular point in time. Morgan Stanley discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value based on a discount rate of 10%. Morgan Stanley chose the discount rate utilized in this analysis based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of USF and other comparable companies. Based on these projections and assumptions, the discounted cash flow analysis of USF yielded an implied valuation range of USF common stock of approximately $45.00 to $54.00 per share based on USF's financial projections and approximately $34.00 to $41.00 per share under the Moderate Case. These share prices were calculated by dividing the resulting value of USF's future cash flow streams less net debt by the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for USF common stock was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis

Morgan Stanley also analyzed USF from the perspective of a potential purchaser that was not a trucking company, but rather was primarily a financial buyer that would effect a leveraged buyout of USF. This analysis, calculated as of June 30, 2005, assumed a leveraged buyout of USF's consolidated businesses, based on the same financial forecasts described above. For purposes of an investor's desired internal rates of return, Morgan Stanley assumed a range of purchase prices of $34.00 to $54.00 per share of USF common stock and an exit multiple range of last twelve months EBITDA equal to the multiple paid at the time of the leveraged buyout. Morgan Stanley also calculated sensitivities on an investor's desired potential internal rate of return assuming a range of purchase prices of $34.00 to $54.00 per share of USF common stock, sensitivities on the projections provided by USF management and an exit multiple of 4.5x to 6.5x trailing EBITDA in 2009. Based on these projections and assumptions, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range of USF common stock of $39.00 to $42.00 using USF's financial projections and $32.00 to $36.00 per share under the Moderate Case. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for USF common stock was $47.47 per share as of February 22, 2005.

Pro Forma Analysis

Morgan Stanley analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger on Yellow Roadway's pro forma earnings per share and its impact on the pro forma credit profile of the combined companies. Morgan Stanley based this analysis on 2005 and 2006 earnings projections provided by USF and Yellow Roadway management and financial projections by Wall Street research analysts. Morgan Stanley also assumed for purposes of this analysis that the implied blended merger consideration was $47.50 per share, which was intended to reflect the approximate value, on a per share basis, of the aggregate merger consideration based on the closing price of Yellow Roadway common stock on February 22, 2005 (the last trading day prior to the publication of rumors concerning the proposed transaction). Based on this analysis and using the management projections for both companies, and assuming half a year of USF contribution to Yellow Roadway's fiscal year 2005 operating results, as well as other assumptions that may vary from actual results, Morgan Stanley observed that the merger would result in earnings per share dilution for Yellow Roadway stockholders of 12.9% in fiscal year 2005 and 7.7% in fiscal year 2006, before taking into account any one-time charges or synergies. According to this analysis and not reflective on actual projected synergies, Morgan Stanley observed that the pretax synergies required for the combined entity to realize no earnings dilution in fiscal year 2005 was $73 million and in fiscal year 2006 was $56 million. Including realizable pretax synergies of $110 million in fiscal year 2006, before taking into account any one-time charges, the merger would result in earnings per share accretion for Yellow Roadway stockholders of 7.9%.

Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparable analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered. Furthermore, Morgan Stanley believes that the summary provided and the analyses described above must be considered as a whole and that selecting any portion of the analyses, without considering all of them, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying Morgan Stanley's analysis and opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above should not be taken to be the view of Morgan Stanley with respect to the actual value of USF or Yellow Roadway or their common stock.

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, regulatory and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Morgan Stanley, USF or Yellow Roadway. Any estimates contained in the analysis of Morgan Stanley are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of the analyses of Morgan Stanley of the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of USF common stock pursuant to the merger agreement and were prepared in connection with the delivery by Morgan Stanley of its opinion on February 27, 2005 to USF's board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which shares of Yellow Roadway or USF common stock might actually trade.

The merger consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between USF and Yellow Roadway and was approved by USF's board of directors. Morgan Stanley provided advice to USF during these negotiations. Morgan Stanley did not, however, recommend any specific merger consideration to USF or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

The opinion of Morgan Stanley was one of the many factors taken into consideration by the USF board of directors in making its determination to approve the proposed transaction. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of USF's board of directors with respect to the merger consideration or of whether USF's board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different consideration. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Morgan Stanley.

Morgan Stanley is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Morgan Stanley, as part of its investment banking business, is continuously engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate, estate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of its business, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates may from time to time trade in the securities or the indebtedness of USF, Yellow Roadway and their affiliates for its own account, the accounts of investment funds and other clients under the management of Morgan Stanley and for the accounts of its customers and accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or indebtedness for any such account. In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services to USF and have received fees for rendering of these services. Specifically, during the past two years, Morgan Stanley has received from USF approximately $0.1 million in connection with its investment banking activities, exclusive of any fees related to this transaction. In addition, Morgan Stanley may provide, or seek to provide, financial advice and financing services to the combined company.

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of August 11, 2004 and the addendum dated January 12, 2005, USF has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a transaction fee based on the aggregate transaction value of USF at the time of closing. If calculated based on the March 30, 2005 closing price of Yellow Roadway common stock, Morgan Stanley's transaction fee would be approximately $8.56 million, $2.5 million of which became payable upon the announcement of the merger and the remainder of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. USF has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its fees and expenses incurred in performing its services. In addition, USF has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement and any related transactions.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

USF Directors and Officers.

In considering the recommendation of the USF board of directors with respect to the merger, USF's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, USF stockholders generally. The USF board of directors was aware of these interests of USF directors and executive officers and considered them in its decision to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Executive Retention Pool. USF adopted an executive retention program that, subject to the terms and conditions therein, authorizes the making of retention payments to certain executive officers of USF in an aggregate amount of $4.7 million. Executive officers in the executive retention program (and the amount of retention payment allocated to such person) include, among others, Mr. Bergmann ($1.5 million), Steven Caddy ($500,000), Edward R. Fitzgerald ($400,000) and Douglas R. Waggoner ($400,000). The executive retention program will provide a retention payment if either: (A) the executive is employed on the effective date of the merger and on the 12-month anniversary thereof or (B) if the executive is involuntarily terminated without cause (as defined in the executive retention program), resigns for good reason (as defined in the executive retention program), becomes disabled or dies before the 12-month anniversary of the merger. To the extent the executive is a party to a severance protection agreement with USF, USF is obligated to reimburse the executive for any additional tax liability incurred as a result of excise taxes imposed or payments deemed to be attributed to the merger.

Agreements with Paul J. Liska. On February 7, 2005, USF and Paul J. Liska entered into a letter agreement, which represented the culmination of discussions that began in November 2004, that sets forth the terms of Mr. Liska's service as USF's Executive Chairman (which service began in November 2004), including terms related to, among other things, the period of service, duties, compensation and indemnification. As part of his compensation package, Mr. Liska receives both cash in the amount of $45,000 per month of service and a number of PSUs for each calendar month of service equal to the quotient of $45,000 divided by the average of the closing prices of USF common stock on the last five trading days of such month.

Under the terms of the letter agreement, should Mr. Liska be terminated other than for cause (as defined in the letter agreement) with less than 90 days notice, he is to receive (i) a lump sum payment in cash of $90,000 per month prorated for the unexpired balance of the 90-day notice period and (ii) $90,000 per month for each of the six months following such termination. Consequently, upon the consummation of the merger, Mr. Liska will be entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to such amounts ($810,000) and a lump sum cash payment equal to the value of his unpaid PSUs. Mr. Liska also is entitled to receive reimbursement for any additional tax liability incurred as a result of excise taxes imposed on all payments deemed to be attributable to the merger.

Pursuant to a separate agreement entered into between USF and Mr. Liska, USF will pay Mr. Liska at the effective time of the merger a transaction fee in the amount of $2.19 million if USF completes the merger, provided that Mr. Liska has not voluntarily resigned as Executive Chairman prior thereto.

Severance Protection Agreements

Upon the consummation of the merger, if the employment of an officer who is party to a severance protection agreement with USF is terminated on or before the second anniversary of a change in control (as defined in the severance protection agreement) for any reason other than for cause (as defined in his severance protection agreement) or if the officer terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in his severance protection agreement), the officer will be entitled to severance compensation as follows:

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to one or two times the sum of his base salary (as determined under the severance protection agreement), plus his target bonus amount (equal to the greater of (i) such employee's target bonus amount on the date of the change in control and (ii) such employee's target bonus amount on the date of termination of employment); for either 12 or 18 months following his termination date, life insurance coverage substantially similar to those that he was receiving or entitled to receive immediately prior to the termination and, if the officer elects continuation coverage as mandated under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), payment of the full cost of such coverage during the 12- or 18-month period, or, if shorter, until the officer is no longer eligible for COBRA continuation coverage;

full vesting of all equity awards;

reasonable fees for outplacement services, at the expense of USF, for up to six months following such termination of employment;

reimbursement for any additional tax liability incurred as a result of excise taxes imposed or payments deemed to be attributable to the change in control; and payment of any and all reasonable legal fees incurred as a result of efforts to enforce his severance protection agreement, which, for the severance protection agreements of certain officers, is payable only if such employee prevails on at least one material issue in dispute.

As condition to receiving such benefits, the officer must deliver an effective waiver and release of any claims against USF. Certain of the severance protection agreements (including those with Messrs. Caddy and Fitzgerald) also impose one-year customer non-solicitation and employee non-solicitation/no hire restrictions and a perpetual confidentiality restriction.

For purposes of the severance protection agreements, a merger (including the merger with Yellow Roadway) shall not constitute a change in control of USF for purposes of the applicable severance protection agreement until such merger is consummated.

The severance protection agreements expire on December 31, 2005, with annual evergreen provisions beginning in January 2006, subject to 90 days prior notice of non-renewal; provided, that the severance protection agreements automatically extend until the second anniversary of a change in control.

The following table sets forth the estimated amount of severance and other benefits that USF's named executive officers will receive if the merger occurs (including required excise tax gross-up payments for excess parachute payments received in connection with the merger), assuming that such executive officers became entitled to severance benefits (as described above). The estimates are based on the number of USF stock options, restricted stock and PSUs each such person owned as of March 15, 2005 (except in the case of the number of PSUs owned by Mr. Liska, which number has been calculated assuming additional grants through June 30, 2005) and certain assumptions, including that (i) the merger occurs on June 30, 2005, (ii) the USF stock options, restricted stock and PSUs are held through the effective time of the merger, (iii) the holders of restricted USF

Upon announcement of the merger, a lump sum contribution of the present value of certain employees' remaining accrued benefits under the USF Corporation Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and the USF Corporation Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan was mandated under the terms of a rabbi trust. Upon consummation of the merger, such persons will be entitled to receive the distribution in accordance with the terms of the applicable agreement.

Each option to purchase USF shares granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become fully vested and fully exercisable at the effective time. At such time, each such unexercised USF option with an exercise price that is less than the deemed per share merger consideration will be cancelled and the holder of such option will be entitled to receive cash from USF in an amount equal to (i) the deemed per share merger consideration minus the exercise price per USF share under the applicable option, multiplied by (ii) the number of USF shares subject to such option. The deemed per share merger consideration is defined as (x) $22.50 plus (y) 0.4512 multiplied by the Yellow Roadway closing price on the trading day immediately prior to the effective time. Each such unexercised USF option with an exercise price that is equal to or greater than the deemed per share merger consideration will be cancelled and the holder of such option shall not be entitled to receive any consideration for such option.

Each share of restricted USF stock granted under a USF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will become fully vested and all restrictions relating to such USF shares shall lapse at the effective time. Each PSU granted under a USF stock plan or under another agreement will become fully vested and USF will be required to pay the holder of such PSU a cash amount equal to the deemed per share merger consideration multiplied by the number of USF shares credited under the applicable PSU.

The following table sets forth the amounts that USF's named executive officers and directors will receive pursuant to the merger in respect of USF stock options, restricted stock and PSUs each such person owned as of March 15, 2005 (except in the case of the numbers of PSUs owned by Messrs. USF Directors and Executive Officers

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, one of the seven members of the USF board will be appointed as a director of Yellow Roadway. See Board of Directors and Management of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger .

Under the merger agreement, Yellow Roadway has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of USF for acts or omissions occurring at and prior to the effective time of the merger and to promptly advance reasonable litigation expenses incurred by these officers and directors in connection with investigating, preparing and defending any action arising out of these acts or omissions. See The Merger Agreement Indemnification and Insurance .

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow Roadway has agreed that it will provide USF s current officers and directors with an insurance and indemnification policy that provides for coverage of events occurring prior to the effective time and that is no less favorable than the existing policy or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage. However, Yellow Roadway will not be required to pay an annual premium for this insurance in excess of $2,250,000 (three times the most recent aggregate annual premium paid by USF prior to the date of the merger agreement). See The Merger Agreement Indemnification and Insurance .

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a business combination using the purchase method of accounting. Yellow Roadway will be the acquiror for financial accounting purposes.

Opinions that the Merger Constitutes a Reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code

The completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of opinions from tax counsel for each of Yellow Roadway and USF that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions will be delivered only if, among other things, the USF stockholders receive in the merger, in the aggregate, Yellow Roadway shares with an aggregate value equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all USF shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to USF stockholders in connection with the merger (including cash received by USF stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and cash received in lieu of fractional Yellow Roadway shares).

As described further under "The Merger Agreement - Proration and Allocation" on page 78 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the value of Yellow Roadway shares for purposes of determining the combined value of the total consideration paid by Yellow Roadway for all USF shares, will be valued at the average of the high and low trading prices of the Yellow Roadway shares on the day before the closing date of the merger. If the aggregate value of the Yellow Roadway shares received by stockholders of USF in the merger would be equal to less than 45% of the aggregate value of the total consideration paid or deemed paid for all USF shares, the adjustment described further under "The Merger Agreement - Proration and Allocation" will apply to the extent necessary so that the value of the Yellow Roadway shares will equal 45% of the value of the total consideration.

None of USF, Yellow Roadway or any corporation related to USF or Yellow Roadway has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any USF shares in connection with the merger. Neither Yellow Roadway or any corporation related to Yellow Roadway has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger.

Regulatory Matters

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the merger may not be completed unless Yellow Roadway and USF file premerger notification and report forms with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the waiting period under the HSR Act expires or is terminated. On March 14 and 15, 2005, Yellow Roadway and USF, respectively, submitted the regulatory filings to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division and unless earlier terminated or extended by a request for additional information, the waiting period will expire at 11:59 p.m. on April 14, 2005. If extended by a request for additional information, the waiting period will, unless earlier terminated, expire 30 days after substantial compliance by both parties with request for additional information, or on the next regular business day if the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday.

At any time before the effective time of the merger, the Federal Trade Commission, the Antitrust Division, a state or non-U.S. governmental authority or a private person or an entity could seek under the antitrust laws, among other things, to enjoin the merger or to cause Yellow Roadway or USF to divest assets or businesses as a condition to completion of the merger. If a challenge to the merger is made, Yellow Roadway and USF may not prevail. The obligations of Yellow Roadway and USF to consummate the merger are subject to the condition that there be no order or injunction of a U.S. or non-U.S. court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority that prohibits the consummation of the merger. While the parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts with respect to antitrust matters, neither Yellow Roadway nor USF is under any obligation to defend any litigation relating to the merger under federal or state antitrust laws or sell or dispose of any of their assets.

Yellow Roadway and USF believe that they will obtain all material required regulatory approvals prior to the special meetings. It is not certain, however, that all approvals will be received by that time, or at all, and governmental authorities may impose unfavorable conditions for granting the required approvals.

Other than as we describe in this document, the merger does not require the approval of any other U.S. federal or state or foreign agency.

Board of Directors and Management of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger

Immediately following the merger, the Yellow Roadway board will increase from ten directors to eleven directors. The Yellow Roadway board will then elect an existing USF director, to fill the newly created vacancy. The eleven board members will serve until the Yellow Roadway 2006 annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified. Following the merger, William D. Zollars, currently Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Yellow Roadway, will remain in these positions in Yellow Roadway.

Appraisal and Dissenters Rights

Under the DGCL, any USF stockholder who does not wish to accept the merger consideration has the right to dissent from the merger and to seek an appraisal of, and to be paid the fair value (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) for his or her shares of USF common stock, so long as the stockholder complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL.

Holders of record of USF common stock who do not vote in favor of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the applicable statutory procedures summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus will be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of USF common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS NOT A COMPLETE STATEMENT OF THE LAW PERTAINING TO APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER THE DGCL AND IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY THE FULL TEXT OF SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL, WHICH IS REPRINTED IN ITS ENTIRETY AS ANNEX D. ALL REFERENCES IN SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL AND IN THIS SUMMARY TO A STOCKHOLDER OR HOLDER ARE TO THE RECORD HOLDER OF THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AS TO WHICH APPRAISAL RIGHTS ARE ASSERTED.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of USF common stock who follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to have their USF common stock appraised by the Delaware Chancery Court and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of these USF shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by that court.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, when a proposed merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders who was a stockholder on the record date for this meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available, that appraisal rights are so available, and must include in this required notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus constitutes the required notice to the holders of these USF shares and the applicable statutory provisions of the DGCL are attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. Any stockholder who wishes to exercise his or her appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex D carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified in Annex D will result in the loss of appraisal rights under the DGCL.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

A holder of USF shares wishing to exercise his or her appraisal rights (a) must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and (b) must deliver to USF prior to the vote on the merger agreement at the USF special meeting, a written demand for appraisal of his or her USF shares. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or against the merger. This demand must reasonably inform USF of the identity of the stockholder and of the stockholder's intent thereby to demand appraisal of his or her shares. A holder of USF common stock wishing to exercise his or her holder's appraisal rights must be the record holder of these USF shares on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and must continue to hold these USF shares until the consummation of the merger. Accordingly, a holder of USF common stock who is the record holder of USF common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers these USF shares prior to consummation of the merger, will lose any right to appraisal in respect of these USF shares.

Only a holder of record of USF common stock is entitled to assert appraisal rights for the USF shares registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as the holder's name appears on the holder's stock certificates. If the USF shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand should be made in that capacity, and if the USF common stock is owned of record by more than one owner as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including one or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record. The agent, however, must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is agent for the owner or owners. A record holder such as a broker who holds USF common stock as nominee for several beneficial owners may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the USF shares held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising appraisal rights with respect to the USF common stock held for other beneficial owners. In this case, the written demand should set forth the number of USF shares as to which appraisal is sought. When no number of USF shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all USF common stock in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms, and those who wish to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL are urged to consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such a nominee.

ALL WRITTEN DEMANDS FOR APPRAISAL SHOULD BE SENT OR DELIVERED TO USF CORPORATION, 8550 W. BRYN MAWR AVE., STE. 700, CHICAGO, IL 60631, ATTENTION: SECRETARY.

Within ten days after the consummation of the merger, the surviving company will notify each stockholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL and has not voted in favor of the merger agreement of the date the merger became effective.

Within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, but not thereafter, the surviving company or any stockholder who has complied with the statutory requirements summarized above may file a petition in the Delaware Chancery Court demanding a determination of the fair value of the USF common stock. None of Yellow Roadway, Sub or USF is under any obligation to and none of them has any present intention to file a petition with respect to the appraisal of the fair value of the USF shares. Accordingly, it is the obligation of stockholders wishing to assert appraisal rights to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights within the time prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements for exercise of appraisal rights will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving company a statement setting forth the aggregate number of USF shares not voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of these USF shares. These statements must be mailed within ten days after a written request therefor has been received by the surviving company.

If a petition for an appraisal is filed timely, after a hearing on the petition, the Delaware Chancery Court will determine the stockholders entitled to appraisal rights and will appraise the fair value of their USF shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their USF shares as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be more than, the same as or less than the value of the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their USF shares and that investment banking opinions as to fairness from a financial point of view are not necessarily opinions as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in the appraisal proceedings.

The Delaware Chancery Court will determine the amount of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amounts to be received by stockholders whose USF shares have been appraised. The costs of the action may be determined by the Delaware Chancery Court and taxed upon the parties as the Delaware Chancery Court deems equitable. The Delaware Chancery Court may also order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with an appraisal, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts used in the appraisal proceeding, be charged pro rata against the value of all of the USF shares entitled to appraisal.

Any holder of USF common stock who has duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not, after the consummation of the merger, be entitled to vote the USF shares subject to this demand for any purpose or be entitled to the payment of dividends or other distributions on those USF shares (except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of USF common stock as of a record date prior to the consummation of the merger).

If any stockholder who properly demands appraisal of his or her USF common stock under Section 262 of the DGCL fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses, his or her right to appraisal, as provided in Section 262 of the DGCL, the USF shares of that stockholder will be converted into the right to receive the consideration receivable with respect to these USF shares in accordance with the merger agreement. A stockholder will fail to perfect, or effectively lose or withdraw, his or her right to appraisal if, among other things, no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers to USF or the surviving company, as the case may be, a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal. Any attempt to withdraw an appraisal demand in this matter more than 60 days after the consummation of the merger will require the written approval of the surviving company.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of these rights, in which event a stockholder will be entitled to receive the consideration receivable with respect to his or her USF shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

Delisting and Deregistration of USF Common Stock

If the merger is completed, the shares of USF common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq National Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The stockholders of USF will become stockholders of Yellow Roadway and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and by the laws of the State of Delaware. See "Comparison of Stockholders' Rights" beginning on page 115 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences; Resale Restrictions

All shares of Yellow Roadway common stock that will be distributed to USF stockholders in the merger will be freely transferable, except for restrictions applicable to affiliates of USF. Persons who are deemed to be affiliates of USF may resell Yellow Roadway shares received by them only in transactions permitted by the resale provisions of Rule 145 or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act of 1933. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of USF generally include executive officers, directors and controlling stockholders of USF. The merger agreement requires USF to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its directors and executive officers who USF believes may be deemed to be affiliates of USF to execute a written agreement to the effect that those persons will not sell, assign or transfer any of the Yellow Roadway shares issued to them in the merger unless that sale, assignment or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, is in conformity with Rule 145 or is otherwise exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus does not cover any resales of the Yellow Roadway shares to be received by USF's stockholders in the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code, court decisions, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this document and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to holders who hold USF shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a holder in light of their particular circumstances or to holders who may be subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, such as tax exempt organizations, foreign persons or entities, financial institutions, insurance companies, broker-dealers, holders who hold USF shares as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction, or other integrated investment comprised of USF shares and one or more investments, holders with a functional currency (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code) other than the U.S. dollar, and persons who acquired USF shares in compensatory transactions. Further, this discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign taxation. No ruling has been or will be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matter relating to the merger and no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax aspects described below. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, as well as the effects of state, local and foreign tax laws.

As used in this summary, a U.S. holder includes:

an individual U.S. citizen or resident alien;

a corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized under U.S. law (federal or state);

an estate whose worldwide income is subject to U.S. federal income tax; or a trust if a court within the United States of America is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of USF shares, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders of USF shares that are partnerships and partners in these partnerships are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of USF shares in the merger.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER IN LIGHT OF YOUR OWN SITUATION.

It is a condition to the closing of the merger that Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Sullivan & Cromwell LLP deliver opinions, dated as of the closing date of the merger, to Yellow Roadway and USF, respectively, to the effect that, if the merger is consummated in accordance with the merger agreement, the merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that each of Yellow Roadway and USF will be a party to the merger within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. If certain events, some of which are described below, occur between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the closing of the merger, each counsel may be unable to issue its opinion.

The opinions of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., counsel to Yellow Roadway, and Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, counsel to USF, which are required as a condition to closing the merger, are and will be based on U.S. federal income tax law in effect as of the date of these opinions. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or any court. In rendering the opinions, Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Sullivan & Cromwell will rely on certain assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and the completion of the merger strictly in accordance with the merger agreement and this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinions will also rely upon certain representations and covenants of the management of Yellow Roadway and USF and will assume that these representations are true, correct and complete without regard to any knowledge limitation, and that these covenants will be complied with. If any of these assumptions or representations are inaccurate in any way, or any of the covenants are not complied with, the opinions could be adversely affected.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of USF Common Stock

The Merger

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, USF stockholders who exchange all their USF shares for Yellow Roadway shares will recognize neither gain nor loss, while USF stockholders who exchange some or all of their USF shares for cash will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount generally equal to the lesser of:

the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Yellow Roadway), and

the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow Roadway shares as of the effective time of the merger and the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger for these USF shares exceeds the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in these USF shares.

Gain recognized upon the exchange generally will be capital gain, unless the receipt of cash by a U.S. holder has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, in which case the gain will be treated as dividend income to the extent of the U.S. holder's ratable share of USF's accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In determining whether or not the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, certain constructive ownership rules must be taken into account. Any recognized capital gain will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held USF shares for more than one year.

If a U.S. holder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Yellow Roadway shares, he or she will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash received in lieu of this fractional share and the portion of his or her adjusted tax basis in USF shares surrendered that is allocable to this fractional share. The capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for USF shares exchanged for cash in lieu of the fractional share of Yellow Roadway common stock is more than one year as of the date of the merger.

A U.S. holder will have an aggregate tax basis in shares of Yellow Roadway shares received in the merger equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis in USF shares surrendered in the merger, reduced by:

the portion of his or her adjusted tax basis in those USF shares that is allocable to a fractional share of Yellow Roadway shares for which cash is received, and the amount of cash received by him or her for these USF shares in the merger (but not any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Yellow Roadway shares pursuant to the merger), and increased by the amount of gain (including the portion of this gain that is treated as a dividend as described above) recognized by him or her in the exchange (but not by any gain recognized upon the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Yellow Roadway shares pursuant to the merger).

The holding period of the Yellow Roadway shares received by a USF stockholder pursuant to the merger will include the holding period of USF shares surrendered in exchange for these Yellow Roadway shares, if these USF shares are held as capital assets as of the effective time of the merger.

One of the requirements that must be satisfied in order for the merger to qualify as a reorganization under the Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is the continuity of interest requirement. This requirement will be satisfied if the stockholders of USF exchange a substantial portion of the value of their proprietary interest in USF for proprietary interests in Yellow Roadway. In the opinion of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, the continuity of interest requirement will be satisfied if the value of the Yellow Roadway shares received in connection with the merger by the stockholders of USF equals or exceeds 45% of the total consideration paid or deemed paid in exchange for all USF shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to holders of USF shares in connection with the merger and cash to be paid to USF stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights. If the aggregate value of the Yellow Roadway shares received by stockholders of USF in the merger would be equal to less than 45% of the aggregate value of the total consideration paid or deemed paid for all USF shares, the adjustment described further under "The Merger Agreement Proration and Allocation" will apply to the extent necessary so that the value of the Yellow Roadway shares will equal 45% of the total consideration.

None of USF, Yellow Roadway or any corporation related to USF or Yellow Roadway has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any USF shares in connection with the merger. Neither Yellow Roadway or any corporation related to Yellow Roadway has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger.

Under proposed U.S. Treasury regulations intended to clarify the time at which the shares of an acquiring corporation would be valued for purposes of determining whether the continuity of interest requirement is satisfied, the determination of whether the value of the Yellow Roadway shares received by the stockholders of USF in the merger would satisfy the continuity of interest requirement is made based on the value of the Yellow Roadway shares as of the end of the last business day before Yellow Roadway and USF entered into the merger agreement. As of that date, the value of the Yellow Roadway shares that will be issued in the merger exceeded 45% of the aggregate value of the total consideration paid or deemed paid for all USF shares. However, the proposed regulations have not been adopted and there can be no assurance that they will be adopted or, if adopted, that they will either apply to the merger or be adopted in their current form.

Holders of USF shares are entitled to dissenters' rights under Delaware law in connection with the merger. If a U.S. holder receives cash pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights, that U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference between the cash received and his or her adjusted tax basis in his or her USF shares. This gain should be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held USF shares for more than one year. Any holder of USF shares that plans to exercise dissenters' rights in connection with the merger is urged to consult a tax advisor to determine the related tax consequences.

If the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then each U.S. holder would recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow Roadway shares and the amount of cash received in the merger (including cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Yellow Roadway shares) and his or her tax basis in USF shares surrendered in exchange therefor. Further, if the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, USF would be subject to tax on the deemed sale of its assets to Yellow Roadway with gain or loss for this purpose measured by the difference between USF's tax basis in its assets and the fair market value of the consideration deemed to be received therefor, or, in other words, the cash and Yellow Roadway shares. This gain or loss would be reported on USF's final tax return, subject to the effect of any tax carryovers and the effect of its other income or loss for that period, and Yellow Roadway would become liable for any such tax liability by virtue of the merger.

Backup Withholding

United States federal income tax law requires that a holder of USF shares provide the exchange agent with his or her correct taxpayer identification number, which is, in the case of a U.S. holder who is an individual, a social security number, or, in the alternative, establish a basis for exemption from backup withholding. Exempt holders, including, among others, corporations and some foreign individuals, are not subject to backup withholding and reporting requirements. If the correct taxpayer identification number or an adequate basis for exemption is not provided, a holder will be subject to backup withholding on any reportable payment. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a U.S. holder will be allowed as a credit against that U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax and may entitle the U.S. holder to a refund, if the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

To prevent backup withholding, each holder of USF shares must complete the Substitute Form W-9 which will be provided by the exchange agent with the transmittal letter and certify under penalties of perjury that the taxpayer identification number provided is correct or that the holder is awaiting a taxpayer identification number, and the holder is not subject to backup withholding because:

the holder is exempt from backup withholding, the holder has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he is subject to backup withholding as a result of the failure to report all interest or dividends, or the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder that he is no longer subject to backup withholding.

The Substitute Form W-9 must be completed, signed and returned to the exchange agent.

Information Reporting

Stockholders of USF receiving Yellow Roadway shares in the merger should file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth their adjusted tax basis in USF shares exchanged in the merger, as well as the fair market value of the Yellow Roadway shares and the amount of cash received in the merger. In addition, stockholders of USF will be required to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this document and is incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. You should read the merger agreement because it, and not this document, is the legal document that governs the merger.

You should not rely upon the representations and warranties in the merger agreement or the description of them in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as statements of factual information about either Yellow Roadway or USF. These representations and warranties were made by the parties only for purposes of the merger agreement, were made solely to each other as of the date of the merger agreement and are subject to modification or qualification by other disclosures made in connection with the merger agreement. The representations and warranties are reproduced and summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus solely to provide information regarding the terms of the merger agreement and not to provide you with any other information regarding Yellow Roadway or USF. Such information about Yellow Roadway and USF can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in other public filings we make with the SEC.

The Merger

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, at the effective time of the merger, USF will merge with and into Yankee II LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow Roadway, which we refer to as Sub. Sub will continue as the surviving company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow Roadway operating under the name USF LLC. Yellow Roadway will continue under its existing name.

The closing date of the merger will occur no later than the first business day following the date on which all conditions to the merger, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, have been satisfied or waived, unless the parties agree on another time. Yellow Roadway and USF expect to complete the merger during the summer of 2005. However, we do not know how long after the special meetings the closing of the merger will take place.

Contemporaneously with the closing of the merger, Sub and USF will file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The effective time of the merger will be the time Sub and USF file the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time as we may agree and specify in the certificate of merger.

As a result of the merger, USF will be merged with and into Sub and the separate corporate existence of USF will cease.

Merger Consideration

Upon the effectiveness of the merger, each share of USF common stock (other than any shares owned directly or indirectly by USF and Yellow Roadway and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into the right to receive 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. At their election, each USF stockholder may elect to receive $45.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock for each share of USF common stock they own at the effective time of the merger.

Notwithstanding the individual elections of the USF stockholders, 50% of the USF shares will be converted into cash. If more than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, those stockholders that elect to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more stock such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash, and 50% will receive stock. If fewer than 50% of the USF shares elect to receive cash, the stockholders not electing to receive cash will receive proportionately less Yellow Roadway stock and more cash such that 50% of the USF shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. As a result of these elections and adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately 50% cash and 50% Yellow Roadway common stock. As a result of these elections and adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately $639 million in cash (based on the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding as of February 27, 2005) and the balance will be paid in Yellow Roadway common stock. Assuming all stockholders elect to receive 50% cash and 50% Yellow Roadway common stock, each stockholder will receive $22.50 per share in cash and 0.4512 shares (or one half of the exchange ratio) of Yellow Roadway common stock for each USF share, subject to the proration and allocation provisions described above.

No fractional shares of Yellow Roadway common stock will be issued in the merger. All Yellow Roadway shares that a USF stockholder is entitled to receive will be aggregated. Any fractional Yellow Roadway shares resulting from this aggregation will be paid cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the market value of a Yellow Roadway share, determined using the average of the high and low trading prices of Yellow Roadway common stock on the day before the closing as reported on the Nasdaq National Market, rounded to the nearest cent.

Yellow Roadway anticipates issuing approximately 12.8 million shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to USF shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement, representing approximately 20.8% of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock outstanding immediately after the merger.

Election Procedures

A cash election and transmittal form will be sent to you. Each cash election and transmittal form permits the holder to indicate an election to receive cash with respect to all or a portion of the holder's shares of USF common stock, subject to the proration and allocation procedures described below.

The deadline for submitting cash election and transmittal forms will be 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date; this deadline is known as the cash election deadline. You will have the right to make a cash election from the time you receive your cash election form until the cash election deadline. As soon as practicable after the closing date of the merger is determined, Yellow Roadway and USF each will issue a press release, which will be available on each company's website (see Where You Can Find More Information on page 123), containing the specific date of the cash election deadline. You will not be able to determine every factor that may cause the proration and allocation procedures to apply and, therefore, your estimate of the consideration you will receive based on the announced exchange ratio may not be accurate. Any shares of USF common stock for which a properly completed cash election and transmittal form is not submitted will be converted into Yellow Roadway common stock upon the completion of the merger, subject to the proration and allocation procedures described below. If you fail to submit a cash election and transmittal form by the election deadline, you will receive Yellow Roadway common stock in the merger, subject to the proration and allocation procedures described below.

Elections are properly made only if the exchange agent actually receives a properly completed cash election and transmittal form by the election deadline, accompanied by the certificate representing the shares of USF common stock as to which the cash election is being made or, in the case of USF stockholders whose shares are held in book-entry form, you must instruct your broker, dealer, bank or other financial institution that holds the shares to make an election on your behalf by transferring the shares to an account established by the exchange agent for this purpose at Depository Trust Company, or DTC, and transmitting a message through DTC to the exchange agent setting forth your election with respect to your shares of USF common stock. You have the right to change or revoke your election anytime before 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the election deadline. To change your election, you should submit to the exchange agent a properly completed and signed revised cash election and transmittal form or if your shares are held in book-entry form, you should cause a new message with revised election information to be transferred through DTC to the exchange agent for receipt by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. To revoke your election, you should submit to the exchange agent written notice of revocation or cause a new message to be transmitted through DTC to the exchange agent withdrawing shares previously deposited and specifying the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited for receipt by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If a cash election and transmittal form is revoked, it will be treated as if no cash election had been made. A cash election and transmittal form received and not changed or revoked by 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the election deadline will be binding and irrevocable.

If your share certificates are not immediately available, or if you cannot deliver your share certificates and other required documents to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, or if you cannot comply with the book-entry transfer procedures on a timely basis, you may satisfy the cash election requirements by properly completing a guarantee of delivery under the guaranteed delivery procedures in the cash election and transmittal form. Under this procedure, the properly completed cash election and transmittal form, including the guarantee of delivery, must be received prior to the election deadline, and share certificates must be received by the exchange agent within three trading days thereafter.

Yellow Roadway will have the power, which it may delegate to the exchange agent, to determine, in its good faith reasonable judgment, whether any election has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in cash election and transmittal forms. Any decision by Yellow Roadway or the exchange agent regarding these matters will be conclusive and binding.

If you send in your stock certificates now and the merger agreement is terminated, your stock certificates will be returned to you as soon as practicable after the date of termination.

Proration and Allocation

Since the aggregate cash component of the consideration is limited, a USF stockholder may not receive the exact consideration elected on his or her cash election and transmittal form. In addition to the adjustments described above, the merger agreement requires that at least 45% of the value of the aggregate consideration consists of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. Various events and circumstances have a bearing on whether this requirement can be satisfied, including:

whether there is a significant decline in the price of Yellow Roadway common stock as compared to its price as of the close of trading on February 22, 2005;

the amount of cash deemed to be paid for dissenting shares;

the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares; and

a redemption by USF of a large number of shares of its common stock (which would require the consent of Yellow Roadway under the merger agreement), or the acquisition by Yellow Roadway or any parties related to either Yellow Roadway or USF of a large number of shares of USF common stock for consideration other than Yellow Roadway common stock prior to or as part of the merger.

If, after considering the above factors and any other events and circumstances relevant to determining the cash component of the aggregate consideration, the aggregate value of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued to USF shareholders in the merger is less than 45% of the aggregate consideration, then the cash component of the merger consideration will be reduced and the number of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued to USF stockholders will be increased so that:

the aggregate increase in the value of the shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger, based on the average of the high and low trading prices of the Yellow Roadway common stock on the day before the closing of the merger, equals the aggregate decrease in the cash merger consideration; and the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger is equal to 45% of the value of the total merger consideration as measured on the day before the closing date.

As stated above, if the aggregate value of the Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger is less than 45% of the total consideration, the allocation of the total consideration would be subject to adjustment.

Table of Contents

For purposes of the following example, assume that cash elections have been made by all USF stockholders with respect to all of their USF shares and assume that the average of the high and low prices of the Yellow Roadway common stock on the day before the closing date is $35.00, which would represent a significant drop from price of the Yellow Roadway common stock used to determine the exchange ratio. Based on these assumptions, the aggregate value of the consideration to be received by USF stockholders on the closing date for each share of USF common stock would be $38.29, consisting of $22.50 cash and $15.79 of stock ($35.00 multiplied by 50% of the 0.9024 exchange ratio, or 0.4512). This would result in an allocation of 58.76% cash and 41.24% stock. Consequently, the stock and cash included in the merger consideration would require reallocation to the extent necessary to result in an allocation of the total consideration of 45% stock and 55% cash. This reallocation would result in the value of the Yellow Roadway common stock consideration being equal to $17.23 ($38.29 multiplied by 45%) and cash of $21.06 ($38.29 multiplied by 55%). This example does not take into account various factors other than the cash election and the average of the high and low trading prices on the day before closing necessary to determine the proper proration and allocation of the cash and stock components of the aggregate consideration, which will not be known or determinable until the closing date, such as the number of shares with respect to which USF stockholders will exercise dissenters' rights, the aggregate amount of cash paid in lieu of fractional shares and the number of shares of USF common stock redeemed by USF (which would require the consent of Yellow Roadway under the merger agreement) or transferred or sold to Yellow Roadway or any parties related to either Yellow Roadway or USF for consideration other than Yellow Roadway common stock prior to or as part of the merger. As a result of the numerous variables, assumptions and uncertainties involved in the determination of the final allocation amounts, Yellow Roadway and USF can not provide any assurances regarding the final allocation amounts if an adjustment on the bases described above is required. It is unlikely that this example will be an accurate summary of the actual situation at closing, and it is likely that the reallocation, if any, will affect the USF stockholders differently depending on the percentages of cash and stock that such stockholders would originally be entitled to receive in the merger prior to any reallocation.

Exchange Procedures

At the effective time of the merger, Sub will deposit with the exchange agent, for the benefit of the holders of USF common stock, an amount in cash and certificates representing shares of Yellow Roadway common stock sufficient to effect the conversion of USF common stock into the cash and stock consideration to be paid in the merger. Yellow Roadway or Sub will also make funds available to the exchange agent from time to time after the effective time of the merger as needed to pay any cash instead of fractional shares or any dividends or other distributions declared by Yellow Roadway on shares of Yellow Roadway common stock with a record date before or after the effective time of the merger and a payment date on or before the date the relevant USF stock certificate was surrendered.

At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of USF will be closed and no further issuances or transfers of USF common stock will be made. If, after the effective time, valid USF stock certificates are presented to the surviving company for any reason, they will be cancelled and exchanged as described above to the extent allowed by applicable law.

Exchange of Shares

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, if you have not completed a valid cash election and transmittal form, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of USF shares a transmittal letter and instructions explaining how to surrender your certificates to the exchange agent. If you hold shares of USF common stock in street name, you will need to contact your broker and follow the procedures described by your broker to elect to receive cash for your shares.

The exchange agent will deliver to Yellow Roadway any (i) shares of Yellow Roadway common stock to be issued in the merger or funds set aside by Yellow Roadway to pay the cash consideration, (ii) cash in lieu of fractional shares in connection with the merger or to pay dividends or (iii) other distributions, in each case on Yellow Roadway shares to be issued in the merger that are not claimed by former USF stockholders within one year after the effective time of the merger. Thereafter, Yellow Roadway will act as the exchange agent and former USF stockholders may look only to Yellow Roadway for payment of their shares of Yellow Roadway common stock, cash consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares and unpaid dividends and distributions. None of Yellow Roadway, the surviving company, the exchange agent or any other person will be liable to any former USF stockholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

If any certificates for shares of Yellow Roadway common stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the USF stock certificate surrendered in exchange for these shares is registered, the person requesting the exchange must:

pay any transfer or other taxes required because the Yellow Roadway stock certificates must be issued in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate surrendered or establish to the satisfaction of Yellow Roadway or the exchange agent that this tax has been paid or is not applicable.

Managers and Officers of the Surviving Company After the Merger

Under the merger agreement, certain specified officers of Yellow Roadway will be the managers of the surviving company at and after the merger, and certain specified officers of Yellow Roadway, its subsidiaries or USF will be the officers of the surviving company at and after the merger.

Many of the representations and warranties of USF and Yellow Roadway are qualified by a material adverse effect standard. A material adverse effect, with respect to each of USF and Yellow Roadway, is defined in the merger agreement as a material adverse effect on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, excluding any effects resulting from or arising in connection with:

changes in the party's relationships with its employees or with any labor organization or other representative of such employees, or any adverse change, effect or circumstance resulting from or arising in connection with any union certification or decertification petition, union authorization campaign, grievance or arbitration proceeding or other labor-related proceeding or litigation, labor strike, slowdown, work stoppage or other labor controversy that is threatened to occur or occurs after February 27, 2005, any out of pocket expenses (including filing fees and legal expenses specifically with respect to any litigation arising from the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement) directly incurred by such party in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and in accordance with its terms.

All of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement were required to be made by each party on the signing date of the merger agreement and will be required to be made again by each party on the closing date of the transaction, except that the representations and warranties concerning labor and employees matters were only required to be made as of the signing date of the merger agreement.

No Solicitation

USF has agreed that, except as expressly permitted by the merger agreement, it will not, and will instruct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its officers, directors, employees, investments bankers, attorneys, accountants and other advisors or representatives (collectively referred to in this section as representatives) not to, directly or indirectly, and on becoming aware of, USF will take reasonable action to stop its representatives from continuing to:

solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal (of the type described below in this joint proxy statement/prospectus); or enter into, or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating, any acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding anything described above, USF may, to the extent the USF board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable law, in response to (1) a superior proposal or (2) a bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal that the USF board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor could lead to a superior proposal (any such acquisition proposal being referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as a potential superior proposal):

furnish information with respect to USF to the person making such superior proposal or potential superior proposal and its representatives pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement not less restrictive of the other party (except that it need not include any standstill provisions) than the confidentiality agreement between Yellow Roadway and USF (provided, however, that, to the extent any such confidentiality agreement does not contain any standstill provisions, the confidentiality agreement between Yellow Roadway and USF will be automatically amended (without any further action by the parties) such that the standstill provisions in the parties' confidentiality agreement restricting activities of Yellow Roadway and its subsidiaries will be deleted); and participate in discussions or negotiations (including solicitation of such a revised superior proposal or potential superior proposal) with such person and its representatives regarding any such superior proposal or potential superior proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, acquisition proposal means any proposal or offer:

for a merger, consolidation, dissolution, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving USF; or to acquire from in any manner, directly or indirectly, more than a 20% of the equity securities or more than 20% of the consolidated total assets (including equity securities of USF's subsidiaries) of USF.

As used in the merger agreement, superior proposal means any bona fide written acquisition proposal made by a third party to acquire more than 50% of the equity securities or more than 50% of the assets of USF and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a recapitalization, a consolidation or a sale of its assets, which the USF board of directors determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with its financial advisor):

to be more favorable from a financial point of view to the holders of USF's common stock than the merger; and is reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed and for which financing is reasonably capable of being obtained, taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such proposal.

No Change in USF Recommendation or Alternative Acquisition Agreement withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Yellow Roadway or Sub, the approval or recommendation by the USF board of directors with respect to the merger agreement and the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

The merger agreement generally provides that the USF board of directors shall not:

except as permitted below under Termination, cause or permit USF to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or similar agreement (an alternative acquisition agreement) providing for the consummation of a transaction contemplated by any acquisition proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to in No Solicitation entered into in the circumstances referred to therein); or approve, recommend or propose publicly to approve or recommend any acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding the restrictions above, the USF board of directors may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation with respect to the merger agreement and the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or approve or recommend any superior proposal made or received after February 27, 2005, if the USF board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable Law; provided, however, that no change in USF's recommendation may be made in response to a superior proposal until after 72 hours following Yellow Roadway's receipt of a written notice from USF (an adverse recommendation notice):

advising Yellow Roadway that the USF board intends to make such a change in its recommendation and the reason for such change, specifying the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal (including the proposed financing for such proposal) and providing Yellow Roadway with a copy of any documents conveying such proposal; and identifying any party making such superior proposal.

During such 72-hour period, USF is required to cooperate with Yellow Roadway with respect to such superior proposal with the intent of enabling Yellow Roadway to engage in good faith negotiations to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger as would enable USF to proceed with the merger with Yellow Roadway on such adjusted terms. In determining whether to make a change in its recommendation in response to a superior proposal, the USF board of directors is required to take into account any such changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Yellow Roadway (in response to an adverse recommendation notice or otherwise) in determining whether such third party acquisition proposal still constitutes a superior proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that an adverse recommendation notice is received on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, then such 72-hour period shall expire no earlier than 12:00 noon (Eastern Time) on the second business day immediately thereafter.

No Change in Yellow Roadway Recommendation

The merger agreement provides that the Yellow Roadway board of directors shall not withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to USF, the approval or recommendation by the Yellow Roadway board of directors with respect to the issuance of shares of Yellow Roadway common stock in connection with the merger; provided, that the Yellow Roadway board of directors may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation with respect to such share issuance, if the Yellow Roadway board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable law, which USF acknowledges and agrees may be the result of a material adverse change (as defined by the merger agreement).

Covenant to Use Reasonable Best Efforts to Obtain All Necessary Regulatory Approvals

The parties are required to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the merger, including obtaining and making all necessary regulatory approvals and filings. However, Yellow Roadway is not obligated to agree to any divestitures or take any other action at the government's request if such action would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of Yellow Roadway, USF and the respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after the merger.

Treatment of USF Stock Options

USF stock options will be cancelled as of the effective time of the merger. For purposes of discussing the treatment of USF stock options and USF phantom stock units, the deemed per share merger consideration will be equal to (x) $22.50 plus (y) the product of (A) 0.4512 and (B) the average of the high and low prices of Yellow Roadway common stock on the date before the closing, as reported on the Nasdaq National Market. Holders of USF stock options with an exercise price less than the deemed per share merger consideration will receive cash in an amount equal to:

USF stock options with an exercise price that is equal to or greater than the deemed per share merger consideration will be cancelled and the holder of such USF stock option shall not be entitled to receive any consideration for such USF stock option.

Treatment of USF Phantom Stock

Each phantom stock award under a USF benefit plan will become fully vested as of the effective time and USF shall pay to the holder of such phantom stock award a cash amount equal to the deemed per share merger consideration multiplied by the number of shares of USF stock credited under such phantom stock award. Fractional shares may be deemed credited under the awards.

Employee Benefit Matters

For the period beginning at the effective time of the merger and ending on December 31 of the calendar year in which the merger occurs, Yellow Roadway will, or will cause the surviving entity or its subsidiaries to, offer employee compensation and benefit plans to the USF non-union employees that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those offered under the USF benefit plans as of February 27, 2005. Generally, Yellow Roadway will grant such USF employees credit for past service with USF for purposes of initial eligibility to participate, vesting and benefit accrual under any employee benefit plans maintained by Yellow Roadway, the surviving company or any of their subsidiaries in which these employees are eligible to participate. Such USF employees will also receive credit for their past service with USF for purposes of determining the amounts of sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay they are eligible to receive under any sick pay, holiday pay or vacation pay policies maintained by Yellow Roadway, the surviving company and their subsidiaries in which these employees are eligible to participate. Yellow Roadway will take any actions as are necessary so that each USF employee who continues as an employee of Yellow Roadway, the surviving company or any of their subsidiaries will not be subject to preexisting condition exclusions or waiting periods for coverages under any Yellow Roadway benefit plan to the extent that these preexisting condition exclusions or waiting periods were waived or satisfied under USF's plans immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

Each of USF's certificate of incorporation, and Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, contains a provision eliminating the personal liability of its directors to the company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the extent permitted under applicable law. The effect of this provision is to eliminate the personal liability of directors to the company or its stockholders for monetary damages for actions involving a breach of their fiduciary duty of care. The bylaws of Yellow Roadway generally provide for the mandatory indemnification of, and payment of expenses incurred by, its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. The bylaws of USF generally provides for the mandatory indemnification of, and payment of expenses incurred by, directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. USF and Yellow Roadway have both obtained directors and officers liability insurance, which insures against liabilities that its directors and officers may incur in these capacities. USF and Yellow Roadway have also entered into indemnification agreements with their respective directors and officers. The indemnification agreements provide indemnification to these directors and officers under certain circumstances for acts or omissions which may not be covered by directors and officers liability insurance.

Following the effective time of the merger, Yellow Roadway and the surviving company will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is or was an officer, director, or employee of USF or any of its subsidiaries at or prior to the signing of the merger agreement and at or prior to the effective time of the merger. This indemnification will include indemnification against:

all losses, expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees and expenses), claims, damages or liabilities or amounts paid in settlement arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger (whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger) that are based on the fact that the person is or was a director, officer or employee of USF or any of its subsidiaries or served as a fiduciary under any USF employee benefit plan; Yellow Roadway and the surviving company will not be liable for any settlement effected without its written consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and all liabilities entitled to indemnification to the extent they pertain to the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement.

In the merger agreement, Yellow Roadway and the surviving company agreed to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and advance expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of USF and its subsidiaries.

If any of these parties are entitled to indemnification:

Yellow Roadway and the surviving company will pay the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel selected by the indemnified party and reasonably satisfactory to Yellow Roadway promptly after Yellow Roadway receives statements indicating the fees and expenses, and will advance to the indemnified party upon request reimbursement of any documented expenses that are reasonably incurred;

Yellow Roadway will cooperate in the defense of any matter entitling a party to indemnification; and any determination that is required to be made as to whether an indemnified party's conduct complies with the standards of applicable law and the certificate of incorporation or bylaws will be made by independent counsel mutually acceptable to Yellow Roadway and the indemnified party.

If an indemnified party must bring an action to enforce rights or to collect money due under the merger agreement and is successful in the action, Yellow Roadway and the surviving company will reimburse the indemnified party for his or her expenses reasonably incurred in bringing and pursuing the action, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys fees and costs. In addition, after the effective time of the merger, directors and officers of USF who become directors or officers of Yellow Roadway will be entitled to indemnification under the Yellow

Roadway certificate of incorporation and bylaws as these documents may be amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law.

For six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow Roadway will also maintain in effect directors and officers liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger with respect to those directors and officers of USF who were covered by, and on terms and in amounts no less favorable than those of, USF's directors and officers liability insurance at the time the merger agreement was executed. Yellow Roadway will not be required to pay aggregate annual premiums for the insurance described in this paragraph in excess of three times the most recent aggregate annual premiums paid (i.e., not to exceed $2,250,000, which amount is three times the most recent aggregate annual premium for USF). However, if the annual premiums of the insurance coverage exceed that amount, Yellow Roadway must obtain a policy with the best coverage available, in the reasonable judgment of the Yellow Roadway board of directors, for a cost up to but not exceeding three times the amount of these aggregate annual premiums. For six years after completion of the merger, Yellow Roadway will also maintain in effect fiduciary liability coverage for USF employees who serve or served as fiduciaries under USF employee benefit plans with coverages and in amounts no less favorable than those maintained by USF on the date of the merger agreement. Yellow Roadway has the option to satisfy its obligation to maintain such policies by purchasing a pre-paid policy prior to the closing.

Section 145 of the DGCL authorizes a court or a corporation's board of directors to grant indemnification to directors and officers in terms that are sufficiently broad to permit indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933.

Affiliate Agreements

USF has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its affiliates, as defined by Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933, to deliver to Yellow Roadway prior to the time of the USF special meeting a written agreement that restricts the affiliate's ability to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Yellow Roadway shares issued to him or her in connection with the merger, except:

in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933;

pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933;

in reliance upon an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Yellow Roadway, to the effect that the sale, transfer or other disposition is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933; or pursuant to a no action letter or interpretative letter obtained by the affiliate from the staff of the SEC, to the effect that the sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

Financing

Approximately $639 million (based on the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding as of February 27, 2005) will be required to finance the cash portion of the merger consideration. If the merger occurs, it is contemplated that at the effective time of the merger the cash portion of the merger consideration and Yellow Roadway's capital and liquidity needs (including possible refinancing of some existing indebtedness of USF) will be financed with a combination of proceeds from the sale of debt securities, bank financing, other debt financings and cash on hand. See Proposed Financings .

The merger agreement does not include a financing condition.

Tax Matters

The parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

INFORMATION ABOUT USF

General Development of USF's Business

USF Corporation (also referred to in this section as USF, we or our) is a Delaware corporation formed as a holding company on April 22, 1991, headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. USF's mailing address is, and principal executive offices are located at, 8550 W. Bryn Mawr Ave., Ste. 700, Chicago, Illinois 60631. USF's telephone number is (773) 824-1000 and website address is www.usfc.com. Information contained on USF's website is not incorporated by reference into this prospectus, and you should not consider information contained on such website as part of this prospectus.

USF provides comprehensive supply chain management services in four business segments through its operating subsidiaries. In the LTL segment, carriers provide regional and inter-regional delivery throughout the US, certain areas of Canada and throughout Mexico. Our TL segment offers premium regional and national truckload services. The logistics (Logistics) segment provides dedicated carriage, cross-dock operations, supply chain management, contractual warehousing, and domestic ocean freight forwarding. Our corporate and other segment performs support activities for our business segments including executive, information technology (IT), corporate sales and various financial management functions. The principal subsidiaries of the LTL segment are Holland, Bestway, Reddaway and Dugan. USF Glen Moore Inc. (Glen Moore) is our TL carrier. Logistics is comprised of USF Logistics Services Inc.

In December 2003, we began offering transportation and logistics services in Mexico and across the United States / Mexico border through a joint venture with the shareholders of Autolneas Mexicanas S.A. de C.V. (ALMEX). ALMEX is a nationwide LTL carrier in Mexico and has a network of 52 terminals providing service to virtually the entire country.

In May 2004, we shut down Red Star, our former Northeast carrier. Subsequent to the closure of Red Star we announced plans to expand Holland's operations into the Northeast.

On February 25, 2005, USF sold 100% of the stock of USF Processors Inc. for $4.5 million in cash to Carolina Logistic Services Inc. USF Processors Inc. was USF's food and pharmaceutical reverse logistics operation and was previously included in USF's Logistics segment. USF Processors Inc. had revenue of $33 million in 2004.

LTL Trucking

LTL shipments are defined as shipments of less than 10,000 pounds. Typically, LTL carriers transport freight along scheduled routes from multiple shippers to multiple consignees utilizing a network of terminals together with fleets of line-haul and pickup and delivery tractors and trailers. Freight is picked up from customers by local drivers and consolidated for shipment. The freight is then loaded into intercity trailers and transferred by line-haul drivers to the terminal servicing the delivery area. There, the freight is transferred to local trailers and delivered to its destination by local drivers.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

LTL carriers are generally categorized as regional, interregional or long-haul carriers, depending on the distance freight travels from pickup to final delivery. Regional LTL carriers usually have average lengths of haul of 500 miles or less and tend to provide either overnight or second-day service. Regional LTL carriers usually are able to load freight for direct transport to a destination terminal, thereby avoiding the costly and time-consuming use of relay or breakbulk terminals (where freight is rehandled and reloaded to its ultimate destination). In contrast, long-haul LTL carriers (average lengths of haul in excess of 1,000 miles) operate networks of relay or breakbulk and satellite terminals (hub-spoke systems) and rely heavily on interim handling of freight. Interregional carriers (500 to 1,000 miles per average haul) also rely on breakbulk terminals but to a lesser degree than long-haul carriers.

Our LTL trucking subsidiaries principally compete against regional, interregional and long-haul LTL carriers. To a lesser degree, we compete against truckload carriers, overnight package companies, railroads and airlines. Significant barriers to entry into the regional LTL market exist as a result of the substantial capital requirements for terminals, tractors and trailers. LTL is a competitive market with intense pricing pressure and increasing costs that present a challenge to profit margins.

Our LTL trucking subsidiaries' three primary LTL service products are USF Premier® (Premier), USF PremierPlus® (PremierPlus) and USF Guaranteed® (Guaranteed). Premier service is overnight and second-day deliveries generally within each of our LTL trucking subsidiaries' regional service areas. PremierPlus service is interregional longer haul service between two of our LTL trucking subsidiaries. Guaranteed service includes deliveries within our regional and interregional service areas with a guaranteed date of delivery. Revenue for our Premier, PremierPlus and Guaranteed services accounted for approximately 87%, 12% and 1%, respectively, of the total LTL trucking revenue in 2004. Our Premier and PremierPlus revenue included both LTL and TL shipments. The average length of haul, for combined inter- and intra-regional service was approximately 506 miles.

Holland is the largest of our operating subsidiaries, transporting LTL shipments interstate throughout the Central US, Eastern Canada and into the Southeastern US. Holland operates from 67 terminals and uses predominantly single 48 and 53 foot trailers. Its average length of Premier line-haul in 2004 was approximately 384 miles.

Truckload Trucking

TL shipments are defined as shipments of 10,000 or more pounds. Typically, TL carriers transport freight along irregular routes from single shippers to single consignees, without the necessity of a network of terminals, using fleets of line-haul sleeper tractors and trailers. Full truckload freight is picked up from the customer and delivered to its final destination by either an employee driver or an independent owner-operator under a leasing agreement.

Glen Moore transports TL shipments interstate throughout the US generally from the Northeastern and Southeastern states to the West Coast and into the North Central states. It also operates over shorter distances in certain of its dedicated customer lanes. At the end of 2004, Glen Moore operated 760 tractors and 3,116 trailers. Glen Moore primarily utilizes sleeper line-haul tractors and 53 foot trailers. Its average length of haul in 2004 was approximately 200 miles for its short-haul dedicated business and approximately 700 miles for its traditional long-haul business.

Logistics Subsidiary

Logistics provides dedicated carriage, cross-dock operations, supply chain management, contractual warehousing, and domestic ocean freight forwarding services to the retail and industrial markets with a focus on consolidation/distribution and fulfillment programs.

Logistics has grown through acquisitions in the warehousing industry and start up operations designed to serve large customers' special needs in the steel industry, wholesale food industry, specialized retail customers and other freight management operations. Our cross-docking operation, which accounts for 39% of Logistics' revenue, has increased in size through a combination of geographic acquisitions and internal expansion to meet the needs of its retail customers. It operates out of 18 centers in the larger metropolitan areas of the US.

UNAUDITED CONDENSED COMBINED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

The following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements and explanatory notes have been prepared to give effect to the proposed merger and the consummation of Yellow Roadway's currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger. At the effective time of the proposed merger, USF will be merged with and into a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow Roadway. The transaction is being accounted for as a purchase business combination.

In general, upon the effectiveness of the proposed merger, each share of USF stock (except those shares owned directly or indirectly by USF or Yellow Roadway and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into 0.9024 shares of Yellow Roadway common stock. However, a USF stockholder may elect to receive $45.00 in cash in lieu of Yellow Roadway stock for each share of the stockholder's USF stock. Notwithstanding the individual elections of the USF stockholders, 50% of the USF shares will be converted into cash. As a result of the elections and certain adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately $639 million in cash (based on the number of shares of USF common stock outstanding as of February 27, 2005) and the balance will be paid in Yellow Roadway common stock. See "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration" and "The Merger Agreement Proration and Allocation".

In accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act of 1933, an unaudited condensed combined pro forma balance sheet as of December 31, 2004 and an unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004, have been prepared to reflect the proposed merger (treated as an acquisition of USF), and the consummation of Yellow Roadway's currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger. The following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements have been prepared based upon historical financial statements of Yellow Roadway and USF. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements reflect certain balance sheet and statement of operations reclassifications made to conform USF's presentations to those of Yellow Roadway. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with:

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma balance sheet was prepared by combining Yellow Roadway's historical unaudited consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2004 and USF's historical unaudited consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2004, adjusted to reflect the proposed merger and the consummation of Yellow Roadway's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger, as if each had occurred at December 31, 2004.

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations was prepared using the historical consolidated statement of operations for both Yellow Roadway and USF assuming the proposed merger and related financing transactions had each occurred on January 1, 2004. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 was prepared by combining the historical audited consolidated statement of operations of Yellow Roadway and the historical audited consolidated statement of income of USF for the year ended December 31, 2004. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations gives effect to the costs associated with financing the proposed merger, including interest expense and amortization of deferred financing costs associated with Yellow Roadway's currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger, and the impact of other purchase accounting adjustments.

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements are prepared for illustrative purposes only, and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger transaction described above had been consummated at the indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of any future operating results or financial position. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements do not include any adjustments related to any restructuring charges, profit improvements, potential cost savings or one-time charges which may result from the proposed merger or the result of final valuations of tangible and intangible assets and liabilities.

The process of valuing USF's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as well as evaluating accounting policies for conformity, including accounting policies related to claims and insurance accruals, is still in the preliminary stages. Material revisions to our current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized. Following closing of the proposed merger, we will finalize the process of determining the fair value at the date of acquisition of the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of USF. As a result of this process, we anticipate that a portion of the amount classified as goodwill in the unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements, which in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 will not be amortized, will be reclassified to the tangible and identified intangible assets and liabilities acquired, based on their estimated fair values at the date of acquisition. These tangible and identified intangible assets will be depreciated and amortized over their estimated useful lives. As a result, the actual amount of depreciation and amortization expense may be materially different from that presented in the unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations and the effects cannot be quantified at this time.

The purchase price is estimated as follows (in thousands, except per share data):

Merger consideration of approximately $1.4 billion, based on $45.00 cash consideration per USF share, a fixed exchange ratio of 0.9024 Yellow Roadway shares for each USF share and the assumption that 50% of the outstanding shares of USF common stock receive cash in the merger and the remaining shares receive Yellow Roadway common stock and that the tax adjustment provision (as described in detail in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) will not apply. For purchase accounting purposes, the Yellow Roadway common stock component of the merger consideration was valued at $59.69 per share, which represents the simple average of the daily opening and closing trade prices for the period from February 24, 2005 through March 1, 2005, the period immediately surrounding the date of the announcement of the proposed merger.

 Goodwill reflects the preliminary estimated adjustment for the costs in excess of net tangible assets of USF at estimated fair value. Subsequent to closing of the merger, Yellow Roadway will be completing a study to determine the allocation of the total purchase price to the various tangible and intangible assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in order to allocate the purchase price. Management believes, on a preliminary basis, there may be intangible assets that will be assigned a fair value in the purchase price allocation. The sensitivity of the valuations regarding the above can be significant. Accordingly, as Yellow Roadway concludes its evaluation of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed upon closing of the acquisition, allocation of the purchase price among the tangible and intangible assets will be subject to change. DESCRIPTION OF YELLOW ROADWAY CAPITAL STOCK

This summary of the material features and rights of Yellow Roadway's capital stock does not purport to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to applicable Delaware law and Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation and by-laws. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 123 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. References in this section to we, our and similar terms refer to Yellow Roadway.

Common Stock

Our certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 120,000,000 common shares, par value $1.00 per share. As of February 28, 2005, there were 51,332,577 common shares issued, which included 49,279,471 outstanding shares and 2,053,106 treasury shares. Holders of our common shares are entitled to one vote per share with respect to each matter presented to our stockholders on which the holders of common shares are entitled to vote. Subject to the preferences applicable to any outstanding preferred stock, the holders of common shares are entitled to receive ratably any dividends declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available for that purpose. In the event of liquidation, holders of common shares will be entitled to receive any assets remaining after the payment of our debts and the expenses of the liquidation, subject to such preferences applicable to any outstanding preferred stock. The holders of our common shares have no pre-emptive, subscription or conversion rights. All issued and outstanding shares of common stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

Our certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of February 28, 2005, no shares of preferred stock were issued and outstanding. Our board of directors has the authority, without action by our stockholders, to designate and issue preferred stock in one or more series and to designate the rights, preferences and privileges of each series, which may be greater than the rights of our common shares. The issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of our company without further action by our stockholders and may adversely affect the market price, and the voting and other rights, of the holders of our common shares. The issuance of preferred stock with voting and conversion rights may adversely affect the voting power of the holders of common shares, including the loss of voting rights to others.

Delaware Anti-Takeover Law

We are a Delaware corporation subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under Section 203, certain business combinations between a Delaware corporation and an interested stockholder are prohibited for a three-year period following the date that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder was approved by the board of directors of the corporation before such stockholder became an interested stockholder;

upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in such stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) those shares owned (a) by directors who are also officers and (b) by employee stock plans in which the employees do not have a confidential right to tender stock held by the plan in a tender or exchange offer; or the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized at a meeting by two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The three-year prohibition also does not apply to some business combinations proposed by an interested stockholder following the announcement or notification of an extraordinary transaction involving the corporation and a person who had not been an interested stockholder during the previous three years or who became an interested stockholder with the approval of a majority of the corporation's directors.

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the term "business combination" is defined generally to include mergers or consolidations between a Delaware corporation and an interested stockholder, transactions with an interested stockholder involving the assets or stock of the corporation or its majority-owned subsidiaries, and transactions that increase an interested stockholder's percentage ownership of stock. The term "interested stockholder" is defined generally as those stockholders who become beneficial owners of 15% or more of a Delaware corporation's voting stock, together with the affiliates or associates of that stockholder.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that certain "business combinations" require an affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Our certificate of incorporation also contains restrictions on such business combinations by requiring the approval of a majority of continuing directors, as well as by requiring that certain fair price provisions be satisfied. Continuing directors are directors (a) serving as directors prior to June 1, 1983, (b) serving as directors before the substantial stockholder acquired 10% of the then outstanding voting shares or (c) designated as continuing directors by a majority of the then continuing directors prior to the directors' election. Fair price provisions in our certificate of incorporation mandate that the amount of cash and the fair market value of other consideration to be received per share by holders of common stock not fall below certain ratios.

The term "business combination" is defined in our certificate of incorporation generally to include any merger or consolidation of our company or any subsidiary with or into any substantial stockholder or any other corporation, whether or not itself a substantial stockholder which, after such merger or consolidation, would be an affiliate of a substantial stockholder, transactions with a substantial stockholder involving assets or stock of our company or any majority-owned subsidiary with an aggregate fair market value of $5,000,000 or more, and transactions that increase a substantial stockholder's percentage ownership of our capital stock. A "substantial stockholder" is defined generally as any person who is or becomes the beneficial owner of not less than 10% of the voting shares, together with any affiliate of such stockholder. An "affiliate" has the meaning set forth in the rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Our certificate of incorporation also provides that stockholders may act only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and not by written consent. Our bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders can be called only by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or a majority of our board of directors. These provisions could have the effect of delaying until the next annual stockholders meeting stockholder actions that are favored by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities. These provisions may also discourage another person or entity from making an offer to stockholders for the common stock. This is because the person or entity making the offer, even if it acquired a majority of our outstanding voting securities, would be unable to call a special meeting of the stockholders and would be unable to obtain unanimous written consent of the stockholders. As a result, any meeting as to matters they endorse, including the election of new directors or the appraisal of a merger, would have to wait for the next duly called stockholders meeting.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDERS' RIGHTS

As a result of the merger, the holders of USF common stock will become holders of Yellow Roadway common stock. The rights of the stockholders of Yellow Roadway will be governed by applicable Delaware law, including the DGCL, and by Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of Yellow Roadway stockholders and USF stockholders. Because both Yellow Roadway and USF are organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, these differences arise principally from differences between the Yellow Roadway certificate of incorporation and the USF certificate of incorporation, and differences between Yellow Roadway's bylaws and USF's bylaws.

The following summaries do not provide a complete description of the specific rights of Yellow Roadway stockholders under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws as compared with the rights of USF stockholders under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The identification of specific differences in the rights of these holders as material is not intended to indicate that other equally important or more significant differences do not exist. These summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the governing corporate instruments of Yellow Roadway and USF to which you are referred.

Authorized Capital Stock. Under USF's certificate of incorporation, USF is authorized to issue 100,000,000 shares consisting of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 80,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. Under Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation, Yellow Roadway is authorized to issue 125,000,000 shares consisting of 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 120,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share.

The Yellow Roadway certificate of incorporation permits business combinations (as defined below) with a substantial stockholder (defined generally as the beneficial owner of 10% of the voting shares, an affiliate of Yellow Roadway who beneficially owned at least 10% of the voting shares within five years prior to becoming an affiliate, or an assignee (except in the course of a public offering) of Yellow Roadway capital stock beneficially owned within five years by such beneficial owner or affiliate) only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares, unless the business combination has been approved by a majority of the continuing directors, or

the amount of consideration to be received per share by Yellow Roadway common stockholders to the market price of Yellow Roadway common stock immediately prior to public announcement of the business combination, is greater than or equal to the ratio of the highest price per share paid by the substantial stockholder in an acquisition of shares within five years prior to the business combination to the market price of Yellow Roadway common stock immediately prior to the substantial stockholder's initial acquisition of shares, any Yellow Roadway common stock, and the highest preferential amount per share to which stockholders are entitled upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up, or the fair market value per share on the date that the business combination was announced or on the date on which the substantial stockholder became a substantial stockholder, whichever is higher, or the fair market value multiplied by the ratio of (1) the highest price per share paid by the substantial stockholder within five years immediately prior to the date that the business combination was announced to (2) the fair market value per share on the first date within the five years immediately prior to the date that the business combination was announced on which the substantial stockholder acquired shares, and the consideration must be paid in cash or the same form of consideration paid by the substantial stockholder to acquire its shares, and after the substantial stockholder has acquired at least 10% of the outstanding shares and prior to the consummation of the business combination, the substantial stockholder has ensured that:

the board of directors included continuing directors in a number proportionate to the ratio of the amount of shares owned by those other than the substantial stockholder to the total amount of outstanding shares, and there has been no reduction in the rate of dividends payable to common stockholders, except as approved by majority vote of the continuing directors, and the substantial stockholder has not acquired any newly issued shares (except upon conversion of convertible securities acquired prior to obtaining a 10% interests or as a result of a stock dividend or stock split), and the substantial stockholder has not acquired any additional shares of outstanding common stock (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for common stock), except for in the transaction in which the substantial stockholder acquired its 10% interest, and prior to the consummation of the business combination, the substantial stockholder must not have received any financial assistance or tax credits from Yellow Roadway or made any major changes in the Yellow Roadway's business or equity capital structure, unless approved by a majority of the continuing directors, and

any merger or consolidation with or into any substantial stockholder or its affiliate, or any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition to or with any substantial stockholder or its affiliate of Yellow Roadway's assets having an aggregate fair market value of at least $5,000,000, or the issuance or transfer of Yellow Roadway securities to any substantial stockholder or its affiliate in exchange for consideration with a fair market value of at least $5,000,000, or the adoption of a plan for liquidation or dissolution of Yellow Roadway proposed by or on behalf of a substantial stockholder or an affiliate of the substantial stockholder, or any reclassification of securities or similar transaction which increases the proportionate share of any class of equity or convertible securities of Yellow Roadway or any of its subsidiaries owned by a substantial stockholder or a substantial stockholder's affiliate.

Arrangements Between the Corporation and Others. Under Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation, arrangements or compromises between Yellow Roadway and its creditors and compromises or arrangements between Yellow Roadway and its stockholders must be agreed upon by three-fourths of the creditors and/or three-fourths of the stockholders, and sanctioned by a Delaware court as described in Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation in order to be binding on all the creditors and/or stockholders, and on Yellow Roadway.

Under USF's bylaws, a contract or transaction between USF and one or more of its directors, or between USF and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of the directors or officers are directors or officers, have a financial interest, is not void or voidable solely for this reason or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the board or committee which authorizes such contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if:

the material facts as to such person's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed and known to the board or committee, and the board or committee, in good faith, authorizes such by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though less than quorum; or

the material facts as to such person's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or the contract or transaction is fair as to USF at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified by the board, or committee thereof, or stockholders.

Stockholder Meetings

Annual Meetings

Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, annual meetings of stockholders must be held on a date as fixed annually by Yellow Roadway's board of directors. USF's bylaws provide that annual meetings of stockholders will be held on any date designated by USF's board of directors or, if not so designated, at 10:00 a.m. on the third Tuesday in April of each year, if not a legal holiday, and, if a legal holiday, at the same hour on the next succeeding work day.

Special Meetings

Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or a majority of the Yellow Roadway board of directors. Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation stipulates that a special meeting may be called only by the board of directors pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the board of directors or by the Chairman of the Board or President, upon timely written notice. USF's bylaws specify that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the USF board of directors, or by any committee of the board of directors that has been duly designated by the board and given the power to call such meeting in a resolution of the board. Yellow Roadway's bylaws require that special meetings be held at the principal office of Yellow Roadway in Overland Park, Kansas. USF's bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be held at such place as designated in the notice thereof.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

Notice of Meetings to Stockholders. Both Yellow Roadway's and USF's bylaws, as well as Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation, specify that written notice of stockholder meetings must be given not less than 10 and no more than 60 days prior to the meeting. Under USF's bylaws, any stockholder may waive this requested notice in writing or electronically, either before or after such meeting. The attendance of any stockholder at a meeting constitutes a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the stockholder attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Adjournment and Notice of Adjournment of Stockholder Meetings. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, if a quorum fails to attend a meeting of stockholders, the chairman of the meeting, or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting, may adjourn the meeting to another date or time. If a quorum does attend a Yellow Roadway meeting of stockholders, the meeting may be adjourned by a majority of the votes cast on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting. Under USF's bylaws, any meeting of stockholders may adjourn from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, written notice need not be given of an adjourned meeting if its place, date and time are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and the adjourned meeting is held no later than 14 days after the date of the original meeting. Under USF's bylaws, notice of the adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which it is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. However, if the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Quorum at a Stockholder Meeting. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders, present in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum, unless or except where the presence of a larger number of holders is required by law. Yellow Roadway's bylaws also provide that, if notice of an adjourned special meeting of stockholders is sent to all stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned special meeting that states that the adjourned special meeting will be held with those present constituting a quorum, then, except as otherwise required by law, those present at the adjourned special meeting will constitute a quorum, and all matters will be determined by a majority of votes cast at the adjourned special meeting. Under USF's bylaws, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of record of a majority of the USF shares entitled to vote at the meeting constitutes a quorum, except as otherwise provided by law.

Notice of Stockholder Business. Yellow Roadway's bylaws provide that notice of business to be brought by a particular stockholder before an annual meeting must be received not less than 60 nor more than 90 days prior to the annual meeting, unless the meeting is held on less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the meeting date, in which case notice must be received by the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Additionally, Yellow Roadway's bylaws provide that, to be in proper written form, such notice must contain, for each matter:

the class and number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder, and a description of the material interest of the stockholder in the matter.

USF's bylaws provide that notice of stockholder business must be delivered to or by mailed and received at USF's principal executive office not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the annual meeting, unless the meeting is held on less than 40 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the meeting date, in which case notice must be received by the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Additionally, USF's bylaws provide that, to be in proper written form, the notice must contain:

a brief description of each item of proposed business and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, the name and address of the person proposing business, the class and number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder, and a description of the material interest of the stockholder in the proposed business.

Proxies and Voting. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, each stockholder has one vote for every share of stock. Both USF's bylaws and USF's certificate of incorporation provide that each stockholder has one vote for every share of common stock.

Yellow Roadway's bylaws provide that all voting may be by a voice vote unless a stock vote is demanded. The certificate of incorporation of USF provides that the election of directors need not be by written ballot, unless required by the bylaws. USF's bylaws provide that, unless otherwise required by law or directed by the chairman of the meeting, the vote at any meeting of the stockholders on any question need not be by ballot.

Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, all elections must be determined by a plurality of the votes cast, and all other matters, except as otherwise required by law or under the Yellow Roadway certificate of incorporation or bylaws, must be determined by a majority of the votes cast. USF's bylaws provide that all questions except the election of directors, which requires a plurality of the votes cast, will be decided by a majority of the votes that could be cast by the holders of all shares of stock that are present in person or represented by proxy and that are entitled to vote on such questions unless otherwise provided by law or by USF's certificate of incorporation. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, votes taken by ballot must be counted by an inspector or inspectors appointed by the chairman of the meeting. USF's bylaws provide that prior to any meeting the board of directors will appoint one or more inspectors of elections, and may designate one or more alternate inspectors. In the event no inspector or alternate is available to act, USF's bylaws provide that the person presiding at the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting.

Nomination of Directors. Under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, written nominations must be properly delivered or mailed not less than 14 and no more than 50 days prior to the election meeting. If less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to the stockholders, however, written nominations must be properly delivered or mailed by the end of the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to the stockholders. Under USF's bylaws, written nominations must be delivered to and received by the Secretary of USF not less than 60 days and no more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting. However, if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date, written nominations must be properly delivered and received not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting and the 10th day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, USF's bylaws provide that in the event that the number of directors is increased and no public announcement naming all of the nominees or specifying the size of the increased board is made at least 70 days before the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting a stockholder's notice will be considered timely, but only with respect to the nominees for new positions created by such increase, if it is delivered to the Secretary of USF not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made.

Proper nominations of candidates for Yellow Roadway's board of directors must include the name, age, and certain addresses of the nominee, the principal occupation/employment of the nominee and the number of shares beneficially owned by the nominee. Proper nominations of candidates for USF's board of directors must include the name, age, business address and residence address of the nominee; the principal occupation or employment of the nominee; the number of shares of stock of USF which are beneficially owned by the nominee; and any other information relating to the nominee that is required to be disclosed in connection with the solicitation of proxies for election of directors, or as otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and any other applicable laws or rules or regulations of any governmental authority or of any national securities exchange or similar body overseeing any trading market on which shares of USF are traded. Such nominations of candidates for USF's board of directors must also include the name and address of the stockholder making the nomination and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made; and the class and number of shares of USF which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

Number of Directors on Board. Yellow Roadway's certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors may, from time to time, set the number of directors, provided that the number is not less than 5 and no more than 15. Currently, the bylaws of Yellow Roadway specify that the board of directors must consist of seven members. Under USF's bylaws, the number of directors will be determined from time to time by resolution(s) adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of directors which USF would have if there were no vacancies. The bylaws and certificate of incorporation of USF provide that the board of directors shall consist of not less than 3 nor more than 21 directors.

Vacancies of Directors. Vacant positions on Yellow Roadway's board of directors, under Yellow Roadway's bylaws and certificate of incorporation, may be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, even if less than a quorum. Under USF's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, new positions and vacancies on USF's board of directors will be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director, subject to the rights of the holders of preferred stock. However, USF's bylaws establish that only the stockholders may fill any vacancy which results from the removal of a director by the stockholders.

Removal of Directors. A director of Yellow Roadway, under Yellow Roadway's bylaws, may be removed for cause by a majority vote of the stockholders entitled to vote in the election of directors. The certificate of incorporation of Yellow Roadway expressly indicates that a director may only be removed from office if that director is convicted of a felony and the conviction cannot be appealed, or if that director has been adjudged by a court to be incompetent or liable for negligence or misconduct in his duty to Yellow Roadway, and the adjudication cannot be appealed. Under both the USF bylaws and certificate of incorporation, a director of USF may be removed for cause by the vote of the holders of a majority in voting interest of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors.

Quorum of the Board of Directors. The bylaws of Yellow Roadway provide that one-third of the total number of the whole board, though not less than two directors, will constitute a quorum for all purposes. USF's bylaws provide that a majority of the directors then in office constitutes a quorum.

Amendment of Bylaws. The Yellow Roadway bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote at an annual or special meeting of 75% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting if the notice of the meeting included the amendment of the bylaws as a purpose of the meeting, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors at the meeting. The USF bylaws may be amended by the vote of a majority of the Board, subject to the power of the holders of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the outstanding stock of USF entitled to vote in respect thereof by their vote given at an annual or special meeting to amend, alter or repeal an bylaw made by the board.

Amendment of Certificates of Incorporation. Under the USF certificate of incorporation, the company reserves the right to amend the certificate of incorporation. However, the certificate of incorporation for USF requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock of USF, voting together as a single class, to amend the provision relating to liability of directors subject to requirements of law, other provisions of the certificate of incorporation and the rights of any class or series of capital stock having a preference over common stock. The certificate of incorporation of Yellow Roadway has a similar provision, requiring the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, unless the amendment to specific certificate of incorporation provisions is recommended by a majority of continuing directors.

PROPOSED FINANCINGS

Yellow Roadway currently has in place a $450 million receivables financing facility secured by certain receivables of Yellow Transportation and Roadway Express (ABS Facility). Yellow Roadway also has a $500 million senior unsecured revolving credit facility, including a $375 million letter of credit subfacility (Revolving Credit Facility). If the merger occurs, it is contemplated that at the effective time of the merger the aggregate amounts available for borrowing under each of the ABS Facility and the Revolving Credit Facility will be increased to $600 million and $750 million (including a $500 million letter of credit subfacility), respectively. The merger agreement does not include a financing condition.

In addition to the proposed financings, following consummation of the merger of USF into Yellow Roadway, USF LLC, as a subsidiary of Yellow Roadway, and its subsidiaries will continue to be obligated on USF's $150 million aggregate principal amount of 8.5% senior notes due April 15, 2010, and USF's $100 million aggregate principal amount of 6.5% senior notes due May 1, 2009.

If, however, Yellow Roadway gives less than 70 days notice of the date of the 2006 annual meeting, then, to be timely, Yellow Roadway must receive notice of a stockholder proposal by the 10th day following the day that we mail notice of, or publicly disclose, the date of the 2006 annual meeting. Yellow Roadway may use its discretionary authority to preclude any stockholder proposal received after that time from presentment at the 2006 annual meeting.

Stockholders who wish to suggest qualified candidates to stand for election to Yellow Roadway's board of directors may write to the Secretary, Yellow Roadway Corporation, 10990 Roe Avenue, Overland Park, Kansas 66211, stating in detail and in accordance with Yellow Roadway's bylaws the qualifications of the persons they recommend. To be considered at the 2006 annual meeting, you must mail or deliver a recommendation to us not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to the date of the 2006 annual meeting. If, however, Yellow Roadway gives less than 21 days notice of the date of the 2006 annual meeting, you must mail or deliver a recommendation by the seventh day following the day that Yellow Roadway mails notice of the date of the 2006 annual meeting. The Governance Committee of the board of directors will consider these suggestions.

This Agreement and Plan of Merger (this Agreement) is dated as of February 27, 2005 by and among Yellow Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), Yankee II LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and USF Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company). Merger Sub and the Company are sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as the Constituent Entities .

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of each of Parent and the Company and the sole member of Merger Sub have approved the merger of the Company with and into Merger Sub (the Merger) and approved the Merger upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, it is intended that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the Code); and

WHEREAS, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

The Merger; Closing; Effective Time

1.1. The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.3) the Company shall be merged with and into Merger Sub and the separate corporate existence of the Company shall thereupon cease. Merger Sub shall be the surviving entity in the Merger (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the Surviving Entity), and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub with all its rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises shall continue unaffected by the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects specified in the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended (the DGCL) and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as amended (the DLLCA).

1.2. Closing. Unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing between the Company and Parent, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at the offices of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., 666 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10103-3198, at 9:00 A.M. (Eastern Time) on the first business day (the Closing Date) following the day on which the last to be fulfilled or waived of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) shall be satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement.

1.3. Effective Time. As soon as practicable following the Closing, the Company and Parent will cause a Certificate of Merger (the Delaware Certificate of Merger) to be executed and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as provided in Section 257 of the DGCL and Section 18-209 of the DLLCA. The Merger shall become effective at the time when the Delaware Certificate of Merger has been duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as may be agreed by the parties and specified in the Delaware Certificate of Merger (the Effective Time).

ARTICLE II

Certificate of Formation and Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Surviving Entity

2.1. The Certificate of Formation. The certificate of formation of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the certificate of formation of the Surviving Entity (the Certificate of Formation), until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Law (as defined in Section 5.1(j)), except that the Certificate of Formation shall be amended to change the name of the Surviving Entity to USF LLC .

2.2. Limited Liability Company Agreement. The limited liability company agreement of Merger Sub as in effect at the time Effective Time shall be the limited liability company agreement of the Surviving Entity (the Limited Liability Company Agreement), until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

ARTICLE III

Officers and Managers of the Surviving Entity

3.1. Managers. From and after the Effective Time, the persons set forth on Exhibit A-1 attached hereto shall be the managers of the Surviving Entity until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the Limited Liability Company Agreement.

3.2. Officers. From and after the Effective Time, the persons set forth on Exhibit A-2 attached hereto shall be the officers of the Surviving Entity, with each such person having the offices set forth opposite his or her name, until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the Limited Liability Company Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

Membership Interests of the Constituent Entities; Exchange of Certificates

4.1. Effect on Capital Stock and Membership Interests. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder thereof:

(a) Membership Interests of Merger Sub. Each issued and outstanding membership interest of Merger Sub shall be converted into and become an equivalent fully paid and nonassessable membership interest of the Surviving Entity.

(b) Cancellation of Excluded Shares. Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (Company Common Stock) that is owned directly or indirectly by the Company as treasury stock or by Parent, Merger Sub or any other wholly owned Subsidiary (as defined in Section 5.1(a)) of Parent and in each case not held on behalf of third parties (such shares, collectively with Dissenters' Shares (as defined in Section 4.10), the Excluded Shares) shall be canceled, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Company Common Stock. Subject to the provisions of Section 4.4, each share of Company Common Stock, together with the associated Rights (as defined in Section 5.1(b)) (each share of Company Common Stock together with the associated Right, a Share or, collectively, Shares), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than the Excluded Shares) shall be converted, at the option of the holder thereof, into the right to receive (x) 0.9024 (the Exchange Ratio) fully paid, non-assessable shares of Parent Common Stock (as defined below) (the Stock Consideration) or (y) upon a valid Cash Election (as defined in Section 4.1(d)), $45.00 in cash from Parent (the Cash Consideration and, together with the Stock Consideration, the Merger Consideration), subject to the limitations set forth in Sections 4.1(d), 4.1(e) and 4.1(g). For purposes of this Agreement, Parent Common Stock shall mean the common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Parent.

(d) Cash Election. Subject to the immediately following sentence and to Sections 4.1(e) and 4.1(g), each record holder of Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be entitled to elect, with respect to each Share, to receive cash (a Cash Election). Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to Section 4.1(g) below, the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration shall be the product of the Cash Consideration multiplied by the Cash Election Number. For purposes of this Agreement, the Cash Election Number shall be the amount equal to the product of 50% multiplied by the aggregate number of shares of Shares outstanding at 5:00 P.M. (Eastern Time) on the second Trading Day (as defined below) prior to the Effective Time. For purposes of this Agreement, Trading Day means a day on which the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. National Market (Nasdaq National Market) is open for trading. To the extent not covered by a properly given Cash Election, all Shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, except as provided in Section 4.1(b) and Section 4.1(e), be converted solely into shares of Parent Common Stock.

(e) Cash Election Adjustments. If the aggregate number of Shares covered by Cash Elections (the Cash Election Shares) exceeds the Cash Election Number, each Cash Election Share shall be converted into (i) the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the Cash Consideration and (B) a fraction (the Cash Fraction), the numerator of which shall be the Cash Election Number and the denominator of which shall be the total number of Cash Election Shares, and (ii) a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the Exchange Ratio and (B) an amount equal to one minus the Cash Fraction. If the Cash Election Shares are less than the Cash Election Number, then the right to receive a share of Parent Common Stock included in the Stock Consideration shall be converted into (x) the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (A) the Cash Consideration and (B) a fraction (the Stock Fraction) the numerator of which is the excess of (1) the number of Shares that are not Cash Election Shares (the Stock Election Shares) included in the Stock Consideration over (2) the Cash Election Number, and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Stock Election Shares, and (y) the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the Exchange Ratio and (B) an amount equal to one minus the Stock Fraction.

(f) Computation of Conversion Rates. The Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 4.2(a)), in consultation with Parent and the Company, shall make all computations to give effect to this Section 4.1.

(g) Reduction in Cash Consideration. If, after having made the calculations under Section 4.1(e), the value of Parent Common Stock (excluding fractional shares to be paid in cash) to be issued in the Merger, valued at the average of the high and low trading prices of Parent Common Stock on the day before the date of the Closing as reported on the Nasdaq National Market (the Parent Closing Price), is less than 45% of the total consideration to be paid in exchange for the Shares (including, without limitation, the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares or for Dissenters Shares and any other payments required to be considered in determining whether the continuity of interest requirements applicable to reorganizations under Section 368 of the Code have been satisfied) (the Total Consideration), then the Cash Consideration to be paid with respect to Cash Election Shares shall be reduced and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued with respect to the Cash Election Shares shall be increased such that (1) the aggregate increase in the value of Stock Consideration (as determined pursuant to this Section 4.1(g)) equals the aggregate reduction in the Cash Consideration and (2) the aggregate value of the Stock Consideration equals 45% of the Total Consideration. The additional shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued as a result of the adjustment described in the preceding sentence shall be distributed pro rata among the Cash Election Shares. For purposes of this Section 4.1(g), the cash to be paid for any Dissenters Share shall be deemed to have a value equal to the quotient of (x) the Aggregate Non-Dissenter Value (as defined below) and (y) the total number of Non-Dissenters Shares (as defined below). Non-Dissenters Shares means the number of Shares minus any Dissenters Shares and the Aggregate Non-Dissenter Value means the aggregate value of (1) the cash consideration paid for Non-Dissenter Shares plus (2) the product of the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issued in exchange for Non-Dissenter Shares and Parent Closing Price. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that before the Closing Date final U.S. Treasury Regulations that are applicable to the Merger describing the continuity of interest requirements applicable to reorganizations under Section 368 of the Code provide that the percentage of the consideration in a Section 368 reorganization that consists of stock for purposes of determining whether the continuity of interest test has been satisfied is to be tested based on the fair market value of the acquiring corporation's stock on or about the date the merger agreement is signed (rather than on the Closing Date), then no adjustment to the cash and stock described in this Section 4.1(g) shall be made.

(h) Adjustments to Prevent Dilution. In the event that the Company changes the number of Shares or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for Shares, or Parent changes the number of shares of Parent Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for shares of Parent Common Stock, issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a reclassification, stock split (including a reverse split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, subdivision, combination, issuer exchange offer or other similar transaction, appropriate and proportionate adjustments, if any, to the Stock Consideration and the Exchange Ratio will be made to reflect such reclassification, stock split (including a reverse split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, subdivision, combination, issuer exchange offer or similar transaction and all references to the Stock Consideration and Exchange Ratio in this Agreement shall be deemed to be the Stock Consideration and Exchange Ratio as so adjusted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Section 4.1(h) shall prohibit Parent from (i) purchasing shares of Parent Common Stock in the open market in accordance with Rule 10b-18 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the Exchange Act), (ii) issuing shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to the terms of its convertible notes outstanding on the date hereof or (iii) taking shares of Parent Common Stock as payment of withholding and other taxes with respect to the exercise of options or the granting or vesting of restricted stock granted under any Parent Stock Plan (as defined in Section 5.2(e)), and none of such actions shall result in any adjustment to the Stock Consideration or the Exchange Ratio.

4.2. Surviving Entity To Make Certificates Available.

(a) Exchange of Certificates. The Company and Parent shall authorize UMB Bank, N.A. (or such other bank or trust company in the United States as shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company and Parent) to act as the exchange agent hereunder (the Exchange Agent). At the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall deposit with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of certificates, which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares (the Certificates), the Cash Consideration, without interest, and certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock (such Cash Consideration and shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto payable as provided in Section 4.3, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) issuable pursuant to Section 4.1(c) in exchange for outstanding Shares.

(b) Election and Exchange Procedures.

(i) The Exchange Agent will mail not fewer than 20 business days prior to the date of the Closing, or cause to be mailed with the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined in Section 6.3(a)), a form of election (the Form of Election), which will include a Form W-9, to holders of record of Shares (as of a record date as close as practicable to the date of mailing and mutually agreed to by Parent and the Company). In addition, the Exchange Agent will use its best efforts to make the Form of Election available to any Person (as defined below) who becomes a stockholder of the Company during the period between such record date and the Election Deadline (as defined below). Any election to receive Cash Consideration contemplated by Section 4.1(d) will have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received at its designated office or offices, by 4:00 P.M. (Eastern Time), on the Trading Day that is the fourth Trading Day prior to the date of the Closing (such time being the Election Deadline), a Form of Election properly completed and accompanied by one or more Certificates to which such Form of Election relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise acceptable for transfer on the books of the Company (or an appropriate guarantee of delivery), as set forth in such Form of Election. An election may be revoked only by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. In addition, all elections shall automatically be revoked if the Exchange Agent is notified by Parent and the Company that the Merger has been abandoned. If an election is so revoked, the Certificate(s) (or guarantee of delivery, as appropriate) to which such election relates shall be promptly returned to the Person (as defined below) who submitted the same to the Exchange Agent. Parent shall have the power, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to determine, in its reasonable good faith judgment, whether

Forms of Election have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked pursuant to this Section 4.2, and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. For the purposes of this Agreement, the term Person or person shall mean any individual, corporation (including not-for-profit), general or limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, estate, trust, association, organization, Governmental Entity (as defined in Section 5.1(d)(i)) or other entity of any kind or nature.

(ii) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent will mail to each holder of record of a Certificate whose Shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration (other than with respect to Certificates subject to a valid Form of Election), (A) a letter of transmittal (which will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and will be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent and the Company may specify consistent with this Agreement) and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration.

(iii) After the Effective Time, upon surrender in accordance with this Section 4.2(b) of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration that such holder has the right to receive therefor pursuant to the provisions of this Article IV, certain dividends or other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 4.3 and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock in accordance with Section 4.4, and the Certificate so surrendered will forthwith be cancelled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares that are not registered in the transfer records of the Company, payment may be issued to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered (the Transferee) if such Certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and the Transferee pays any transfer or other taxes required by reason of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establishes to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 4.2(b), each Certificate will be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the Merger Consideration that the holder thereof has the right to receive in respect of such Certificate pursuant to the provisions of this Article IV, together with certain dividends or other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 4.3 and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock in accordance with Section 4.4. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable to holders of Certificates pursuant to the provisions of this Article IV.

4.3. Dividends; Transfer Taxes. No dividends or other distributions that are declared on or after the Effective Time on Parent Common Stock or are payable to the holders of record thereof on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to Persons entitled by reason of the Merger to receive certificates representing Parent Common Stock until such Persons surrender their Certificates, as provided in Section 4.2, and no Cash Consideration or cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 4.4, until such holder of such Certificate shall so surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable Law, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificates representing such Parent Common Stock (a) at the time of such surrender or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of any dividends or other distributions theretofore paid with respect to whole shares of such Parent Common Stock and having a record date on or after the Effective Time and a payment date prior to such surrender and (b) at the appropriate payment date or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to whole shares of Parent Common Stock and having a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender. In no event shall the Person entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions. If any cash or certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock is to be paid to or issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of such exchange that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of certificates for such shares of Parent Common Stock in a name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable.

4.4. No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates pursuant to this Article IV, and no Parent dividend or other distribution or stock split or combination shall relate to any fractional security, and such fractional interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a security holder of Parent. In lieu of any such fractional securities, each holder of Shares who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Shares then held of record by such holder) shall receive cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of such fractional part of a share of Parent Common Stock multiplied by the Parent Closing Price and rounded to the nearest cent. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify Parent, and Parent shall deposit or cause the Surviving Entity to deposit, such amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof.

(a) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the former stockholders of the Company for one year after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand of Parent, and any former stockholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article IV shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of their claim for Parent Common Stock, Cash Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock. None of the Company, Parent or the Surviving Entity shall be liable to any holder of Shares for the Cash Consideration, shares of Parent Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(b) The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent; provided, that, for the two-month period immediately following the Effective Time, such investments shall be in obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America, in commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation, respectively, or in certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements or banker's acceptance of commercial banks with capital exceeding $1 billion. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments will be paid to Parent. Any losses resulting from such investments shall not diminish Parent's and Merger Subsidiary's obligation to pay the full amount of the Merger Consideration.

4.6. Further Ownership Rights in Shares. All shares of Parent Common Stock issued, and all Cash Consideration paid, upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Sections 4.3 or 4.4) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid, as the case may be, in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to Shares, subject, however, to the Surviving Entity's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distribution with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by the Company on Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4.7. Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Cash Consideration and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock to which such person is entitled pursuant to Section 4.1 with respect to Shares formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to Section 4.4 and unpaid dividends and distributions on shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this Agreement.

4.8. Withholding Rights. Each of the Surviving Entity and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares and Company

Options (as defined in Section 4.11) such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Entity or Parent, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holders of Shares and Company Options in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Entity or Parent, as the case may be.

4.9. Closing of the Company Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of Shares shall thereafter be made. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Entity, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article IV.

4.10. Dissenters' Shares. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by holders of such Shares who exercise appraisal rights with respect thereto in accordance with applicable provisions of the DGCL, including, without limitation, Section 262 thereof (the Dissenters' Shares) will not be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and holders of such Dissenters' Shares will be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such Dissenters' Shares in accordance with those provisions unless and until such holders fail to perfect or effectively withdraw or lose their rights to appraisal and payment under the DGCL. If, after the Effective Time, any such holder fails to perfect or effectively withdraws or loses such rights to appraisal and payment under the DGCL, such Dissenters' Shares will thereupon be treated as if they had been converted into and to have become exchangeable for, at the Effective Time, the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisals of Shares. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal or offer to settle or settle any such demands. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if Parent or the Company abandons or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying out the Merger and the other transactions contemplated under this Agreement, the right of each holder of Dissenters' Shares to receive payment of the appraised value of Shares as provided herein shall terminate, effective as of the time of such abandonment, injunction, prevention or rescission.

(a) Treatment of Stock Options. Each option to purchase Shares granted under a Company Stock Plan (as defined in Section 5.1(b)) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Company Option) shall become fully vested and fully exercisable at the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, subject to the provisions of Section 4.4, each unexercised Company Option with an exercise price that is less than the Deemed Per Share Merger Consideration (as defined below) shall be cancelled and the holder of such Company Option shall be entitled to receive cash from the Company in an amount equal to (x) the Deemed Per Share Merger Consideration minus the exercise price per Share under the Company Option, multiplied by (y) the number of Shares subject to the Company Option. For purposes of this Section 4.11, the Deemed Per Share Merger Consideration shall be equal to (x) one-half the Cash Consideration plus (y) one-half the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the Parent Closing Price. The Company shall withhold from such cash payment, and pay over to the appropriate taxing authorities, all amounts the Company is required to withhold under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws. At the Effective Time, each Company Option with an exercise price that is equal to or greater than the Deemed Per Share Merger Consideration shall be cancelled and the holder of such Company Option shall not be entitled to receive any consideration for such Company Option. As soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, the Company Board (as defined in Section 5.1(c)(ii)) and any committee of the Company Board administering the Company Stock Plans shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take any action necessary to accomplish the foregoing, including obtaining any required consents from any Person.

(b) Treatment of Restricted Stock. Each share of restricted stock granted under a Company Stock Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Restricted Share) shall become fully vested and all restrictions relating to such Restricted Shares shall lapse at the Effective Time. The holder of each Restricted Share shall receive the Form of Election in accordance with Section 4.2(b)(i) and each Restricted Share shall otherwise be treated as all other outstanding Shares in accordance with Section 4.1(c) above. As soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, the Company Board and any committee of the Company Board administering the Company Stock Plans shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take any action necessary to accomplish the foregoing, including obtaining any required consents from any Person.

(c) Treatment of Phantom Stock. At the Effective Time, each PSU (as defined in Section 5.1(b)) granted under a Company Stock Plan or under another agreement shall become fully vested and the Company shall pay the holder of such PSU a cash amount equal to the Deemed Per Share Merger Consideration multiplied by the number of Shares credited under each PSU. Fractional shares may be deemed credited under the awards. The Company shall withhold from such cash payment, and pay over to the appropriate taxing authorities, all amounts the Company is required to withhold under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws. As soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, the Company Board and any committee of the Company Board administering the Company Stock Plans shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take any action necessary to accomplish the foregoing, including obtaining required consents from any Person.

(ii) enter into, or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person any non-public information for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating, any Acquisition Proposal.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement the Company may, to the extent the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable Law, in response to (A) a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 6.2(e)) or (B) a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that the Company Board determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor could lead to a Superior Proposal (any such Acquisition Proposal, a Potential Superior Proposal), (1) furnish information with respect to the Company to the Person making such Superior Proposal or Potential Superior Proposal and its Representatives pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement not less restrictive of the other party (except that it need not include any standstill provisions) than the Confidentiality Agreement, dated January 13, 2005, between Parent and the Company (the Confidentiality Agreement) (provided, however, that, to the extent any such confidentiality agreement does not contain any standstill provisions, the Confidentiality Agreement shall be automatically amended (without any further action by the parties) such that the standstill provisions in the Confidentiality Agreement restricting activities of Parent and its Subsidiaries shall be deleted), and (2) participate in discussions or negotiations (including solicitation of such a revised Superior Proposal or Potential Superior Proposal) with such Person and its Representatives regarding any such Superior Proposal or Potential Superior Proposal.

(b) No Change in Company Recommendation or Alternative Acquisition Agreement. The Company Board shall not:

(i) except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.2, withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the approval or recommendation by the Company Board with respect to this Agreement and the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby;

(ii) except as permitted by Section 8.3(a), cause or permit the Company to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or similar agreement (an Alternative Acquisition Agreement) providing for the consummation of a transaction contemplated by any Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to in Section 6.2(a) entered into in the circumstances referred to in Section 6.2(a)); or

(iii) except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.2, approve, recommend or propose publicly to approve or recommend any Acquisition Proposal.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement the Company Board may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation with respect to this Agreement and the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby, or approve or recommend any Superior Proposal made or received after the date of this Agreement, if the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable Law (a Change in Company Recommendation); provided, however, that no Change in Company Recommendation may be made in response to a Superior Proposal until after 72 hours following Parent's receipt of written notice from the Company (an Adverse Recommendation Notice) (x) advising Parent that the Company Board intends to make such Change in Company Recommendation and the reason for such change, (y) specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (including the proposed financing for such proposal) and providing Parent with a copy of any documents conveying such proposal and (z) identifying any party making such Superior Proposal. During such 72-hour period, the Company will cooperate with Parent with respect to such Superior Proposal with the intent of enabling Parent to engage in good faith negotiations to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Merger as would enable the Company to proceed with the Merger on such adjusted terms. In determining whether to make a Change in Company Recommendation in response to a Superior Proposal, the Company Board shall take into account any such changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Parent (in response to an Adverse Recommendation Notice or otherwise) in determining whether such third party Acquisition Proposal still constitutes a Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that an Adverse Recommendation Notice is received on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, then such 72-hour period shall expire no earlier than 12:00 noon (Eastern Time) on the second business day immediately thereafter.

(c) No Change in Parent Recommendation. The Parent Board shall not withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to the Company, the approval or recommendation by the Parent Board with respect to the Share Issuance; provided, that the Parent Board may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation with respect to the Share Issuance, if the Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is likely required under applicable Law (a Change in Parent Recommendation), which the Company acknowledges and agrees may be the result of a Material Adverse Change. For purposes of this Section 6.2(c), Material Adverse Change shall mean (1) a change that is the result of general economic, capital market, regulatory, political or business conditions or acts of war or terrorism or (2) a change that is the result of factors generally affecting the industries or markets in which the Company or Parent operate to the extent such change does not disproportionately affect the Company and its Subsidiaries or Parent and its Subsidiaries as compared to the typical company operating in such industry or market, in each case which change is reasonably likely to have, a material adverse effect on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of (x) the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (y) Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (z) the Company and its Subsidiaries and Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(d) Certain Permitted Disclosure. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position with respect to a tender offer contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any other disclosure to the Company's stockholders or the general public if the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such disclosure is likely required under applicable Law.

Acquisition Proposal means (i) any proposal or offer for a merger, consolidation, dissolution, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving the Company or (ii) any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner, directly or indirectly, more than 20% of the equity securities or more than 20% of the consolidated total assets (including, without limitation, equity securities of its Subsidiaries) of the Company, in each case other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Superior Proposal means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal made by a third party to acquire more than 50% of the equity securities or more than 50% of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a recapitalization, a consolidation or a sale of its assets, which the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with its financial advisor) (i) to be more favorable from a financial point of view to the holders of Company Common Stock than the Merger and (ii) is reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed and for which financing is reasonably capable of being obtained, taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such proposal.

6.3. Information Supplied. (a) As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, but in no event later than April 1, 2005, Parent and the Company shall, in consultation with each other, prepare and file with the SEC the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined below), and Parent shall prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement on Form S-4 to be filed with the SEC by Parent in connection with the Share Issuance (including the proxy statement and prospectus (the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus) constituting a part thereof) (the S-4 Registration Statement) as promptly as practicable. Each of Parent and the Company shall provide promptly to the other such information concerning its Subsidiaries, directors, officers, stockholders, business and financial statements and affairs as, in the reasonable judgment of the providing party or its counsel, may be required or appropriate for inclusion in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the S-4 Registration Statement, or in any amendments or supplements thereto, and to cause its counsel and auditors to cooperate with the other's counsel and auditors in the preparation of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the S-4 Registration Statement. Parent and the Company each shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the S-4

Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and promptly thereafter mail the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to the stockholders of the Company. Prior to the effective date of the S-4 Registration Statement Parent shall take any action (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified or to file a general consent to service of process) required to be taken under any applicable state securities law or blue sky notice requirements in connection with the Stock Issuance and to consummate the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and will pay all expenses incident thereto and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of capital stock of the Company as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) The Company and Parent each agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it or its Subsidiaries for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the S-4 Registration Statement will, at the time the S-4 Registration Statement is filed with the SEC or becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (ii) the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to stockholders and at the date of the Stockholders Meetings (as defined in Section 6.4), contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. No filing of, or amendment or supplement to, or correspondence to the SEC or its staff with respect to, the S-4 Registration Statement will be made by Parent, or with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will be made by the Company, without providing the other party hereto a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon. Parent shall advise the Company, promptly after Parent receives notice thereof, of the time when the S-4 Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the S-4 Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information. The Company shall advise Parent, promptly after the Company receives notice thereof, of any request by the SEC for the amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to Parent or the Company, or any of their respective Affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by Parent or the Company which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to either of the S-4 Registration Statement or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party or parties hereto, as applicable, and an appropriate amendment or supplement to the S-4 Registration Statement and/or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of the Company. Each of the parties hereto shall cause the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to comply as to form and substance to such party in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act, the Securities Act and the rules of the Nasdaq National Market.

6.4. Stockholders Meetings. Except if the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that taking such action would likely constitute a breach of its obligations under applicable Law, the Company will take, in accordance with applicable Law and its certificate and bylaws, all action necessary to convene a meeting of holders of Shares (the Company Stockholders Meeting) as promptly as practicable after the S-4 Registration Statement is declared effective to consider and vote upon the adoption of this Agreement. Subject to Section 6.2(b), the Company Board shall recommend and not withdraw such adoption and shall take all reasonable and lawful action to solicit such adoption. Except if the Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that taking such action would likely constitute a breach of its obligations under applicable Law, Parent will take, in accordance with applicable Law and its certificate and bylaws, all action necessary to convene a meeting of holders of Parent Common Stock (the Parent Stockholders Meeting) and, together with the Company Stockholders Meetings, the Stockholders Meetings) as promptly as practicable

Subject to Section 6.2(c), the Parent Board shall recommend such approval and shall take all lawful action to solicit such approval. The Company and Parent shall cooperate to schedule and convene the Stockholders Meetings on the same date as soon as practicable after the S-4 Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act.

6.5. Filings; Other Actions; Notification; Access.

(a) The Company and Parent shall cooperate with each other and use (and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to use) their respective reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, necessary, proper or advisable on its part under this Agreement and applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, Parent and the Company shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult the other on, all the information relating to Parent or the Company, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, that appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the Company and Parent shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent and the Company shall each file a Pre-Merger Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with respect to the Merger as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than April 1, 2005. Parent and the Company shall each request early termination of the waiting period with respect to the Merger under the HSR Act. Each of the parties agrees to use their respective reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any request for additional information pursuant to Section (e)(1) of the HSR Act.

(b) The Company and Parent each shall, upon request by the other, furnish the other with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Subject to applicable Law and the instructions of any Governmental Entity, the Company and Parent each shall keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby, including promptly furnishing the other with copies of notice or other communications received by Parent or the Company, as the case may be, or any of its Subsidiaries, from any third party and/or any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Company and Parent each shall give prompt notice to the other of any change that is reasonably likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect or Parent Material Adverse Effect, respectively. Neither the Company nor Parent shall permit any of its officers or any other representatives or agents to participate in any meeting with any Governmental Entity in respect of any filings, investigation or other inquiry unless it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate thereat.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the undertakings pursuant to this Section 6.5, each of the Company (in the case of clauses (i) and (iii) below) and Parent (in all cases set forth below) agree to take or cause to be taken the following actions: (i) the provision, as promptly as practicable, to each and every federal, state, local or foreign court or Governmental Entity with jurisdiction over enforcement of any applicable antitrust or competition laws (Government Antitrust Entity) of non-privileged information and documents requested by any Government Antitrust Entity or that are necessary, proper or advisable to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) the use of its reasonable best efforts, after consultation with the Company, to avoid the entry of any permanent, preliminary or temporary injunction or other order, decree, decision, determination or judgment that would delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, the defense through litigation on the merits of any claim asserted in any court, agency or other proceeding by any person or entity (including, without limitation, any Governmental Entity) seeking to delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of such transactions; provided, that Parent shall not be required to sell or otherwise dispose of, or hold separate pending such disposition, or enter into any agreements with, or submit to any requests by, the relevant Government Antitrust Entity with respect to, any assets, categories of assets or businesses or other segments of the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries if such action would, after taking into account the expected proceeds of such sale or other disposition, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of Parent and its Subsidiaries (including the Company and its Subsidiaries), taken as a whole, after the Merger; and (iii) the use of its reasonable best efforts to take, in the event that any permanent, preliminary or temporary injunction, decision, order, judgment, determination or decree is entered or issued, or becomes reasonably foreseeable to be entered or issued, in any proceeding or inquiry of any kind that would make consummation of the Merger in accordance with the terms of this Agreement unlawful or that would delay, restrain, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any and all steps (including, without limitation, the appeal thereof, the posting of a bond or the taking of the steps contemplated by clause (ii) of this paragraph, subject to the proviso contained therein) necessary to resist, vacate, modify, reverse, suspend, prevent, eliminate or remove such actual, anticipated or threatened injunction, decision, order, judgment, determination or decree so as to permit such consummation on a schedule as close as possible to that contemplated by this Agreement.

6.6. Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice, and except as may otherwise be required by applicable Law, each of the Company and Parent shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) afford the Representatives of the other party reasonable access, during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time, to its properties, books, contracts, records and personnel and, during such period, each of the Company and Parent shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to the other all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as may reasonably be requested, provided that no investigation pursuant to this Section 6.6 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by any party hereto. All requests for information made pursuant to this Section 6.6 shall be directed to an executive officer of the Company or Parent, as the case may be, or such Person as may be designated by such party. All such information shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) Nothing in this Agreement shall require any party hereto to permit any inspection, or to disclose any information, that in the reasonable judgment of such party would result in (i) the disclosure of any trade secrets of third parties or violate any of its obligations with respect to confidentiality if such party shall have used commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of such third party to such inspection or disclosure, (ii) any violation of laws relating to the sharing of information between competitors, it being understood that the parties will provide extracts, or summaries, or aggregations or other information to the greatest extent practicable in a manner that does not result in any such violation or improper disclosure or (iii) waiver of a privilege.

6.7. Taxation. The parties will use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code and, subject to Section 6.2, none of the parties shall take or cause to be taken any action, whether before or after the Effective Time, that could disqualify the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The Company, Parent and Merger Sub shall execute and deliver to Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, special counsel to the Company, and Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., special counsel to Parent, customary representation letters, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit B and Exhibit C, at such time or times as reasonably requested by such law firms in connection with their delivery of the respective opinions referred to in Section 7.3(c) and Section 7.2(c). None of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub shall take or cause to be taken any action (or fail to take or cause to be taken any action) which reasonably would be expected to cause to be untrue any of the representations in such representation letters.

6.8. Affiliates. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall deliver to Parent a list of names and addresses of those Persons who are, in the opinion of the Company, as of the time of the Company Stockholders Meeting, affiliates of the Company within the meaning of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. The Company shall provide to Parent such information and documents as Parent shall reasonably request for purposes of reviewing such list. There shall be added to such list the names and addresses of any other Person subsequently identified by either Parent or the Company as a Person who may be deemed to be such an affiliate of the Company; provided, however, that no such Person identified by Parent shall be added to the list of affiliates of the Company if Parent shall receive from the Company, on or before the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to Parent to the effect that such Person is not such an affiliate. The Company shall exercise reasonable best efforts to deliver or cause to be delivered to Parent, prior to the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, from each affiliate of the Company identified in the foregoing list (as the same may be supplemented as aforesaid), a letter dated as of the Closing Date substantially in the form attached as Exhibit D.

6.9. Stock Exchange Listing and De-listing. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the Nasdaq National Market subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date. The Surviving Entity shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Shares to be de-listed from the Nasdaq National Market and de-registered under the Exchange Act as soon as practicable following the Effective Time.

6.10. Publicity. The initial press release regarding the Merger shall be a joint press release and thereafter the Company and Parent each shall consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other the opportunity to review, comment upon and concur with and use reasonable efforts to agree on, any press releases or otherwise making public announcements with respect to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and prior to making any filings with any third party and/or any Governmental Entity with respect thereto, except as may be required by Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of the Nasdaq National Market or by the request of any Government Antitrust Entity. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.10, either party may respond to questions from stockholders or inquiries from financial analysts and media representatives in a manner that is consistent with then-existing public disclosures.

6.11. Employee Benefits/Labor Matters.

(a) For the period beginning at the Effective Time and ending on December 31 of the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Entity or its Subsidiaries to, offer employee compensation and benefit plans to Continuing Employees (as defined below) that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those offered under the Company Compensation and Benefit Plans as of the date of this Agreement. Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Entity or its Subsidiaries to, take such actions as are necessary to grant those employees who are, as of the Effective Time, employed by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and are not included in a unit of employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement (Continuing Employees) credit for Past Service (as defined below) for purposes of initial eligibility to participate, vesting and benefit accrual under, any employee benefit plans maintained by Parent, the Surviving Entity or any Subsidiary of Parent or the Surviving Entity in which they are eligible to participate. Past Service means a Continuing Employee's service with the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to the same extent recognized by the Company and any of its Subsidiaries. Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Entity and its Subsidiaries to, take such actions as are necessary to give Continuing Employees credit for their Past Service for purposes of determining the amounts of sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay they are eligible to receive under any sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay policies and programs maintained by Parent, the Surviving Entity or any Subsidiary of the Surviving Entity in which they are eligible to participate. With respect to each Continuing Employee who is an active participant in a group health plan (as defined in Section 5000(b) of the Code) (a Company Health Plan) immediately prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Entity or its Subsidiaries to, take such actions as are necessary to ensure that the group health plan (other than a flexible spending account arrangement) maintained by Parent, the Surviving Entity or one of its Subsidiaries in which such Continuing Employee is eligible to participate during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs (the Current Year) shall (i) waive any preexisting condition restrictions and waiting period requirements to the extent that such preexisting condition restrictions and waiting period requirements were waived or satisfied under the applicable Company Health Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time; and (ii) provide credit, for the Current Year, for any copayments or deductible payments made by the Continuing Employee and out of pocket expenditures incurred by the Continuing Employee under the applicable Company Health Plan for the Current Year.

(b) Parent acknowledges that by operation of Law the Surviving Entity and its Subsidiaries shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of any Company Compensation and Benefit Plans that are maintained by the Company and any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, nothing herein shall restrict Parent's or the Surviving Entity's or its Subsidiaries' ability to amend or terminate such Company Compensation and Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms.

(c) Parent acknowledges that by operation of Law the Surviving Entity and its Subsidiaries shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of the agreements listed on Section 6.11(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter (the CIC Agreements). Parent acknowledges that the consummation of the Merger contemplated by this Agreement will constitute a Change of Control within the meaning of each of the CIC Agreements. If upon termination of employment an employee of the Company is determined to be a key employee within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code and that, as a result of such determination, any portion of severance due under the applicable CIC Agreement would be subject to additional taxation, Parent will delay paying such portion of the severance until the earliest permissible date on which payments may commence without triggering such additional taxation (with such delay not to exceed six months); provided, however, that if any such delay in payment of all or a portion of the severance is required to ensure that any additional tax is not applied under Section 409A of the Code, upon the key employee's termination of employment Parent shall immediately cause the unpaid severance amount to be set aside in a rabbi trust meeting the requirements of Rev. Proc. 92-64 with Wachovia Bank, N.A., or the then current trustee of the trust used to fund the Company's Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, as trustee of such rabbi trust.

(d) Parent acknowledges that by operation of Law after the Effective Time the Subsidiaries of the Company that are parties to collective bargaining agreements shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of such collective bargaining agreements.

6.12. Letter of the Company's Accountants. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to Parent and Sub two letters from Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, one dated a date within two business days before the date on which the S-4 shall become effective and one dated two business days before the Effective Time, each addressed to Parent and Sub and customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the S-4.

6.13. Letter of Parent's Accountants. Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to the Company two letters from KPMG LLP, Parent's independent public accountants, one dated a date within two business days before the date on which the S-4 shall become effective and one dated two business days before the Effective Time, each addressed to the Company and customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the S-4.

6.14. Appointment of Additional Director. The Parent Board shall take action prior to the Effective Time to cause the number of directors comprising the full Parent Board immediately following the Effective Time to be increased by one person, and cause a member of the Company Board selected by Parent from among the members of the Company Board who are willing to serve to be elected to the Parent Board to hold office from the period commencing one business day after the Effective Time until his successor is duly elected or appointed and qualified in the manner provided in the certificate of incorporation of Parent or as otherwise provided by Law.

6.15. Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in Section 8.5(b) or Section 8.5(c), whether or not the Merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expense, except that expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall be shared equally by Parent and the Company.

6.16. Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law (and Parent shall also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law provided the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification), each present and former director and officer of the Company and its Subsidiaries (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities (collectively, Costs) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time) that are, in whole or in part, based on or arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee of the Company or any of Subsidiary of the Company, including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or serve as a fiduciary under, or with respect to, any employee benefit plan (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA) at any time maintained by or contributed to by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 6.16, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify Parent thereof, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve Parent of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party except to the extent such failure materially prejudices Parent. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Parent and the Surviving Entity shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel selected by the Indemnified Parties, which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent, promptly after statements therefor are received and otherwise advance to such Indemnified Party upon request of reimbursement of documented expenses reasonably incurred, (ii) Parent shall cooperate with the defense of such matter and (iii) any determination required to be made with respect to whether an Indemnified Party's conduct complies with the standards set forth under applicable Law and the certificate of incorporation or bylaws shall be made by independent counsel mutually acceptable to Parent and the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that Parent and the Surviving Entity shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned). If such indemnity is not available with respect to any Indemnified Party, then the Surviving Entity and the Indemnified Party shall contribute to the amount payable in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect relative faults and benefits.

(c) Subject to the last sentence of this Section 6.16(c), for six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance (D&O Insurance) covering acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time with respect to those persons who are currently covered by the Company's D&O Insurance policy on terms with respect to such coverage and amount no less favorable than those of the D&O Insurance policy of the Company in effect on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event will Parent be required to pay aggregate annual premiums for insurance under this Section 6.16(c) in excess of three times the most recent aggregate annual premium paid by the Company for such purpose (which annual aggregate premium the Company represents and warrants to be approximately $750,000 in the aggregate) (the Current Premium); provided, further, that if the annual premiums of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, Parent will be obligated to obtain a D&O Insurance policy with the best coverage available, in the reasonable judgment of the Parent Board, for a cost up to but not exceeding 300% of the Current Premium. In addition, for six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall maintain in effect fiduciary liability insurance policies for employees who serve or have served as fiduciaries under or with respect to any employee benefit plans described in Section 6.16 of the Company Disclosure Letter with coverages and in amounts no less favorable than those of the policies of the Company in effect on the date of this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 6.16(c) shall be deemed to have been satisfied if Parent, with the cooperation of the Company, obtains prepaid policies prior to the Closing for purposes of this Section 6.16(c), which policies are provided by an insurer with a claims paying rate no lower than the rating of the provider of the Company's current D&O Insurance policy and provide such directors and officers with coverage no less advantageous to the insured for an aggregate period of six years with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Effective Time (including those related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby).

(d) If Parent or the Surviving Entity or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of such party's properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Entity, as the case may be, shall assume all of the applicable obligations set forth in this Section 6.16.

(e) The provisions of this Section 6.16 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their representatives and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification that any such person may have by contract or otherwise. If any Indemnified Party is required to bring any action to enforce rights or to collect moneys due under this Agreement and is successful in such action, Parent and the Surviving Entity shall reimburse such Indemnified Party for all of its expenses reasonably incurred in connection with bringing and pursuing such action including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

6.17. Other Actions by the Company and Parent.

(a) Rights. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company Board shall take all necessary action to terminate all of the outstanding Rights, effective immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(b) Takeover Statute. If any Takeover Statute is or may become applicable to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company and its Board of Directors shall grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that such transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement or by the Merger and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute or regulation on such transactions.

(c) Section 16 Matters. The Company Board and Parent Board shall, prior to the Effective Time, take all such actions as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate pursuant to Rule 16b-3(d) and Rule 16b-3(e) under the Exchange Act to exempt (i) the conversion of Shares into Parent Common Stock and (ii) the acquisition of Parent Common Stock pursuant to the terms of this Agreement by officers and directors of the Company subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act or by employees of the Company who may become an officer or director of Parent subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act. In furtherance of the foregoing, prior to the Effective Time, (i) the Company Board shall adopt resolutions that specify (A) the name of each individual whose disposition of Shares (including Company Options and other derivative securities with respect to Shares) is to be exempted, (B) the number of Shares (including Company Options and other derivative securities with respect to Shares) to be disposed of by each such individual and (C) that the approval is granted for purposes of exempting the disposition from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act under Rule 16b-3(e) of the Exchange Act and (ii) the Parent Board shall adopt resolutions that specify (A) the name of each individual whose acquisition of shares of Parent Common Stock is to be exempted, (B) the number of Shares that may be converted into Parent Common Stock acquired by each such individual in the Merger and (C) that the approval is granted for purposes of exempting the acquisition from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act under Rule 16b-3(d) of the Exchange Act. The parties hereby agree, which shall also be set forth in the foregoing resolutions, that all of the securities, including any options and derivative securities, referred to above serve a compensation related function. Parent and the Company shall provide to counsel of the other party for its review copies of such resolutions to be adopted by the Company Board and the Parent Board prior to such adoption and the Company shall provide Parent with such information as shall be reasonably necessary for the Parent Board to set forth the information required in the resolutions of the Parent Board.

Proposal that has been publicly disclosed and not publicly withdrawn prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting and (C) within nine months of such termination the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall have entered into any acquisition agreement or consummated any Acquisition Proposal (for purposes of the foregoing clause the term Acquisition Proposal has the meaning assigned to such term in Section 6.2(d) except that the references to 20% in the definition are deemed to be references to 50%);

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have been asked to make certain representations and certifications in connection with the opinions to be delivered pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), dated as of February 27, 2005, by and among Yellow Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), Yankee II LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and USF Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company). In connection with the issuance of such opinions, the undersigned, after due inquiry and investigation, hereby represents and certifies, on behalf of the Company, that the statements and representations contained herein are true, correct and complete in all material respects at the date hereof and will be true, correct and complete in all material respects as of the Effective Time, as if made at that time:¹

1. The facts, representations and covenants relating to the Merger (as defined and described in the Agreement) and related transactions that are set forth in the Agreement, the S-4 Registration Statement and the other documents included or described in the S-4 Registration Statement, each as amended or supplemented through the date hereof are true, correct and complete in all material respects. The Merger will be consummated strictly in accordance with the Agreement and pursuant to Delaware law. To the extent they pertain to the Company, all representations and warranties in the Agreement are correct and all obligations contained therein will be complied with; all other such representations and warranties are, to the best knowledge of the management of the Company, after due inquiry, correct in all material respects. The Merger is being effected for bona fide business reasons and not for the purpose of tax avoidance.
2. The fair market value of the Parent Common Stock and other consideration received by each shareholder of the Company will be, at the Effective Time, approximately equal to the fair market value of the Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor pursuant to the Merger, as determined on the basis of arm's-length negotiations among the parties. In connection with the Merger, no holder of Company Common Stock will receive in exchange for Company Common Stock, directly or indirectly, any consideration from Parent or any corporation related to Parent other than the Merger Consideration.

3. At least forty-five percent (45%) of the fair market value of the Company's shareholders' proprietary interests in the Company will be preserved as a proprietary interest in Parent received in the Merger. Proprietary interests will not be preserved to the extent that, in connection with the reorganization: (i) prior to the Merger an extraordinary distribution (i.e., a distribution other than a regular, normal dividend) is made with respect to Company Common Stock; (ii) prior to the Merger a redemption or acquisition of Company Common Stock is made by the Company or a person related to the Company as defined in Regulation § 1.368-1(e)(3)² (a Company Related Person); (iii) Parent or a person related to Parent as defined in Regulation § 1.368-1(e)(3) (a Parent Related Person) acquires Company Common Stock for consideration other than Parent Common Stock; or (iv) following the Merger, Parent redeems its stock issued in the Merger or a Parent Related Person acquires, for consideration other than Parent Common Stock, Parent Common Stock issued in the Merger. For purposes of this representation: (i) any reference to Parent or the Company includes a reference to any successor or predecessor of such corporation, except that the Company is not treated as a predecessor of Parent and Parent is not treated as a successor of the Company; (ii) each partner of a partnership will be treated as owning or acquiring any stock owned or acquired, as the case may be, by the partnership (and as having paid any consideration paid by the partnership to acquire such stock) in accordance with that partner's interest in the partnership; and (iii) an acquisition of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock by a person acting as an intermediary for Parent, the Company, a Parent Related Person or Company Related Person will be treated as made by Parent, the Company, Parent Related Person or Company Related Person, respectively.

4. Neither the Company nor any Company Related Person has acquired (or has any plan or intention to acquire prior to the Merger) any Company Common Stock (other than in connection with a stock repurchase program described in Revenue Ruling 99-58). During the three (3) year period prior to the Merger, the Company has not made, and does not have any plan or intention to make prior to the Merger, any distributions (other than dividends made in the ordinary course of business) in contemplation of or otherwise in connection with the Merger.
5. At the Effective Time, the Company will be conducting the Company's historic business or using a significant portion of the Company's historic business assets in a business, and, to the best knowledge of the Company, following the Merger, Parent or Merger Sub will continue the Company's historic business or will use a significant portion of the Company's historic business assets in a business, as such terms are used in Regulation § 1.368-1(d).
6. The liabilities of the Company assumed by Merger Sub and the liabilities to which the transferred assets of the Company are subject were incurred by the Company in the ordinary course of its business.
7. Parent, the Company, and the shareholders of the Company will pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the Merger, except as otherwise provided in Section 6.12 of the Merger Agreement.
8. There is no intercorporate indebtedness existing between Parent (or any of its subsidiaries) and the Company (or any of its subsidiaries) that was issued, acquired or will be settled at a discount.
9. The Company is not an investment company with the meaning of Sections 368(a)(2)(F)(iii) and (iv).
10. The Company is not under the jurisdiction of a court in a Title 11 or similar case within the meaning of Section 368(a)(3)(A).
11. At the Effective Time, the fair market value of the assets of the Company transferred to Merger Sub will equal or exceed the sum of the liabilities assumed by Merger Sub, plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which the assets are subject.
12. The payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock is solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to Parent of issuing fractional shares and does not represent separately bargained-for consideration. The total cash consideration that will be paid in the transaction to the Company shareholders instead of issuing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock will not exceed one percent (1%) of the total consideration that will be issued in the transaction to the Company

² Except as otherwise indicated, all Section and Regulation references contained herein refer, respectively, to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

The fractional share interests of each Company shareholder will be aggregated, and (with the possible exception of Company Common Stock held in multiple accounts) no Company shareholder will receive cash in an amount greater to or greater than the value of one full share of Parent Common Stock.

13. Neither the Company nor any of its current or former subsidiaries has been a distributing corporation or a controlled corporation in a distribution of stock intended to qualify for tax-free treatment under Section 355(a): (i) at any time during the two-year period prior to the date of the Agreement, (ii) at any time during the period commencing on the date of the Agreement and ending at the Effective Time, or (iii) which could otherwise constitute part of a plan or series of related transactions (within the meaning of Section 355(e)) in conjunction with and including the Merger.
14. None of the compensation received by any shareholder-employee of the Company will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any of their shares of Company Common Stock; none of the shares of Parent Common Stock received by any shareholder-employee will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any employment, consulting or similar agreement; and the compensation paid to any shareholder-employee will be for services actually rendered and will be commensurate with amounts paid to third parties bargaining at arm's-length for similar services.
15. The Agreement, the documents described in the Agreement and the S-4 Registration Statement represent the entire understanding between or among (i) Parent and its subsidiaries and (ii) the Company and its subsidiaries and, to the best knowledge of the management of the Company, between or among such entities and the affiliates and stockholders of Parent and the Company with respect to the Merger, and there are no other written or oral agreements regarding the Merger other than those expressly referred to in the Agreement, the documents described in the Agreement and the S-4 Registration Statement.
16. After the Merger, the shareholders of the Company will not be in control of Parent within the meaning of Section 368(a)(2)(H).
17. To the best knowledge of the management of the Company, none of the representations contained in the representation letters provided by Parent to Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. on the date hereof are untrue, incorrect or incomplete as of the date hereof or will be untrue, incorrect or incomplete at the Effective Time.
18. By operation of law, the following events will occur simultaneously at the Effective Time: (i) all of the assets and liabilities of the Company will become assets and liabilities of Merger Sub and (ii) the Company will cease its legal existence for all purposes.
19. The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.
20. The Company will not take any position on any federal, state, or local income or franchise tax return, or take any other tax reporting position that is inconsistent with the treatment of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) or with any of the foregoing representations, unless otherwise required by a final judgment, decree or other order which addresses the Merger by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by applicable state or local income or franchise tax law (and then only to the extent required by such applicable law). The Company is not aware of any facts that would cause the Merger to fail to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a).
21. The undersigned is authorized to make all the representations set forth herein on behalf of the Company.

The Company understands that Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. have not undertaken to independently verify the facts providing the basis of this letter nor have they been asked to do so. 1. The facts, representations and covenants relating to the Merger (as defined and described in the Agreement) and related transactions that are set forth in the Agreement, the S-4 Registration Statement and the other documents included or described in the S-4 Registration Statement, each as amended or supplemented through the date hereof are true, correct and complete in all material respects. acquisition of Company Common Stock is made by the Company or a person related to the Company as defined in Regulation § 1.368-1(e)(3)⁴ (a Company Related Person); (iii) Parent or a person related to Parent as defined in Regulation § 1.368-1(e)(3) (a Parent Related Person) acquires Company Common Stock for consideration other than Parent Common Stock; or (iv) following the Merger, Parent redeems its stock issued in the Merger or a Parent Related Person acquires, for consideration other than Parent Common Stock, Parent Common Stock issued in the Merger. For purposes of this representation: (i) any reference to Parent or the Company includes a reference to any successor or predecessor of such corporation, except that the Company is not treated as a predecessor of Parent and Parent is not treated as a successor of the Company; (ii) each partner of a partnership will be treated as owning or acquiring any stock owned or acquired, as the case may be, by the partnership (and as having paid any consideration paid by the partnership to acquire such stock) in accordance with that partner's interest in the partnership; and (iii) an acquisition of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock by a person acting as an intermediary for Parent, the Company or a Parent Related Person or Company Related Person will be treated as made by Parent, the Company, Parent Related Person or Company Related Person, respectively.

4. There is no plan or intention on the part of Parent or any Parent Related Person to purchase, exchange, redeem, or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any Parent Common Stock issued in the Merger (excluding any fractional shares of Parent Common stock exchanged for cash in the Merger). For purposes of this representation, a person is considered to own or acquire stock owned or acquired (as the case may be) by a partnership in which such person is a partner in proportion to such person's interest in the partnership.

6. Following the Merger, Parent, Merger Sub or another member of Parent's qualified group will continue the Company's historic business or use a significant portion of the Company's historic business assets in a business. For purposes of this representation letter, Parent's qualified group means one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with Parent, but only if Parent owns directly stock meeting the requirements of Section 368(c) in at least one other corporation, and stock meeting the requirements of Section 368(c) in each of the corporations (except Parent) is owned directly by one of the other corporations. In addition, Parent will be treated as owning its proportionate share of the Company's business assets used in a business or any partnership in which members of Parent's qualified group either own a significant interest or have active and substantial management functions as a partner with respect to that partnership business.
7. At all times prior to and after the Effective Time, Merger Sub has been and will be a disregarded entity for United States federal income tax purposes pursuant to Regulation § 301.7701-3(b) (a Disregarded Entity), no election to be treated as a corporation has been or will be made under Regulation § 301.7701-3(b) with respect to Merger Sub, and neither Parent nor Merger Sub has any plan or intention to take any action or fail to take any action that would result in Merger Sub becoming an entity that is not a Disregarded Entity.

EXHIBIT D

(Affiliates Letter)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been advised that I may be deemed to [be][have been] an affiliate of USF Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), as of the time of the special meeting of stockholders of the Company in connection with the Merger (as defined below), as the term affiliate is defined for purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 145 of the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the Securities Act). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 2005 (the Merger Agreement), by and among the Company, Yellow Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Yankee II LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), the Company will be merged with and into Merger Sub, in consideration of cash and shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Parent (Parent Common Stock), with Merger Sub as the surviving entity (the Merger).

I hereby represent, warrant, and covenant to Parent and Merger Sub that in the event I receive any shares of Parent Common Stock as a result of the Merger (such shares, Affiliate Shares):

A. I shall not make any sale, transfer or other disposition of any Affiliate Shares in violation of the Securities Act.

B. I have carefully read this letter and the Merger Agreement and discussed their requirements and other applicable limitations upon my ability to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of Affiliate Shares, to the extent I felt necessary, with my counsel or counsel for Parent and Merger Sub.

C. I have been advised that the issuance of Parent Common Stock to me pursuant to the Merger has been or will be registered with the Commission under the Securities Act on a Registration Statement on Form S-4. However, I have also been advised that, because at the time the Merger will be submitted for a vote of the stockholders of the Company, I may be deemed to be an affiliate of the Company, and the distribution by me of any Affiliate Shares will not be registered under the Securities Act, and that I may not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any Affiliate Shares, unless (i) such sale, transfer or other disposition has been registered under the Securities Act, (ii) such sale, transfer or other disposition is made in conformity with the volume and other limitations of Rule 145 promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act, (iii) in the opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Parent, such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise exempt from registration under the Securities Act or (iv) pursuant to a no action letter or interpretive letter obtained by the undersigned from the staff of the Commission, such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

D. I understand that Parent is under no obligation to register under the Securities Act the sale, transfer, or other disposition by me or on my behalf of any Affiliate Shares or to take any other action necessary in order to make an exemption from such registration available; provided, however, that Parent agrees that it shall meet the requirements of Rule 144(c) under the Securities Act.

E. I understand that stop transfer instructions will be given to Parent's transfer agent with respect to my Affiliate Shares and that there will be placed on the certificates for any Affiliate Shares, or any substitutions therefore, a legend stating in substance:

The shares represented by this certificate were issued in a transaction to which Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, applies. The shares represented by this certificate may only be transferred in accordance with the terms of an agreement dated as of [], 2005, between the registered holder hereof and the issuer of this certificate, a copy of which agreement will be mailed to the holder hereof without charge within five days after receipt of written request therefore.

F. I also understand that unless the transfer by me of my Affiliate Shares has been registered under the Securities Act or is a sale made in conformity with the provisions of Rule 145, Parent reserves the right to put the following legend on the certificates issued to my transferee:

The shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and were acquired from a person who received such shares in a transaction to which Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, applies. The shares may not be sold, pledged, or otherwise transferred except (i) pursuant to an effective registration statement or (ii) in accordance with an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

G. Execution of this letter should not be considered an admission on my part that I am an affiliate of the Company as described in the first paragraph of this letter, nor as a waiver of any rights I may have to object to any claim that I am such an affiliate on or after the date of this letter; provided, however, that notwithstanding this paragraph G, I agree that I am bound by the terms of this letter and that this paragraph G shall not prohibit the Company from enforcing the terms of this letter against me.

It is understood and agreed that the legends set forth in paragraph E and F above shall be removed by the delivery of substitute certificates without such legend if, with respect to any Affiliate Shares, (1) I shall have delivered to Parent a copy of a letter from the staff of the Commission, or an opinion of counsel in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, to the effect that such legend is not required for purposes of the Securities Act, (2) one year shall have elapsed from the date I received such Affiliate Shares and the provisions of Rule 145(d)(2) are then available to me or (iii) two years shall have elapsed from the date I received such Affiliate Shares and the provisions of Rule 145(d)(3) are then available to me.

Parent agrees that it will (a) supply me with any information necessary to enable me to make routine sales of any Affiliate Shares as may be permitted, by and in accordance with, the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any similar rule or regulation of the Commission hereafter applicable, and (b) promptly furnish to me, upon my written request, a written statement representing that, as of the date of such written statement, it has complied with the reporting requirements enumerated in Rule 144(c) under the Securities Act.

This letter constitutes the complete understanding between Parent and me concerning the subject matter hereof. This letter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX B

February 27, 2005

The Board of Directors

10990 Roe Avenue

Overland Park, Kansas 66211

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Yellow Roadway Corporation (Parent) of the consideration proposed to be paid by Parent in the proposed merger (the Merger) of a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger Subsidiary) with USF Corporation (the Company). Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 27, 2005 (the Agreement) by and among Parent, the Merger Subsidiary and the Company, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Common Stock), other than shares held in treasury, held by Parent or a subsidiary of Parent or as to which appraisal rights have been exercised, will be converted into the right to receive 0.9024 shares (the Stock Consideration) of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) or, upon the election of the holder of such share of the Company Common Stock, $45.00 in cash from Parent (the Cash Consideration and, together with the Stock Consideration, the Merger Consideration), subject to the limitations set forth in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

In arriving at our opinion, we have:

(i) reviewed the Agreement and certain related documents;

(ii) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning Parent and the Company and the industries in which they operate;

(iii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies we deemed relevant and the consideration paid for such companies;

(iv) compared the financial and operating performance of Parent and the Company with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant;

(v) reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Parent Common Stock and the Company Common Stock and certain publicly traded securities of other companies we deemed relevant;

(vi) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the managements of Parent and the Company relating to their respective businesses, as well as the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings, revenue generation and related expenses expected to result from the Merger (the Synergies);

(vii) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger, before and after giving effect to the Synergies, on, among other things, Parent's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and

(viii) performed such other financial studies and analyses, and considered such other information, as we deemed appropriate for the purposes of this opinion.

B-1

Table of Contents

In addition, we have held discussions and participated in negotiations with certain members of the managements of Parent and the Company and their financial, tax and legal advisors with respect to certain aspects of the Merger, and the past and current business operations of Parent and the Company, the financial condition and operations and future prospects of Parent and the Company, the effects of the Merger on the financial condition and future prospects of Parent and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to us by Parent or the Company or otherwise reviewed by us, and we have not assumed any responsibility or liability therefor. We have not conducted any valuations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities, nor have any such valuations or appraisals been provided to us. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us, including the Synergies, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by the managements of Parent and the Company as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of Parent and the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. We express no view as to such forecasts, including the Synergies, or the assumptions on which they were based. We have also assumed that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

For purposes of rendering our opinion, we have assumed, in all respects material to our analysis, that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement will be consummated as described in the Agreement, that all the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it thereunder without any consents or waivers of the other parties thereto and that all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof. We note that we are not legal, tax or regulatory experts and have relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification or liability therefor, the assessment of Parent's legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to the legal, tax and regulatory matters relating to the Merger. We have further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Parent or the Company or on the contemplated benefits of the Merger, in any respect material to our analysis.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Parent of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Parent in the Merger, and we express no opinion as to the underlying business decision by Parent to engage in the Merger. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the price at which the Parent Common Stock or the Company Common Stock will trade at any future time.

We note that we were not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to any alternative transaction, and no opinion is expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might be more favorable to Parent than the Merger.

We have acted as financial advisor to Parent in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is contingent upon public announcement of the Merger, a portion of which is contingent upon receipt of all required material government consents or approvals, and a portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. Parent has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities in connection with our services. We or our affiliates have, from time to time, provided financial advisory services to Parent and its affiliates for which we have received customary compensation. We or our affiliates may also provide other financial advisory and financing services to Parent, the Company and/or their respective affiliates in the future.

This letter is provided to the Board of Directors of Parent in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Merger. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Parent as to how such stockholder should vote in any vote relating to the Merger or any other matter. This opinion may not be disclosed, referred to or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever without our prior written approval, except that this opinion may be reproduced in full in any filing made with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Parent in connection with the Merger.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be paid by Parent in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to Parent.

Very truly yours,

Board of Directors
USF Corporation
8550 West Bryn Mawr Avenue
Suite 700
Chicago, Illinois 60631

Members of the Board:

We understand that USF Corporation (the Company), Yellow Roadway Corporation (Parent) and Yankee II LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, substantially in the form of the draft dated February 26, 2005 (the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, for the merger (the Merger) of the Company with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub as the surviving entity. Pursuant to the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), of the Company, other than shares held in treasury or by Parent or any subsidiary of Parent or as to which dissenters' rights have been perfected, will be converted into, (i) upon a valid Cash Election (as defined in the Merger Agreement), $45.00 in cash (the Cash Consideration) or (ii) 0.9024 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Parent Common Stock), of Parent (the Stock Consideration and, together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration), subject to adjustment and pro-rata pursuant to the formulas set forth in the Merger Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

i) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of the Company and Parent;

Edgar Filing: YELLOW ROADWAY CORP - Form S-4

- ii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company and Parent prepared by the management of each of the Company and Parent;

- iii) reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the management of each of the Company and Parent;

- iv) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of each of the Company and Parent, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, with senior executives of the Company and Parent, respectively;

- v) reviewed the pro forma impact of the Merger on Parent's earnings per share and other financial ratios;

- vi) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for each of the Common Stock and the Parent Common Stock;

- vii) compared the financial performance of each of the Company and Parent and the prices and trading activity of the Common Stock and the Parent Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;

C-1

viii) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;

ix) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company, Parent and their respective financial and legal advisors;

x) reviewed the draft Merger Agreement and certain related documents;

xi) reviewed certain documents and correspondence related to certain audit related matters involving both the Company and Parent and discussed such information with management of the Company and Parent and their advisors; and

xii) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by us for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections of the Company and Parent, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of each of the Company and Parent. In addition, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver, amendment or delay of any terms and conditions, including, among other things, that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. We are financial advisors only and have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of Parent and the Company and their legal, tax, regulatory or accounting advisors with respect to such matters. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof may affect this opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and we do not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion.

In arriving at our opinion, we were not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest with respect to a business combination involving the Company, nor did we negotiate with any party other than Parent with respect to a business combination involving the Company.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. In the past, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated and its affiliates (Morgan Stanley) have provided financial advisory and financing services for the Company and have received fees for the rendering of these services.

In the ordinary course of our trading, brokerage, investment management and financing activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for our own account or the accounts of customers, in debt or equity securities or senior loans of Parent, the Company or any other company or any currency or commodity that may be involved in this transaction.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that a copy of this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing Parent or the Company is required to make with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with this transaction if such inclusion is required by applicable law. In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which the Parent Common Stock will trade following consummation of the Merger and Morgan Stanley expresses no opinion or recommendation as to how the shareholders of the Company should vote at the shareholders meeting to be held in connection with the Merger or as to which election to make with respect to the Merger Consideration.

C-2

Table of Contents

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

ANNEX D

§262 APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to §228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to §251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to §251(g) of this title), §252, §254, §257, §258, §263 or §264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of §251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under §253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to §228 or §253 of this title, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or the surviving or resulting corporation within ten days thereafter, shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Capitalized terms used but not defined in Part II have the meanings ascribed to them in the proxy statement/prospectus contained in this Registration Statement.

ITEM 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Yellow Roadway Corporation together provide that Yellow Roadway's directors shall not be personally liable to Yellow Roadway or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Yellow Roadway or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Yellow Roadway also provide that if the DGCL is amended to permit further elimination of limitation of the personal liability of the directors, then the liability of Yellow Roadway's directors shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended.

Yellow Roadway maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance against any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect or breach of duty by any director or officer, excluding certain matters including fraudulent, dishonest or criminal acts or self-dealing.

DGCL Section 102(b)(7) provides that Yellow Roadway may indemnify a present or former director if such director conducted himself or herself in good faith and reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that his or her conduct was in Yellow Roadway's best interests.

DGCL Section 145 provides that Yellow Roadway may indemnify its directors and officers, as well as other employees and individuals (each an "Indemnified Party", and collectively, "Indemnified Parties"), against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than in connection with actions by or in the right of Yellow Roadway (a "derivative action"), if an Indemnified Party acted in good faith and in a manner such Indemnified Party reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to Yellow's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that Yellow Roadway may only indemnify an Indemnified Party for expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such derivative action. Additionally, in the context of a derivative action, DGCL Section 145 requires a court approval before there can be any indemnification where an Indemnified Party has been found liable to Yellow Roadway. The statute provides that it is not exclusive of other indemnification arrangements that may be granted pursuant to a corporation's charter, bylaws, disinterested director vote, stockholder vote, agreement or otherwise.

In the Agreement and Plan of Merger among Yellow Corporation, Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow ("Sub"), and Roadway Corporation ("Roadway"), dated as of July 8, 2003, pursuant to which Roadway was merged with and into Sub, with Sub as the surviving company (the "Roadway Merger"), Yellow Roadway agreed to indemnify the former officers and directors of Roadway from liabilities arising out of actions or omissions in their capacity as such prior to the effective time of the Roadway Merger, and advance reasonable litigation expenses incurred in connection with such actions or omissions, to the full extent permitted under Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Further, for a period of six years after the effective time of the Roadway Merger, Yellow Roadway will provide Roadway's officers and directors with an insurance and indemnification policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions through the effective time of the Roadway Merger; provided that the maximum aggregate amount of premiums that Yellow Roadway will be required to pay to provide and maintain this coverage does not exceed $3,944,400 per year.

ITEM 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(c) The undersigned registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
