INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 16, 2005, Fortune Brands, Inc. (Fortune) entered into a Tax Allocation Agreement, dated as of August 16, 2005 (the Tax Allocation Agreement), by and between Fortune and ACCO Brands Corporation (formerly named ACCO World Corporation, ACCO), which provides, among other things, for the allocation between Fortune and ACCO of federal, state, local and foreign tax liabilities relating to ACCO and its subsidiaries. In general, Fortune assumed and is responsible for the consolidated federal, and certain state, local and foreign tax liabilities of ACCO and its subsidiaries for periods prior to Distribution (as defined below), and ACCO assumed and is responsible for all tax liabilities of ACCO and its subsidiaries after the Distribution.

The Tax Allocation Agreement also allocates liability for any taxes that may arise in connection with separating ACCO from Fortune. The Tax Allocation Agreement generally provides that Fortune is responsible for any such taxes. However, ACCO is responsible for any taxes imposed on ACCO or Fortune as a result of either (i) the failure of the Distribution to constitute a spin-off under Section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or (ii) the subsequent disqualification of the distribution of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of ACCO, including the associated preferred share purchase rights (ACCO Common Stock) to Fortune stockholders in connection with the Distribution as tax-free to Fortune for United States federal income tax purposes, if such failure or disqualification is attributable to certain post-Distribution actions taken by or in respect of ACCO (including its subsidiaries) or its stockholders, including any change of ownership of 50% or more in either the voting power or value of ACCO Common Stock.

Though valid as among the parties thereto, the Tax Allocation Agreement is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) and does not affect the liability of each of Fortune, ACCO and their respective subsidiaries to the IRS for all federal taxes of the consolidated group relating to periods through the date of the Distribution.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Tax Allocation Agreement which is filed as Exhibit 10 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On August 16, 2005, Fortune completed the spin-off of its ACCO World Corporation business by means of the pro rata distribution (the Distribution) of all outstanding shares of ACCO Common Stock held by Fortune, to holders of common stock, par value $3.125 per share, of Fortune (Fortune Common Stock). ACCO thereafter became an independent, separately traded, publicly held company.

The Distribution was made without the payment of any consideration or the exchange of any shares by Fortune stockholders. In the Distribution, Fortune stockholders received one share of ACCO Common Stock for every 4.255 shares of Fortune Common Stock held of record as of the close of business on August 9, 2005 and cash for any fractional shares of ACCO Common Stock. Ownership of ACCO Common Stock was registered in book-entry form and each stockholder of Fortune will receive a stock distribution statement indicating the number of shares of ACCO Common Stock that has been credited to the stockholder.

Prior to the Distribution, ACCO paid a special dividend to its stockholders in the aggregate amount of $625 million, of which Fortune Brands received $613.3 million and the minority stockholder received $11.7 million.

In connection with the Distribution, ACCO Common Stock was registered pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. When-issued trading in ACCO Common Stock began on the New York Stock Exchange on August 5, 2005 under the trading symbol ABDWI. ACCO Common Stock began trading regular way on the New York Stock Exchange on August 17, 2005 under the trading symbol ABD.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income were prepared as if the transaction occurred as of January 1, 2002.

The unaudited pro forma statements presented do not purport to represent what the results of operations or financial position of Fortune Brands would actually have been had the transaction occurred on the dates noted above, or to project the results of operations or financial position of Fortune Brands for any future periods. The pro forma adjustments are based on available information and certain assumptions that management believes are reasonable. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and the historical financial statements and related notes thereto of Fortune Brands included in the 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the Quarterly Report filed on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005.

The spin-off of ACCO World Corporation will be accounted for as a discontinued operation under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, when Fortune Brands issues financial statements subsequent to the consummation of the spin-off transaction. The unaudited pro forma financial information reflects ACCO World Corporation as a discontinued operation and, accordingly, net assets and result of operations are excluded from the continuing operations of Fortune Brands.
