Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Merger Agreement

On June 28, 2006, Community Bancorp, a Nevada corporation ( Community ), and Valley Bancorp, a Nevada corporation ( Valley ), issued a joint press release announcing that they have entered into an Agreement to Merge and Plan of Reorganization (the Merger Agreement ) dated June 28, 2006, under which Community will acquire Valley for approximately $137 million in consideration consisting of Community common stock and cash, subject to an aggregate consideration mix of 75% stock and 25% cash, subject to adjustment. The transaction is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

Community also announced that Barry Hulin, President and CEO of Valley, would become Executive Vice President of Corporate Development of Community Bank of Nevada, Community's wholly owned bank subsidiary, upon completion of the acquisition. In addition, Dan H. Stewart, a current Valley board member, will join the Community board of directors upon completion of the acquisition.

Pursuant to the terms of the definitive agreement, Valley stockholders will have the option to receive $46.00 per share in cash, shares of Community common stock, or a combination of cash and stock subject to an aggregate consideration mix of 75% stock and 25% cash, subject to adjustment as described in the definitive agreement. The consideration is subject to adjustment such that Valley stockholders will receive $46.00 per share if the average closing price for Community's stock for the 20 trading days ending three days prior to closing is valued between $28.26 and $34.54. If Community's 20 day average price is below $28.26 or above $34.54, the per share value to be received by Valley stockholders and the percentages of cash and stock will vary as more fully described in the definitive agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by this reference.

The merger is subject to the approval of both Community's and Valley's stockholders, and applicable banking regulators, as well as other customary closing conditions, and is expected to close during the fourth quarter of 2006. In connection with the merger, Community will file a registration statement on Form S-4, which will include a prospectus of Community and a proxy statement for both Community's and Valley's special stockholder meetings, with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Investors and security holders are advised to read the registration statement, prospectus and proxy statement when they become available because they will contain important information about the proposed merger. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the registration statement, prospectus and joint proxy statement (when available) and other documents filed by each of Community and Valley with the Securities and Exchange Commission at the Securities and Exchange Commission's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. Free copies of the registration statement, prospectus and proxy statement (when available) and other documents filed by Community with the Securities and Exchange Commission may also be obtained by contacting Cathy Robinson, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Community Bancorp, 400 South 4th Street, Suite 215, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. Additionally, all forms filed with the SEC and additional shareholder information is available free of charge on Community's web-site: www.communitybanknv.com. Community posts these reports to its web-site as soon as reasonably practicable after filing them with the SEC. None of the information on or hyper-linked from Community's web-site is incorporated into this current report.
