Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 31, 2006, Cerus Corporation (the Company) announced that it has reached an agreement to settle its outstanding class action and derivative lawsuits. A copy of the Company's press release, entitled "Cerus Announces Agreements to Settle Class Action and Derivative Lawsuits," is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements, the plaintiffs in the class action lawsuit pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (In re Cerus Corporation Securities Litigation Master File No. C-03-5517-JF(RS)) and in the related shareholders' derivative lawsuit pending in the Superior Court for the County of Contra Costa (Joseph Leone v. Stephen T. Isaacs, et. al. Case No. MSC03-03092) will provide the defendants with a release of all known and unknown claims related to such class action and derivative lawsuits without any admission of wrongdoing or liability by any party. Under these settlement agreements, the Company's directors and officers' liability insurance policy will fund a cash settlement amount and the Company has agreed to take or continue certain corporate governance measures. Such specified corporate governance measures involve, among other measures, the Company making a good faith diligent effort to add one or two independent directors to its Board of Directors by September 1, 2007, (and if not added by such time, retaining a professional search firm to assist in the identification of such independent directors, with the Company using best efforts to add one or two independent directors to the Board of Directors by December 31, 2008), and, unless otherwise required by law, two thirds of the Company's Board of Directors will in good faith and with diligent effort consist, through January 1, 2009, of independent directors.

The settlement shall become effective upon the satisfaction of a number of conditions, including, among others, the timely execution of a final stipulation, the approval of the settlement by the courts, and the final and non-appealable entry of a judgment by the courts dismissing the class action and derivative lawsuits with prejudice.
