Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 16, 2007, The E. W. Scripps Company (Scripps) announced that its Board of Directors unanimously authorized management to pursue a plan to separate Scripps into two publicly traded companies.

The proposed separation will create a new company called Scripps Networks Interactive that will comprise Scripps national lifestyle media brands (HGTV, Food Network, DIY Network, the Fine Living Television Network and Great American Country and their category-leading Internet businesses) and online comparison shopping services (Shopzilla and uSwitch and their associated Web sites).

The E. W. Scripps Company will continue to include Scripps daily and community newspapers, broadcast television stations, character licensing and feature syndication businesses, and the Scripps Media Center in Washington, D. C.

The separation is expected to take the form of a tax-free dividend of Scripps Networks Interactive stock to all Scripps shareholders on a pro-rata basis. The separation is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2008 contingent upon approval of the final plan by the Board of Directors and holders of Scripps Common Voting Shares, a favorable ruling from the Internal Revenue Service on the tax-free nature of the transaction, and the filing and effectiveness of a Form 10 registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Upon completion of the transaction Class A Common Shares of both companies are expected to be traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

A copy of the press release detailing the specifics of the proposed separation is filed as Exhibit 99.01.
