Item 8.01. Other Events.

Simon Srybnik and his brother Louis D. Srybnik, without ever making the filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission to publicly explain their plans and intentions as apparently required by Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 USC §78m), and Regulation 13D (17 CFR 240.13d-1 et. seq.) and Schedule 13D (17 CFR 240.13d-101), through their controlled New York corporation 186-194 Imlay St. Realty Corp. (Imlay), obtained an order of possession (eviction) against Life Sciences, Inc. on March 5, 2009 with respect to Life Sciences manufacturing, laboratory and office facilities in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Simon and Louis D. Srybnik control Imlay, and are also the direct and indirect beneficial owners of more than 60% of the Common Stock of Life Sciences.

On Thursday, March 5, 2009, the Pinellas County Florida Court gave Life Sciences until 5:00 P.M. on Monday, March 9, 2009 to deposit with the Court more than $1.6 million for 9-1/2 years of allegedly due back rent in order to stay in possession and thereafter go to trial on the merits of Imlay s action and the defenses sought to be raised by Life Sciences.

As no such deposit of more than $1.6 million by Life Sciences is feasible within the compressed time allowed, a reorganization bankruptcy proceeding will be filed with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Tampa, Florida before the close of business on Monday, March 9, 2009 in order to provide some protection for the interests of Life Sciences and its minority stockholders.

See among other matters the Forms 8-K filed by Life Sciences with the SEC on November 10, 2008 (cover and signed date of September 16, 2008 and November 10, 2008, respectively), November 26, 2008 (cover and signed date of November 20, 2008 and November 26, 2008), December 2, 2008 (cover and signed date of November 26, 2008 and December 2, 2008) and January 9, 2009 (cover and signed date of January 5, 2009 and January 9, 2009).
