ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 4, 2009, General Motors Corporation ( GM ) entered into the First Amendment (the Amendment ) to the Term Loan Agreement, dated as of November 29, 2006 (the Loan Agreement ) among GM, Saturn Corporation ( Saturn ), JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and the several financial institutions from time to time parties thereto as lenders (the Lenders ). GM entered into the Amendment to modify the requirement in the Loan Agreement that GM deliver annual consolidated financial statements accompanied by a report of its independent public accountants that does not include a going concern or similar qualification. Under the Amendment, GM agreed to add certain provisions to the Loan Agreement relating to the terms of the Loan and Security Agreement dated as of December 31, 2008 between the U.S. Treasury and GM and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and related agreements (the UST Loan Agreement ), any other credit facility provided by a U.S. government authority (the Additional US Government Debt ), or any debt agreement refinancing the UST Loan Agreement or the Additional US Government Debt (the Permitted Refinancing and collectively with the UST Loan Agreement and the Permitted Refinancing, the Subject Debt ).

Under the Amendment, if (a) the interest rate applicable to any tranche of any Additional US Government Debt or the Permitted Refinancing, at a time when more than 50% of the principal of such tranche is held by lenders other than U.S. governmental authorities ( Non-US Government Lenders ), is higher than the highest rate applicable to any tranche of debt under the UST Loan Agreement immediately prior to the incurrence of such tranche of Additional US Government Debt or Permitted Refinancing or (b) the UST Loan Agreement is modified, at a time when more than 50% of a tranche of debt issued under the UST Loan Agreement is held by Non-US Government Lenders, to increase the interest rate applicable to such tranche, and if at least $1 billion of the Subject Debt is affected, the interest rate under the Loan Agreement will be automatically increased to the extent necessary (if at all) to a rate equal to the weighted average interest rate applicable to all tranches of the Subject Debt having interest rates greater than the interest rate under the UST Loan Agreement effective on March 4, 2009. Any optional prepayment of any tranche of the Subject Debt (other than a reduction in the amount outstanding under a revolving credit facility that does not terminate or permanently reduce the amount of the commitment under such facility) at the time that a majority of the principal under such tranche are held by Non-US Government Lenders will require a pro rata prepayment under the Loan Agreement.

Other significant provisions of the Amendment related to collateral include an increase in the ratio of the value of the Collateral to total exposure under the Loan Agreement from 2.50 to 1.00 to a new ratio of 3.25 to 1.00.

The Amendment provides that any event of default under the UST Loan Agreement, Additional US Government Debt, or Permitted Refinancing that continues for 20 business days would be a additional event of default under the Loan Agreement.

The requirement in the Loan Agreement to deliver consolidated annual financial statements without a going concern paragraph or similar qualification in the accompanying opinion was modified by the Amendment to provide that such requirement was not applicable to the opinion provided with the annual consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

The Amendment also added a covenant providing that GM may pay cash dividends to its stockholders or make cash payments for the purchase or redemption of any capital stock or related interests only if such payment is permitted or consented to under the agreements governing the Subject Debt.

Finally under the Amendment the parties agreed to a minimum LIBOR rate and an increase in the interest and default rates, all consistent with the terms of the Treasury Loan, and GM agreed to pay certain fees to the administrative agent and to the Lenders that consented to the Amendment.
