PROXY STATEMENT

For the Special Meeting of Shareholders

To Be Held On , , 2009

Our board of directors is soliciting proxies to be voted at the Special Meeting of Shareholders on , 2009, at 10:00 a.m. Central Daylight Time, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, for the purposes set forth in the attached Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders. The Notice, this proxy statement and the form of proxy enclosed are first being sent to shareholders on or about , 2009. As used in this proxy statement, the terms BancGroup, Company, we, us and our refer to The Colonial BancGroup, Inc.

Questions and Answers about these Proxy Materials and the Special Meeting:

Question: Why am I receiving these materials?

Answer: Our board of directors is providing these proxy materials to you in connection with a Special Meeting of Shareholders of BancGroup, to be held on , 2009. As a shareholder of record of our common stock, you are invited to attend the Special Meeting, and are entitled to and requested to vote on the proposals described in this proxy statement. Because each Proposal represents an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation, such amendments must be approved by shareholders.

Question: Who is entitled to vote?

Answer: Only shareholders of record of our common stock at the close of business on , 2009 will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

Question: How many shares are eligible to be voted?

Answer: As of the record date of , 2009, we had shares of common stock outstanding. Each outstanding share of our common stock will entitle its holder to one vote on each matter to be voted on at the Special Meeting. We currently have no shares of preference stock or preferred stock outstanding.

Question: What am I voting on?

Answer: You are voting on whether to approve the following three matters:

An amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, referred to in this proxy statement as the Certificate of Incorporation, to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 400,000,000 to 5,000,000,000;

An amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preference stock from 1,000,000 to 50,000,000; and

An amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to reduce the par value of each of the common stock, including the currently issued and outstanding, the currently authorized and proposed increased number of shares of common stock, the preference stock and the preferred stock from $2.50 per share to $0.01 per share.

Table of Contents

Question: Why is the Company seeking shareholder approval for the proposals?

Answer: The Company is seeking to increase the amount of common stock authorized by the Certificate of Incorporation in order to ensure that the Company has enough authorized common stock available for issuance to meet general needs from time to time, including capital-raising transactions, employee benefit plans and other uses. The Company is also seeking to increase the amount of preference stock authorized by the Certificate of Incorporation in order to meet particular financing needs from time to time, including capital-raising transactions. In addition, Delaware law provides that stock may not be issued and sold by the Company at less than its par value. The par value of each class of BancGroup's capital stock is $2.50 per share. The market value of the Company's common stock has been less than $2.50 per share for approximately the last seven months. Therefore, in order to be able to issue shares of capital stock or to provide for the possible conversion of shares of preferred stock or preference stock that may be issued in the future and convertible into common stock, the Company must reduce the par value of its capital stock. The Company's subsidiary bank, Colonial Bank, is under a regulatory order to increase capital, and the amendments may assist the Company in complying with that order.

Question: Would the reduction in par value have an impact on the stock price of our common stock?

Answer: The price of our common stock is ultimately determined by many factors, including market expectations of our future performance, general market conditions and conditions in the industries in which we operate, many of which are outside of our control. We do not believe that the reduction in par value will impact the market price of our common stock.

Question: When would the reduction in par value go into effect?

Answer: First, the change must be approved by our shareholders. If the shareholders approve the proposal, we will file an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation with the Delaware Secretary of State. The reduction in par value would become effective immediately after that filing. We expect to make that filing immediately after shareholder approval.

Question: Could there be a tax consequence to shareholders as a result of the change in par value?

Answer: We believe that as a result of this proposal, there would be no gain or loss recognized for federal income tax purposes by any shareholders upon the change in par value of shares of our common stock. Because tax consequences to individuals depend upon their particular facts and circumstances, we encourage all shareholders to consult their own tax advisors about any tax consequences to them, including tax reporting requirements.

Question: How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

Answer: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock, FOR the approval of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preference stock, and FOR the approval of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to reduce the par value of each class of our stock from $2.50 to $0.01 per share.

Question: What happens if the required shareholder approvals are not received?

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form PRE 14A

Answer: If any of Proposals 1, 2 or 3 are approved, the Company will amend its Certificate of Incorporation to effect the amendments authorized. If Proposals 1 and/or 2 are approved but Proposal 3 is not approved, the number of shares of each applicable class of stock would be increased as set forth herein, but the par value of each share would remain $2.50. If Proposal 3 is approved but Proposals 1 and/or 2 are not approved, the par value of each share of capital stock would be reduced from $2.50 to $0.01, but the total number of authorized shares of each applicable class of stock would remain unchanged. In any of these cases, Exhibit A would be revised to reflect the amendments authorized in the applicable Proposal.

Question: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

Answer: Yes, but only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without those instructions, your shares will not be voted. This will have the same effect as a vote against Proposals 1, 2 and 3 with respect to the requirement that such proposals be adopted by a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock, and could affect whether the proposals are approved.

PROPOSAL 1

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

TO INCREASE THE AUTHORIZED NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

Our board of directors adopted a resolution declaring that an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 400,000,000 to 5,000,000,000 shares is advisable. This proposed increase in authorized common stock, together with the proposed increase of the number of authorized shares of preference stock from 1,000,000 to 50,000,000 as discussed in Proposal 2, below, would result in the increase of the total number of authorized shares of all classes of stock from 451,000,000 to 5,100,000,000. The board of directors further directed that the proposed action be submitted for consideration by the Company's shareholders at a special meeting to be called for the purpose of approving such increase. As of the record date, the Company had _____ shares of common stock outstanding, with an additional _____ shares of common stock reserved for issuance. Under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, no common shareholder is entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any future issuances of capital stock.

If the shareholders approve this Proposal 1, the Company will amend Article 4 of the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock as described above. The text of Article 4 of the Certificate of Incorporation as it is proposed to be amended is set forth as Exhibit A to this proxy statement. If adopted by the shareholders, the increase in the authorized number of shares of common stock will become effective on the filing of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The only changes in the Company's existing Certificate of Incorporation necessary for this proposal would be the numeric change required to reflect the increase of the number of authorized shares of common stock as proposed in this proxy statement.

The primary purpose of Proposal 1 is to provide additional shares of the Company's common stock for general purposes, including capital-raising transactions, employee benefit plans and other uses. The Company is exploring various capital-raising alternatives including issuance of common stock, converting debt to common stock and selling common stock for capital. The Company is under directives from its banking regulators to increase the capital of the Company's subsidiary, Colonial Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (the "Bank"), and the Company hopes that it may be able to satisfy these directives, in part, by the sale of common stock if such sales can be arranged on terms, including price, that the board of directors deems reasonable and in the best interests of shareholders. Thus, the Company will need additional capital in order for the Bank to satisfy the Order. See "Regulatory Order."

The increase in the authorized number of shares of common stock could have possible anti-takeover effects. These authorized but unissued shares could (within the limits imposed by applicable law and NYSE rules) be issued in one or more transactions that could make a change of control of the Company more difficult, and therefore more unlikely. The additional authorized shares could be used to discourage persons from attempting to gain control of the Company by diluting the voting power of shares then outstanding or increasing the voting power of persons who would support the board of directors in a potential takeover situation, including by preventing or delaying a proposed business combination that is opposed by the board of directors although perceived to be desirable by some shareholders. The board of directors has not proposed this amendment for anti-takeover purposes.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT

SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 1.

PROPOSAL 2

TO INCREASE THE AUTHORIZED NUMBER OF SHARES OF PREFERENCE STOCK

Our board of directors adopted a resolution declaring that an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preference stock from 1,000,000 to 50,000,000 is advisable. The board of directors further directed that the proposed action be submitted for consideration by the Company's shareholders at a special meeting to be called for that purpose. As with Proposal 1, if the shareholders approve this Proposal 2, the Company will amend Article 4 of the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preference stock as described above. The text of Article 4 of the Certificate of Incorporation as it is proposed to be amended is set forth as Exhibit A to this proxy statement. If adopted by the shareholders, the increase in the authorized number of shares of preference stock will become effective on the filing of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

The primary purpose of this Proposal 2 is to provide additional shares of the Company's preference stock for future financing transactions in an amount equal to the number of shares of preferred stock currently available for issuance (50,000,000). The board believes that the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides added flexibility with respect to the designation of certain rights (such as voting rights) applicable to the preference stock (as compared with the preferred stock) that may be advantageous when seeking to raise additional capital from existing or new investors. For the foregoing reasons, the board of directors of the Company deems an increase in the authorized number of shares of preference stock to be in the best interests of the shareholders.

As of the record date, the Company has no shares of preference stock outstanding and a total of 1,000,000 shares of preference stock available for issuance. The shares of preference stock authorized pursuant to this Proposal will remain undesignated until such time as the Company's board of directors specifies the preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions applicable to such shares and a Certificate of Designation is filed with respect to such shares. The board of directors has the authority to issue the preference stock in one or more series and to fix the number of shares constituting such series, the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof without any further vote or action by common shareholders.

Existing common shareholders could be adversely affected by the increased number of authorized preference stock because the board of directors will have the ability to issue the newly authorized preference stock as preference shares that may be senior in rank to our common stock, and that may have voting rights that adversely affect the voting power of the existing holders of common stock. Similarly, holders of any common stock, preference stock or preferred stock issued in the future could be affected by the increase in the number of authorized preference shares because the board will have the ability to issue shares of preference stock (subject to any applicable approval rights that may exist at the time of issuance) that may be on terms that are more favorable than, less favorable than or different from the terms of the shares of common stock, preference stock or preferred stock then outstanding. In addition, the issuance of any additional shares of preference stock may have the effect of diluting the percentage of stock ownership of all shareholders at the time of issuance.

However, the Company is under directives from its banking regulators to increase the capital of the Bank, and it is possible that the Company could satisfy these directives, in part, by the sale of preference stock if such sales can be arranged on terms, including price, that the board of directors deems reasonable and in the best interests of shareholders. See Regulatory Order.

SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 2.

PROPOSAL 3

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF

INCORPORATION TO REDUCE THE PAR VALUE OF EACH

AUTHORIZED CLASS OF STOCK FROM $2.50 TO $0.01 PER SHARE

The board of directors has approved an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to reduce the par value of the Company's common stock, preference stock and preferred stock from $2.50 per share to $0.01 per share. As with Proposals 1 and 2, the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation to be amended by this Proposal 3 are set forth in Article 4 of the Certificate of Incorporation, and the proposed amendment is set forth in Exhibit A to this proxy statement. The only changes to the Company's existing Certificate of Incorporation necessary for this proposal are the numeric changes required to reflect the decrease in the par value of each class of BancGroup's authorized stock and the addition of an explanatory paragraph describing the mechanics and effect of the reduction in par value. Certain other implications of and advantages related to a reduction in the par value of our capital stock are set forth below.

Flexibility in Future Financings and Capital-Raising Transactions

Under Delaware law, shares of common stock of a Delaware corporation may not be issued for consideration that is less than the par value of such stock. Under the current severe economic conditions, the market value of financial institutions' common stock, including the Company's, has been trading at depressed levels, and our common stock has traded at a market price of less than $2.50 per share for approximately the last seven months. If the board of directors determines that it is in the best interests of the Company to raise capital through a stock offering, without the reduction in par value, the Company will only be able to do so if the sale price of its stock is at least $2.50 per share.

The board of directors believes that it is prudent and in the best interests of the Company to reduce the par value of the common stock to $0.01 per share to facilitate various potential corporate transactions in the future, including issuances of common stock, in public or private offerings, possible exchanges of debt for common stock, and the normal operation of our stock plans. Consequently, the board of directors recommends that the par value of the common stock be reduced to and set at $0.01 per share.

With respect to our senior securities, BancGroup has no shares of preference stock or preferred stock outstanding. There is no trading market or market value for either the preference stock or the preferred stock, and as such BancGroup has more flexibility in issuing preference or preferred stock at negotiated prices. At the same time, Reducing the par value of each share of the preference stock and preferred stock to $0.01 per share may provide more flexibility to BancGroup in future financing transactions. Also, while not currently contemplated, the reduction in par value will also give our board of directors additional flexibility with respect to other possible future transactions, including the payment of cash dividends, share repurchases, stock splits, stock dividends and other recapitalizations.

Under Delaware law, we are prohibited from paying dividends or repurchasing our shares to the extent such an action would impair our stated capital. Therefore, a reduction in our stated capital account, and a corresponding increase to our additional paid in capital, resulting from lower par value per share of our common stock (as discussed in Accounting Matters , below) would enhance the board's flexibility in declaring future dividends and repurchasing shares of our capital stock, which our board of directors may deem to be in the best interests of our shareholders. Notwithstanding the added flexibility with respect to dividend payments, the Bank is currently prohibited from paying dividends on its common stock owned by BancGroup without the prior written consent of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) and the Alabama State Banking Department (the Department). BancGroup has also agreed to use its resources to support the Bank and will not pay dividends on its common or preferred stock, purchase or redeem treasury stock, or incur additional debt or refinance existing debt without prior written consent of the Federal Reserve and the Department. See Regulatory Order.

Accounting Matters

The proposed decrease in the par value of the Company's capital stock will have no effect on the total dollar value of the Company's shareholders equity. The par value of the Company's common stock is reflected in its financial statements by an amount equal to the number of shares of common stock issued multiplied by the par value of $2.50. Upon the approval of the Company's shareholders to decrease the par value of the capital stock from $2.50 per share to $0.01 per share, for accounting purposes, the Company will transfer an amount equal to the product of the number of shares issued and outstanding and $2.49 (the difference between the old and new par values) from the common stock account to the additional paid in capital account. There will be no other effect on the Company's financial statements.

For the foregoing reasons, and since, under Delaware law, capital stock may be issued without par value, and par value is unrelated to the intrinsic value of the stock, the board of directors recommends that the par value of each class of its stock be set at $0.01 per share in order to maximize future issuances of common stock, preference stock or preferred stock at consideration per share that the board of directors deems appropriate and for such other purposes as the board of directors deems reasonable and in the best interests of the Company.

If Proposals 1, 2 and 3 are adopted, BancGroup's Certificate of Incorporation will be amended to provide that BancGroup may issue up to 5,000,000,000 shares of common stock, up to 50,000,000 shares of preference stock and up to 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock, each with a par value of $0.01 per share (and, correspondingly, up to a total of 5,100,000,000 authorized shares of all classes of stock with a par value of $0.01 per share). The reduction in the par value of the capital stock will apply to all shares of common stock currently issued and outstanding, as well as all shares of common stock, preference stock or preferred stock that may be issued in the future. The number of shares of common stock outstanding or reserved for issuance will not be changed by the reduction in the par value of the stock. Each share of the common stock outstanding and reserved for issuance, par value $2.50 per share, shall be reclassified into one share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. Existing certificates representing common stock, par value $2.50 per share, shall continue to represent the same number of shares of common stock but, upon the reduction in the par value of such stock, such shares shall have a par value of $0.01 per share.

Upon the approval of Proposal 3 and the filing of an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation, shareholders will be entitled to surrender the certificates representing shares of common stock to the Company and receive a new certificate reflecting the change in the par value of the stock. The Company expects that its transfer agent will act as exchange agent for purposes of implementing the exchange of stock certificates, and shareholders wishing to exchange certificates will be asked to follow the procedures to be set forth in a letter of transmittal to be sent by the exchange agent. No new certificates will be issued to a shareholder until such shareholder has surrendered such shareholder's outstanding certificate(s) together with the properly completed and executed letter of transmittal to the exchange agent. Shareholders should not destroy any stock certificate and should not submit any certificate until requested to do so by the Company or the exchange agent.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE

SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 3.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on _____, 2009, at 10:00 a.m. Central Daylight Time at BancGroup's offices, 100 Colonial Bank Boulevard, Montgomery, Alabama 36117.

Matters to be Considered

At the Special Meeting, BancGroup shareholders will be asked to:

1. Approve an amendment to BancGroup's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 400,000,000 to 5,000,000,000;
2. Approve an amendment to BancGroup's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preference stock from 1,000,000 to 50,000,000; and

Proxies

If you are a shareholder of record (that is, you own stock registered in your own name), you may attend the special meeting and vote in person, or you may vote by proxy. You may vote by proxy by completing and returning the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement, by telephone, or through the Internet by following the instructions described on your proxy card. If your shares are held through a bank, broker or other nominee (that is, if your shares are held in _____ street name), you will receive separate voting instructions from your bank, broker or other nominee with your proxy materials. Although most banks, brokers and other nominees offer telephone and Internet voting, availability and specific processes will depend on their voting arrangements.

You can revoke a proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the Special Meeting by submitting a properly executed proxy of a later date by mail, telephone or Internet, or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. Communications about revoking BancGroup proxies should be addressed to:

The Colonial BancGroup, Inc.

100 Colonial Bank Boulevard

Post Office Box 241148

Montgomery, Alabama 36124

Telephone: 334-676-5000

Attn.: Secretary

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form PRE 14A

If your shares are held in street name, you should follow the instructions of your bank, broker or other nominee regarding the revocation of proxies. Please note that attendance at the Special Meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of your proxy.

All shares represented by valid proxies that BancGroup receives through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. If you return your proxy card but make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted FOR each of the proposals. Our board of directors is currently unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the Special Meeting. If other matters properly come before the Special Meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting, BancGroup intends that shares represented by properly submitted proxies will be voted, or not voted, by and in accordance with the best judgment of the persons named as proxies on the proxy card.

Solicitation of Proxies

BancGroup will bear the cost of preparing, printing and mailing the materials in connection with this solicitation of proxies. In addition to mailing these materials, directors, officers and regular employees of BancGroup may, without being additionally compensated, solicit proxies personally and by mail, telephone, facsimile or electronic communication. BancGroup will reimburse banks and brokers for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of stock or otherwise in connection with this solicitation. We have retained Georgeson Inc. to assist in the solicitation at a cost of approximately $, plus payment of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and other customary costs.

Record Date and Quorum

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on , 2009 as the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. At that time, shares of BancGroup common stock were outstanding, held by approximately holders of record. No shares of preference stock or preferred stock were outstanding as of such date.

A quorum of a majority of the issued and outstanding common stock is required for the transaction of business by shareholders at the Special Meeting. Therefore, at the Special Meeting, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least shares of common stock will be required to establish a quorum. Abstentions are counted for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is achieved and for determining the number of shares which are present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting. However, an abstention has the same effect as a vote against a proposal, as each abstention is one less vote in favor of the proposal. Shares that are not voted on proxies returned by brokers (broker non-votes) will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum has been achieved. The effect of a broker non-vote on each proposal is set forth below under the caption entitled Vote Required.

Vote Required

Each outstanding share of our common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal at the Special Meeting. Approval of Proposals 1, 2 and 3 require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. Accordingly, failure to vote, a broker non-vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals.

Voting Options

If you are a shareholder of record: You may vote by one of the following four methods (as instructed on the enclosed proxy card):

in person at the Special Meeting,

via the Internet,

by telephone, or by mail.

Table of Contents

Whichever method you use, the proxies identified on the proxy card will vote the shares of which you are the shareholder of record in accordance with your instructions. If you submit a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote the shares as recommended by our board of directors.

If you own your shares in street name, that is, through a brokerage account or in another nominee form: You must provide instructions to the broker or nominee as to how your shares should be voted. Brokers do not have the discretion to vote on the proposals and will only vote at the direction of the underlying beneficial owners of the shares of common stock. Accordingly, if you do not instruct your broker to vote your shares, your broker will not have the discretion to vote your shares. Your broker or nominee will usually provide you with the appropriate instruction forms at the time you receive this proxy statement. If you own your shares in this manner, you cannot vote in person at the Special Meeting unless you receive a proxy to do so from the broker or the nominee, and you bring that proxy to the Special Meeting.

Voting over the Internet or by Phone

If you are a shareholder of record, you may use the Internet to transmit your vote up until 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Time on _____, 2009. Visit www.cesvote.com and have your proxy card in hand when you access the website and follow the instructions to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form.

If you are a shareholder of record, you may call (_____) _____ and use any touch-tone telephone to transmit your vote up until 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Time on _____, 2009. Have your proxy card in hand when you call and then follow the instructions.

Please note that although there is no charge to you for voting by telephone or electronically through the Internet, there may be costs associated with electronic access such as usage charges for Internet service providers and telephone companies. BancGroup does not cover these costs; they are solely your responsibility.

Dissenter's Rights

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, BancGroup's shareholders are not entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to the proposed amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.

Independent Registered Public Accountants

Representatives of the firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, our independent registered public accountants, will be present at the special meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement should they wish to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Recommendations of Our Board of Directors

Our board of directors has unanimously approved each of the proposals. The board of directors believes that the proposals are advisable, and unanimously recommends that BancGroup shareholders vote FOR the approval of each of Proposals 1, 2 and 3.

BYLAW PROVISIONS REGARDING CONDUCT OF SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

BancGroup's bylaws contain two provisions relating to the conduct of shareholders' meetings. The first provision requires that certain procedures be followed by a shareholder of record who wishes to present business at the annual meeting of shareholders, including the nomination of candidates for election as directors. In order to nominate a person for election as a director or to present other business at a meeting, a shareholder must provide written notice thereof to the Secretary of BancGroup not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, provided that, if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

As it relates to director nominations, the written notice must state all information as to each nominee required to be disclosed in solicitation of proxies for election of directors under regulations of the SEC, including the written consent of each such nominee. As for any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, the written notice must contain a brief description of the business, the reasons for conducting the business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder. The notice must also contain the name and address of such shareholder and the class and number of shares of BancGroup owned beneficially and of record, as well as the same information for each beneficial owner who may be nominated for election as a director.

The board of directors is not required to nominate a person designated by a shareholder to take up such other business as may be contained in a written notice from a shareholder; however, compliance with this procedure would permit a shareholder to nominate the individual at the shareholders' meeting, and any shareholder may vote shares in person or by proxy for any individual such shareholder desires. The procedures relating to nominating directors and presenting other business at a shareholders' meeting may only be used by a shareholder who is a shareholder of record at the time of the giving of the notice by the shareholder to the Secretary of BancGroup. The procedures do not prohibit or apply to shareholder proposals under SEC Rule 14a-8 as described at Proposals of Shareholders.

The second provision of BancGroup's bylaws relates to the conduct of the business at a shareholders' meeting. Under that provision, the board of directors has the authority to adopt rules for the conduct of meetings, and, unless inconsistent with any such rules, the Chairman of the meeting may prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures as, in his judgment, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting.

ARTICLE 4

The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is 5,100,000,000 shares, of which 50,000,000 shares of the par value of $0.01 per share are to be Preference Stock (hereinafter called "Preference Stock"), 50,000,000 shares of the par value of $0.01 per share are to be Preferred Stock (hereinafter called "Preferred Stock") and 5,000,000,000 shares of the par value of $0.01 per share are to be Common Stock (hereinafter sometimes called "Common Stock").

Each certificate that, prior to the Effective Time, represented shares of Old Common Stock shall, from and after the Effective Time, represent that number of shares of New Common Stock into which the shares of Old Common Stock represented by such certificate shall have been reclassified; provided, that each person holding of record a stock certificate or certificates that represented shares of Old Common Stock shall receive upon surrender of such certificate or certificates, unless otherwise instructed by such holder, certificates evidencing and representing the number of shares of New Common Stock to which such person is entitled under the foregoing reclassification.

Re: The Colonial BancGroup, Inc., Montgomery, Alabama, Preliminary Proxy Statement

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In accordance with conversations on Monday, July 13, with Jessica Livingston of the Staff, please accept this letter submitted on behalf of The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. ("BancGroup") in connection with BancGroup's preliminary proxy statement being filed contemporaneously herewith. The purpose of this letter is to outline BancGroup's approach in preparing and filing the proxy statement, which, as stated above, I discussed with Ms. Livingston on Monday.

The proxy statement relates to three proposed amendments to BancGroup's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation: (1) an increase in the number of authorized shares of BancGroup's common stock; (2) an increase in the number of authorized shares of BancGroup's preference stock; and (3) a reduction in the par value of BancGroup's common, preferred, and preference stock (collectively, the "Charter Amendments"). In order to explore all possible capital-raising alternatives, as mandated by the Order to Cease and Desist imposed on BancGroup's wholly owned bank subsidiary by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Alabama State Banking Department, which was disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 9, 2009, BancGroup, among other things, must increase its authorized shares and reduce its par value.

As you may be aware, and as disclosed in several Current Reports on Form 8-K filed by BancGroup beginning on April 1, 2009, BancGroup entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Taylor, Bean & Whitaker Mortgage Company and certain other purchasers (collectively, the Purchasers), pursuant to which BancGroup will issue preference stock to the Purchasers, which stock is convertible into common stock (the Pending Transaction).

As you will see in the preliminary proxy statement filed today, the proxy statement does not discuss the Pending Transaction. The Pending Transaction has a termination date of July 31, 2009, and, at this point, there is no agreement among the parties with respect to any action to be taken at that deadline, if any. Therefore, BancGroup believes it prudent not to discuss the Pending Transaction in the preliminary proxy statement. However, the company will not mail the definitive proxy statement describing the Charter Amendments until on or after July 31, when the status of the Pending Transaction will be known, and if the July 31 deadline for the Pending Transaction is extended, then BancGroup will amend its proxy statement before distribution to shareholders in order to fully describe the Pending Transaction along with the Charter Amendments. The company believes it important to file the attached preliminary proxy statement as soon as possible, however, so that, following July 31, 2009, it will be in a position to raise capital promptly.

If you have any questions or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to call me at 205.226.8720.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Michael D. Waters
