Senior Secured Second Lien Notes

On April 5, 2010, Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: NXST) (the Company) announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary, Nexstar Broadcasting, Inc., intends to offer, subject to market and other customary conditions, $325.0 million aggregate principal amount of senior secured second lien notes. Mission Broadcasting, Inc. (Mission) will be a co-issuer of the notes. The notes will be secured on a second priority basis, subject to certain exceptions and certain permitted liens, by Nexstar Broadcasting's, Mission's and the guarantors' assets that secure its and Mission's senior secured credit facilities on a first priority basis. The Company and all of Nexstar Broadcasting's and Mission's future domestic restricted subsidiaries will guarantee the notes on a senior secured basis.

Nexstar Broadcasting and Mission intend to use the net proceeds of the offering, together with borrowings under its and Mission's amended senior secured credit facilities and cash on hand, to repurchase Nexstar Broadcasting's outstanding 13% senior subordinated payment-in-kind notes due 2014, to refinance each of Nexstar Broadcasting's and Mission's existing senior secured credit facilities, pay related fees and expenses and for general corporate purposes.

Contemporaneously, Nexstar Broadcasting and Mission have also proposed an amendment to their senior secured credit facilities, which, among other items, would extend the maturity of their existing facilities, adjust the existing leverage covenants, permit the incurrence of the additional indebtedness and the grant of the second-priority senior secured lien securing the notes. The amendment also provides for payment of normal and customary fees and expenses. Under the proposed amendments, Nexstar and Mission have proposed to reduce their revolving commitments to an aggregate $75.0 million allocated between each credit agreement and refinancing the Term Loan B facilities in aggregate amount equal to $100.0 million. The amendment also provides for payment of normal and customary fees and expenses. The amendments will become effective concurrently with the completion of the offering of notes and the completion of the offering of notes is conditioned upon the effectiveness of the amendments. Although Nexstar Broadcasting and Mission have received commitments from lenders for the proposed amendment, the amendment is subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions; therefore, there can be no assurance that the proposed amendment will be completed as contemplated or at all.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Financial Data

On April 5, 2010, the Company provided its broadcast cash flow, Adjusted EBITDA, Covenant EBITDA and free cash flow. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, the Company generated broadcast cash flow, Adjusted EBITDA, Covenant EBITDA and free cash flow of $81.8 million, $63.2 million, $69.6 million and $19.9 million, respectively. The Company calculates broadcast cash flow as income from operations, plus corporate expenses, depreciation, amortization of intangible assets and broadcast rights (excluding barter), non-cash contract termination fees, non-cash impairment charges, loss (gain) on asset exchange and loss (gain) on asset disposal, net, minus broadcast rights payments. The Company calculates Adjusted EBITDA as broadcast cash flow less corporate expenses. The Company calculates Covenant EBITDA as Adjusted EBITDA plus non-cash charges and expenses and nonrecurring charges, less non-cash revenue and credits and further adjusts for the pro forma effect of service agreements and/or acquisitions consummated within the past twelve months. The Company calculates free cash flow as income from operations plus depreciation, amortization of intangible assets and broadcast rights (excluding barter), non-cash contract termination fees, non-cash impairment charges, loss (gain) on asset exchange, loss (gain) on asset disposal, net, and non-cash stock option expense, less payments for broadcast rights, cash interest expense, capital expenditures and net cash income taxes.

Broadcast cash flow, Adjusted EBITDA, Covenant EBITDA and free cash flow are non-GAAP financial measures. The Company believes the presentation of these non-GAAP measures is useful to investors because they are used by lenders to measure the Company's ability to service debt; by industry analysts to determine the market value of stations and their operating performance; by management to identify the cash available to service debt, make strategic acquisitions and investments, maintain capital assets and fund ongoing operations and working capital needs; and, because they reflect the most up-to-date operating results of the stations inclusive of pending acquisitions, time brokerage agreements or local marketing agreements. Management believes they also provide an additional basis from which investors can establish forecasts and valuations for the Company's business.

The following is a reconciliation of broadcast cash flow, Adjusted EBITDA, Covenant EBITDA and free cash flow to income (loss) from operations:
