Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On April 28, 2011, the Compensation Committee of the Board of directors approved the Third Amendment to The Progressive Corporation Executive Separation Allowance Plan (2006 Amendment and Restatement). The Executive Separation Allowance Plan provides specified severance rights to our executive officers and certain other senior employees. Under the Third Amendment, the severance payments that would be payable to our chief executive officer and the executive officers reporting to him or her, upon a qualifying separation from the Company, would be graduated depending on the individual's years of service with the Company, as follows:

Less than one year of service 52 weeks of Compensation

At least one but less than two years of service 104 weeks of Compensation

At least two years of service 156 weeks of Compensation

Prior to this amendment, the chief executive officer and each of the executive officers reporting to him or her were automatically entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 156 weeks of Compensation upon a qualifying separation from the Company, without regard to the amount of time that he or she had been employed by the Company. Under the plan, the term "Compensation" continues to mean only the individual's rate of salary or base pay at the time of his or her separation from the Company, excluding bonus payments (such as Gainsharing), equity awards, and other forms of remuneration. Each of the named executive officers identified in our Proxy Statement dated March 18, 2011 has more than two years of service with the Company.
