Table of ContentsEXXON MOBIL CORPORATION*NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*1. Basis of Financial Statement Preparation

These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in the context of the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in the Corporation's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K. In the opinion of the Corporation, the information furnished herein reflects all known accruals and adjustments necessary for a fair statement of the results for the periods reported herein. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. The Corporation's exploration and production activities are accounted for under the successful efforts method.

2. Litigation and Other ContingenciesLitigation

A variety of claims have been made against ExxonMobil and certain of its consolidated subsidiaries in a number of pending lawsuits. Management has regular litigation reviews, including updates from corporate and outside counsel, to assess the need for accounting recognition or disclosure of these contingencies. The Corporation accrues an undiscounted liability for those contingencies where the incurrence of a loss is probable and the amount can be reasonably estimated. If a range of amounts can be reasonably estimated and no amount within the range is a better estimate than any other amount, then the minimum of the range is accrued. The Corporation does not record liabilities when the likelihood that the liability has been incurred is probable but the amount cannot be reasonably estimated or when the liability is believed to be only reasonably possible or remote. For contingencies where an unfavorable outcome is reasonably possible and which are significant, the Corporation discloses the nature of the contingency and, where feasible, an estimate of the possible loss. ExxonMobil will continue to defend itself vigorously in these matters. Based on a consideration of all relevant facts and circumstances, the Corporation does not believe the ultimate outcome of any currently pending lawsuit against ExxonMobil will have a materially adverse effect upon the Corporation's operations, financial condition, or financial statements taken as a whole.

Other Contingencies

| | As of March 31, 2011 | | |
|------------------|---|--|--------------|
| | Equity Company Obligations | Other Third Party Obligations | Total |
| | (millions of dollars) | | |
| Total guarantees | $ 7,189 | $ 3,706 | $ 10,895 |

The Corporation and certain of its consolidated subsidiaries were contingently liable at March 31, 2011, for $10,895 million, primarily relating to guarantees for notes, loans and performance under contracts. Included in this amount were guarantees by consolidated affiliates of $7,189 million, representing ExxonMobil's share of obligations of certain equity companies. These guarantees are not reasonably likely to have a material effect on the Corporation's financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.

Additionally, the Corporation and its affiliates have numerous long-term sales and purchase commitments in their various business activities, all of which are expected to be fulfilled with no adverse consequences material to the Corporation's operations or financial condition. The Corporation's outstanding unconditional purchase obligations at March 31, 2011, were similar to those at the prior year-end period. Unconditional purchase obligations as defined by accounting standards are those long-term commitments that are noncancelable or cancelable only under certain conditions, and that third parties have used to secure financing for the facilities that will provide the contracted goods or services.

Edgar Filing: EXXON MOBIL CORP - Form 10-Q

The operations and earnings of the Corporation and its affiliates throughout the world have been, and may in the future be, affected from time to time in varying degree by political developments and laws and regulations, such as forced divestiture of assets; restrictions on production, imports and exports; price controls; tax increases and retroactive tax claims; expropriation of property; cancellation of contract rights and environmental regulations. Both the likelihood of such occurrences and their overall effect upon the Corporation vary greatly from country to country and are not predictable.

In accordance with a nationalization decree issued by Venezuela's president in February 2007, by May 1, 2007, a subsidiary of the Venezuelan National Oil Company (PdVSA) assumed the operatorship of the Cerro Negro Heavy Oil Project. This Project had been operated and owned by ExxonMobil affiliates holding a 41.67 percent ownership interest in the Project. The decree also required conversion of the Cerro Negro Project into a mixed enterprise and an increase in PdVSA's or one of its affiliate's ownership interest in the Project, with the stipulation that if ExxonMobil refused to accept the terms for the formation of the mixed enterprise within a specified period of time, the government would directly assume the activities carried out by the joint venture. ExxonMobil refused to accede to the terms proffered by the government, and on June 27, 2007, the government expropriated ExxonMobil's 41.67 percent interest in the Cerro Negro Project.

On September 6, 2007, affiliates of ExxonMobil filed a Request for Arbitration with the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) invoking ICSID jurisdiction under Venezuela's Investment Law and the Netherlands-Venezuela Bilateral Investment Treaty. The ICSID Tribunal issued a decision on June 10, 2010, finding that it had jurisdiction to proceed on the basis of the Netherlands-Venezuela Bilateral Investment Treaty. The ICSID arbitration proceeding is continuing and a hearing on the merits is currently scheduled for the first quarter of 2012. An affiliate of ExxonMobil has also filed an arbitration under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) against PdVSA and a PdVSA affiliate for breach of their contractual obligations under certain Cerro Negro Project agreements. A hearing on the merits of the ICC arbitration concluded in September 2010 and the parties have filed post-hearing briefs. At this time, the net impact of this matter on the Corporation's consolidated financial results cannot be reasonably estimated. However, the Corporation does not expect the resolution to have a material effect upon the Corporation's operations or financial condition. ExxonMobil's remaining net book investment in Cerro Negro producing assets is about $750 million.

6. Financial and Derivative Instruments

Financial Instruments. The fair value of financial instruments is determined by reference to observable market data and other valuation techniques as appropriate. The only category of financial instruments where the difference between fair value and recorded book value is notable is long-term debt. The estimated fair value of total long-term debt, including capitalized lease obligations, was $12.8 billion at March 31, 2011, and $12.8 billion at December 31, 2010, as compared to recorded book values of $12.3 billion at March 31, 2011, and $12.2 billion at December 31, 2010. The fair value hierarchy for long-term debt is primarily Level 1 (quoted prices for identical assets in active markets).

Derivative Instruments. The Corporation's size, strong capital structure, geographic diversity and the complementary nature of the Upstream, Downstream and Chemical businesses reduce the Corporation's enterprise-wide risk from changes in interest rates, currency rates and commodity prices. As a result, the Corporation makes limited use of derivatives to mitigate the impact of such changes. The Corporation does not engage in speculative derivative activities or derivative trading activities nor does it use derivatives with leveraged features.

Table of Contents

When the Corporation does enter into derivative transactions, it is to offset exposures associated with interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and hydrocarbon prices that arise from existing assets, liabilities and forecasted transactions. For derivatives designated as cash flow hedges, the Corporation's activity is intended to manage the price risk posed by physical transactions.

The estimated fair value of derivative instruments outstanding and recorded on the balance sheet was a net asset of $168 million and $172 million at March 31, 2011, and at year-end 2010, respectively. This is the amount that the Corporation would have received from third parties if these derivatives had been settled in the open market. Assets and liabilities associated with derivatives are predominantly recorded either in Other current assets or Accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The March 31, 2011, net asset balance includes the Corporation's outstanding cash flow hedge position, acquired as a result of the June 2010 XTO merger, of $164 million. As the current cash flow hedge positions settle, these programs will be discontinued.

The fair value hierarchy for derivative instruments is primarily Level 2 (either market prices for similar assets in active markets or prices quoted by a broker or other market-corroborated prices).

The Corporation recognized a before-tax gain related to derivative instruments of $20 million during the three month period ended March 31, 2011, and $2 million during the three month period ended March 31, 2010. Income statement effects associated with derivatives are recorded either in Sales and other operating revenue or Crude oil and product purchases. Of the amount stated above for 2011, cash flow hedges resulted in a before-tax gain of $33 million. The ineffective portion of derivatives designated as hedges is de minimis.

The principal natural gas futures contracts and swap agreements acquired as part of the XTO merger that are in place as of March 31, 2011, will expire at the end of 2011. The associated volume of natural gas is 250 mcf/d at a weighted average NYMEX price of $7.02 per thousand cubic feet. These derivative contracts qualify for cash flow hedge accounting. The Corporation will receive the cash flow related to these derivative contracts at the price indicated above. However, the amount of the income statement gain or loss realized from these contracts will be limited to the change in fair value of the derivative instruments from the acquisition date of XTO.

The Corporation believes that there are no material market or credit risks to the Corporation's financial position, results of operations or liquidity as a result of the derivative activities described above.

Unless otherwise indicated, references to earnings, special items, Upstream, Downstream, Chemical and Corporate and Financing segment earnings, and earnings per share are ExxonMobil's share after excluding amounts attributable to noncontrolling interests.

REVIEW OF FIRST QUARTER 2011 RESULTS

ExxonMobil's earnings reflect continued leadership in operational performance during a period of strong commodity prices. Earnings were $10.7 billion, up 69 percent from the first quarter of 2010, reflecting higher crude oil and natural gas realizations, increased refining margins and record Chemical performance.

In the first quarter, capital and exploration expenditures were $7.8 billion, up 14 percent from last year.

The Corporation returned over $7 billion to shareholders in the first quarter through dividends and share purchases to reduce shares outstanding.

| Upstream earnings | First Three Months | |
|-------------------|-----------------------|----------|
| | 2011 | 2010 |
| | (millions of dollars) | |
| United States | $ 1,279 | $ 1,091 |
| Non-U.S. | 7,396 | 4,723 |
| Total | $ 8,675 | $ 5,814 |

Upstream earnings for the first three months were $8,675 million, up $2,861 million from the first quarter of 2010. Higher crude oil and natural gas realizations increased earnings by nearly $2.6 billion. Production mix and volume effects decreased earnings by $160 million, while asset management activity and lower expenses increased earnings by $470 million.

Edgar Filing: EXXON MOBIL CORP - Form 10-Q

On an oil-equivalent basis, production increased over 10 percent from the first quarter of 2010. Excluding the impacts of entitlement volumes, OPEC quota effects and divestments, production was up 12 percent.

Table of Contents

Liquids production totaled 2,399 kbd (thousands of barrels per day), down 15 kbd from the first quarter of 2010. Excluding the impacts of entitlement volumes, OPEC quota effects and divestments, liquids production was up 2 percent, as increased production in Qatar and the U.S. more than offset field decline.

First quarter natural gas production was 14,525 mcf (millions of cubic feet per day), up 2,836 mcf from 2010, driven by additional U.S. unconventional gas volumes and project ramp-ups in Qatar.

Earnings from U.S. Upstream operations were $1,279 million, $188 million higher than the first quarter of 2010. Non-U.S. Upstream earnings were $7,396 million, up $2,673 million from last year.

| Downstream earnings | | |
| United States | $ 694 | $ (60) |
| Non-U.S. | 405 | 97 |
| Total | $ 1,099 | $ 37 |

First quarter Downstream earnings of $1,099 million were up $1,062 million from the first quarter of 2010. Higher industry refining margins, partly offset by lower marketing margins, increased earnings by $470 million. Positive volume and mix effects increased earnings by $350 million, while all other items, mainly favorable foreign exchange impacts, increased earnings by $240 million. Petroleum product sales of 6,267 kbd were 72 kbd higher than last year's first quarter.

Earnings from the U.S. Downstream were $694 million, up $754 million from the first quarter of 2010. Non-U.S. Downstream earnings of $405 million were $308 million higher than last year.

| United States | $ 669 | $ 539 |
| Non-U.S. | 847 | 710 |
| Total | $ 1,516 | $ 1,249 |

Record Chemical earnings of $1,516 million for the first three months were $267 million higher than 2010. Improved margins increased earnings by $470 million, while other items, including the absence of asset management gains from 2010, decreased earnings by $200 million. First quarter prime product sales of 6,322 kt (thousands of metric tons) were 166 kt lower than the prior year.

Because of the ongoing nature of our asset management and divestment program, we believe it is useful for investors to consider asset sales proceeds together with cash provided by operating activities when evaluating cash available for investment in the business and financing activities.

Total cash and cash equivalents of $13.2 billion at the end of the first quarter of 2011 compared to $13.7 billion at the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Cash provided by operating activities totaled $16.9 billion for the first three months of 2011, $3.8 billion higher than 2010. The major source of funds was net income including noncontrolling interests of $10.9 billion, adjusted for the noncash provision of $3.8 billion for depreciation and depletion, both of which increased. Changes in operational working capital added to cash flows in both periods. For additional details, see the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows on page 5.

Investing activities for the first three months of 2011 used net cash of $5.4 billion compared to $5.2 billion in the prior year. Spending for additions to property, plant and equipment increased $1.3 billion to $7.1 billion. Proceeds from asset sales increased $0.9 billion to $1.3 billion.

Cash flow from operations and asset sales for the first three months of 2011 of $18.2 billion, including asset sales of $1.3 billion, increased $4.7 billion from the comparable 2010 period.

Net cash used in financing activities of $6.7 billion in the first three months of 2011 was $2.1 billion higher than 2010, mostly reflecting a higher level of purchases of shares of ExxonMobil stock.

During the first quarter of 2011, Exxon Mobil Corporation purchased 69 million shares of its common stock for the treasury at a gross cost of $5.7 billion. These purchases included $5 billion to reduce the number of shares outstanding, with the balance used to offset shares issued in conjunction with the company's benefit plans and programs. Shares outstanding decreased from 4,979 million at the end of the fourth quarter 2010 to 4,926 million at the end of the first quarter 2011. Purchases may be made in both the open market and through negotiated transactions, and may be increased, decreased or discontinued at any time without prior notice.

The Corporation distributed to shareholders a total of $7.2 billion in the first quarter of 2011 through dividends and share purchases to reduce shares outstanding.

Edgar Filing: EXXON MOBIL CORP - Form 10-Q

Total debt of $15.9 billion at March 31, 2011, compared to $15.0 billion at year-end 2010. The Corporation's debt to total capital ratio was 9.2 percent at the end of the first quarter of 2011 compared to 9.0 percent at year-end 2010.

Although the Corporation issues long-term debt from time to time and maintains a revolving commercial paper program, internally generated funds are expected to cover the majority of its net near-term financial requirements.

The Corporation, as part of its ongoing asset management program, continues to evaluate its mix of assets for potential upgrade. Because of the ongoing nature of this program, dispositions will continue to be made from time to time which will result in either gains or losses. Additionally, the Corporation continues to evaluate opportunities to enhance its business portfolio through acquisitions of assets or companies, and enters into such transactions from time to time. Key criteria for evaluating acquisitions include potential for future growth and attractive current valuations. Acquisitions may be made with cash, shares of the Corporation's common stock, or both.

In accordance with a nationalization decree issued by Venezuela's president in February 2007, by May 1, 2007, a subsidiary of the Venezuelan National Oil Company (PdVSA) assumed the operatorship of the Cerro Negro Heavy Oil Project. This Project had been operated and owned by ExxonMobil affiliates holding a 41.67 percent ownership interest in the Project. The decree also required conversion of the Cerro Negro Project into a mixed enterprise and an increase in PdVSA's or one of its affiliate's ownership interest in the Project, with the stipulation that if ExxonMobil refused to accept the terms for the formation of the mixed enterprise within a specified period of time, the government would directly assume the activities carried out by the joint venture. ExxonMobil refused to accede to the terms proffered by the government, and on June 27, 2007, the government expropriated ExxonMobil's 41.67 percent interest in the Cerro Negro Project.

On September 6, 2007, affiliates of ExxonMobil filed a Request for Arbitration with the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) invoking ICSID jurisdiction under Venezuela's Investment Law and the Netherlands-Venezuela Bilateral Investment Treaty. The ICSID Tribunal issued a decision on June 10, 2010, finding that it had jurisdiction to proceed on the basis of the Netherlands-Venezuela Bilateral Investment Treaty. The ICSID arbitration proceeding is continuing and a hearing on the merits is currently scheduled for the first quarter of 2012. An affiliate of ExxonMobil has also filed an arbitration under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) against PdVSA and a PdVSA affiliate for breach of their contractual obligations under certain Cerro Negro Project agreements. A hearing on the merits of the ICC arbitration concluded in September 2010 and the parties have filed post-hearing briefs. At this time, the net impact of this matter on the Corporation's consolidated financial results cannot be reasonably estimated. However, the Corporation does not expect the resolution to have a material effect upon the Corporation's operations or financial condition. ExxonMobil's remaining net book investment in Cerro Negro producing assets is about $750 million.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this report relating to future plans, projections, events or conditions are forward-looking statements. Actual results, including project plans, costs, timing, and capacities; capital and exploration expenditures; and share purchase levels, could differ materially due to factors including: changes in long-term oil or gas prices or other market or economic conditions affecting the oil and gas industry; unforeseen technical difficulties; political events or disturbances; reservoir performance; the outcome of commercial negotiations; wars and acts of terrorism or sabotage; changes in technical or operating conditions; and other factors discussed under the heading "Factors Affecting Future Results" in the Investors section of our website and in Item 1A of ExxonMobil's 2010 Form 10-K. We assume no duty to update these statements as of any future date.

Table of ContentsItem 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Information about market risks for the three months ended March 31, 2011, does not differ materially from that discussed under Item 7A of the registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2010.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As indicated in the certifications in Exhibit 31 of this report, the Corporation's chief executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer have evaluated the Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2011. Based on that evaluation, these officers have concluded that the Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that information required to be disclosed by the Corporation in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is accumulated and communicated to them in a manner that allows for timely decisions regarding required disclosures and are effective in ensuring that such information is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. There were no changes during the Corporation's last fiscal quarter that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATIONItem 1. Legal Proceedings

Regarding a matter reported in the Corporation's Form 10-Q for the first quarter of 2007, on January 11, 2011, Exxon Mobil Corporation settled a suit brought in September 2000 by The State of New York in Albany County, New York, against a number of parties, including ExxonMobil, relating to an alleged discharge of petroleum in Baldwin, New York, at a former Mobil-branded service station and a service station owned/operated by an unrelated party. The suit (captioned State of New York v. Task Oil Corp., Exxon Mobil Corp., et al.) alleged that discharges from each service station had commingled and contaminated the soil and groundwater in the vicinity of the service stations. To resolve the matter with ExxonMobil, the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation issued a general release in favor of ExxonMobil in exchange for a payment of $730,000 by ExxonMobil for all State costs and interest. There was no penalty assessed in this matter against ExxonMobil.

As reported in the Corporation's Form 10-K for 2010, the New York State Attorney General, Exxon Mobil Corporation and ExxonMobil Oil Corporation have agreed to enter into a Consent Decree to resolve issues relating to alleged contamination at ExxonMobil's former Brooklyn, New York, terminal and refinery at issue in a lawsuit brought on July 17, 2007, in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York. The Consent Decree required ExxonMobil to undertake actions to investigate and remediate certain environmental conditions at the Brooklyn terminal and refinery; pay $19.5 million to fund Environmental Benefit Projects to benefit the Greenpoint Community; pay a civil penalty of $250,000; pay $250,000 for Natural Resources Damages Restoration Projects; pay past costs of the State for oversight of, investigation and remedial activities in the amount of $1.5 million and pay future State oversight costs, up to $3.5 million. On March 2, 2011, the Court approved the Consent Decree.

As reported in the Corporation's 2010 Form 10-K, on February 17, 2011, the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey granted defendants' motion to dismiss a purported shareholder lawsuit captioned Resnik v. Boskin et al., filed in 2009, alleging direct and derivative claims against the Corporation's directors serving at the time, the named executive officers listed in the Corporation's 2009 Proxy Statement (as defined in Securities and Exchange Commission regulations) and Exxon Mobil Corporation. The court found fatal flaws in the plaintiff's three causes of action. On March 21, 2011, the court entered a final order dismissing the plaintiff's amended complaint with prejudice. Plaintiff's counsel has advised that the plaintiff does not plan to appeal the dismissal of the case.

Refer to the relevant portions of note 2 on pages 7 and 8 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further information on legal proceedings.

| Total | 69,425,960 | $ 81.42 | 69,425,960 | (See Note 1) |

Note 1 On August 1, 2000, the Corporation announced its intention to resume purchases of shares of its common stock for the treasury both to offset shares issued in conjunction with company benefit plans and programs and to gradually reduce the number of shares outstanding. The announcement did not specify an amount or expiration date. The Corporation has continued to purchase shares since this announcement and to report purchased volumes in its quarterly earnings releases. In its most recent earnings release dated April 28, 2011, the Corporation stated that second quarter 2011 share purchases to reduce shares outstanding are anticipated to equal $5 billion. Purchases may be made in both the open market and through negotiated transactions, and purchases may be increased, decreased or discontinued at any time without prior notice.
