Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On June 2, 2011, the Board of Directors of The Home Depot, Inc. (the Company) approved amendments to the Company's By-Laws. The amendments are effective as of June 2, 2011.

A new Section 11 of Article I was added to the By-Laws to provide the procedures for shareholder action by written consent, in accordance with the amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation approved by the Company's shareholders at the 2011 Annual Meeting on June 2, 2011. In addition, Article I, Sections 1 and 2 were amended to clarify the requirements for a shareholder to make nominations for director and proposals of other business at an annual or special meeting of shareholders. Article I was further amended to consolidate into one section (Section 4) the required information that must be provided by a shareholder to the Company pursuant to the advance notice procedures and to make the requirements consistent for all types of shareholder notice (in connection with annual or special meetings, requests for special meetings or actions by written consent). The information requirements were also revised to clarify the types of derivative instruments and other economic interests that must be disclosed by a shareholder who submits a nomination or proposal for other business. Further non-substantive revisions were made to Article I as a result of the reorganization of the Article described above and related conforming changes.

The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the By-Laws of the Company (As Amended and Restated Effective June 2, 2011), attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
