Adoption of Employee Severance Policy

On June 30, 2011, the Board of Directors of Pro-Dex, Inc. (the Company) approved an Employee Severance Policy (the Policy). The Policy is designed to provide benefits to certain employees of the Company, including the Company's named executive officers, in the event of certain terminations of employment from the Company. The Policy is adopted by the Company as of July 1, 2011 and shall remain in full force and effect until amended or rescinded by the Board. The Policy is the Company's sole policy regarding severance benefits except to the extent (i) a written employment agreement is in effect between the Company and an employee as of June 30, 2011 or (ii) a written change of control agreement exists at any time between the Company and an employee in which case the change of control agreement shall govern severance payments. In the event an employee is eligible to participate in the Company's Annual Incentive Plan and/or Long Term Incentive Plan, the employee will also be entitled to receive payments in accordance with the terms of the plans.

An active full-time employee of the Company is eligible to receive benefits under the Policy upon termination of employment if certain conditions set forth in the Policy are met. Severance benefits payable under the Policy are determined on the basis of (i) the number of completed years of active employment with the Company and (ii) the position the employee held with the Company. A covered employee must complete more than six months of active employment with the Company to receive any severance benefits and an employee that completes more than five years will receive the maximum amount of severance benefits he is eligible to receive under the Policy. An employee must also execute a release of claims against the Company to receive any severance benefits under the Policy above the two week minimum payout.

Under the Policy, a covered chief executive officer will receive severance benefits equal to between thirteen and fifty-two weeks of the employee's base salary. A covered chief financial officer or covered vice president will receive severance benefits equal to between seven and one-half and thirty weeks of the employee's base salary.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Employee Severance Policy, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
