Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously reported, John D. Rice, Vice Chairman of Archer-Daniels-Midland Company (the Company), has elected to retire. In connection with Mr. Rice's retirement, the Company and Mr. Rice entered into an agreement on April 13, 2012 that governs the terms of his ceasing to be an active employee and an officer of ADM (the Separation Agreement).

The Separation Agreement provides that Mr. Rice's last active day of service was April 13, 2012 but that he will continue to provide services to the Company at a reduced time commitment until his retirement is effective on June 30, 2012. Mr. Rice executed a release of claims in conjunction with the execution of the Separation Agreement (the First Release), and the Separation Agreement provides that Mr. Rice will execute another release of claims within 45 days after the termination of his employment with the Company (the Second Release).

In consideration for the First Release and the Second Release, non-competition and non-solicitation covenants and other provisions contained in the Separation Agreement, the Company will: (i) pay Mr. Rice cash in the amount of $1,900,008, to be paid as a first installment of $950,004 following the expiration of the revocation period provided in the First Release and a second installment of $950,004 following the expiration of the revocation period provided in the Second Release; (ii) pay Mr. Rice a cash payment equal to 50% of the aggregate difference between the option strike price and the fair market value, as defined in the Separation Agreement, of the underlying securities for all stock options currently held by Mr. Rice that will not be vested as of June 30, 2012 and will not continue to vest under the terms of the granting document, to be paid following the expiration of the revocation period provided in the Second Release; (iii) transfer to Mr. Rice, on or about June 30, 2012, the title of the Company-owned car currently used by him; (iv) extend Mr. Rice's healthcare coverage until June 30, 2013 on the same terms as would have been available to him had he remained employed by the Company through such date; and (v) pay Mr. Rice the cash incentive payment that would otherwise have been payable to him under the Company's Performance Incentive Plan for the performance period in effect as of June 30, 2012, calculated based on the Company's actual performance, payable on or about September 28, 2012. These benefits are subject to customary terms and conditions under the Separation Agreement.

A copy of the Separation Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference in response to this Item 5.02. The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such agreement.
