Dear Fellow Stockholder:

On behalf of the board of directors and management of QCR Holdings, Inc., we cordially invite you to attend the annual meeting of stockholders of QCR Holdings, Inc., to be held at 10:00 a.m. on May 14, 2014, at the Rogalski Center at St. Ambrose University, located at 2100 N. Ripley Street, Davenport, IA 52803.

This year we are again using the Securities and Exchange Commission rule that allows us to furnish our proxy statement, 2013 Annual Report and proxy card to stockholders over the internet. This means our stockholders will receive only a notice containing instructions on how to access the proxy materials over the internet and vote online. If you receive this notice but would still like to request paper copies of the proxy materials, please follow the instructions on the notice or on the website referred to on the notice. By delivering proxy materials electronically to our stockholders, we can reduce the costs of printing and mailing our proxy materials. Please visit <http://www.proxyvote.com> for more information about the electronic delivery of proxy materials.

There are a number of proposals to be considered at this meeting. Our stockholders will be asked to: (i) elect four persons to serve as Class III directors; (ii) ratify, on an advisory basis, one person to serve as a Class II director; (iii) approve, in a non-binding, advisory vote, the compensation of certain executive officers, which is referred to as a say-on-pay proposal; and (iv) ratify the appointment of McGladrey LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2014.

We recommend that you vote your shares for the director nominees and for all of the other proposals presented at the annual meeting.

We encourage you to attend the meeting in person. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the meeting, you should vote by following the instructions provided on the notice as soon as possible. This will assure that your shares are represented at the meeting.

At the meeting, we will report on our operations and the outlook for the year ahead.

We look forward to seeing you and visiting with you at the meeting.

Very truly yours,

PROXY STATEMENT

QCR Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (QCR Holdings), is the holding company for Quad City Bank and Trust Company, Cedar Rapids Bank and Trust Company, and Rockford Bank and Trust Company. Quad City Bank and Trust is an Iowa banking association located in Bettendorf, Iowa, with banking locations in Bettendorf and Davenport, Iowa and in Moline, Illinois. Quad City Bank and Trust owns m2 Lease Funds, LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company based in Milwaukee that is engaged in the business of leasing machinery and equipment to businesses under direct financing lease contracts. Cedar Rapids Bank and Trust is an Iowa banking association located in Cedar Rapids and Waterloo, Iowa. Rockford Bank and Trust is an Illinois state bank located in Rockford, Illinois. QCR Holdings also owns all of the common stock of six business trust subsidiaries that were created to issue trust preferred securities. When we refer to our banking subsidiaries in this proxy statement, we are collectively referring to Quad City Bank and Trust, Cedar Rapids Bank and Trust, and Rockford Bank and Trust. When we refer to our subsidiaries in this proxy statement, we are collectively referring to our banking subsidiaries, as well as our other subsidiaries and business trusts.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of QCR Holdings of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held at the Rogalski Center at St. Ambrose University, located at 2100 N. Ripley Street, Davenport, IA 52803, on May 14, 2014, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being transmitted or delivered to stockholders of QCR Holdings on or about March 31, 2014 together with our 2013 Annual Report to stockholders.

The following is information regarding the meeting and the voting process, and is presented in a question and answer format.

Why did I receive access to the proxy materials?

We have made the proxy materials available to you over the internet because on March 19, 2014, the record date for the annual meeting, you owned shares of QCR Holdings common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting. It also gives you information concerning those matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

The board is asking you to give us your proxy. Giving us your proxy means that you authorize another person or persons to vote your shares of our common stock at the annual meeting in the manner you direct. If you vote using one of the methods described herein, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting, who will vote your shares as you instruct, thereby assuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should vote by proxy in advance of the meeting in case your plans change.

If you sign and return your proxy card or vote over the internet or by telephone and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified in the proxy materials, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her judgment.

Why did I receive a notice regarding the internet availability of proxy materials instead of paper copies of the proxy materials?

We are using the Securities and Exchange Commission notice and access rule that allows us to furnish our proxy materials over the internet to our stockholders instead of mailing paper copies of those materials to each stockholder. As a result, beginning on or about March 31, 2014, we sent our stockholders by mail a notice containing instructions on how to access our proxy materials over the internet and vote online. This notice is not a proxy card and cannot be used to vote your shares. If you received a notice this year, you will not receive paper copies of the proxy materials unless you request the materials by following the instructions on the notice or on the website referred to on the notice.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on:

the election of four Class III directors for a term expiring in 2017;

a non-binding, advisory proposal to ratify the appointment of one Class II director for a term expiring in 2016;

a non-binding, advisory proposal to approve the compensation of certain executive officers, which is referred to as a say-on-pay proposal; and the ratification of the selection of independent registered public accountants.

If I am the record holder of my shares, how do I vote?

You may vote by telephone, by internet, by mail by completing, signing, dating and mailing the proxy card you received in the mail, if you received paper copies of the proxy materials, or in person at the meeting. If you vote using one of the methods described above, your shares will be voted as you instruct.

If you sign and return your proxy card or vote over the internet or by telephone without giving specific voting instructions, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted for all nominees named in this proxy statement, and for each of the other proposals described in this proxy statement.

Although you may vote by mail, we ask that you vote instead by internet or telephone, which saves us postage and processing costs.

You may vote by telephone by calling the toll-free number specified on your notice card or by accessing the internet website referred to on your notice card, each by following the preprinted instructions on the notice card. If you submit your vote by internet, you may incur costs, such as cable, telephone and internet access charges. Votes submitted by telephone or internet must be received by midnight CDT on Monday, May 12, 2014. The giving of a proxy by either of these means will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting.

If you want to vote in person, please come to the meeting. We will distribute written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in the name of a broker or other fiduciary (or in what is usually referred to as street name), you will need to arrange to obtain a legal proxy from that person or entity in order to vote in person at the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker or fiduciary, who votes my shares?

If you received access to these proxy materials from your broker or other fiduciary, your broker or fiduciary should have given you instructions for directing how that person or entity should vote your shares. It will then be your broker or fiduciary's responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct.

Under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, brokers generally may vote on routine matters, such as the ratification of the engagement of an independent public accounting firm, but may not vote on non-routine matters unless they have received voting instructions from the person for whom they are holding shares. The election and non-binding advisory ratification of directors and the non-binding advisory proposal on executive compensation are all non-routine matters, and consequently, your broker or fiduciary will not have discretionary authority to vote your shares on these matters. If your broker or fiduciary does not receive instructions from you on how to vote on these matters, your broker or fiduciary will return the proxy card to us, indicating that he or she does not have the authority to vote on these matters. This is generally referred to as a broker non-vote and may affect the outcome of the voting on those matters.

We therefore encourage you to provide directions to your broker or fiduciary as to how you want your shares voted on all matters to be brought before the 2014 annual meeting. You should do this by carefully following the instructions your broker gives you concerning its procedures. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting.

A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders to direct their vote by telephone or internet. If your shares are held in an account at such a bank or brokerage firm, you may vote your shares by telephone or internet by following the instructions on their enclosed voting form. If you submit your vote by internet, you may incur costs, such as cable, telephone and internet access charges. Voting your shares in this manner will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting, however, you must first request a legal proxy from your broker or other fiduciary. Requesting a legal proxy prior to the deadline stated above will automatically cancel any voting directions you have previously given by internet or by telephone with respect to your shares.

What does it mean if I receive more than one notice card?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with brokers. To vote all of your shares by proxy, please follow the separate voting instructions that you received for your shares of common stock held in each of your different accounts.

What if I change my mind after I vote?

If you hold your shares in your own name, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by:

signing another proxy with a later date and returning that proxy to us;

timely submitting another proxy via the telephone or internet;

sending notice to us that you are revoking your proxy; or voting in person at the meeting.

If you hold your shares in the name of your broker or through a fiduciary and desire to revoke your proxy, you will need to contact that person or entity to revoke your proxy.

How many votes do we need to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

is present in person at the meeting; or has properly submitted a signed proxy card or other proxy.

On March 19, 2014, the record date, there were 7,915,362 shares of common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 3,9857,682 shares need to be present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

What happens if a nominee is unable to stand for election?

The board may, by resolution, provide for a lesser number of directors or designate a substitute nominee. In the latter case, shares represented by proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee. Proxies cannot be voted for more than the number of nominees presented for election at the meeting. The board has no reason to believe any nominee will be unable to stand for election.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote for or withhold authority to vote for each nominee for director. You may vote for, against or abstain on each of the other proposals described in this proxy statement and on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting.

How many votes may I cast?

Generally, you are entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock you owned on the record date.

How many votes are needed for each proposal?

Our directors are elected by a plurality and the four individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast for their election will be elected as Class III directors of QCR Holdings. A withhold authority to vote for and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of any director at the annual meeting.

Approval of the advisory ratification of the Class II director, the say-on-pay proposal, the ratification of the appointment of McGladrey LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm, and any other proposals, must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions will have the effect of voting against these proposals. On all matters, broker non-votes will not be counted as entitled to vote, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present.

Because the ratification of the Class II director and the say-on-pay proposal are advisory, the outcome of such votes will not be binding on the board of directors. Also, please remember that the election and non-binding advisory ratification of directors, and the non-binding, advisory proposal on executive compensation are each considered to be non-routine matters. As a result, if your shares are held by a broker or other fiduciary, it cannot vote your shares on these matters unless it has received voting instructions from you.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

If available, we will announce voting results at the meeting. The voting results will also be disclosed on a Form 8-K that we will file within four business days after the annual meeting.

Who bears the cost of soliciting proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitations by mail, officers, directors or employees of QCR Holdings or of our subsidiaries may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. These persons will not receive any special or additional compensation for soliciting proxies. We may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

What is householding?

The Securities and Exchange Commission has issued rules regarding the delivery of proxy statements and information statements to households. These rules spell out the conditions under which annual reports, information statements, proxy statements, prospectuses and other disclosure documents of a particular company that would otherwise be mailed in separate envelopes to more than one person at a shared address may be mailed as one copy in one envelope addressed to all holders at that address (i.e., householding). To conserve resources and reduce expenses, we consolidate materials under these rules when possible. Stockholders who participate in householding will receive separate proxy cards.

Because we are using the Securities and Exchange Commission notice and access rule, we will not household our proxy materials or notices to stockholders of record sharing an address. This means that stockholders of record who share an address will each be mailed a separate notice of the proxy materials. However, certain brokerage firms, banks, or similar entities holding our common stock for their customers may household proxy materials or notices. Stockholders sharing an address whose shares of our common stock are held in street name should contact their broker if they now receive: (i) multiple copies of our proxy materials or notices and wish to receive only one copy of these materials per household in the future; or (ii) a single copy of our proxy materials or notice and wish to receive separate copies of these materials in the future. If at any time you would like to receive a paper copy of the annual report or proxy statement, please write to Investor Relations, QCR Holdings, Inc., 3551 Seventh Street, Moline, IL 61265, or

PROPOSAL 1:ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our directors are divided into three classes having staggered terms of three years. At the annual meeting, stockholders will be asked to elect four Class III directors for a term expiring in 2017. The board has considered and nominated current directors Michael L. Peterson, Ronald G. Peterson, John D. Witcher and Marie Z. Ziegler to serve as Class III directors of QCR Holdings. John K. Lawson, a Class III director since 2000, is ineligible to hold office due to exceeding our age eligibility requirement (a person who has reached the age of 72 is not eligible for election to the board), and accordingly, the board did not re-nominate him for election at this year's meeting. As a result, his directorship will end at the 2014 annual meeting of stockholders, and the board intends to reduce the size of the board from 14 to 13 following the annual meeting. The board expresses its thanks to Mr. Lawson for his many years of dedicated service.

We have no knowledge that any of the nominees will refuse or be unable to serve, but if any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the holders of the proxies reserve the right to substitute another person of their choice as a nominee when voting at the meeting. Set forth below is information concerning the nominees for election and for each of the other persons whose terms of office will continue after the meeting, including age, year first elected a director and business experience during the previous five years.

Directors are elected by a plurality and the four individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast for their election will be elected as Class III directors. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote your shares FOR all of the nominees for directors.

PROPOSAL 2:

ADVISORY (NON-BINDING) VOTE TO RATIFY APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR

According to our bylaws, vacancies on the board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors. A director elected by the board to fill a vacancy in a class, including a vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors, shall serve for the remainder of the full term of that class and until the director's successor is elected and qualified. At a regular meeting of the board on August 1, 2013, the board approved an increase in the total number of authorized directors to 14 directors and, upon the recommendation of the Nomination and Governance Committee, appointed Linda K. Neuman to the board, effective August 1, 2013. Based on Ms. Neuman's experience in the legal community, her strong educational background and her service on the board of Quad City Bank and Trust, we believe she is a valuable member of our board.

Because our bylaws require that each of the three classes of directors be as near to equal in size as possible, the board was unable to appoint Ms. Neuman to the class of the directors that is up for election at our 2014 annual meeting of stockholders. Ms. Neuman was appointed to fill a vacancy in Class II, to hold office until the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders, until her successor is duly elected and qualified, or, if sooner, until her death, resignation or removal. However, the Nomination and Governance Committee and the full board believe that, in keeping with our commitment to good corporate governance practices, it is appropriate for the appointment of Ms. Neuman to be ratified by the stockholders in an advisory manner at the first opportunity. Therefore, based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Governance Committee, on February 6, 2014, the board adopted a resolution to include a proposal at the 2014 annual meeting for our stockholders to vote, on an advisory basis, to ratify the appointment of Ms. Neuman to the board. If less than a majority of the votes cast at the 2014 annual meeting of stockholders approve the ratification of the appointment, the Nomination and Governance Committee will consider whether to ask Ms. Neuman to resign from the board. If the Nomination and Governance Committee recommends that she resigns, and if the board accepts such resignation, Ms. Neuman will no longer be a member of our board and the board may appoint a replacement to fill the vacancy or decrease the number of directors to eliminate the vacancy.

The board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the ratification of Linda K. Neuman to the QCR Holdings board of directors by voting FOR this proposal.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

General

Generally, the board oversees our business and monitors the performance of our management. In accordance with our corporate governance procedures, the board does not involve itself in the day-to-day operations of QCR Holdings, which is monitored by our executive officers and management. Our directors fulfill their duties and responsibilities by attending regular meetings of the full board, which are held no less frequently than quarterly. Our directors also discuss business and other matters with Mr. Hultquist, our Chief Executive Officer, other key executives and our principal external advisors (legal counsel, auditors and other consultants). Director Neuman was appointed to the board on August 1, 2013 after the Board of Directors increased the number of directors constituting the board from 13 to 14, to fill the resultant vacancy. The board is currently comprised of 14 directors, but as a result of the retirement of Mr. Lawson at the annual meeting, the board intends to reduce the size of the board to 13 members following the annual meeting.

Directors Baird, Brownson, Corby, Kilmer, Lawson, Neuman, M. Peterson, R. Peterson, Sorensen, Whitcher and Ziegler are deemed to be independent as that term is defined by NASDAQ. Directors Gipple, Helling, and Hultquist are not considered to be independent because they also serve as executive officers of either QCR Holdings or one of our subsidiaries.

During 2013, the board of directors had an Audit Committee, a Risk Oversight Committee, a Nomination and Governance Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Strategic Direction Committee and an Executive Committee. The current charters of these committees (with the exception of the Strategic Direction Committee) are available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Also posted on the website is general information regarding QCR Holdings and our common stock, many of our corporate policies (including our Corporate Governance Guidelines), and links to our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In 2013, a total of five regularly scheduled meetings and one special meeting were held by the board of directors of QCR Holdings. All directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the board and the committees on which they served during 2013. Although we do not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the annual meeting, we encourage our directors to attend. Last year, all but one of our directors were present at the annual meeting.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Audit Committee. In 2013, the Audit Committee consisted of directors Brownson, Kilmer, Lawson, R. Peterson and Ziegler. Each of the members is considered independent according to the NASDAQ listing requirements and the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board of directors has determined that Ms. Ziegler qualifies as an Audit Committee Financial Expert as that term is defined by the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board based this decision on Ms. Ziegler's educational and professional experience, including her recent service as Vice President and Treasurer of Deere & Company.

The functions performed by the Audit Committee include, but are not limited to, the following:

selecting our independent auditors and pre-approving all engagements and fee arrangements;

reviewing the independence of the independent auditors;

reviewing actions by management on recommendations of the independent auditors and internal auditors;

meeting with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors to review the effectiveness of our system of internal control and internal audit procedures;

reviewing our earnings releases and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and reviewing reports of bank regulatory agencies and monitoring management's compliance with recommendations contained in those reports.

To promote independence of the audit function, the Audit Committee consults separately and jointly with the independent auditors, the internal auditors and management. The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which sets forth the committee's duties and responsibilities. The current charter of the Audit Committee is available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Mr. Lawson serves as Chair of the committee, which met four times in 2013. Upon his retirement, Ms. Ziegler will serve as Chair.

Risk Oversight Committee. In 2013, the Risk Oversight Committee consisted of directors Brownson, Corby, Gipple, Helling, Hultquist, Kilmer, Sorensen and Ziegler. The Risk Oversight Committee is charged with being the primary board committee to actively monitor and oversee the risk management process. Additional information regarding risk oversight and the committee's role is found on page 17 of this proxy statement. The committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Ms. Corby serves as Chair of the committee, which met four times during 2013.

Nomination and Governance Committee. In 2013, the Nomination and Governance Committee consisted of directors Brownson, Neuman, R. Peterson, Sorensen, Whitcher and Ziegler. Each of these directors is considered to be independent according to NASDAQ listing requirements. The primary purposes of the committee are to identify and recommend individuals to be presented to our stockholders for election or re-election to the board of directors and to review and monitor our policies, procedures and structure as they relate to corporate governance. We have adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines to assist our board in the exercise of its responsibilities, which are available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Additionally, the committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Mr. Brownson serves as Chair of the committee, which met four times during 2013.

Compensation Committee. In 2013, the Compensation Committee consisted of directors Brownson, Lawson, Neuman, R. Peterson, Whitcher, and Ziegler. Each of these directors is considered to be independent according to the NASDAQ listing requirements, outside as defined in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and a non-employee as defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The purpose of the committee is to determine the salary and bonus to be paid to Mr. Hultquist, our Chief Executive Officer, and our other named executive officers. The committee also reviews and recommends to the board for approval other incentive compensation and equity compensation plans for QCR Holdings. The members of the committee have reviewed, with the senior risk officer of QCR Holdings, the senior executive officer (CEO) compensation plans and have made all reasonable efforts to ensure that these plans do not encourage CEOs to take unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of QCR Holdings. They have also reviewed, with the senior risk officer of QCR Holdings, the employee compensation plans and have made reasonable efforts to limit any unnecessary risks these plans pose to QCR Holdings and to eliminate any features of these plans that would encourage the manipulation of reported earnings to enhance the compensation of any employee. The committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Mr. Whitcher serves as Chair of the committee, which met five times during 2013.

Strategic Direction Committee. In 2013, the Strategic Direction Committee consisted of directors Baird, Brownson, Corby, Gipple, Helling, Hultquist, Kilmer, Lawson, M. Peterson, Sorensen and Witcher, as well as John H. Harris, director of Quad City Bank and Trust, who serves on the committee in an advisory capacity. Following the annual meeting, Mr. Lawson will no longer serve on the committee. The Strategic Direction Committee reviews policies and oversees and directs the strategic planning process, including QCR Holdings' s Information Technology strategy. Mr. Baird serves as Chair of the committee, which met three times during 2013.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee consists of directors Baird, Brownson, Corby, Hultquist, Lawson and Witcher. The Executive Committee is authorized to act with the same authority as the board of directors between meetings of the board, subject to certain limitations set forth in the committee' s charter. Although this authority allows the board to act quickly on matters requiring urgency when the full board is not available to meet, it is not intended to supplant the authority of the full board. The committee' s responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.qcrh.com. Mr. Brownson serves as Chair of the committee, which met twice during 2013.

Consideration of Director Candidates

Director Nominations and Qualifications. For the 2014 annual meeting, the Nomination and Governance Committee nominated for re-election to the board four of the five incumbent directors, whose terms are set to expire in 2014. These nominations were further approved by the full board. John K. Lawson, a Class III director since 2000, was ineligible to stand for re-election due to the director age eligibility requirement, and accordingly, the committee did not re-nominate him for election at this year' s meeting. The committee decided not to seek a new nominee for the director position being vacated, but it will reevaluate the size of the board at future meetings. We did not receive any stockholder nominations for director for the 2014 annual meeting.

In carrying out its nominating function, the Nomination and Governance Committee has developed qualification criteria for initial board membership, and all potential nominees for election, including incumbent directors, board nominees and those stockholder nominees included in the proxy statement, are reviewed for the following attributes:

integrity and high ethical standards in the nominee' s professional life;

sufficient educational and professional experience, business experience or comparable service on other boards of directors to qualify the nominee for service to the specific board for which he or she is being considered;

evidence of leadership and sound judgment in the nominee' s professional life;

whether the nominee is well recognized in the community and has a demonstrated record of service to the community;

a willingness to abide by any published code of ethics for QCR Holdings; and a willingness and ability to devote sufficient time to carrying out the duties and responsibilities required of a board member.

The committee also evaluates potential nominees to determine if they have any conflicts of interest that may interfere with their ability to serve as effective board members, to determine if they meet QCR Holdings' s age eligibility requirements (a person who has reached age 72 before the date of the annual meeting is not eligible for election to the board) and to determine whether they are independent in accordance with NASDAQ requirements (to ensure that at least a majority of the directors will, at all times, be independent). While we do not have a separate diversity policy, the committee does consider the diversity of its directors and nominees in terms of knowledge, experience, skills, expertise, and other demographics which may contribute to the board. The committee has not, in the past, retained any third party to assist it in identifying candidates, but it has the authority to retain a third party firm or professional for the purpose of identifying candidates.

The committee identifies nominees by first evaluating the current members of the board willing to continue in service whose term is set to expire at the upcoming annual stockholder meeting to determine if those individuals satisfy the qualification criteria for continued membership on the board of directors. Prior to nominating an existing director for re-election to the board, the committee considers and reviews the following attributes with respect to each existing director:

board and committee attendance and performance;

length of board service;

experience, skills and contributions that the existing director brings to the board;

independence and any conflicts of interest; and any significant change in the existing director' s status, including the attributes considered for initial board membership.

Current members of the board who satisfy the qualification criteria described above and who are willing to continue in service are considered for re-nomination. If any member of the board does not wish to continue in service or if the committee or the board decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election, the committee would determine whether or not the position would be filled and, if so, would identify the desired skills and experience of a new nominee.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have a code of business conduct and ethics in place that applies to all of our directors and employees. The code sets forth the standard of ethics that we expect all of our directors and employees to follow, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. The code is posted on our website at www.qcrh.com. We have satisfied and intend to continue to satisfy the disclosure requirements under Item 5.05 of Form 8-K regarding any amendment to or waiver of the code with respect to our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and persons performing similar functions, by posting such information on our website.

Board Leadership Structure

Since January 1, 2007, we have kept the positions of Chair of the Board and Chief Executive Officer separate. Currently, Mr. Brownson holds the position of Chair of the Board, and Mr. Hultquist holds the position of Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Brownson is considered to be independent according to NASDAQ listing requirements.

While our bylaws do not require our Chair and Chief Executive Officer positions to be separate, the board believes that having separate positions and having an independent outside director serve as Chair is the appropriate leadership structure for QCR Holdings at this time and demonstrates our commitment to good corporate governance. Separating these positions allows our Chief Executive Officer to focus on our day-to-day business, while allowing the Chair to lead the board in its fundamental role of providing advice to and independent oversight of management. We believe that having an independent Chair eliminates the conflicts of interest that arise when the positions are held by one person. In addition, this leadership structure allows the board to more effectively monitor and evaluate the performance of our Chief Executive Officer.

To further enhance the role of the independent directors on our board and consistent with NASDAQ listing requirements, the board's independent directors regularly have the opportunity to meet without Messrs. Gipple, Helling or Hultquist in attendance. Mr. Brownson presides over these sessions.

The Board's Role in Risk Oversight

While management is responsible for the day-to-day management of risks QCR Holdings faces, oversight of our risk management is central to the role of the board. The Risk Oversight Committee is charged with the primary responsibility for overseeing QCR Holdings's risk management processes, including those relating to organizational, legal and compliance risk, on behalf of the board. The members of the Risk Oversight Committee discuss our risk assessment and risk management policies, provide oversight, and inquire about significant risks and exposures, if any, and the steps taken to monitor and minimize such risks.

In addition, other board committees have been assigned oversight responsibility for specific areas of risk and risk management, and each committee consider risks within their areas of responsibility. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring our financial reporting process and system of internal controls, including controls related to risk management. The Compensation Committee is chiefly responsible for compensation-related risks. The members of the Compensation Committee discuss and review the key business and other risks we face and the relationship of those risks to certain compensation arrangements. This review is intended to comply with the Securities and Exchange Commission requirement to assess risk related to compensation plans and requirements of financial institution regulatory agencies (each as more fully described in the Executive Compensation section of this proxy, beginning on page 19). The subsidiary banks' Loan Committees have primary responsibility for credit risk. Each of these committees receives regular reports from management regarding our risks and reports regularly to the Risk Oversight Committee or the full board concerning risk.

Share Ownership Guidelines

In order to better align the interests of our board members and management with the interests of our stockholders, our board of directors adopted share ownership guidelines in 2008. These share ownership guidelines were amended in December 2011 to revise the ownership holding requirements for non-employee directors.

Under these revised guidelines, non-employee directors of QCR Holdings are expected to achieve a share ownership level with a value equal to ten times the amount of each non-employee director's annual cash retainer (excluding compensation for committee service) or approximately 11,100 shares, within five years of initial election as a director, and maintain such ownership level so long as they serve in the position of director.

We also have share ownership guidelines for our executives, including our named executive officers. The stock ownership guidelines vary based upon position, and for each of our named executive officers the amount is 30,000 shares.

Currently, each QCR Holdings director and each named executive officer holds the requisite number of shares, and accordingly is compliant with the share ownership guidelines.

Stockholder Communications with the Board, Nomination and Proposal Procedures

General Communications with the Board. Stockholders may contact our board of directors by contacting Cathie S. Whiteside, Corporate Secretary, at QCR Holdings, Inc., 3551 7th Street, Moline, Illinois 61265 or (309) 743-7754. We may request additional information after receiving the notification for the purpose of determining the proposed nominee's eligibility to serve as a director. Stockholder proposals brought under this paragraph will not be included in our proxy statement.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee has overall responsibility for evaluating the compensation plans, policies and programs relating to the executive officers of QCR Holdings. The Compensation Committee relies on the input of management, particularly Mr. Hultquist, when carrying out its responsibilities in establishing executive compensation. Management provides the committee with evaluations as to employee performance, guidance on establishing performance targets and objectives and recommends salary levels and equity awards. The committee also consults with management on matters that are related to executive compensation and benefit plans where board or stockholder action is expected, including the adoption of new plans or the amendment of existing plans. No executive officer participates in any recommendation or decision regarding his or her own compensation.

The Compensation Committee's charter gives it the authority to hire outside consultants to further its objectives and responsibilities. During 2013, the Compensation Committee retained Pearl Meyer & Partners, LLC to provide services to the committee in connection with a review of the compensation paid or provided to QCR Holdings's named executive officers. Pearl Meyer & Partners, LLC does not provide any services, other than those performed at the direction of the Compensation Committee, to QCR Holdings. The committee's charter also gives it the ability to delegate its authority to subcommittees and employees to facilitate the operation and administration of compensation plans.

QCR Holdings maintains a comprehensive compensation program. The compensation program is designed to attract and retain key employees, motivate the key employees to achieve superior performance and reward them for doing so. The overall design of the compensation program strives to balance short- and long-term performance goals, with the ultimate goal being the increase of stockholder value over the long term. With respect to the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table, the compensation program includes the following: salary, annual cash incentive bonus, long-term incentive compensation (which is delivered primarily through equity awards) and other benefits and perquisites. The executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee.

Regulatory Impact on Compensation

As a publicly-traded financial institution, QCR Holdings must adhere to the requirements of various regulatory regimes in making compensation decisions.

Under its long-standing Interagency Guidelines Establishing Standards for Safety and Soundness, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) prohibits excessive compensation as an unsafe and unsound practice. While any such determination must take into account the facts and circumstances surrounding a particular institution, including its financial condition, in describing a framework within which to make a determination as to whether compensation is to be considered excessive, the FDIC has indicated that financial institutions should consider whether aggregate cash amounts paid, or noncash benefits provided, to employees are unreasonable or disproportionate to the services performed by an employee. The FDIC also encourages financial institutions to review an employee's compensation history and to consider internal pay equity, and, as appropriate, to consider benchmarking compensation to peer groups.

In addition to the Safety and Soundness standards, the Compensation Committee must also take into account the joint agency Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Policies. Various financial institution regulatory agencies worked together to issue the Guidance, which is intended to serve as a compliment to the Safety and Soundness standards. The Guidance sets forth a framework for assessing and mitigating risk associated with incentive compensation plans, programs and arrangements maintained by financial institutions. The Guidance is more narrow in scope than the Safety and Soundness standards because it applies only to senior executive officers and those other individuals who, either alone or as a group, could pose a material risk to an institution. With respect to such individuals, the Guidance is intended to focus an institution's attention on balanced risk-taking incentives, compatibility of incentives with effective controls and risk management, and a focus on general principles of strong corporate governance in establishing, reviewing and maintaining incentive compensation programs.

The Compensation Committee, with the assistance of its advisors and management, continues to monitor the status of compensation-related rules and regulations expected to be finalized or issued under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the Dodd-Frank Act). While the committee believes its own risk assessment procedures are effective, the committee is prepared to implement any additional steps that may be deemed necessary to fully comply with such rules and regulations when they finally become effective. The Compensation Committee does note, however, that the proposed risk assessment rules issued under the Dodd-Frank Act nearly mirror the Safety and Soundness standards and the framework of the Guidance. As such, the committee already adheres, in many respects, with the proposed rules and regulations under the Dodd-Frank Act.

Finally, in addition to the foregoing, as a publicly-traded corporation, QCR Holdings is also subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission rules regarding risk assessment. Those rules require a publicly-traded company to determine whether any of its existing incentive compensation plans, programs or arrangements create risks that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the company.

The Compensation Committee continues to believe in and practice a sensible approach to balancing risk-taking and rewarding reasonable, but not necessarily easily attainable, goals, and this has always been a component of its overall assessment of the compensation plans, programs and arrangements it has put in place for QCR Holdings's named executive officers. In this regard, the committee has regularly revisited the components of the frameworks set forth in the Safety and Soundness standards and the Guidance as an effective tool for conducting its own assessment of the balance between risk and reward built into QCR Holdings's compensation programs for its named executive officers. The committee believes there are adequate policies and procedures in place to balance and control any risk-taking that may be incentivized by the employee compensation plans. The Compensation Committee further believes that such policies and procedures will work to limit the risk that any employee would manipulate reporting earnings in an effort to enhance his or her compensation.

2013 Say-On-Pay

QCR Holdings successfully received 94.6% of votes cast in support of executive compensation during the 2013 annual stockholders meeting. QCR Holdings, the board and the Compensation Committee pay careful attention to communications received from stockholders regarding executive compensation, including the results of these non-binding advisory votes. The committee considered the results of the advisory vote, but not for specific 2013 compensation decisions. The committee believes that the vote reflects our stockholders' agreement with our compensation philosophy and the manner in which we compensate our named executive officers. The committee did not alter our compensation philosophy for 2013 as a result of the 2013 vote.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan. QCR Holdings adopted and stockholders approved the QCR Holdings Employee Stock Purchase Plan to be effective in 2003, and in May 2012, the stockholders approved the amended and restated plan. The plan is intended to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Code. The plan allows employees of QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries to purchase shares of common stock available under the plan. The purchase price is currently 90% of the lesser of the fair market value at the date of the grant or the investment date. The investment date is the date common stock is purchased after the end of each calendar quarter during an offering period. Beginning January 1, 2007, the maximum percentage that any one participant can elect to contribute is 8% of his or her compensation. During 2013, 27,077 shares were purchased under the plan.

QCR Holdings 401(k)/Profit Sharing Plan. QCR Holdings sponsors a tax-qualified profit sharing plan qualifying under Section 401(k) of the Code. All employees are eligible to participate in the plan. Pursuant to the 401(k) Plan, QCR Holdings matches 100% of the first 3% of employee contributions and 50% of the next 3% of employee contributions, up to a maximum of 4.5% of an employee's compensation. Additionally, at its discretion, QCR Holdings may make additional contributions to the 401(k) Plan, which are allocated to the accounts of participants based on relative compensation. The total contributions under the 401(k) Plan for the benefit of our named executive officers are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table beginning on page 21 of this proxy statement.

Non-qualified Supplemental Executive Retirement Program. QCR Holdings provides SERP benefits to its key executives, which will provide supplemental retirement income to the named executive officers. The Compensation Committee believes that the SERP arrangements are an important, common component of competitive compensation packages. Each SERP includes retention and non-competition provisions that protects QCR Holdings and helps support the objective of maintaining a stable, committed, and qualified team of key executives.

QCR Holdings currently has SERP arrangements in place for Messrs. Hultquist, Gipple, and Helling. The SERP arrangements were approved by QCR Holdings in April 2004, and have an effective date of May 2004. Under the agreements, the executives will receive a supplemental retirement benefit in an annual pre-tax amount equal to 2.5% for each year of full-time service until the executive reaches age 65 (not to exceed 40 years), multiplied by the executive's average annual base salary plus cash bonus for the three most recently completed plan years, subject to a maximum of 70%.

The supplemental retirement benefit will be reduced by any contributions plus earnings thereon made by QCR Holdings to the credit of the executive pursuant to the 401(k) Plan or other deferred compensation plans. The supplemental retirement benefit payable under the plans will generally be made in monthly installments for a period of 180 months. If an executive retires after reaching age 55 (but before reaching age 65) and has at least 10 years of service, QCR Holdings will pay a supplemental early retirement benefit made in monthly installments for a period of 180 months to the executive. The SERP arrangements also provide for the payment of a survivor's benefit payable to a participating executive's beneficiary upon the executive's death.

Pursuant to the existing SERP arrangements, assuming the participating executives retire on or after reaching age 55 and based on the participants' salary and cash bonus paid for 2013, we will owe the following projected annual amounts at age 55 or retirement age, whichever comes later: Mr. Hultquist $120,377; Mr. Gipple $103,680; Mr. Helling $51,608.

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan Agreements. QCR Holdings has entered into deferred compensation plan agreements with the named executive officers to allow them to defer a portion of their salary or annual bonus. These plans are voluntary, non-tax qualified, deferred compensation plans that enable the executives to save for retirement by deferring a portion of their current cash compensation. QCR Holdings matches these deferrals up to certain maximums and interest is earned at the prime rate subject to certain floor and cap rates, as follows:

Executive	Deferred Compensation Plan Agreements
	2013 Contribution	2013 Match Maximum	Interest Rate Floor and Cap
Douglas M. Hultquist	$ 20,000	$ 20,000	8.00% 10.00%
Todd A. Gipple	$ 15,000	$ 15,000	6.00% 12.00%
Larry J. Helling	$ 15,000	$ 15,000	8.00% 12.00%

Both the SERP and the non-qualified deferred compensation plan agreements are considered unfunded general contractual obligations of QCR Holdings and are subject to the claims of our creditors. In the event that QCR Holdings becomes insolvent, the participants will be unsecured general creditors of QCR Holdings. This status with respect to these benefits should help insure that the interests of the officer participants are aligned with the long-term interests of QCR Holdings, its debt holders, and its stockholders.

Deferred Income Plans. QCR Holdings adopted and stockholders approved the 1997 Deferred Income Plan and 2005 Deferred Income Plan to enable directors and selected key officers of QCR Holdings and its related companies, to elect to defer all or a portion of the fees and cash compensation payable to them for their service as directors or employees. The plan then purchases shares of QCR Holdings common stock at market value.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2013, the Compensation Committee, which sets the salaries and compensation for our executive officers, was comprised solely of independent directors Brownson, Lawson, R. Peterson, Witcher and Ziegler. None of these individuals was an officer or employee of QCR Holdings in 2013, and none of these individuals is a former officer or employee of QCR Holdings. In addition, during 2013, no executive officer of QCR Holdings served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other corporation with respect to which any member of the Compensation Committee was engaged as an executive officer.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

QCR Holdings uses a combination of cash and stock-based compensation to attract and retain qualified candidates to serve on the board. In setting director compensation, we consider the significant amount of time that directors expend in fulfilling their duties as well as the skill level required of members of the board.

Cash Compensation Paid to Board Members

In 2013, members of the board who were not employees of QCR Holdings were entitled to receive an annual cash retainer. Pursuant to the QCR Holdings, Inc. 1997 Deferred Income Plan and the 2005 Deferred Income Plan, a director may elect to defer the fees and cash compensation payable by us for the director's service until either the termination of such director's service on the board or the age specified in the director's deferral election. During 2013, all but five directors (at the subsidiary banks) deferred 100% of their director fees pursuant to the plan, and the total expense for the deferred fees with respect to all participating directors was $455,325 for 2013. Directors who are employees of QCR Holdings receive no compensation for their service as directors. The following table shows the director fees approved for 2014 and the fees paid for 2013 for QCR Holdings and our other affiliated boards.

PROPOSAL 3:

ADVISORY (NON-BINDING) VOTE TO APPROVE EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Section 14A of the Exchange Act, as created by Section 951 of the Dodd-Frank Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, require publicly traded companies, such as QCR Holdings, to conduct a separate stockholder advisory vote to approve the compensation of certain executive officers, as disclosed pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission compensation disclosure rules, commonly referred to as a say-on-pay vote.

In accordance with these requirements, we are providing stockholders with an advisory vote on the compensation of our named executive officers. We currently hold a say-on-pay vote annually.

The overall objectives of QCR Holdings' compensation programs have been to align executive officer compensation with the success of meeting long-term strategic operating and financial goals. Stockholders are urged to read the Executive Compensation section of this proxy statement, including the Summary Compensation Table and other related compensation tables and narrative disclosure that describe the compensation of our named executive officers in 2013. The Compensation Committee and the board of directors believe that the policies and procedures articulated in the Executive Compensation section are effective in implementing our compensation philosophy and achieving its goals, and that the compensation of our named executive officers in fiscal 2013 reflects and supports these compensation policies and procedures.

The following resolution is submitted for stockholder approval:

RESOLVED, that QCR Holdings' stockholders approve, on an advisory basis, its executive compensation as described in the section captioned Executive Compensation contained in the QCR Holdings proxy statement dated March 31, 2014.

Approval of this resolution requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting. While this say-on-pay vote is required, as provided in Section 14A of the Exchange Act, it is not binding on our board of directors and may not be construed as overruling any decision by the board. However, the Compensation Committee will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future compensation arrangements.

The board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the overall compensation of our named executive officers by voting FOR this proposal.

PROPOSAL 4:RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC*ACCOUNTING FIRM

McGladrey LLP has served as our independent registered public accounting firm since June 1994, and our Audit Committee has selected McGladrey LLP to be our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2014.

Although we are not required to do so, our board of directors recommends that the stockholders ratify the appointment. A representative of McGladrey LLP is expected to attend the meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions and to make a statement if he or she so desires. If the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm is not ratified, the Audit Committee of the board of directors will reconsider the matter of the appointment. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the ratification of this appointment by voting FOR this proposal.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires that the directors, executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the exchange on which the shares of common stock are traded. These persons are also required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms furnished to us, and, if appropriate, representations made to us by any reporting person concerning whether a Form 5 was required to be filed for 2013, we are not aware of any failures to comply with the filing requirements of Section 16(a) during 2013, with the exception that Ms. Whiteside's Form 3 was filed late in December 2013.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS

Our directors and officers and their associates were customers of and had transactions with QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries during 2013. Additional transactions are expected to take place in the future. All outstanding loans, commitments to loan, and certificates of deposit and depository relationships, in the opinion of management, were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with persons not related to the lenders and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. All such loans are approved by the subsidiary banks' board of directors in accordance with applicable bank regulatory requirements. Additionally, the Audit Committee considers any other non-lending transactions between us and a director to ensure that such transactions do not affect a director's independence.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee assists the board of directors in carrying out its oversight responsibilities for our financial reporting process, audit process and internal controls. The Audit Committee also reviews the audited financial statements and recommends to the board that they be included in our annual report on Form 10-K. The committee is comprised solely of independent directors.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed our audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013 with McGladrey LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm, and management. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with McGladrey LLP those matters required to be discussed under generally accepted auditing standards, including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90 and as currently in effect, as well as having received and discussed the written disclosures and the letter from McGladrey LLP regarding their independence as required by the PCAOB. Based on the review and discussions with management and McGladrey LLP, the committee recommended to the board that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2013 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
