Un-carrier Customers #GetThanked with

T-Mobile Stock, T-Mobile Tuesdays & More

Un-carrier 11, a history-making move dedicated exclusively to saying thank you to customers, offers T-Mobile customers ownership in the company, free stuff every week, and free in-flight Wi-Fi

Bellevue, Washington June 6, 2016 In a nationwide simulcast to millions of Un-carrier customers today via the web and social media, T-Mobile (NASDAQ: TMUS) president and CEO John Legere unveiled the company's eleventh iconic Un-carrier move #GetThanked, a set of initiatives dedicated exclusively to thanking T-Mobile customers.

In another unprecedented first, Legere introduced Stock Up, a first-of-its kind program that could turn millions of T-Mobile customers into T-Mobile owners something no other publicly traded company has done before. The Un-carrier is offering a FULL share of T-Mobile US (TMUS) common stock to millions of existing and new customers. And customers can grow their ownership up to 100 shares a year by doing what they're already doing recommending T-Mobile.

In addition, the Un-carrier announced T-Mobile Tuesdays, a new app that thanks T-Mobile customers with free stuff and epic prizes, every Tuesday. T-Mobile has partnered with some of the best and coolest brands to thank its customers every single week, including Gilt, Domino's, StubHub, Wendy's, VUDU, Fandango, Legendary Pictures and Universal Pictures, Lyft and more with new gifts and more partners unveiled every Tuesday.

Get ready for a gratitude adjustment, America! This Un-carrier move is all about giving you a good thanking! No strings. No gotchas. Just thank you for being a customer! said John Legere, president and CEO of T-Mobile. At T-Mobile, we already wake up every day working for our customers so I've decided to make it official and turn T-Mobile customers into T-Mobile owners by offering them stock. And we're thanking customers every week with cool stuff from brands people love. For free. Every Tuesday!

T-Mobile's also thanking customers with a full free hour of Gogo Wi-Fi on your smartphone on EVERY Gogo-equipped domestic flight for all T-Mobile customers. That's two-thirds (67%) of all connected domestic planes and millions of flights a year. Of course, texting on Gogo is still free for Un-carrier customers for the entire flight but T-Mobile's beefing it up with free in-flight messaging on iMessage, Google Hangouts, WhatsApp and Viber.

Most corporations say thank you with rewards and loyalty schemes that are not much more than thinly veiled attempts to manipulate customers into forking over more of their hard-earned cash. 7 in 10 (72%) people see through it and agree loyalty programs exist to squeeze more money out of them. That's why 90% of comments about loyalty programs in social media are negative and why customers don't bother to use well over half (58%) of the programs they're on.

T-Mobile is turning all that on its head by saying "thank you" to customers and asking nothing in return. With Stock Up and T-Mobile Tuesdays, you don't have to spend more, stay longer, collect points, or qualify for special, elite tiers to be thanked for being a customer. Un-carrier 11 is about T-Mobile showing its loyalty to customers not the other way around.

Stock Up like a boss - up to 100 shares of T-Mobile stock

With this history-making move, T-Mobile wants to turn millions of its existing customers into shareholders, starting with everyone who is the primary contact on their eligible postpaid consumer smartphone account. And, tomorrow, new T-Mobile Simple Choice customers who switch to the Un-carrier will also automatically qualify for a full, free share of T-Mobile US stock when they open a new postpaid consumer smartphone account. Now, T-Mobile customers can share in the future of the company.

Beyond the initial share, customers can stock up and up and up just by doing what they already do recommend T-Mobile. T-Mobile customers are the #1 most satisfied overall in wireless and nearly three-quarters (71%) of them already say they'd recommend the Un-carrier. And 69% of customers say recommendations were the deciding factor in choosing T-Mobile. Starting tomorrow, T-Mobile is thanking these advocates by giving them another full share up to 100 shares a year of T-Mobile US stock for every primary account holder who takes their recommendation and switches to the Un-carrier. That's roughly $4,200 in just one year, based on the current share price!

As a special thank you to its most loyal customers, T-Mobile is giving those who've been with the Un-carrier for five or more years TWO full shares of T-Mobile stock for each recommendation until 2017.

For me, there's no higher praise than hearing a customer say they recommend T-Mobile to family and friends, so we wanted to get this right, said Legere. And, what better way to thank you than sharing in the future of our company?! Now, T-Mobile customers own the place!

It costs nothing to get your shares or set up an account with T-Mobile's brokerage partner, LOYAL3, and there are absolutely no fees to get or sell your share this year and no fee to maintain your account as long as you're an active customer. Your T-Mobile stock is completely free. It's yours to do with what you want you can hold on to it or sell it and pocket the cash whenever you choose.

Existing customers can claim their T-Mobile stock starting tomorrow, June 7, through June 21 in the T-Mobile Tuesdays app, and customers can learn more about growing their ownership when they recommend T-Mobile at www.t-mobile.com/StockUp.

Which means T-Mobile customers can carry out a FREE medium two-topping Domino's pizza, FREE small Wendy's Frosty and FREE movie rental from VUDU, Walmart's video on-demand service. And they can do it again next Tuesday. And the one after that. You get the idea.

Each week, customers can count on T-Mobile Tuesdays to thank them with recurring gifts, a surprise gift from a new partner and a chance to win something epic. Of course, the Un-carrier will keep changing up the menu to keep your Tuesdays fresh, fun and full of gratitude with more partners like American Giant, Buffalo Wild Wings, Condé Nast, Fanatics, Fandango, Gilt, HotelTonight, JackThreads, Legendary Pictures and Universal Pictures, Lyft, Major League Baseball, MGM Resorts International, Samsung Electronics America, Inc., Shell, StubHub, The Clymb, The Grommet and Warner Brothers. To see a calendar of possible prizes through June, check out newsroom.t-mobile.com/news-and-blogs/un-carrier-11.

T-Mobile has made it incredibly simple and easy for you to get these Thank You gifts through the free T-Mobile Tuesday mobile app. Just download the app and punch in your phone number, and you're good to go. The app will even remind you when you have free stuff waiting. T-Mobile Tuesdays is open to all monthly postpaid, prepaid and business T-Mobile customers. And remember if you don't get your Thank You gifts this Tuesday, you can always get them next Tuesday.

To download the T-Mobile Tuesdays app and #GetThanked, visit the App Store or Google Play. And, customers who gloat about their gifts in social media can #GetThanked even more. When customers share pics of their T-Mobile Tuesday gifts using #GetThanked, the Un-carrier will plus up some of them in a big way with extra Warcraft tickets, a blowout Domino's party, free Lyft rides all month long and more.

#GetThanked at 30,000 Feet

T-Mobile customers can already text away at 30,000 feet on every Gogo-equipped domestic flight all flight long. Since this game-changer launched in September 2014, millions of T-Mobile customers have sent in-flight texts all absolutely free.

Now, the Un-carrier's taking it one giant step further. Starting June 13, all T-Mobile customers can #GetThanked with a free full hour of Wi-Fi on their smartphones to surf, email, and post to their hearts' content. And it works on all Gogo-equipped domestic flights that's 4 million flights a year for all T-Mobile customers!

T-Mobile and Gogo are also lighting up iMessage, Google Hangouts, WhatsApp and Viber so customers can use their favorite messaging apps to stay connected in addition to SMS texting at 30,000 feet. That's right. Free messaging and texting, plus a free hour of Gogo Wi-Fi on your smartphone, all in mid-air and all courtesy the Un-Carrier.
