Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 14, 2016, the board of directors (the Board) of Dicerna Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), elected Martin Freed as a director of the Company, whose initial term will expire at the Company's 2017 annual meeting of stockholders. The Board has determined that Mr. Freed is an independent director as that term is defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. The Board has not yet determined on which board committees Mr. Freed will serve.

Martin Freed, M.D. has served as an independent consultant to several private pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and healthcare companies, specializing in clinical and general pharmaceutical development and clinical and regulatory strategy since February 2015. Dr. Freed was a co-founder and served as Chief Medical Officer of Civitas Therapeutics, Inc. from December 2010 to October 2014 (acquired by Acorda Therapeutics, Inc., or Acorda) and as senior vice president, clinical development of Acorda from October 2014 through January 2015. From December 2009 through December 2010, Dr. Freed served as acting Chief Medical Officer of Avila Therapeutics Inc. From May 2009 through February 2010, Dr. Freed served as a consultant and acting Chief Medical Officer to Taligen Therapeutics, or Taligen, relating to clinical development, including strategic and operational planning and execution. Prior to consulting for Taligen, Dr. Freed served as Chief Medical Officer of Adnexus Therapeutics Inc. (acquired by Bristol-Myers Squibb) from June 2007 to September 2008, where he provided executive and medical leadership for clinical pharmacology and development strategy, and as Chief Medical Officer of Vitae Pharmaceuticals, Inc., or Vitae, from April 2005 to January 2007, where he led aspects of preclinical and clinical development and defined the strategic direction of the company, representing clinical and regulatory functions and the building of external relations. Before Vitae, he spent nearly 14 years at GlaxoSmithKline and its predecessor, SmithKline Beecham Pharmaceuticals, or SmithKline Beecham, where he served numerous roles including Vice President, clinical development and medical affairs in the metabolism therapeutic area. Dr. Freed served as an independent board director of InteKrin Therapeutics from 2007 through 2010. Dr. Freed has authored over 100 publications or presentations. Dr. Freed has been Board Certified in Internal Medicine, Nephrology and Clinical Pharmacology. He performed his internal medicine residency at Temple University Hospital and nephrology fellowship at Yale-New Haven Hospital. A Fellow of the American College of Physicians, Dr. Freed received his B.S. with Distinction in Biology from the University of Delaware and M.D. from Pennsylvania State University's College of Medicine.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Freed and any other persons, pursuant to which he was selected as a director. There are no current or proposed transactions between the Company and Mr. Freed or his immediate family members that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC.

Mr. Freed is entitled to receive compensation and participate in the Company's director compensation program applicable to all of the Company's non-employee directors as described in the Company's definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed by the Company with the SEC on April 29, 2016. In accordance with such program, as of the date of his appointment, Mr. Freed is eligible to receive an annual cash retainer of $35,000 for serving on the Board and to be granted a stock option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock of the Company. Except as set forth above, there is no other material Company plan, contract or arrangement in which Mr. Freed will participate in connection with his appointment.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders
