UNDERWRITING

Under the terms and subject to the conditions contained in an underwriting agreement dated August 3, 2016, the Selling Shareholder will sell to the Underwriters the following respective numbers of common shares:

Underwriter	Number of Shares
J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and J.P. Morgan Securities Canada Inc.	4,920,444
Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and Credit Suisse Securities (Canada) LLC	2,460,223
Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Merrill Lynch Canada Inc.	2,460,223
Total	9,840,890

The Underwriters may offer the common shares from time to time for sale in one or more negotiated transactions at prevailing market prices on the NYSE or the TSX, in the over-the-counter market, through negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at negotiated prices.

The Underwriters are purchasing the common shares from the Selling Shareholder at a price of US$141.68 per share (representing approximately US$1.39 billion aggregate proceeds to the Selling Shareholder, before deducting expenses). The Selling Shareholder will pay all of its and the Corporation's expenses of the offering.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the underwriting agreement are several and neither joint nor joint and several and may be terminated at their discretion upon the occurrence of certain stated events including, but not limited to: (a) any actual, anticipated, contemplated or threatened change in the business, affairs, operations, assets, liabilities, capital or ownership of the Corporation or its subsidiaries, or the Underwriters determining that there exists any fact or circumstance which existed prior to the execution of the underwriting agreement and had not been disclosed prior to the execution of such agreement, in either case which would, in the opinion of the Underwriters, be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the common shares or to result in purchasers of a material number of the common shares exercising their right under Canadian securities laws to withdraw from or rescind their purchase thereof or sue for damages in respect thereof; and (b) any event, action, state, condition or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law or regulation which materially adversely affects or involves, or will materially adversely affect or involve, the financial markets in Canada or the United States or the business, operations or affairs of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole. If an Underwriter fails or refuses to purchase the common shares of the Corporation which it has agreed to purchase, the Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase such common shares, on a pro rata basis, provided that, if the aggregate number of common shares not purchased is less than or equal to 10% of the aggregate number of shares agreed to be purchased by the Underwriters, then each of the other Underwriters shall be obligated to purchase severally the common shares not taken up on a pro rata basis or as they may otherwise agree as between themselves. The underwriting agreement provides that the Underwriters are obligated to purchase all the common shares if any are purchased.

The Corporation and the Selling Shareholder have agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their respective affiliates and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, agents and employees against liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or contribute to payments that the Underwriters may be required to make in that respect.

The common shares are listed on the NYSE and the TSX under the symbol CP.

The common shares will be offered concurrently in the United States by the U.S. Underwriters and in Canada by the Canadian Underwriters. The common shares are being offered in U.S. dollars.

The Corporation has agreed, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that it will not, without the prior written consent of the Underwriters, directly or indirectly, offer, sell or issue for sale or resale, as the case may be, or publicly announce the issue or sale or intended issue or sale of, any common shares, or financial instruments or securities convertible or exchangeable into common shares, or publicly announce its intention to do so or file a prospectus or registration statement with a securities commission or securities regulatory authority in Canada or the SEC in respect thereof, except pursuant to: (i) the Corporation's management stock option incentive plan, (ii) the Corporation's directors' stock option plan, (iii) the Corporation's shareholder rights plan and (iv) any stock option plan established solely for the purpose of granting stock option awards to any new executive officers of the Corporation, provided that the stock option awards granted to any such new executive officers do not vest and shall not be exercised within 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement.

The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to have its executive officers and directors agree, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that they will not offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any common shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any common shares, enter into a transaction that would have the same effect, or enter into any swap, hedge or other arrangement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our common shares, whether any of these transactions are to be settled by delivery of our common shares or other securities, in cash or otherwise, or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge or disposition, or to enter into any transaction, swap, hedge or other arrangement, without, in each case, the prior written consent of the Underwriters. In addition, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, the Corporation's executive officers and directors will not make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any common shares or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for any common shares.

In connection with the offering the Underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, over-allotment transactions and syndicate covering transactions.

Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Over-allotment involves sales by the Underwriters of shares in excess of the number of shares the Underwriters are obligated to purchase, which creates a syndicate short position.

Syndicate covering transactions involve purchases of the common shares in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover syndicate short positions.

These stabilizing transactions, over-allotment transactions and syndicate covering transactions may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common shares or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common shares. As a result the price of our common shares may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected on the NYSE and on the TSX or otherwise and if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Underwriters are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The Underwriters and their affiliates have in the past performed, or may in the future perform, commercial banking, investment banking and/or advisory services for the Corporation from time to time for which they have received or will receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Underwriters and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (which may include bank loans and/or credit default swaps) for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investment and securities activities may involve the Corporation's securities and instruments.

Selling Restrictions

European Economic Area

In relation to each member state of the European Economic Area, no offer of common shares which are the subject of the offering has been, or will be made to the public in that Member State, other than under the following exemptions under the Prospectus Directive:

- A. to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- B. to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Underwriters for any such offer; or
- C. in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of common shares referred to in (a) to (c) above shall result in a requirement for the Corporation or any Underwriter to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive, or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

Each person located in a Member State to whom any offer of common shares is made or who receives any communication in respect of any offer of ordinary shares, or who initially acquires any common shares will be deemed to have represented, warranted, acknowledged and agreed to and with each Underwriter and the Corporation that (1) it is a qualified investor within the meaning of the law in that Member State implementing Article 2(1)(e) of the Prospectus Directive; and (2) in the case of any common shares acquired by it as a financial intermediary as that term is used in Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, the common shares acquired by it in the offer have not been acquired on behalf of, nor have they been acquired with a view to their offer or resale to, persons in any Member State other than qualified investors, as that term is defined in the Prospectus Directive, or in circumstances in which the prior consent of the Underwriters has been given to the offer or resale; or where common shares have been acquired by it on behalf of persons in any Member State other than qualified investors, the offer of those common shares to it is not treated under the Prospectus Directive as having been made to such persons.

The Corporation, the Underwriters, the Selling Shareholder and their respective affiliates will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing representations, acknowledgments and agreements.

This prospectus supplement has been prepared on the basis that any offer of common shares in any Member State will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of common shares. Accordingly any person making or intending to make an offer in that Member State of common shares which are the subject of the offering contemplated in this prospectus supplement may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Corporation or any of the Underwriters to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive in relation to such offer. Neither the Corporation nor the Underwriters have authorized, nor do they authorize, the making of any offer of common shares in circumstances in which an obligation arises for the Corporation or the Underwriters to publish a prospectus for such offer.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an offer of common shares to the public in relation to any common shares in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the common shares to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the common shares, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended) and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Member State.

The above selling restriction is in addition to any other selling restrictions set out below.

By its nature, CPRL's forward-looking information and forward-looking statements involve numerous assumptions, inherent risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the following factors: changes in business strategies; general North American and global economic, credit and business conditions; risks in agricultural production such as weather conditions and insect populations; the availability and price of energy commodities; the effects of competition and pricing pressures; industry capacity; shifts in market demand; inflation; changes in laws and regulations, including regulation of rates; changes in taxes and tax rates; potential increases in maintenance and operating costs; uncertainties of investigations, proceedings or other types of claims and litigation; labour disputes; risks and liabilities arising from derailments; transportation of dangerous goods; timing of completion of capital and maintenance projects; currency and interest rate fluctuations; effects of changes in market conditions on the financial position of pension plans and investments; and various events that could disrupt operations, including severe weather, droughts, floods, avalanches and earthquakes as well as security threats and the governmental response to them, and technological changes.

RISK FACTORS

Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider the risk factors set forth below and those described in the section captioned "Risk Factors" in any applicable prospectus supplement, as well as those set forth in documents CPRL incorporates by reference in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, including in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, filed on February 29, 2016, and in any updates to those Risk Factors in subsequent reports on Form 8-K CPRL incorporates by reference in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, together with all of the other information appearing in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement. Each of the risks described in these sections and documents could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Additional unknown risks and uncertainties, or those that CPRL deems immaterial, may also impair our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Additional Risks Related to the Securities

Fluctuation in the price and volume of our Common Shares may impact investors' ability to sell their shares at or above the offering price.

In recent years, securities markets have experienced considerable price and volume volatility, which may have been unrelated to the operating performance of CPRL or the affected companies. The market price of publicly traded stock is affected by many variables, including the strength of the economy generally, commodity prices, the availability and attractiveness of alternative investments and the breadth of the public market for the stock. The effect of these and other factors on the market price of securities on the stock exchanges on which we trade suggests that the trading price of our Common Shares may continue to be volatile. These fluctuations may affect the price of our Common Shares following an offering, and the market price of our Common Shares may drop below the offering price. As a result of this volatility, investors may not be able to sell their Common Shares at or above the offering price.

Future issuances of Securities may depress the price of our Common Shares or dilute existing shareholders.

Sales of a substantial number of Common Shares in the public market, or the perception that these sales could occur, may depress the market price for our Common Shares. These sales could also impair our ability to raise additional capital through the sale of our equity securities in the future. CPRL may issue additional Common Shares, Preferred Shares or securities convertible into Common Shares, which may dilute existing shareholders. In addition, under the new Registration Rights Agreement, the Selling Shareholder will have the ability to cause us to register Common Shares.

Investors may lose their entire investment.

An investment in the Securities is speculative and may result in the loss of an investor's entire investment. Only potential investors who are experienced in high risk investments and who can afford to lose their entire investment should consider an investment in the Securities.

Registration Rights Agreement

The following description of certain provisions of the registration rights agreement dated as of February 29, 2016 between CPRL and the Pershing Square Funds (the Registration Rights Agreement) is a summary only, is not comprehensive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement on Form S-3.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the Demand Registration Right) to require CPRL to qualify the distribution of up to 13,940,890 Common Shares held by the Pershing Square Funds in the aggregate as of the date of the Registration Rights Agreement, and any Common Shares or other securities of CPRL issued as a dividend, distribution, exchange, share split , recapitalization, or other corporate event in respect of such Common Shares (the Registrable Securities), by prospectus filed with the SEC and/or the securities commissions or other securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces and territories of Canada (a Demand Distribution). The Pershing Square Funds are entitled to request up to four Demand Distributions in respect of underwritten offerings. CPRL must use reasonable commercial efforts to assist the Pershing Square Funds in making a Demand Distribution, provided that each request for a Demand Distribution for an underwritten offering must relate to such number of Registrable Securities having an aggregate market price of at least US$150 million based on the average trading price of the Common Shares on the New York Stock Exchange over the prior 15 days.

In addition, the Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the Piggy-Back Registration Right), among others, to require CPRL to include Registrable Securities, in any future public distribution in the United States or Canada undertaken by CPRL (a Distribution). CPRL must use reasonable commercial efforts to cause to be included in the Distribution all of the Registrable Securities the Pershing Square Funds requests to be sold pursuant to the Piggy-Back Registration Right; provided, however, that if the Distribution involves an underwriting and the lead underwriter determines that the total number of Common Shares to be included in such Distribution should be limited for certain prescribed reasons, the Common Shares to be included in the Distribution will be first allocated to CPRL.

The Piggy-Back Registration Right and Demand Registration Right are subject to various conditions and limitations, and CPRL is entitled to defer any Demand Distribution in certain circumstances for a limited period.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that expenses relating to a Demand Distribution that would not have otherwise been incurred by CPRL shall be borne by the Pershing Square Funds and expenses relating to a Piggy-Back Distribution (or a Demand Distribution in which CPRL also offers its own securities) shall be allocated to the parties in proportion to the number of Common Shares sold, directly or indirectly, by such party as part of the distribution.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, CPRL is obliged to indemnify the Pershing Square Funds or any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement (other than in respect of any information provided by the Pershing Square Funds or the underwriters for inclusion in the prospectus). The Pershing Square Funds are obliged to indemnify CPRL and any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement arising from information furnished in writing by the Pershing Square Funds for inclusion in the prospectus. The Registration Rights Agreement (other than the indemnity provisions) will terminate upon the earlier of (i) upon the sale by the Pershing Square Funds, by distribution or otherwise, of all the Registrable Securities and (ii) such time when CPRL delivers a legal opinion to the Pershing Square Funds that the Pershing Square Funds may sell all of the Registrable Securities in a single transaction without being subject to certain limitations and notice requirements under applicable securities laws.

The Pershing Square Funds may also sell the Registrable Securities other than pursuant to this prospectus under available exemptions from the registration requirements of U.S. securities legislation. CPRL cannot predict when or in what amounts the Pershing Square Funds may sell any of the Registrable Securities qualified for distribution by this prospectus.

The holders of the Common Shares are entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by CPRL's Board of Directors out of the assets of CPRL properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of CPRL entitled to receive dividends in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, the Board of Directors may in its sole discretion declare dividends on the Common Shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of CPRL. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of CPRL or other distribution of assets of CPRL among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Common Shares will, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of CPRL entitled to receive the assets of CPRL upon such a distribution in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, be entitled to participate rateably in any distribution of the assets of CPRL.

On March 17, 2014, CPRL commenced a Normal Course Issuer Bid (NCIB) to purchase for cancellation up to 5,270,374 Common Shares. On September 29, 2014, CPRL announced an amendment of the NCIB to increase the maximum number of its Common Shares that could be purchased from 5,270,374 to 12,650,862 Common Shares. In total, CPRL repurchased 12,650,862 Common Shares at an average price of

First Preferred Shares

Subject to certain limitations, the Board of Directors of CPRL may, from time to time, issue First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series, its designation, number of shares and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The Board of Directors may not issue First Preferred Shares if by doing so the aggregate amount payable to the holders of such shares as a return of capital in the event of the liquidation or dissolution or winding up of CPRL or any other distribution of the assets of CPRL among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs would exceed $500,000,000. The First Preferred Shares are entitled to preference over the Common Shares, the Second Preferred Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets of CPRL in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of CPRL. Except with the consent in writing of all of the holders of First Preferred Shares which may be outstanding, no dividend can be declared and paid on or set apart for payment on the Second Preferred Shares or the Common Shares or on any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares unless and until all dividends (if any) up to and including any dividend payable for the last completed period for which such dividend is payable on each series of First Preferred Shares outstanding has been declared and paid or set apart for payment. Except as provided by the Canada Business Corporations Act, the holders of the First Preferred Shares will not have any voting rights nor will they be entitled to receive notice of or to attend shareholders' meetings.

Second Preferred Shares

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares are substantially identical to those attaching to the First Preferred Shares, except that the Second Preferred Shares are junior to the First Preferred Shares, and are entitled to preference over the Common Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of CPRL in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of CPRL or any other distribution of the assets of CPRL among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs.

Corporate Governance

General Overview

CPRL is incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"). Our corporation number is 395216-9.

The following is a summary of certain material provisions of (i) our Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles"), (ii) our by-laws (the "By-Laws"), (iii) our Corporate Governance Principles and Guidelines and (iv) certain provisions of the CBCA applicable to CPRL.

Objects and Purposes of the Corporation

Our Articles place no restrictions upon our objects and purposes.

Directors

Directors are elected annually by shareholders, each to hold office until the close of the next annual meeting of shareholders or until such person's successor is elected or appointed. Between shareholder meetings, the Board of Directors may appoint additional directors. Our Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of five and a maximum of 20 directors.

A director who is, in any way, directly or indirectly interested in a proposed contract or transaction, must disclose the nature and extent of his interest at a meeting of the directors in accordance with the provisions of the CBCA, and is required to disclose that interest to the CEO and the Chairman of the Board. A director must not participate in any discussions or vote in respect of any contract or transaction with CPRL in which he is interested, and any such proposed contract or transaction must be referred to the Board of Directors or shareholders for approval, even if such contract or transaction is one that in the ordinary course of the Corporation's business would not require approval by the Board of Directors or shareholders.

The remuneration of the directors may from time to time be determined by the directors themselves, acting upon the recommendation of the Corporation's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and such remuneration may be in addition to any reimbursement for travel and other expenses. Directors who are also officers of the Corporation shall not be entitled to receive any directors' fees or other compensation in respect of their duties as directors of the Corporation.

We have a Management Resources and Compensation Committee which is currently composed of three independent directors. The Management Resources and Compensation Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to compensation, including incentive stock options, of our executive officers.

To enhance the alignment of our directors' interests with those of our shareholders, non-employee directors are required to hold five times their annual retainer (currently $1,975,000 for the Chairman of the Board and $1,175,000 for all other non-employee directors) in shares/director deferred share units within five years of their initial election or appointment to the Board of Directors. This multiple was increased from three to five times by the Board of Directors, effective October 26, 2012. The share ownership requirement may alternatively be satisfied through an indirect interest in shares.

Pursuant to our By-Laws and subject to the provisions of the CBCA, our directors may: (a) borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation, (b) issue, reissue, sell or pledge debt obligations of the Corporation, (c) give a guarantee on behalf of the Corporation to secure performance of an obligation of any person, and (d) mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create a security interest in all or any property of the Corporation, owned or subsequently acquired, to secure any obligation of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, delegate the powers referred to in this section to a director, a committee of directors or an officer.

There are currently no provisions with respect to the retirement of a director or the non-retirement of a director under an age requirement.

Changes to Securities

Provisions as to the modification, amendment or variation of the rights attaching to the Common Shares, First Preferred Shares and Second Preferred Shares are contained in the CBCA. The CBCA requires approval by a special resolution (i.e. approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders of CPRL or signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution) of CPRL's shareholders in order to effect any of the following changes:

- (1) change any maximum number of shares that the Corporation is authorized to issue;

Meetings of Shareholders

Annual General Meetings

Under the CBCA, an Annual General Meeting (AGM) of shareholders must be held once every fiscal year, within 15 months of the previous AGM, but no later than six months after the end of the Corporation's preceding fiscal year. We must give our shareholders written notice of the time and place of the AGM not less than 21 days nor more than 50 days before the AGM is to be held. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of a meeting of shareholders, the directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for such determination, but such record date shall not proceed by more than 50 days or by less than 21 days the date on which the meeting is to be held.

Extraordinary General Meetings

Under our By-laws, our directors may, whenever they think fit, convene a meeting of shareholders, other than an annual meeting of shareholders, at any time.

Under the CBCA, shareholder meetings may also be called by one or more shareholders of the Corporation so long as such shareholders own not less than 5% of the issued and outstanding shares at the date such shareholders call a meeting of shareholders. After receiving such requisition, our directors must within 21 days call the meeting.

Persons Entitled to be Present

Pursuant to our By-laws, the only persons entitled to be present at a meeting of shareholders shall be those entitled to vote thereat, the directors, the President, the auditor of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under any provision of the CBCA, Articles or By-Laws to be present. Any other person may be admitted with the consent of the meeting or of the chairman of the meeting.

Rights to Own Securities

Share Transfers

There are no restrictions on transfers of our shares.

No Limitation on Foreign Ownership

There are no limitations on the rights of non-resident or foreign shareholders to hold or exercise voting rights.

Change in Control

There are no provisions in our Articles or By-Laws that would have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of the Corporation, and that would operate only with respect to a merger, acquisition or corporate restructuring involving the Corporation.

The CBCA does not contain any provisions that would have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of the Corporation.

Ownership Threshold

There are no provisions in our Articles, By-Laws or in the CBCA governing the threshold above which shareholder ownership must be disclosed.

Changes in the Capital of the Corporation

There are no conditions imposed by our By-Laws which are more stringent than those required by the CBCA.

Subscription Receipts

Subscription Receipts may be offered separately or together with Common Shares and/or other securities of CPRL, including Warrants. The Subscription Receipts will be issued under a subscription receipt agreement that will be entered into by CPRL and an escrow agent at the time of issuance of the Subscription Receipts.

A Subscription Receipt will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of CPRL, for no additional consideration, upon the completion of a particular transaction or event, typically an acquisition of the assets or securities of another entity by CPRL or one or more of its subsidiaries. The subscription proceeds from an offering of Subscription Receipts will be held in escrow by an escrow agent pending the completion of the transaction or the termination time (the time at which the escrow terminates regardless of whether the transaction or event has occurred). Holders of Subscription Receipts will receive Common Shares and/or other securities of CPRL upon the completion of the particular transaction or event or, if the transaction or event does not occur by the termination time, a return of the subscription funds for their Subscription Receipts together with any interest or other income earned thereon. Holders of Subscription Receipts are not shareholders of CPRL.

The particular terms and provisions of Subscriptions Receipts offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Subscription Receipts. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the number of Subscription Receipts offered; (ii) the price at which the Subscription Receipts will be offered; (iii) the terms, conditions and procedures pursuant to which the holders of Subscription Receipts will become entitled to receive Common Shares and/or other securities of CPRL; (iv) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of CPRL that may be obtained upon exercise of each Subscription Receipt; (v) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Subscription Receipts will be offered, if any, and the number of Subscription Receipts that will be offered with each such security; (vi) the terms relating to the holding and release of the gross proceeds from the sale of the Subscription Receipts plus any interest and income earned thereon; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Subscription Receipts; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Subscription Receipts including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Subscription Receipts will be listed on a stock exchange.

Warrants

Warrants will typically be offered with Common Shares, with such securities often referred to collectively as a Unit, but may be offered with Subscription Receipts or separately. The Warrants either will be issued under a warrant indenture or agreement that will be entered into by CPRL and a trustee at the time of issuance of the Warrants or will be represented by Warrant certificates issued by CPRL.

A Warrant will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of CPRL upon the exercise thereof and payment of the applicable exercise price. A Warrant will be exercisable for a specific period of time at the end of which time it will expire and cease to be exercisable. Holders of Warrants are not shareholders of CPRL.

The particular terms and provisions of Warrants offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Warrants. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the title or designation of the Warrants; (ii) the number of Warrants offered; (iii) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of CPRL purchasable upon exercise of the Warrants and the procedures for exercise; (iv) the exercise price of the Warrants; (v) the dates or periods during which the Warrants are exercisable and when they expire; (vi) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Warrants will be offered, if any, and the number of Warrants that will be offered with each such security; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Warrants; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Warrants including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Warrants will be listed on a stock exchange.

Units

Units are a security comprised of one or more of the other Securities described in this prospectus offered together as a Unit . A Unit is typically issued so that the holder thereof is also the holder of each Security included in the Unit. Thus, the holder of a Unit will have the rights and obligations of a holder of each Security comprising the Unit. The unit agreement under which a Unit is issued may provide that the Securities comprising the Unit may not be held or transferred separately at any time or at any time before a specified date.

The particular terms and provisions of Units offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Units. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the designation and terms of the Units and of the Securities comprising the Units, including whether and under what circumstances those Securities may be held or transferred separately; (ii) any provisions for the issuance, payment, settlement, transfer or exchange of the Units or of the Securities comprising the Units; (iii) whether the Units will be issued in fully registered or global form; and (iv) any other material terms and conditions of the Units.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

CPRL may sell Securities and the Selling Shareholder may sell Common Shares (i) to underwriters purchasing as principal; (ii) directly to one or more purchasers in accordance with applicable securities laws; or (iii) through agents. The Securities may be sold at fixed prices or non-fixed prices, such as prices determined by reference to the prevailing price of the Securities in a specified market, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers, which prices may vary as between purchasers and during the period of distribution of the Securities.

The prospectus supplement relating to each offering of Securities will set forth the terms of the offering of those Securities, including the name or names of any underwriters or agents, the purchase price of the Securities, the proceeds to CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder, any underwriters or agents fees or other compensation, any public offering price, and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid. Only underwriters or agents named in the relevant prospectus supplement are deemed to be underwriters or agents in connection with the Securities offered by that prospectus supplement.

If underwriters purchase Securities as principal, the Securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The obligations of the underwriters to purchase those Securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent, and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the Securities offered by the prospectus supplement if any of such Securities are purchased. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid may be changed from time to time.

The Securities may also be sold directly by CPRL, or in the case of Common Shares, the Selling Shareholder, at prices and upon terms agreed to by the purchaser and CPRL or purchaser and the Selling Shareholder or through agents designated by CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder from time to time. Any agent involved in the offering and sale of the Securities pursuant to a particular prospectus supplement will be named, and any commissions payable by CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder to that agent will be set forth, in such prospectus supplement. Unless otherwise indicated in the prospectus supplement, any agent would be acting on a reasonable commercial efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder may agree to pay the underwriters a commission for various services relating to the issue and sale of any Securities offered by this prospectus. Any such commission will be paid out of general funds. Underwriters, dealers and agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities may be entitled under agreements to be entered into with CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder to indemnification by CPRL and/or the Selling Shareholder against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act or to contribution with respect to payments which those underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make in respect thereof. Those underwriters, dealers and agents may be customers of, engage in transactions with or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business.

Any offering of First Preferred Shares, Second Preferred Shares, Subscription Receipts, Warrants or Units by CPRL will be a new issue of Securities with no established trading market. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, the First Preferred Shares, Second Preferred Shares, Subscription Receipts, Warrants or Units will not be listed on any stock exchange or on any automated dealer quotation system. Certain dealers may make a market in such Securities, but will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. No assurance can be given that any dealer will make a market in such Securities or as to the liquidity of the trading market, if any, for such Securities.

The prospectus supplement will set forth the intention of any underwriters or agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities to over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize the Securities price at a higher level than that which might exist in the open market. Such transactions may be commenced, interrupted or discontinued at any time.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe certain material United States federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of any Securities offered thereunder by an initial investor who is a United States person (within the meaning of the United States Internal Revenue Code).

The applicable prospectus supplement will also describe certain material Canadian federal income tax consequences to an investor who is a resident of Canada or who is a non-resident of Canada of acquiring, owning and disposing of any Securities offered thereunder, including, whether the payments of dividends or other distributions will be subject to Canadian non-resident withholding tax.
