QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: Why did I receive a one-page notice in the mail regarding the Internet availability of proxy materials instead of a full set of proxy materials?

A: In accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), instead of mailing a printed copy of our proxy materials to each stockholder of record, we are furnishing proxy materials, including this Proxy Statement and our 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K, by providing access to such documents on the Internet. Most stockholders will not receive printed copies of the proxy materials unless they request them. Instead, commencing on or about April 11, 2017, a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (the Notice) was sent to most of our stockholders that will instruct how you may access and review all of the proxy materials on the Internet. The Notice also instructs how you may submit your proxy on the Internet. If you would like to receive a paper or email copy of our proxy materials, please follow the instructions in the Notice for requesting such materials.

Q: What is a proxy statement?

A: A proxy statement is a document, such as this one, required by the SEC that, among other things, explains the items on which you are asked to vote on the proxy card.

Q: What will stockholders be asked to do at the Annual Meeting?

A: At the SHO 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting), our stockholders will be asked to:

elect the seven director nominees named in this Proxy Statement (see discussion beginning on page 9); approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers (who are described under Item 1 Executive Compensation 2016 Fiscal Year Summary Compensation Table in this Proxy Statement (see page 35));

ratify the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2017 (see discussion beginning on page 36); and consider any other business that may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting.

Q: What does it mean to vote by proxy?

A: It means that you give someone else the right to vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. In this way you ensure that your vote will be counted even if you are unable to attend the Annual Meeting. If you give your proxy but do not include specific instructions on how to vote, the individuals named as proxies will vote your shares as follows:

Edgar Filing: SEARS HOMETOWN & OUTLET STORES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

FOR the election of seven nominees for director;

FOR the approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation of our Named Executive Officers as described in this Proxy Statement;
and

FOR the ratification of the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2017.

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Only holders of our common stock at the close of business on April 4, 2017 (the Record Date) are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote. There were 22,716,132 shares of our common stock outstanding on the Record Date.

Table of Contents

Q: How do I cast my vote?

A: If you hold your shares directly in your own name you are a registered stockholder, and you can vote in person at the Annual Meeting or you can complete and submit a proxy through the Internet, by telephone, or by mail (if you received your proxy materials by mail). If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee you are a street-name stockholder, and you will receive instructions from your broker or other nominee describing how to vote your shares.

Q: How do I vote by telephone or through the Internet?

A: If you are a registered stockholder, you may vote by telephone or through the Internet following the instructions in the proxy card. If you are a street-name stockholder, your broker or other nominee will provide information for you to use in directing your broker or nominee how to vote your shares.

Q: Who will count the vote?

A: A representative of Broadridge Financial Services, Inc., an independent tabulator, will count the vote and act as the inspector of election.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have voted?

A: A subsequent vote by any means will change your prior vote. For example, if you voted by telephone, a subsequent Internet vote will change your vote. If you are a registered stockholder and wish to change your vote by mail, you may do so by requesting, in writing, a proxy card from the Company's Secretary at Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc., Law Department, 5500 Trillium Boulevard, Suite 501, E5-094B, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60192, Attn: General Counsel and Secretary. The last vote received prior to the Annual Meeting will be the one counted. If you are a registered stockholder, you may also change your vote by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Street-name stockholders wishing to change their votes after returning voting instructions to their broker or other nominee must contact the broker or nominee directly.

Q: Can I revoke a proxy?

A: Yes, registered stockholders may revoke a properly executed proxy at any time before it is exercised by submitting a letter addressed to, and received by, the Company's Secretary at the address listed in the answer to the previous question. Street-name stockholders cannot revoke their proxies in person at the Annual Meeting because the actual registered stockholders, the brokers or other nominees, will not be present.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one Notice, proxy, or voting instruction card?

A: It means your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account. For all Notices you receive, please enter your vote by Internet for each control number you have been assigned. If you received paper copies of proxy materials, please provide voting instructions for all proxy and voting instruction cards you receive. We encourage you to register all your accounts in the same name and address. Registered stockholders may contact our transfer agent Computershare Trust Company, N.A., P.O. Box 30202, College Station, TX 77842-9909 (1-888-679-2864). Street-name stockholders holding shares through a broker or other nominee should contact their broker or nominee and request consolidation of their accounts.

Q: What shares are included on my Notice?

A: Your Notice includes all shares registered to your account under the same social security number and address.

Q: What makes a quorum?

A: Each outstanding share of our common stock as of the Record Date is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting. A majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote being present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting constitutes a quorum. A quorum is necessary to conduct the Annual Meeting.

Q: How many votes are needed to approve each of the proposals?

A: Item 1: The director nominees will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares of common stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and present in person or represented by proxy. This means that the seven nominees who receive the most affirmative votes will be elected as directors.

Item 2: Advisory approval of the compensation of our Named Executive Officers requires the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Item 3: Ratification of the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm requires the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: In accordance with Delaware law, our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and our Amended and Restated Bylaws (Bylaws), all votes entitled to be cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter, whether those stockholders vote for, against, or abstain from voting, will be counted for purposes of determining the minimum number of affirmative votes required to (1) approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers and (2) ratify the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the 2017 fiscal year.

Q: What is the effect of an abstention?

A: The shares of a stockholder who abstains from voting on a matter will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting so long as the stockholder is present in person or represented by proxy. With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld, and votes that are withheld will have no effect. Abstentions may be specified on all other proposals. An abstention from voting on a matter by a stockholder present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting has the same legal effect as a vote against the proposals to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers and to ratify the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the 2017 fiscal year.

Q: How will votes be counted on shares held through brokers and other nominees?

A: If you are a street-name stockholder and do not provide your broker or other nominee with voting instructions, your shares may constitute broker non-votes. Generally, broker non-votes occur on a matter when a broker or other nominee is not permitted to vote on that matter without instructions from the beneficial owner and instructions are not given. Brokers and other nominees are not entitled to vote on the election of directors or the advisory proposal to approve the compensation of our Named Executive Officers unless the brokers or other nominees receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner. The shares of a stockholder whose shares are not voted because of a broker non-vote on a particular matter will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting so long as the stockholder is represented by proxy. In tabulating the voting result for any particular proposal, shares that constitute broker non-votes are not considered present and entitled to vote on that proposal. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any matter being voted on at the Annual Meeting, assuming that a quorum is obtained. Brokers and other nominees will be permitted to vote without voting instructions on the ratification of the appointment of BDO USA, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the 2017 fiscal year.

Q: Who may attend the Annual Meeting?

- A: All stockholders as of the Record Date may attend. Seating and parking are limited and admission is on a first-come basis. If you received a Notice and will not be requesting a printed copy of the proxy materials, please bring the Notice with you as your admission ticket. If you are a registered stockholder, an admission ticket is attached to your proxy card. Each stockholder may be asked to present valid picture identification (for example, a driver's license or a passport). If you are a street-name stockholder and you received printed copies of your proxy materials, you will need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement, proxy materials, or a letter from the broker or other nominee confirming ownership of SHO shares as of the Record Date.

Q: Can I access future annual meeting materials through the Internet rather than receiving them by mail?

A: Yes. Registered stockholders can sign up for electronic delivery at www.proxyvote.com. If you vote through the Internet, you can also sign up for electronic delivery. Just follow the instructions that appear after you finish voting. You will receive an e-mail next year containing the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the proxy statement for our 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Street-name stockholders may also have the opportunity to receive copies of these documents electronically. Please check the information provided in the proxy materials mailed to you by your broker or other nominee regarding the availability of this service. This procedure reduces the printing costs and fees we incur in connection with the solicitation of proxies.

Q: What is householding ?

A: SHO has adopted a procedure called householding, which has been approved by the SEC. Under this procedure, registered stockholders who have the same address and last name and do not receive proxy materials electronically will receive a single set of proxy materials, unless one or more of these stockholders notifies the Company that they wish to continue receiving individual copies. Stockholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards. This procedure can result in significant savings to SHO by reducing printing and postage costs.

If you participate in householding and wish to receive a separate Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials or set of proxy materials, or if you wish to receive separate copies of future Notices, annual reports, and proxy statements please contact Broadridge Financial Solutions at Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., Household Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, New York 11717 or 1-800-542-1061. The Company will deliver the requested documents to you promptly upon your request.

Registered stockholders who share the same address, currently receive multiple copies of proxy materials, and who wish to receive only one copy of these materials per household in the future may contact Broadridge Financial Solutions at the address or telephone number listed above. Street-name stockholders should contact their broker or other nominee to request information about householding.

Q: How do I revoke my consent to the householding program?

A: Registered stockholders who wish to discontinue their participation in the householding of Annual Reports on Form 10-K, proxy statements, and other disclosure documents may revoke their consent to the householding program by writing to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., Household Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, New York 11717. Registered stockholders may also revoke their consent by contacting SHO's householding agent toll free at 1-800-542-1061 and following the voice prompts. These stockholders will be removed from the householding program within 30 days of receipt of the revocation of consent.

A number of brokerage firms have instituted householding. Street-name stockholders should contact their broker or other nominee to request information about householding.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate Governance Practices

E.J. Bird, James F. Gooch, Josephine Linden, Kevin Longino, William K. Phelan, Will Powell, and David Robbins currently serve as the members of our Board of Directors. The Board is committed to effective corporate governance as a publicly traded company. To that end, the Board has approved and adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines and Board committee charters that provide the framework for SHOs governance and that are in compliance with the corporate governance requirements of the Stock Market Rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews and assesses the Corporate Governance Guidelines annually and recommends changes to the Board as appropriate. The Corporate Governance Guidelines, the charters of Board committees, our Code of Conduct, and our Board of Directors Code of Conduct, are available on our website at www.shos.com under the heading Governance. Among other things, the Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that:

A majority of the members of our Board must satisfy the independence standards of Nasdaq's Stock Market Rules.

Independent directors are to meet regularly, at least twice a year, in executive session without management present.

The Board and its committees have the power to engage, at the Company's expense, independent legal, financial, and other advisors as deemed necessary, without consulting or obtaining the approval of the Company's officers in advance.

The Board will conduct annual evaluations to assess whether it and its committees are functioning effectively.

The Company's Insider Trading Policies provide that Board members and the Company's employees are prohibited from (i) holding the Company's securities in a margin account or pledging the Company's securities as collateral for a loan and (ii) engaging in transactions in publicly traded options based on the Company's securities, such as puts, calls, and other derivative securities, on an exchange or in any other organized market.

The Company's Annual Incentive Plan and the Company's Long-Term Incentive Program provide that the Company will seek reimbursement from the Company's executive officers if the Company's financial statements or approved financial measures are subject to restatement due to error or misconduct, to the extent permitted by law. The Company's Annual Incentive Plan and the Company's Long-Term Incentive Program are included as exhibits to the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors analyzed the independence of each director. In the course of the Board's independence determinations the Board considered, among other things, relationships and arrangements required to be disclosed pursuant to SEC rules. As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that each of the directors except Mr. Powell meets the standards of independence with respect to Board membership under our Corporate Governance Guidelines and the applicable Nasdaq listing rules, including that each of the directors except Mr. Powell is free of any relationship that would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment.

The Board of Directors also determined that (1) all three members of the Compensation Committee (Messrs. Gooch and Phelan and Mrs. Linden) meet the independence criteria applicable to compensation committee members under the Nasdaq listing rules and (2) all four members of the Audit Committee (Messrs. Longino, Phelan, and Robbins and Mrs. Linden) meet additional, heightened independence criteria applicable to audit committee members under the Nasdaq listing rules.

Board Leadership Structure

We separate the roles of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. Our Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the day-to-day leadership and performance of the Company, while the Chairman of the Board provides guidance to our Chief Executive Officer and senior management and sets the agenda for, and presides over, Board meetings. In carrying out his responsibilities, the Chairman of the Board preserves the distinction between management and oversight, maintaining the responsibility of management to develop and execute corporate strategy and the responsibility of the Board to review and express its views on corporate strategy and management's execution of that strategy.

The Board's Role in Risk Oversight

Consistent with our leadership structure, our Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management are responsible for the identification, assessment, and management of risks that could affect the Company. The Board provides oversight in connection with these efforts. We do not believe that the Board's role in risk oversight has an effect on the Company's leadership structure. The Board's oversight is conducted primarily through committees of the Board, as indicated in the descriptions of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee below and in the charters of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee's charter provides that the Compensation Committee will evaluate whether the risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices for its employees would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company. While the Board has retained general responsibility for the oversight of risks, it has assigned to the Audit Committee responsibility for oversight of (a) risks associated with financial matters, particularly financial reporting, tax, accounting, disclosure, internal control over financial reporting, and credit and liquidity matters, (b) risks associated with all other elements of the Company's information systems, related operating systems, and computer equipment, network and data communications equipment, computer programs and support software, data storage devices, and media, including without limitation with respect to data security and privacy, and (c) the steps management has taken, and intends to take, to monitor and control such risks and exposures, including the Company's risk assessment and risk management policies and strategies and programs and policies relating to legal compliance. The Board will satisfy its risk-oversight responsibility through the monitoring of each committee's considerations and actions, as well as through regular reports directly from officers responsible for oversight of particular risks within the Company, including our Chief Financial Officer, our Director, Internal Audit, and our General Counsel, whom the Board has appointed as our Chief Compliance Officer.

Nomination of Director Candidates

Directors may be nominated by the Board or by stockholders in accordance with our Bylaws. If nominated by the Board, new director nominees will generally be recommended to the Board by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in accordance with the policies and principles in its charter. The ultimate responsibility for the selection of directors, however, resides with the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will, when it deems appropriate, actively seek individuals qualified to become Board members, and will solicit input on director candidates from a variety of sources, including current directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate a candidate's qualifications and review all proposed nominees for the Board of Directors, including those proposed by stockholders, in accordance with the Committee's Charter and our Corporate Governance Guidelines. This will include a review of the person's qualifications as well as consideration of diversity, skills, and experience in the context of the needs of the Board. While the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the ability to retain a third party to assist in the nomination process, the Company did not pay a fee to any third party to identify or assist in identifying or evaluating potential external nominees during our 2016 fiscal year (January 31, 2016 to January 28, 2017).

Director nominees recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will be expected to be committed to representing the long-term interests of our stockholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes that it is important to align the interests of directors with those of our stockholders. Board members should possess a high degree of integrity and have broad knowledge, experience, and mature judgment. In addition to a meaningful economic commitment to the Company as expressed in our stock ownership requirements, directors and nominees should have predominately business backgrounds, have experience at policy-making levels in business, and bring a varied set of business experiences, skills, and perspectives to the Board. While the Company does not have a formal diversity policy, the Board considers diversity in identifying director nominees. The Board and the Nominating and Governance Committee believe that it is important that our directors represent diverse viewpoints. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee discusses the diversity of the Board annually.

Stockholders may nominate a candidate for election to the Board by complying with the nomination procedures in our Bylaws. Subject to the next sentence, for an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders other than the Annual Meeting (the subject annual meeting), nomination by a stockholder must be made by notice in writing delivered to the Company not later than the 90th day, and not earlier than the 120th day, prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting. If the date of the subject annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than seventy 70 days after the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the stockholder must be delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to the subject annual meeting and not later than the 90th day prior to the subject annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the subject annual meeting is first made by the Company.

For an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders, the stockholder's notice in writing must be delivered to the Company not earlier than the 120th day prior to the special meeting and not later than the later of the 90th day prior to the special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at the special meeting.

A stockholder's written notice described in the preceding two paragraphs must be delivered to Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc., 5500 Trillium Boulevard, Suite 501, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60192, Attn: General Counsel and Secretary, and must include each of the following:

the name and address of the stockholder;

the name, age, and business address of each nominee proposed in the notice;

such other information concerning each nominee as must be disclosed with respect to director nominees in proxy solicitations under the proxy rules of the SEC; and the written consent of each nominee to serve as a director if so elected.

The chairman of the Annual Meeting or any other annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedures. A stockholder's compliance with these procedures will not require the Company to include information regarding a proposed nominee in the Company's proxy solicitation materials.

Board Meetings and Attendance

The Board met twelve times during our 2016 fiscal year. All of the directors attended at least 75% of the Board meetings and at least 75% of the meetings of the committees on which they served, except that Mr. Longino, due to a conflicting engagement to which he had committed prior to his election to the Board of Directors, was unable to attend the only meeting of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held during our 2016 fiscal year that followed his appointment to the Committee. Our Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that directors are expected to attend our annual meetings of stockholders. All of our directors serving at the time of our 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders attended the meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Introduction

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides information about our compensation objectives and philosophy, the components of our compensation program, and the reasons why we provide each component. We also discuss how we determine targeted compensation and the basis of our pay decisions for the Company's executive officers named in the 2016 Fiscal Year Summary Compensation Table in this Item 1 (the Named Executive Officers).

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, with recommendations from the Company's Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for determining the compensation of the executive officers and evaluating, approving, and administering the plans in which the executive officers and the Company's other associates participate. The members of the Compensation Committee during our 2016 fiscal year were James F. Gooch (Chair), Josephine Linden, and William K. Phelan. The Board determined that Messrs. Gooch and Phelan and Mrs. Linden each qualified as (1) an outside director within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (together, the Section 162(m) Rules) and (2) a non-employee director within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Executive Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The goals of the Company's compensation programs are to attract, motivate, and retain talented individuals who are committed to our vision, mission, and values. Our values, which we believe encourage individual and collective accountability and foster an environment of results and recognition, include independence, focus, efficiency, and collaboration, which the Company believes support its mission to provide great service to its customers every day while enhancing the Company's commitment to financial priorities and achieving long-term sustainable growth. SHO is further committed to increasing stockholder value through the efficient use of our assets. Our compensation programs for executive officers (including the Named Executive Officers) and the Company's other associates are designed to maintain these commitments and to encourage strong financial performance on an annual and long-term basis by using appropriate compensation structures and sound pay practices without creating undue stockholder risk. As executive officers assume greater responsibilities, generally larger portions of their total cash compensation opportunities would be designed to be dependent on Company performance.

The Compensation Committee believes that total annual compensation paid to executive officers should generally depend on SHO's financial performance, the level of job responsibility, individual performance, and SHO's need to attract top executive talent and retain key executives. The total compensation arrangements provided to executive officers may include annual and long-term programs that are designed to motivate and encourage executive officers to drive performance and achieve superior results for SHO and its stockholders. The Compensation Committee also believes that compensation should reflect the value of the job in the marketplace and believes that, in order to attract qualified external candidates and retain valuable executives, the Company must offer executive-compensation arrangements that include elements that candidates would view favorably when considering other employment opportunities that may reasonably be available to them. While the Compensation Committee's objective is to approve compensation and benefits arrangements that reflect a pay-for-performance compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee recognizes that the Company should be able to provide additional inducements, such as sign-on bonuses, retention awards, and other arrangements, in order to recruit, retain, and motivate highly qualified executives, but only if these arrangements have been designed to avoid undue risk to the Company and its stockholders. The Compensation Committee's charter provides that the Committee will evaluate whether the risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices for its employees would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company. The Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc. Annual Incentive Plan (the SHO Annual Incentive Plan) and the Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Program (the SHO LTI Program) provide that the Company will seek reimbursement from the Company's executive officers if the Company's financial statements or approved financial measures are subject to restatement due to error or misconduct, to the extent permitted by law.

Executive Compensation Highlights

Highlighted below are the key actions with respect to our executive compensation that were approved by the Compensation Committee during our 2016 fiscal year:

Adopted pursuant to the SHO Annual Incentive Plan, and determined cash-payout opportunities under, the Company's 2016 Annual Incentive Plan available to the Named Executive Officers and other eligible associates (the 2016 AIP), which was based on the Company's financial performance for our 2016 fiscal year.

Added SHO comparable store sales as a performance measure for the 2016 AIP.

Adopted pursuant to the SHO LTI Program the Company's 2016 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the 2016 LTIP), which for the Named Executive Officers is based on the achievement of sustained price growth of the Company's common stock.

Promoted Named Executive Officer Michael A. Gray to Senior Vice President, Store Operations, and granted to him a base salary increase.

Granted base salary increases to Will Powell, Chief Executive Officer and President, and David J. Buckley, Vice President, Marketing and E-Commerce.

Granted cash retention awards to Mr. Powell and Mr. Buckley. See Other Compensation Elements in this Item 1 for additional information regarding their cash retention awards.

Factors Affecting Compensation

In making compensation decisions, the Compensation Committee seeks to implement the Company's compensation philosophy and objectives. The Compensation Committee generally seeks input from our Chief Executive Officer when discussing the performance and compensation of the Company's other executive officers (including the Named Executive Officers). The Compensation Committee gives considerable weight to the Chief Executive Officer's evaluation of other executive officers because of his direct knowledge of each executive officer's performance and contributions. The Compensation Committee also considers recommendations from our Vice President, Human Resources regarding the form and amounts of compensation to be paid to other executives and our compensation program generally. The recommendations of the Vice President, Human Resources will reflect management's assessment of competition for talent, individual performance, tenure in position, internal pay equity (meaning the relative pay differences for different positions within the Company), the effect on our general and administrative expenses, and from time to time compensation and market data and other human resource and recruiting resources, which data, where appropriate, focuses on, or relates to, comparable positions and retail-specific organizations. We did not benchmark against a set list of competitors or a peer group in our 2016 fiscal year.

The Compensation Committee's charter provides that it has the sole authority (1) to retain and terminate any compensation consultant to be used to assist it in the evaluation of executive compensation and (2) to approve the consultant's fees and the other terms and conditions of the consultant's retention. During our 2016 fiscal year the Compensation Committee did not retain any independent compensation consultant to advise it regarding the amount and form Company's executive compensation program structure in supporting the Company's business strategies and human resources objectives. The Company's management retained AON Hewitt Consulting to estimate the fair value of awards potentially payable in accordance with 2016 LTIP for financial accounting and reporting purposes, which the Compensation Committee considered, in determining the long-term incentive component of executive compensation.

Table of Contents

In making decisions regarding executive compensation, the Compensation Committee also took into account the fact that more than 99% of the shares that voted on our proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the Named Executive Officers as disclosed in our 2016 proxy statement voted to approve our executive compensation program at our 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Compensation Committee believes that this stockholder vote supports the Compensation Committee's belief that our current executive compensation program has been effective in implementing our compensation philosophy and objectives. The Compensation Committee did not make any overall changes to the Company's executive compensation program in response to the 2016 stockholder vote. Nevertheless, the Compensation Committee recognizes that pay practices continue to evolve and as a result the Compensation Committee continues to refine our executive compensation practices in its ongoing effort to ensure that our executive compensation aligns with our compensation philosophy and objectives.

Executive Compensation Program: Key Elements

The key elements of our compensation program for our executive officers (including the Named Executive Officers) in our 2016 fiscal year include base salary and annual and long-term (three-year) incentive compensation opportunities. The annual nature of the annual AIP compensation opportunities seeks to focus attention on the key business drivers for a specified fiscal year and seeks to link the individual's performance to the Company's annual performance. Long-term compensation opportunities could include performance-based programs designed to drive long-term Company performance through effective long- and short-term decision making.

The following is a discussion of the key elements of compensation for our Named Executive Officers for our 2016 fiscal year.

Rewarding Short-Term Performance

Base Salary Base salary is the fixed element of each Named Executive Officer's cash compensation.

Annual Incentive The purpose of the SHO Annual Incentive Plan is to motivate the qualified participants, including the Named Executive Officers, to achieve financial performance goals for the applicable SHO fiscal year by making their cash incentive awards variable and dependent upon SHO's financial performance for the fiscal year. Our 2016 AIP, adopted in accordance with the SHO Annual Incentive Plan, was intended to be a pay-for-performance program providing for annual cash awards to qualified participants, including the Named Executive Officers, based on achievement of financial performance goals for our 2016 fiscal year.

Rewarding Long-Term Performance

Our 2016 LTIP, adopted in accordance with the SHO LTI Program, is intended to be a pay-for-performance program designed to motivate the qualified participants, including the Named Executive Officers, to focus on long-term performance. Our 2016 LTIP reinforces accountability by linking executive compensation to sustained performance goals over a three-year period. SHO believes that the 2016 LTIP is an important incentive that will encourage the alignment of each Named Executive Officer's goals with SHO's strategic direction and initiatives, which in turn should result in increased stockholder returns.

The Company has not adopted formal policies for allocating compensation among the above elements. Rather, the Compensation Committee seeks to evaluate, with respect to each Named Executive Officer, the Named Executive Officer's individual performance, professional experience, current and anticipated scope of job responsibilities, department performance, ability to affect Company objectives, fiscal accountability, and other considerations deemed relevant, to determine the allocation of total compensation among the above elements. The expectation of the Compensation Committee is that, as an executive assumes greater responsibility within the Company, in most cases an increasingly larger portion of the executive's total cash compensation opportunity will be designed to depend on Company performance.

How Elements Are Used to Achieve Our Compensation Objectives

The Compensation Committee believes that the most fair and effective way to motivate the Company's executive officers (including the Named Executive Officers) to achieve the best results for our stockholders (and to avoid taking inappropriate risks) is to condition a significant proportion of executive compensation on Company performance. The size of awards granted to executive officers, relative to total compensation, should be based, depending on the particular executive, primarily upon the executive's potential to affect the Company's financial performance and secondarily upon such factors as the scope of the executive's responsibilities and fiscal accountability. As an executive assumes greater job responsibilities, a portion of the executive's total cash compensation opportunity should be increasingly dependent on Company performance. The Compensation Committee will consider compensation that is not performance-based, such as service-based equity awards, to the extent the Compensation Committee deems appropriate.

During our 2016 fiscal year our executive officers (including the Named Executive Officers) participated in the 2016 AIP. The 2016 AIP awards were designed to promote the Company's compensation objectives by offering the Named Executive Officers an opportunity for cash compensation based upon SHO adjusted EBITDA, SHO comparable store sales, and SHO working capital, each as described below, for our 2016 fiscal year. The 2016 AIP award made to each Named Executive Officer provided for threshold, plan, target, and maximum amounts that were based on a percentage of the Named Executive Officer's base salary.

Compensation Decisions made during our 2016 fiscal year

Base Salary

With respect to each of our executive officers (including our Named Executive Officers), the Compensation Committee establishes the amount of base salary paid to that executive with the goal of providing the executive with a stable income stream that is commensurate with the executive's current and reasonably anticipated level of job responsibilities and professional experience and takes into account the Company's assessment of competitive market conditions and external pay for comparable positions. The Compensation Committee also considers internal pay equity. The Compensation Committee sets the amount of our executive compensation with the belief that an appropriate base salary can create a secure environment necessary for our executive officers to remain with the Company and focus their efforts on the Company's sustained, meaningful growth.

During our 2016 fiscal year, the Compensation Committee increased the base salaries of Messrs. Powell, Buckley, and Gray. The Compensation Committee approved a $30,000 salary increase to Mr. Buckley on October 13, 2016 and a $50,000 salary increase to Mr. Powell on September 14, 2016. On February 10, 2016 the Compensation Committee approved a $50,000 increase to Mr. Gray's base salary in connection with his promotion to Senior Vice President, Store Operations. At the end of 2016 fiscal year the annual base salaries of Messrs. Powell, Robinson, Gray, Buckley, and Hansen were $750,000, $500,000, $400,000, $290,000, and $450,000, respectively.

Annual and Long-Term Compensation Programs

2016 Annual Incentive Compensation

Our 2016 AIP was a cash-based program that was intended to reward eligible associates for achieving financial performance goals during our 2016 fiscal year. The Named Executive Officers and other SHO associates participated in the 2016 AIP. The Compensation Committee made the 2016 AIP awards based, in part, on recommendations from our Chief Executive Officer and our Vice President, Human Resources. The recommendations were made in conjunction with, and took into account, the projected results of operations underlying the Company's business operating plan that was presented to the Board of Directors for our 2016 fiscal year and a number of assumptions reflected in that plan.

For the 2016 AIP the Compensation Committee approved SHO adjusted EBITDA, SHO comparable store sales (a new performance measure), and SHO working capital as the performance measures for 2016 AIP awards made to our Named Executive Officers. SHO adjusted EBITDA, SHO comparable store sales, and SHO working capital accounted for 50%, 30%, and 20%, respectively, of the combined performance measures. The Compensation Committee believed with respect to the 2016 AIP that using SHO adjusted EBITDA, SHO comparable store sales, and SHO working capital to measure performance would assist the Company in achieving its compensation objectives of promoting the profitable growth of the Company's business.

For purposes of the 2016 AIP, SHO adjusted EBITDA generally meant the Company's externally reported Adjusted EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization) and excluded franchise sales, note payment revenue, write-offs and impairments of franchise accounts receivables, business process outsourcing expenses related to the Company's ongoing technology transformation, LTIP payouts in excess of accruals, and specified levels of subsidy and cash discounts relating to the Company's agreements with Sears Holdings. The Company also excluded from SHO adjusted EBITDA (A) specified expenses and accounting adjustments that impact externally reported Adjusted EBITDA that the Compensation Committee believed did not result from management's performance in operating SHO's businesses and (B) in accordance with the Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc. Umbrella Incentive Program the effects of the following items: (1) gains, losses, and costs associated with asset sales (other than gains, losses, costs, and initial franchise fees associated with franchise conversions); (2) litigation or claim judgments or settlements that exceed $250,000; (3) the effect of purchase accounting and changes in accounting methods; (4) gains, losses, and costs associated with store closings, acquisitions, and divestitures; (5) integration costs disclosed as merger related; (6) asset writedown/impairment charges; (7) items classified as extraordinary; and (8) restructuring activities.

For purposes of the 2016 AIP, SHO comparable store sales included merchandise sales for all SHO stores operating for a period of at least twelve full months, including remodeled and expanded stores but excluding store relocations and stores that had undergone format changes. Comparable store sales included online transactions fulfilled and recorded by SHO and gave effect to the change in the unshipped sales reserves recorded at the end of each reporting period. New stores open for less than twelve full months were excluded.

For purposes of the 2016 AIP, SHO working capital meant merchandise inventory less accounts payable and was calculated as a percent of monthly revenue on a trailing twelve-month basis.

Under the 2016 AIP no payment with respect to the SHO comparable store sales performance measure or SHO working capital performance measure would be made unless SHO's adjusted EBITDA exceeded a specified level.

Under the 2016 AIP Messrs. Powell, Robinson, Gray, Buckley, and Hansen had an annual incentive opportunity (as a percent of base salary) of 100%, 75%, 75%, 50%, and 50%, respectively. The following table describes the 2016 AIP payment metrics for the Named Executive Officers.

Performance Level(1)	SHO Adjusted EBITDA (50% of Performance Measure)	Percentage of Incentive Payable	SHO		SHO Working Capital (20% of Performance Measure)(2)	Percentage of Incentive Payable
			Comparable Store Sales (30% of Performance Measure)(2)	Percentage of Incentive Payable
Threshold	46% of plan	10%	46%	10%	46% of plan	10%
Plan	100% of plan	60%	100%	60%	100% of plan	60%
Target	150% of plan	100%	150%	100%	150% of plan	100%
Maximum	250% of plan	150%	250%	150%	250% of plan	150%

(1) The payment percentages between the threshold and maximum payouts would be based on a series of straight-line (linear) interpolations between the applicable performance levels.

(2) No payout on account of this performance measure would be made unless 2016 fiscal year reported EBITDA exceeded a specified level.

Table of Contents

Based on the Company's 2016 fiscal year performance management advised the Compensation Committee that, in accordance with the terms of the 2016 AIP, less than the threshold level of SHO EBITDA was achieved and 2016 fiscal year reported EBITDA failed to exceed the specified level. As a result no payouts under the 2016 AIP were earned by, and no payments were made to, the Named Executive Officers with respect to the 2016 AIP.

2016 Long-Term Compensation Opportunity

The SHO LTI Program provides that it is designed to motivate SHO's executive leadership, including the Named Executive Officers, to achieve significant and lasting change that successfully positions SHO for future growth.

During our 2016 fiscal year Mr. Powell and the Vice President, Human Resources made recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding 2016 LTIP awards for the Named Executive Officers. During our 2016 fiscal year the Compensation Committee approved the 2016 LTIP and the 2016 LTIP awards to eligible participants including the Named Executive Officers. The awards approved by the Compensation Committee for the 2016 LTIP (payable solely in cash) include (1) a three-year performance-measurement period (February 1, 2016 to February 1, 2019), (2) the requirement that during the performance-measurement period SHO's stock price must exceed a minimum specified level for ten consecutive trading days, and (3) the requirement that the closing price of the Company's common stock on the last day of the performance-measurement period must be greater than the closing stock price on the first day of the performance-measurement period. The 2016 LTIP includes eligibility for cash payments equal to 50%, 75%, 100%, and 150% of incentive opportunities based on achievement of specified increasing stock-price objectives. The Committee's 2016 LTIP awards for Messrs. Powell, Robinson, Gray, Buckley, and Hansen include incentive opportunities as a percent of base salary of 100%, 100%, 100%, 50%, and 50%, respectively.

As of April 4, 2017 SHO's stock price had not exceeded the 2016 LTIP minimum specified level for ten consecutive trading days. Whether the Company's results of operations during the 2016 LTIP performance-measurement period will generate sustained stock-price growth is quite uncertain and will depend on a number of factors, many of which (such as consumer sentiment and the economic and retail environment during the remainder of the performance-measurement period) are not reasonably within our control. The Compensation Committee established the performance measures for the 2016 LTIP with respect to the Named Executive Officers to encourage what the Compensation Committee believes would be the achievement of strong and lasting financial and operational improvements. The target level of performance of their awards has been designed to be achievable with sustained performance at a high level and favorable economic and retail conditions, while payout at the maximum level has been designed to be very difficult to achieve.

During our 2015 fiscal year the Compensation Committee approved 2015 LTIP awards to Messrs. Powell, Robinson, Buckley, Gray, and Hansen. For Messrs. Gray and Buckley the 2015 LTIP awards are comprised of stock units that are payable solely in cash and will vest on the third anniversary of the date the award was made by the Compensation Committee, subject to forfeiture conditions. For Messrs. Powell, Robinson, and Hansen the 2015 LTIP awards are payable solely in cash and consist of (1) a three-year (April 2015 to April 2018) performance-measurement period, (2) the requirement that during the performance-measurement period SHO's stock price must exceed a minimum specified level for ten consecutive trading days, and (3) the requirement that the closing price of the Company's common stock on the last day of the performance-measurement period must be greater than the closing stock price on the date that the Compensation Committee approved the 2015 LTIP. As of April 4, 2017 SHO's stock price had not exceeded the 2015 LTIP minimum specified level for ten consecutive trading days.

Other Long-Term Compensation Opportunities

During May 2013 the Compensation Committee's former Benefit-Plan Subcommittee approved restricted stock awards to Messrs. Powell, Gray, Buckley, and Hansen in the amounts of 16,099 shares, 4,600 shares, 1,725 shares, and 5,175 shares, respectively. Those awards vested on May 16, 2016. See "2016 Fiscal Year Option Exercises and Stock Vested" in this Item 1 for the vested value of the shares of restricted stock.

Retirement Plans and Welfare Benefits

We maintain a 401(k) defined contribution plan (the 401(k) Savings Plan) for the benefit of all eligible employees, including our Named Executive Officers (on the same basis as all eligible employees). The 401(k) Savings Plan provides for an annual match of 100% on the first 3% of participant contributions, and 50% on each additional percent (in excess of 3%) of participant contributions up to 5%, all subject to IRS-imposed plan maximums. The Company does not have, and does not intend to establish, a defined benefit plan.

We also provide our eligible employees, including our Named Executive Officers, with medical, dental and vision coverage, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance, and the opportunity to enroll in our flexible spending and health savings account programs.

Severance Benefits

Each of our Named Executive Officers is a party to an executive severance agreement with, or that has been assigned to and assumed by, SHO. See Severance Benefits Upon Involuntary Termination for Good Reason or Without Cause and Other Terms of Severance Agreements in this Item 1.

Cash Bonuses

In accordance with Mr. Buckley's Letter Agreements and upon his satisfaction of specified conditions, Mr. Buckley received a $50,000 bonus during our 2016 fiscal year (which would have been reduced by any amounts payable to him in accordance with the 2016 AIP). During our 2016 fiscal year the Compensation Committee approved a separate cash bonus award to Mr. Buckley in the amount of $50,000, $30,000 of which was paid during our 2016 fiscal year upon Mr. Buckley's timely achievement of specified performance measures for key e-commerce projects during our 2016 fiscal year and $20,000 of which was paid on February 1, 2017. The Cash Bonus Agreement for this award provides that Mr. Buckley must repay the bonus to the Company if before the first anniversary of the payment date he either voluntarily terminates his employment with the Company other than for Good Reason or the Company terminates his employment for Cause. The term Good Reason generally means that Mr. Buckley's annual base salary is reduced by ten percent or more or his place of employment is relocated by the Company to a business location that is more than fifty miles from the Company's corporate offices in Hoffman Estates, Illinois. The term Cause generally means (i) a material breach by Mr. Buckley (other than a breach resulting from disability) of his duties and responsibilities, which breach is demonstrably willful and deliberate on his part, is committed in bad faith, or without reasonable belief that the breach is in the best interests of the Company, and is not remedied by him in a reasonable period of time after receipt of written notice from the Company specifying the breach, (ii) the commission of a felony involving moral turpitude, or (iii) dishonesty or willful misconduct in connection with employment with the Company.

CEO Compensation

Mr. Powell serves as our Chief Executive Officer and President and as a member of the Board of Directors. At the beginning of our 2016 fiscal year Mr. Powell received an annual base salary of $700,000, annual incentive plan opportunities equal to 100% of annual base salary, and SHO LTI Program opportunities equal to 200% of annual base salary. During our 2016 fiscal year, Mr. Powell offered to reduce his 2016 LTIP opportunity to 100% of his annual base salary, which the Compensation Committee approved for the 2016 LTIP.

During our 2016 fiscal year the Compensation Committee approved a Retention Agreement for Mr. Powell (the Retention Agreement), which includes an increase in his salary from $700,000 to $750,000. The Retention Agreement also provides for a $750,000 cash retention bonus that is payable in three equal annual installments on April 15, 2018, April 15, 2019, and April 15, 2020 (less amounts, if any, paid in accordance with annual incentive plans), except that the unpaid installments will be payable immediately if the Company terminates Mr. Powell's employment without Cause, Mr. Powell terminates his employment for Good Reason, or a Change Event occurs. See Cash Bonuses in this Item 1 for the general definitions of Cause and Good Reason. Change Event means that (1) without Mr. Powell's consent he no longer reports solely to the Company's Board of Directors or (2) the Company experiences, or without Mr. Powell's consent he experiences, an action or event (other than termination of Mr. Powell's employment for any reason) that, with or without the passage of time, reasonably would be deemed to be, or reasonably would be deemed to result in, a reduction in Mr. Powell's duties, responsibilities, or status as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President. If Mr. Powell's disability or death occurs after January 28, 2017 he or his estate or personal representative will be entitled to receive a prorated portion of unpaid annual installments.

Based on our 2016 fiscal year financial performance Mr. Powell did not receive a payout under the 2016 AIP. See 2016 Annual Incentive Compensation in this Item 1.

2017 Fiscal Year-Related Compensation Actions

On January 25, 2017 the Compensation Committee approved the 2017 Annual Incentive Plan and the 2017 Long-Term Incentive Plan and awards under these plans for the Named Executive Officers and other executives.

On January 30, 2017 the Compensation Committee approved stock unit awards for the Named Executive Officers and other executives. Each stock unit award is governed by, and is subject to, the terms and conditions of the Company's Amended and Restated 2012 Stock Plan and the terms and conditions of a Stock Units Agreement. Each Stock Units Agreement provides that the stock units award will vest, and will be payable solely in cash, in three substantially equal installments on January 30, 2018, January 30, 2019, and January 30, 2020 (each date a Vesting Date). The stock units award will vest as to the stock units otherwise scheduled to vest on the next Vesting Date (the Final Vesting Date), but not stock units scheduled to vest on any Vesting Date that is after the Final Vesting Date, if (a) the Company terminates the grantee's employment without Cause, (b) the grantee terminates his employment with the Company for Good Reason, or (c) the grantee's employment with the Company is terminated due to the grantee's disability or death. The grantee will forfeit all unvested stock units if his employment with the Company terminates for any reason other than as specified in the preceding sentence. See Cash Bonuses in this Item 1 for the general definitions of Cause and Good Reason. With respect to each stock unit that vests in accordance with the terms of the Stock Units Agreement the Company will make a cash payment to the grantee in an amount equal to the Close/Last price of the Company's common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market (or successor stock exchange) on the applicable Vesting Date. The stock units are bookkeeping entries only and the Company will only make cash payments with respect to the stock units, as to which the grantee will have no rights to receive the Company's common stock or other securities of the Company, no rights as a stockholder of the Company, no dividend rights, and no voting rights.

Certain Tax Consequences

In setting an executive officer's compensation arrangement, the Compensation Committee considers the requirements of the Section 162(m) Rules, which provide that compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the chief executive officer and the other three most highly compensated executive officers (other than the chief financial officer) is not deductible unless it is performance-based and paid under a program that meets certain other legal requirements. Base salary and cash and stock awards that vest based solely on continued service do not qualify as performance-based compensation under the Section 162(m) Rules. While the Compensation Committee recognizes the desirability of preserving the deductibility of payments made to the Named Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee believes that it must maintain flexibility in its approach in order to structure a program that is the most effective in attracting, motivating, and retaining the Company's key executives.

Compensation Committee Role in Executive Compensation Decisions

The Compensation Committee is appointed by the Board to fulfill the Board's responsibilities relating to the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer, our other Named Executive Officers, and other senior executives. The Compensation Committee has overall responsibility for approving and evaluating all compensation plans and our policies and programs as they affect the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's other executive officers and senior executives, including the Named Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee has the sole authority to retain and terminate all compensation consultants that it uses to assist it in the evaluation of Chief Executive Officer and other executive compensation and has the sole authority to approve the consultant's fees and the terms and conditions of the consultant's retention. The Compensation Committee also has authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal and external legal, accounting, and other advisors. See also Committees of the Board of Directors Compensation Committee in this Item 1. The Compensation Committee did not retain a compensation consultant or external advisor that played a role in determining or recommending the amount or form of executive compensation in fiscal year 2016. During our 2016 fiscal year the Company's management retained AON Hewitt Consulting to estimate the fair value of the 2016 LTIP awards for financial accounting and reporting purposes, which the Compensation Committee considered in approving the LTIP compensation component.

During 2016 the Compensation Committee received input and recommendations from Mr. Powell and the Vice President of Human Resources regarding the forms and the amounts of compensation for the Company's associates, including the Named Executive Officers, and regarding our compensation programs generally.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During our 2016 fiscal year James F. Gooch served as Chair of the Compensation Committee and Josephine Linden and William K. Phelan served as members of the Compensation Committee. During our 2016 fiscal year (1) none of James F. Gooch, Josephine Linden, and William K. Phelan served as an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and (2) there were no interlocks with other companies within the meaning of the SEC's proxy rules.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis contained in this Proxy Statement with management of the Company. Based on the review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K and in this Proxy Statement.

SHO Employment Arrangements

Set forth below are summary descriptions of the terms of the Offer Letters and Letter Agreements for our Named Executive Officers, which summaries, among other things, describe material terms of the Offer Letters and the Letter Agreements as they affected the compensation earned by and paid to our Named Executive Officers in our 2016 fiscal year. The below summaries are qualified by reference, and are subject to, the terms and conditions of the Offer Letters and Letter Agreements, which are provided as exhibits to the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Mr. Powell's Offer Letter

Pursuant to his Offer Letter, Mr. Powell serves as Chief Executive Officer and President of SHO with an annual base salary of $700,000 (currently $750,000). His Offer Letter authorizes his participation in the Company's AIP with an annual incentive opportunity of 100% of his base salary and in SHO LTI Program awards, as they are approved and finalized by the Board, with an incentive opportunity of 200% of his base salary. With respect to our 2016 fiscal year, Mr. Powell offered to reduce his LTIP award to 100% of his base salary. Mr. Powell also receives retirement, health, and welfare benefits made available by the Company to its employees pursuant to his Offer Letter. His Offer Letter provides that if he elects to move his family to the Chicago, Illinois area SHO will provide up to $100,000 to be used in conjunction with the sale of his current home, the purchase of a new home, house-hunting trips, moving household goods, and brokerage fees.

Table of Contents

Mr. Robinson's Offer Letter

Pursuant to his Offer Letter, Mr. Robinson serves as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of SHO with an annual base salary of $500,000. In 2015 Mr. Robinson was promoted to Senior Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer, and Chief Financial Officer. His Offer Letter authorizes his participation in the Company's AIP with an annual incentive opportunity of 75% of his base salary and SHO LTI Program awards, starting in fiscal year 2015 as they are approved and finalized by the Board, with an annual incentive opportunity of 100% of his base salary. With respect to fiscal year 2015, if management recommends to the Compensation Committee that it make an SHO LTI Program award to any of its named executive officers management will recommend to the Compensation Committee that it make an award to Mr. Robinson for that year with a value no less than 100% of his base salary. Mr. Robinson also receives retirement, health, and welfare benefits made available by the Company to its employees pursuant to his Offer Letter.

In accordance with the terms and conditions of his Offer Letter, Mr. Robinson elected to receive a one-time cash incentive award of $250,000 (less all amounts payable to him under the 2014 AIP (of which there were none)) for the 2014 fiscal year, which amount the Company paid to Mr. Robinson in 2014.

Mr. Robinson's Offer Letter also provides for a cash retention bonus of $300,000 to be paid in three installments, the first of which vested on his start date and was paid shortly thereafter. The second and third installments were paid in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Mr. Robinson's Offer Letter also provides that he will receive $250,000 (all of which the Company paid to Mr. Robinson in 2014) to be used to offset expenses incurred by him and expenses incurred by SHO with respect to the sale of his home, the purchase of a new home in the Chicago metropolitan area, house hunting trips, moving household goods, and related expenses.

Mr. Gray's Offer Letter

Pursuant to his Offer Letter, Mr. Gray serves as the Company's Vice President/General Manager. In February 2016 Mr. Gray was promoted to Senior Vice President, Store Operations. The Shares of Stock reported in this column for Messrs. Gray and Buckley reflect stock units awarded to them during our 2015 fiscal year. Potential Payments upon Termination of Employment or Change in Control

The Company has entered directly into severance agreements with Messrs. Powell, Robinson, Gray, and Buckley. Sears Holdings entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Hansen prior to the Separation, which severance agreement as part of the Separation was assigned to and assumed by the Company effective as of the Separation. The amounts shown in the table below for involuntary termination for good reason or termination without cause for each of the Named Executive Officers are based on the following agreement provisions:

Good Reason: A termination of employment by the Named Executive Officer is for good reason if it results from (1) a reduction of more than 10% in the sum of the Named Executive Officer's annual salary and target bonus from those in effect as of the date of the severance agreement, (2) a Named Executive Officer's mandatory relocation to an office more than 50 miles from the primary location at which the Named Executive Officer is required to perform the Named Executive Officer's duties, or (3) any action or inaction that constitutes a material breach under the severance agreement, including the failure of a successor company to assume or fulfill the obligations under the severance agreement.

Cause: A termination of employment of a Named Executive Officer is without cause if the Named Executive Officer's employment is involuntarily terminated because of job elimination (other than poor performance) or without cause. Cause generally is defined as (1) a material breach by the Named Executive Officer, other than due to incapacity or due to a disability, of the Named Executive Officer's duties and responsibilities which breach is demonstrably willful and deliberate on the Named Executive Officer's part, is committed in bad faith or without reasonable belief that such breach is in the best interests of SHO and such breach is not remedied by the Named Executive Officer in a reasonable period of time after receipt of written notice from SHO specifying such breach, (2) the commission by the Named Executive Officer of a felony (in certain cases defined as a felony involving moral turpitude), or (3) dishonesty or willful misconduct in connection with the Named Executive Officer's employment.

See footnote (d) to the table below regarding the effect of a reduction in Mr. Powell's duties, responsibilities, or status as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the possible effect of a change in control.

Severance Benefits upon Involuntary Termination for Good Reason or Without Cause

For Mr. Powell, the sum of (1) his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination, (2) the amount, if any, determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors to have been actually earned by him under the AIP for the year in which the termination occurs, prorated to the date of termination, plus (3) if the termination occurs prior to his receipt of his actually earned annual bonus under the AIP (as determined by the Compensation Committee) for the year that is prior to the year in which the termination occurs, that bonus to be paid at the time when the Company makes payments of bonuses earned with respect to the prior year. All amounts owed to Mr. Powell as described in this paragraph are payable in the form of salary continuation for 12 months and subject to mitigation.

For Mr. Robinson, the sum of (1) his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination and (2) the payout he would have earned, if any, under the Company's AIP for the most recently ended fiscal year but only if such payout, if any, has not yet been made because the termination occurred after the end of a fiscal year and before the payment date for the AIP. All amounts owed to Mr. Robinson as described in this paragraph are payable in the form of salary continuation for 12 months and subject to mitigation.

For Messrs. Gray, Buckley and Hansen, base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the date of termination, payable in the form of salary continuation for six months, subject to mitigation. In February 2016 the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Gray's annual base salary to $400,000 and his salary-continuation amount to twelve months.

For all Named Executive Officers, continuation of active medical and dental coverage in which the Named Executive Officer was eligible to participate to the end of employment during the salary continuation period.

Other Terms of Severance Agreements

None of the Named Executive Officers is entitled to a severance payment under the Named Executive Officer's severance agreement in the event of termination for Cause or voluntary termination for reason other than Good Reason. Under the severance agreements, the Named Executive Officers agree to non-disclosure of confidential information, non-solicitation and non-compete (where permissible under applicable state law) covenants, as well as a release of liability for specified claims against the Company.

The severance agreements do not provide for salary-continuation payments to the participating Named Executive Officers upon termination of employment due to death, disability, retirement, or upon the occurrence of a change in control (except see footnote (d) to the table below regarding, with respect to Mr. Powell, the possible effect of a change in control).

Payments Pursuant to Incentive and Other Compensation Programs

As described under Compensation Discussion and Analysis in this Item 1, SHO provides annual and long-term incentive awards to our Named Executive Officers. Payments under these programs for termination of employment are limited. If a Named Executive Officer voluntarily terminates his employment (for any reason including for Good Reason but other than disability) or is involuntarily terminated (for any reason including without Cause but other than death or disability) prior to the payment date, then he will forfeit his 2016 AIP award, except as prohibited by law.

If a Named Executive Officer is terminated because of death or disability, he will be entitled to a pro-rated payment through the termination date if the achievement of the performance measures under the 2016 AIP equal or exceed the threshold level of performance. Because SHO did not achieve the threshold level of performance under the 2016 AIP, none of the Named Executive Officers would have been entitled to receive distributions under the 2016 AIP at the threshold level of performance if their employment had terminated due to death or disability on January 28, 2017, the last day of our 2016 fiscal year.

If a Named Executive Officer voluntarily terminates employment (for any reason other than disability) or is involuntary terminated for any reason (other than death), then he will forfeit his award under each LTIP in which he participates and the restricted stock awards (if he has any), except as prohibited by law.

With respect to awards under an LTIP, if a Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated because of disability, the Named Executive Officer generally will be entitled to a pro-rated payment at the target level through the termination date if (1) performance for the period from the inception of the performance period through the last completed full month that occurs on or preceding his date of termination due to disability is equal to or greater than the target for that performance period, pro-rated through the date of termination, (2) the performance for the entire three-year performance period is equal to or greater than the target for that performance period, and (3) as of the date of termination, he had been employed by one or more of the Company or a subsidiary for at least 12 months of the performance period applicable to him. If a Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated due to his death, his estate generally will be entitled to a pro-rated payment at the target level through the date of death if (A) the performance for the period from the inception of the performance period through the last completed full month that occurs on or preceding his date of death is equal to or greater than the target for that performance measure, pro-rated through the date of death, (B) the performance for the entire three-year measurement period is equal to or greater than the target for that performance period, and (C) as of the date of termination, he had been employed by one or more of the Company or a subsidiary for at least 12 months of the performance period applicable to him. All pro-rations of awards under LTIPs generally will be based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of full months during the performance period in which the participant was a participant in the LTIP and the denominator of which is the full number of months in the performance period.

With respect to the restricted stock award currently held by Mr. Robinson, if his employment with the Company terminates by reason of his death or disability, the forfeiture condition restricting the sale or transfer of the common stock forming his restricted stock award will be deemed to have lapsed on the day immediately preceding his termination. The stock unit awards made to Messrs. Gray and Buckley will be deemed to have vested on the day immediately preceding the date of termination of employment due to death or disability.

Table of Contents

The table below summarizes the potential payouts to the Named Executive Officers actively employed by the Company upon a termination of employment, or a change in control of the Company or change in responsibilities with respect to Mr. Powell, assuming the termination of employment, change in control of the Company, or change in responsibilities occurred on January 28, 2017, the last day of the Company's 2016 fiscal year.

Buckley and Hansen the amount reported in this column represents the continuation of medical and dental benefits for six months.
- (b) As a consequence of our 2016 fiscal year fiscal performance (see 2016 Annual Compensation Opportunity in this Item 1), no amounts in accordance with the 2016 AIP would have been payable upon termination of employment.
- (c) As a consequence of the prices of our common stock on the Nasdaq stock market for the LTIP measurement period for the 2016 LTIP (see Long-Term Compensation Opportunity in this Item 1) and the LTIP measurement period for the Company's 2015 LTIP, no amounts in accordance with the Company's 2016 LTIP or the 2015 LTIP would have been payable upon termination of employment.
- (d) The amounts reported in this column represent the cash-retention installments totaling $750,000 payable to Mr. Powell in accordance with his Retention Agreement, all of which installments were unpaid as of January 28, 2017 (see CEO Compensation in this Item 1). The Retention Agreement provides that unpaid cash-retention installments will be payable immediately if a Change Event occurs. Change Event means that (1) without Mr. Powell's consent he no longer reports solely to the Company's Board of Directors or (2) the Company experiences, or without Mr. Powell's consent he experiences, an action or event (other than termination of his employment for any reason) that, with or without the passage of time, reasonably would be deemed to be, or reasonably would be deemed to result in, a reduction in Mr. Powell's duties, responsibilities, or status as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President. The Retention Agreement does not refer to a change in control of the Company but, depending on the circumstances, a change in control of the Company could constitute a Change Event.
- (e) The amount reported in this column for Mr. Robinson represents the value, as of January 28, 2017, of the restricted stock award made to him. The amount reported in this column for each of Messrs. Gray and Buckley includes the value, as of January 28, 2017, of the stock unit award made to him. If the employment with the Company of a grantee of restricted stock or stock units terminates by reason of death or disability, the forfeiture conditions to which the grantee's restricted stock award and stock unit award are subject would be deemed to have lapsed on the day immediately preceding the grantee's employment termination. The cash value amounts reported in the Termination due to Disability and Termination due to Death columns with respect to Messrs. Robinson, Gray, and Buckley were calculated by multiplying (1) the number of shares of common stock underlying the restricted stock award, or the number of stock units, by (2) the $3.80 closing price of the Company's common stock on January 27, 2017.

OUR NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Section 14A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires, among other things, that we provide our stockholders with the opportunity to vote to approve, on a nonbinding, advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers as disclosed in this Proxy Statement in accordance with the SEC's compensation disclosure rules.

As described under "Executive Compensation Compensation Discussion and Analysis" in this Proxy Statement, we seek, to the extent practicable, to link the compensation of our Named Executive Officers with the Company's performance. Our compensation programs are designed to reward our Named Executive Officers for the achievement of short-term and long-term financial goals, while minimizing excessive risk taking in the short term. We believe that our compensation programs are strongly aligned with the long-term interests of our stockholders, and we believe that our current executive-compensation programs have been effective in implementing our compensation philosophy and objectives. We note that more than 99% of the shares that voted to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers as disclosed in our 2016 proxy statement voted in favor of the compensation of our Named Executive Officers at our 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. We urge you to read the Compensation Discussion and Analysis in Item 1 of this Proxy Statement for additional details on our executive compensation, including our compensation philosophy and objectives and the compensation of our Named Executive Officers during our 2016 fiscal year.

The vote on this proposal is not intended to address any specific element of compensation; rather, the vote relates to the compensation of our Named Executive Officers, as described in this Proxy Statement in accordance with the compensation disclosure rules of the SEC. The vote is advisory, which means that the vote is not binding on the Company, our Board, or the Compensation Committee of the Board. However, the Board and the Compensation Committee value the opinions expressed by our stockholders in their voting on this proposal and will consider the outcome of the voting when making future compensation policies and decisions regarding our Named Executive Officers.

Accordingly, we ask our stockholders to vote on the following resolution at the Annual Meeting:

RESOLVED, that the Company's stockholders approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the Named Executive Officers, as disclosed in the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, the compensation tables, and any related material disclosed in this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee must pre-approve all engagements of our independent registered public accounting firm as required by the Audit Committee Charter, the Pre-Approval Policy and Procedures for Auditing Services and Non-Audit Services (the "Pre-Approval Policy") adopted by the Audit Committee, and the rules of the SEC. The Pre-Approval Policy provides the conditions and procedures under which the Audit Committee will pre-approve auditing services and non-audit services to be rendered by SHO's external auditor in accordance with Sections 10A(g) and 10A(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules of the SEC. The Audit Committee does not delegate to management the Audit Committee's responsibilities to pre-approve services to be performed by SHO's external auditor. All engagements of the external auditor to perform (1) annual audits of SHO's financial statements and (2) attestations of SHO's internal controls are excluded from the Pre-Approval Policy, and it provides that, with respect to the excluded services, the Audit Committee must specifically approve the annual or other engagement of the external auditor, the engagement scope, terms, and fees, the form and content of the engagement letter, and all changes to the engagement scope, terms, and fees prior to the external auditor's commencement of the engagement. The Pre-Approval Policy includes categories of auditing services and non-audit services that the Audit Committee pre-approves, subject to approval of the Chairman of the Audit Committee, for 12 months. At least annually the Audit Committee pursuant to the Pre-Approval Policy will review all proposed categories of auditing services and non-audit services for the following fiscal year to determine that (a) the categories of services may be provided by the external auditor to SHO in accordance with applicable law and (b) the external auditor's provision of the categories of services would not impair its independence. The Chairman of the Audit Committee is authorized to specifically pre-approve all auditing services and non-audit services that may be provided to SHO by its external auditor that are listed, and within the limits provided, in the Pre-Approval Policy.

All of the fees described in the table above were pre-approved in accordance with the Audit Committee's policies and procedures.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following is the report of the Audit Committee with respect to the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2017. The information contained in this report shall not be deemed "soliciting material" or otherwise considered "filed" with the SEC, and such information shall not be incorporated by reference into any future filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates such information by reference in such filing.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

Review and Approval of Transactions with Related Persons

The Company's Audit Committee Charter and the Company's Related-Person Transactions Approval Policy (adopted by the Company's Board of Directors after the Separation) require that the Audit Committee review and approve all related-party transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to SEC rules. The Related-Person Transactions Approval Policy requires that the Audit Committee, among other things (1) determine whether the proposed related-person transaction is on terms and conditions that, in all material respects, the Company's management reasonably believes are no less favorable to the Company than the terms and conditions the Company could obtain in comparable arm's-length transactions with unrelated third parties and (2) take into account relevant factors such as the nature of the related person's interest in the transaction, the purpose, terms and conditions (including the dollar amount involved), and timing of the transaction, and whether the transaction is consistent with the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Related-Party Transactions

According to publicly available information ESL beneficially owns 57.3% of our outstanding shares of common stock and approximately 48% of Sears Holdings's outstanding shares of common stock, and at all times during our 2016 fiscal year beneficially owned more than 5% of the outstanding shares of each of SHO and Sears Holdings. Edward S. Lampert, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Director of ESL Investments, Inc. (which is among the related entities that we refer to as "ESL" in this Proxy Statement), is the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Sears Holdings.

SHO and its subsidiaries prior to the Separation entered into various agreements with Sears Holdings and its subsidiaries (the each an "Initial Agreement") that, among other things, (1) govern specified aspects of SHO's relationship with Sears Holdings following the Separation and (2) establish terms pursuant to which subsidiaries of Sears Holdings provide services and merchandise to SHO and its subsidiaries. The Initial Agreements, as amended, as well as other agreements to which SHO or its subsidiaries are a party, are summarized below. On May 11, 2016 SHO and its subsidiaries and Sears Holdings and its subsidiaries executed and delivered to each other amendments to the Initial Agreements (each a "May 2016 Amendment" and together the "May 2016 Amendments"), which are also summarized below. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors approved the May 2016 Amendments in accordance with the Company's Related-Persons Transactions Approval Policy. The Board of Directors ratified the Audit Committee's approval. Shearman & Sterling LLP and FTI Consulting, Inc. advised the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors with respect to their deliberations regarding the May 2016 Amendments.

In the following summaries, SHO and Sears Holdings are referred to as the parties to the agreements summarized, although their respective subsidiaries may be the sole parties, or may be additional parties, to the agreements. The Initial Agreements and the amendments thereto made prior to May 11, 2016, and the May 2016 Amendments, summarized below in this "Certain Relationships and Transactions," are reproduced in full as, and qualified in their entirety by the actual text of the agreements that are, exhibits to the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Prior to the Separation SHO entered into a Separation Agreement with Sears Holdings (the "Separation Agreement"). The Separation Agreement, as amended, provides for the framework of the Separation and the ancillary agreements described below.

Pursuant to the Separation Agreement and in anticipation of the Separation, Sears Holdings transferred to SHO, through a series of intercompany transactions, specified assets and liabilities comprising the pre-Separation Sears Hometown and Hardware and Sears Outlet businesses of Sears Holdings. In the Separation Agreement, SHO and Sears Holdings agree to release each other from all pre-Separation claims (other than with respect to the agreements executed in connection with the Separation and subject to certain exceptions) and each agrees to defend and indemnify the other with respect to its post-Separation business. In addition, the Separation Agreement provides specified information and access rights relating to pre-Separation financial and compliance matters, as well as procedures for handling third-party claims and disputes between the parties. The Separation Agreement also provides that SHO and Sears Holdings will negotiate in good faith with respect to SHO's proposals to conduct its franchise and dealer businesses in the Caribbean region and permits SHO, under specified conditions, to establish, acquire, and operate businesses that do not use the Sears name and that are not specified retailers.

Indemnification. SHO is required to indemnify and defend Sears Holdings from and against all liabilities suffered by Sears Holdings relating to, arising out of, or resulting from (1) each liability of SHO assumed in connection with the Separation or arising after giving effect to the Separation and the agreements specified as ancillary to the Separation Agreement (the Ancillary Agreements), (2) the specified business of SHO, (3) each asset owned by SHO after giving effect to the Separation and the Ancillary Agreements, (4) SHO's breach of the Separation Agreement, and (5) SHO's breach of an Ancillary Agreement, subject to any liability limitation contained in the Ancillary Agreement and, without duplication, taking into account SHO's performance of its indemnification obligations in the Ancillary Agreement. SHO is further required to indemnify and defend Sears Holdings if Sears Holdings remains liable to a third party for any liability for which SHO is liable under the Separation Agreement. Sears Holdings is required to indemnify and defend SHO from and against any and all liabilities relating to, arising out of, or resulting from (1) each liability of Sears Holdings assumed in connection with the Separation or arising after giving effect to the Separation and the Ancillary Agreements, (2) the specified business of Sears Holdings, (3) each asset owned by Sears Holdings after giving effect to the Separation and the Ancillary Agreements, (4) Sears Holdings's breach of the Separation Agreement, and (5) Sears Holdings's breach of an Ancillary Agreement, subject to any liability limitation contained in the Ancillary Agreement and, without duplication, taking into account Sears Holdings's performance of its indemnification obligations in the Ancillary Agreement. Sears Holdings is further required to indemnify and defend SHO if SHO remains liable to a third party for any liability for which Sears Holdings is liable under the Separation Agreement.

Limitation of Liability. With respect to each of SHO and Sears Holdings, neither party is liable to the other party for any consequential, incidental, indirect, special, or punitive damages, losses or expenses (including business interruption, lost business, lost profits, or lost savings) arising under the Separation Agreement, even if advised of the possibility of such damages, except that SHO and Sears Holdings, unless otherwise provided for in the Ancillary Agreements, each remains obligated to indemnify and defend the other party against consequential, incidental, indirect, special, or punitive damages, losses or expenses that may arise from third-party claims.

Store License AgreementsInitial Agreements

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into Store License Agreements with Sears Holdings (the Store License Agreements) pursuant to which Sears Holdings has granted to SHO (1) an exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable and terminable license to operate, and to authorize SHO's dealers and franchisees to operate, retail stores and stores-within-a-store using the Sears Outlet Store, Sears Authorized Hometown Store, Sears Home Appliance Showroom, and Sears Hardware Store store names (the store names), (2) an exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable and terminable license to use the store names to promote SHO's products, and services related to SHO's products, by all current and future electronic means, channels, processes and methods, including via the Internet (digital methods), (3) a non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable and terminable license to use, and to authorize SHO's dealers and franchisees to use, certain other trademarks to market and sell services related to SHO's products under those trademarks, and (4) an exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable and terminable license to use certain domain names in connection with the promotion of SHO's stores, the marketing, distribution and sale of SHO's products, and the marketing and offering of services related to SHO's products. The Store License Agreements do not include licenses for the KENMORE®, CRAFTSMAN®, or DIEHARD® trademarks.

Table of Contents

Duration. The terms of the Store License Agreements will expire in 2029. The Store License Agreements may be terminated (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach or, if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of notice of the non-breaching party's intention to terminate, (2) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice upon a change of control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of any of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by specified competitors of Sears Holdings, (3) by either party upon 30-days' notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) terminates the Separation Agreement, any other Store License Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, the SYWR Agreement, or the Merchandising Agreement (each as defined below) as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement, (4) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice if SHO has operated, or has authorized SHO's dealers and franchisees to operate, any retail store or store-within-a-store using a name other than a store name specified in the Store License Agreements for twelve consecutive months, or (5) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice if SHO does not extend the term of the Merchandising Agreement for either of its two renewal periods. In addition, the Store License Agreements with Sears Authorized Hometown Stores, LLC (SAHS) and Sears Home Appliance Showrooms, LLC or (SHAS) permit Sears Holdings to require SAHS and SHAS to terminate for cause any dealer or franchisee that (i) causes SAHS or SHAS to be in non-compliance with a material term of the Store License Agreements or (ii) fails to maintain the high quality and reputation of the store names, domain names, and other Sears trademarks, provided that prior to termination SAHS and SHAS are given a reasonable opportunity to cause the dealer or franchisee to cure such non-compliance or failure.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings for all liability, even though such liability may result from false, fraudulent, or groundless claims, arising from the death of or injury to any person, damage to any property, or loss suffered by a third party related to (1) the operation of SHO's stores, (2) any acts or omissions by SHO, its affiliates, its dealers, and its franchisees in connection with the Store License Agreements, (3) any violation by SHO, its affiliates, its dealers, and its franchisees of any anti-corruption law, (4) any actual or alleged infringement of any intellectual property, (5) any latent or patent defect in any of SHO's products not purchased from Sears Holdings, (6) any actual or alleged failure of SHO's stores, websites, or any of SHO's products not purchased from Sears Holdings or its affiliates to comply with any laws, (7) SHO's use of any licensed trademark other than in accordance with the Store License Agreements, or (8) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Store License Agreements caused by SHO. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO for all liability arising from the death of or injury to any person, damage to any property, or loss suffered by a third party related to (A) claims that SHO's use of the licensed trademarks constitutes copyright infringement, (B) claims as to the lack of validity or enforceability of the registrations or ownership rights of the licensed trademarks, or (C) any lack of enforceability or validity of the Store License Agreements caused by Sears Holdings.

License to Use Sears' Digital Methods. Sears Holdings also grants SHO the right to use the store names to sell SHO's products by all digital methods that are owned or operated by Sears Holdings and Kmart Corporation (Kmart) including the website for SHO's Sears Outlet business, provided that Sears Holdings may terminate this right upon two-years' notice. If Sears Holdings exercises this termination right, it must grant SHO licenses to (1) market SHO's products by all digital methods outside the United States, Puerto Rico, Bermuda and Guam (the territories), and (2) sell SHO's products by all digital methods both in and outside of the territories. However, these licenses will only be granted to the extent that they do not conflict with third-party obligations of Sears Holdings that otherwise limit Sears Holdings' and Kmart's right to license or authorize SHO to market any of SHO's products.

May 2016 Amendment

Amendment No. 2 to the Store License Agreement amends the Store License Agreement for the Sears Outlet Stores to, among other things, add that if one or more specified events occur Sears Holdings grants to SHO a springing license to operate searsoutlet.com on web properties other than those owned or operated by Sears Holdings to promote and sell Outlet products (which does not include specified New Products) in the United States, its incorporated territories, and Bermuda until February 1, 2020.

Trademark License Agreement

In connection with the Separation, SHO entered into a Trademark License Agreement with Sears Holdings (the Trademark License Agreement) pursuant to which Sears Holdings has granted to SHO (1) a royalty-free license to use the Sears trademark as part of SHO's corporate name in the United States and to promote SHO's businesses and (2) a fully paid-up license to use the searshometownandoutlet.com and ownasearsstore.com domain names solely to promote SHO's businesses.

Duration. The term of the Trademark License Agreement will expire in 2029. The Trademark License Agreement may be terminated (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach or, if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of notice of the non-breaching party's intention to terminate, (2) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice upon a change of control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of any of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by specified competitors of Sears Holdings, (3) by either party upon 30-days' notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) terminates the Separation Agreement, any Store License Agreement, the SYWR Agreement, or the Merchandising Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement, (4) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice if SHO has not conducted business using SHO's corporate name specified in the Trademark License Agreement for twelve consecutive months, or (5) immediately by Sears Holdings upon 10-days' notice if SHO does not extend the term of the Merchandising Agreement for either of its two renewal periods.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings against third-party claims relating to any breach by SHO of the Trademark License Agreement. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against third-party claims relating to any breach by Sears Holdings of the Trademark License Agreement.

Merchandising Agreement

Initial Agreement

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into a Merchandising Agreement with Sears Holdings (the Merchandising Agreement) pursuant to which Sears Holdings agrees to (1) sell to SHO, with respect to certain specified product categories, Sears brand products (including Kenmore, Craftsman and DieHard brand products (the KCD Products)) and vendor-branded products obtained from Sears Holdings's vendors and suppliers and (2) grant SHO licenses to use the trademarks owned by Sears Holdings (the Sears Marks) including the Kenmore, Craftsman and Diehard trademarks (the KCD Marks) in connection with the marketing and sale of products sold under the Sears Marks.

Duration. The initial term of the Merchandising Agreement will expire in April 2018, subject to two three-year renewal terms with respect to the KCD Products. The Merchandising Agreement may be terminated (unless the party seeking to terminate has failed to comply with any of its material obligations in the Merchandising Agreement and the failure is continuing) (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach or, if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of the non-breaching party's notice of intention to terminate, (2) by Sears Holdings if an unaffiliated third party acquires all rights, title, and interest in and to all of the KCD Marks, (3) immediately by Sears Holdings if SHO (A) purports to assign the Merchandising Agreement without Sears Holdings's consent, (B) is unable to pay its debts or if SHO enters into a voluntary suspension of payments or bankruptcy, (C) undergoes a change of control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of any of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by specified competitors of Sears Holdings, or (D) ceases to conduct business using the Sears name, or (4) by either party upon 30-days' notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) (A) terminates the Separation Agreement, any Store License Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, or the SYWR Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under the Separation Agreement or (B) terminates any Store License Agreement or the Trademark License Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement. In addition, if an unaffiliated third party acquires all rights, title and interest in and to one or more (but not all) of the KCD Marks, Sears Holdings may terminate its obligation to sell to SHO KCD Products that are branded with the KCD Marks that were subject to such acquisition. Furthermore, if SHO rejects Sears Holdings's proposed increase in the royalty rate of one or more KCD Product categories prior to the expiration of the initial term (to take effect during the first renewal period) or the first renewal term of the agreement (to take effect during the second renewal period), then Sears Holdings may terminate its obligation to sell to SHO all KCD Products in such rejected categories or terminate the Merchandising Agreement altogether.

Pricing. SHO will determine, at its sole discretion, advertised prices, promotional prices, and retail prices for all merchandise acquired from Sears Holdings for sale in SHO's Hometown Stores, Hardware Stores, and Home Appliance Showrooms. Sears Holdings's vendors may from time to time adopt minimum advertised price policies (MAP) and unilateral pricing policies (UPP) that may apply to Sears Holdings and its sale of Hometown Store and Outlet Store products to SHO. The failure to comply with a vendor's MAP or UPP could result in the imposition of financial penalties on Kmart and Sears Holdings and a vendor's refusal to sell one or more Hometown Store and Outlet Store products to Kmart and Sears Holdings, which ultimately could result in Sears Holdings' inability to sell one or more Hometown Store and Outlet Store products to SHO in accordance with the terms of the Merchandising Agreement. Furthermore, Sears Holdings may seek to implement its own MAP and UPP with respect to Hometown Store and Outlet Store products.

Fees. SHO will be invoiced for all products sold to it by Sears Holdings. Sears Holdings will provide SHO with the proportionate share of certain vendor-provided subsidies that Sears Holdings receives with respect to the merchandise sold to SHO, except to the extent that Sears Holdings's vendors (1) do not permit the pass-through of such subsidies or (2) refuse to pay a subsidy to Sears Holdings with respect to the products sold to SHO. Sears Holdings has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain vendor permission to share subsidies. Products that Sears Holdings obtains exclusively for resale to SHO are excluded for purposes of calculating the aforementioned pro-rata vendor allowances.

Royalties. SHO will pay, on a weekly basis, royalties determined by multiplying SHO's net sales of KCD Products by specified fixed royalties rates for each brand's licensed products, subject to an adjustment based on the extent to which SHO features Kenmore brand products in certain of SHO's advertising and the extent to which SHO pays specified minimum commissions to SHO's franchisees and Hometown Store owners.

License to Use Sears Marks. Subject to certain limitations, Sears Holdings has granted SHO (1) a non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable right and license to use, in connection with the marketing and selling of products sold under Sears Marks (including KCD Marks), but in no event to alter, the KCD Marks and (2) a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free and revocable right and license to use, in connection with the marketing and selling of products sold under Sears Marks (including KCD Marks), but in no event to alter, all Sears Marks other than the KCD Marks.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings against third-party claims related to (1) the use of any Sears Marks by SHO or SHO's franchisees other than in accordance with the Merchandising Agreement, (2) the sale, display, assembly, service, repair, or installation of any given product (excluding claims related to services to be performed under the Services Agreement (as defined below) and all other services that are performed for SHO by Sears Holdings), (3) the failure by SHO to perform SHO's obligations under the Merchandising Agreement, or (4) any other act or omission by SHO, subject to the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement that require a sharing of liability, as applicable. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against third-party claims related to (A) the violation by Sears Holdings of any intellectual property rights of third parties, (B) the failure by Sears Holdings to perform their obligations under the Merchandising Agreement, or (C) any other act or omission by Sears Holdings, subject to the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement that require a sharing of liability, as applicable.

The Amended and Restated Merchandising Agreement (Restated MA) amends and restates the Merchandising Agreement. Among other things the Restated MA (a) extends the initial term of the Merchandising Agreement to February 1, 2020 (the Initial Term) (which among other things extends to that date the Company s rights to purchase distressed and refurbished merchandise (DRM) and mark-out-of stock merchandise for the Company s Outlet business at existing pricing except as noted below) and provides one three-year extension to purchase KCD Products, (b) establishes the product prices, KCD royalty rates, and KCD warranty rates for purchases from Sears Holdings through the Initial Term, except that Sears Holdings may increase charges if Sears Holdings s costs increase due to a change in legislation, regulation, business conditions, or Sears Holdings s operations, (c) amends Sears Holdings s termination rights by (1) giving Sears Holdings the right to terminate if SHO sells products or services provided by Sears Holdings in connection with a non-Sears-branded business and (2) adds a right for Sears Holdings to terminate its obligations under the Merchandise Agreement for a defined geographic market if Sears Holdings otherwise exits the geographic market, (d) adds the ability for SHO to obtain from Sears Holdings unique products that Sears Holdings does not otherwise assort, (e) grants a license to SHO to conduct specified commercial sales, subject to limitations, of Sears Holdings-provided products in exchange for a commission, (f) amends the dispute-resolution provisions to restrict both SHO and Sears Holdings from raising specified disputes or claims against the other that relate to an act or omission occurring more than 120 days prior to the date on which such dispute or claim was asserted (the Stale Claims Agreement), (g) adds a requirement that SHO make Sears Holdings whole in the event a value added tax is imposed in the US, its territories, or Bermuda for products supplied to SHO, (h) requires SHO to pay invoices within 3 days through July 31, 2016, for which SHO may take a 37 basis-point discount) and to pay invoices within ten days after July 31, 2016 without discount (the Revised Payment Terms Agreement), (i) adds specified products to the pool of DRM that SHO must purchase from Sears Holdings, (j) adds obligations for Sears Holdings, subject to specified restrictions, to provide SHO credits for KCD-branded DRM that are not repairable, (k) adds clarifying language on how vendor subsidies will be calculated and allocated and removes specified products from the allocation calculation, (l) adds an obligation for SHO to repair specified Craftsman-branded ratchets using ratchet repair kits provided by Sears Holdings (at Sears Holdings s cost), (m) removes product services provisions from the Restated MA (which are amended and restated in the Services Amendment (defined below)), (n) adds a mechanism for SHO to request that Sears Holdings supply products to a SHO-operated non-Sears-branded business, (o) amends the non-saleable criteria for DRM to, among other things, remove specified products from being deemed non-saleable, (p) adds SHO s right to dispose of non-saleable products through a salvage process, and (q) adds SHO s express right to relocate stores without violating specified proximity restrictions.

Amendment No. 4 to the Merchandising Agreement (the Merchandising Amendment) provides that (a) SHO will pay Sears Holdings $600,000 and SHO waives claims against Sears Holdings relating to product repair claims, and (b) Sears Holdings waives claims against SHO relating to alleged KCD warranty fee underpayments and other IT and service-order transfer related claims. SHO and Sears Holdings have separately acknowledged to each other that the claims waivers in the Merchandising Amendment are intended to survive the effectiveness of the Restated MA.

March 2017 Amendment

In connection with the acquisition by Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. of Sears Holdings s Craftsman business on March 8, 2017, including the Craftsman brand name and related intellectual property rights (the Stanley Purchase), the Company, Sears Holdings, and Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. each executed and delivered to the others an Amendment to Amended and Restated Merchandising Agreement dated as of March 8, 2017 (the Craftsman Amendment). The Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors approved the Craftsman Amendment in accordance with the Company s Related-Person Transactions Approval Policy. The following is a summary of the Craftsman Amendment, which is reproduced in full, and the following summary is qualified in its entirety by the actual text of the Craftsman Amendment that is included, as an exhibit to the Company s Current Report on Form 8-K (File No. 001-35641) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 9, 2017. The license granted by Sears Holdings to the Company in Section 12(a)(iii) of the Restated MA is terminated with respect to the Craftsman name and all marks that incorporate that name. Sears Holdings grants a new license to the Company to use the Craftsman name and all marks that incorporate that name (the New License), subject in all respects to an Acquired IP License Agreement between Sears Holdings and Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. (the Stanley License Agreement). The Company will not take any action that would cause Sears Holdings to violate the Stanley License Agreement. Sears Holdings will not take any action to cause the Company to violate the Craftsman Amendment. Sears Holdings will not elect to terminate the Stanley License Agreement or consent to any amendment to the Stanley License Agreement if the amendment would materially adversely affect, limit, or terminate the Company's rights under the New License in a manner disproportionate relative to Sears Holdings without the Company's prior written consent. The Company will be bound by all amendments to the Stanley License Agreement and the New License will be subject to the terms of the Stanley License Agreement as in effect from time to time. The termination of the New License will not terminate or otherwise affect the obligations of Sears Holdings to perform the other terms and conditions applicable to it or to any of the Company's other rights in accordance with the Restated MA or applicable law. Sears Holdings may terminate the New License if Sears Holdings no longer has the right to sublicense the Craftsman brand under the Stanley License Agreement. Sears Holdings waives its right under Section 2(d)(i) of the Restated MA, and agrees not, to terminate, solely based on the Stanley Purchase, Sears Holdings's obligations under Section 3 of the Restated MA to sell all KCD-branded products that are branded with a KCD Mark that is the subject of a KCD Mark Acquisition (as defined in the Restated MA).

Services AgreementInitial Agreement

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into a Services Agreement with Sears Holdings (the Services Agreement) pursuant to which Sears Holdings provides SHO with specified tax, accounting, procurement, risk management and insurance, advertising and marketing (including online services), loss prevention, logistics and distribution, information technology (including the point-of-sale systems for all of SHO's stores), payment clearing, and other financial, real estate management, merchandise-related, and other support services (collectively, Services). The Services Agreement also clarifies the parties' obligations respecting specified Services and how margins relating to such Services are to be allocated, detailing the components of specified Services, expanding the scope of specified Services, and settling disputes between the parties relating to specified service charges.

Duration. The term of the Services Agreement will expire in April 2018. The agreement may be terminated (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach or, if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of the non-breaching party's notice of intention to terminate, (2) by Sears Holdings upon a change of control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of any of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by specified competitors of Sears Holdings, or (3) by either party upon 30-days' notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) (A) terminates the Separation Agreement, any Store License Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, the SYWR Agreement, or the Merchandising Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement or (B) terminates any Store License Agreement or the Trademark License Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement. SHO may also terminate any individual Service upon 60-days' notice to Sears Holdings, provided that such termination does not adversely affect Sears Holdings's ability to perform another Service for SHO. Sears Holdings may terminate an individual Service upon 90-days' notice if (i) an affiliate of Sears Holdings is unwilling or unable to provide the Service, (ii) an affiliate of Sears Holdings does not provide a similar Service to Sears Holdings or its other affiliates on terms that are comparable to the terms of the Services Agreement, (iii) Sears Holdings is unable to retain a replacement service provider to provide the Service on terms that are comparable to the terms of the Services Agreement, and (iv) such termination will have no effect upon the provision of other Services under the Services Agreement. Sears Holdings may also terminate an individual Service upon 90-days notice if (a) an unaffiliated service provider of Sears Holdings or one of its affiliates that provides a Service is unwilling or unable to allow SHO to use such Service under the existing (or comparable) terms, (b) Sears Holdings is unable to retain a replacement service provider to provide the Service on terms that are comparable to the terms of the Services Agreement, and (c) such termination will have no effect upon the provision of other Services under the Services Agreement. In addition, Sears Holdings may also terminate an individual Service upon 60-days notice if the parties fail to execute an amendment regarding the fees payable for one or more individual Services for the fourth or fifth years of the term, or the six-month period following the fifth year.

Fees. SHO pays fixed fees and rates for the Services for the first three years of the Services Agreement. SHO will also negotiate with Sears Holdings the fees and rates for the fourth and fifth years of the term, and the six-month period following the fifth year, on a good-faith basis. In addition, SHO is responsible for the payment of all taxes payable in connection with the Services provided under the Services Agreement, including sales, use, excise, value-added, business, service, goods and services, consumption, withholding, and other similar taxes or duties, including taxes incurred on transactions between and among Sears Holdings, its affiliates and third-party contractors, along with any related interest and penalties.

Quality of Services. The Services Agreement requires that Sears Holdings perform the Services in a manner that is consistent with Sears Holdings' prior practice and in Good Faith without willful misconduct or gross negligence. Sears Holdings provides no other representations or warranties regarding the standard of care under which the Services will be performed and provides no warranty or representation concerning the quality of the Services. For purposes of the Services Agreement, the term Good Faith means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in accordance with applicable law.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings against third-party claims, except to the extent such claims are found by a final judgment or opinion of an arbitrator or court to be caused by (1) Sears Holdings' breach of the Services Agreement or (2) the negligence or willful misconduct in Sears Holdings' performance of the Services Agreement. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against third-party claims that relate to (A) bodily injury or death of any person or damage to real and/or tangible personal property directly caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Sears Holdings during the performances of the services or (B) the infringement of any copyright or trade secret misappropriation by an asset owned by Sears Holdings, Sears Holdings, or the subsidiaries of Sears Holdings and used by Sears Holdings in the performance of the services. However, Sears Holdings will not indemnify SHO to the extent indemnification claims are found to be caused by (i) SHO's breach of the Services Agreement, (ii) SHO's negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of the Services Agreement, or (iii) with respect to infringement claims arising out of (a) SHO's use, misuse, marketing or distribution of Sears Holdings' assets except as provided for in the Services Agreement or (b) information, direction, specification or materials provided by SHO or on SHO's behalf. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against third-party claims that relate to (A) bodily injury or death of any person or damage to real and/or tangible personal property directly caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Sears Holdings during the performances of the Services or (B) the infringement of any copyright or trade secret misappropriation by an asset owned by Sears Holdings and used by Sears Holdings in the performance of the Services. However, Sears Holdings will not indemnify SHO to the extent indemnification claims are found by a final judgment or opinion of an arbitrator or court to be caused by (i) SHO's breach of the Services Agreement, (ii) SHO's negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of the Services Agreement, or (iii) with respect to infringement claims arising out of (a) SHO's use, misuse, marketing, or distribution of Sears Holdings' assets except as provided for in the Services Agreement or (b) information, direction, specification or materials provided by SHO or on SHO's behalf. incidental, indirect, special, or punitive damages, losses or expenses (including business interruption, lost business, lost profits, or lost savings) arising under the Services Agreement, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. The sole liability of Sears Holdings for all claims relating to the Services Agreement is the payment of direct damages, limited to (for all claims in the aggregate) the total fees received by Sears Holdings under the Services Agreement.

Supplemental Agreement

Initial Agreement

SHO and Sears Holdings entered into the Supplemental Agreement that is ancillary to the Services Agreement and the other agreements executed by Sears Holdings and SHO in connection with the Separation. The Supplemental Agreement provides that each of SHO and Sears Holdings releases the other and its related persons from specified claims and defenses to claims that are described on an appendix to the Supplemental Agreement and which had arisen between SHO and Sears Holdings from the date of the Separation through October 6, 2013. A separate appendix to the Supplemental Agreement describes claims that the Company and Sears Holdings have not released and have reserved for continuing discussion.

May 2016 Amendment

Amendment No. 1 to the Supplemental Agreement amends the Supplemental Agreement to, among other things, (a) add releases to additional specified claims, (b) remove from the Supplemental Agreement issues SHO and Sears Holdings had reserved for continuing discussion, and (c) clarifies that claims are not released if they do not arise from those released by the Supplemental Agreement or arise from acts or omissions occurring after the date of release by the Supplemental Agreement.

Retail Establishment Agreement

Initial Agreement

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into a Shop Your Way Rewards Retail Establishment Agreement with Sears Holdings (the SYWR Agreement) pursuant to which Sears Holdings authorizes SHO to participate in Sears Holdings's SYWR program. Under the SYWR Agreement, Sears Holdings will issue rewards points to SYWR program members when they purchase program-eligible merchandise and services from SHO's stores and, for each qualifying purchase, SHO will pay SYWR a fee equal to an agreed percentage of the qualifying purchase for base points issued and for bonus points issued, if any. Sears Holdings will (1) authorize SHO to redeem points for SYWR program members as part or all of the purchase prices paid by SYWR program members when they make qualifying purchases from SHO's stores and (2) reimburse SHO for the dollar value of the points redeemed.

Duration. The term of the SYWR Agreement will expire in 2022 but may be terminated (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach or, if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of the non-breaching party's notice of intention to terminate, (2) by Sears Holdings upon a change in control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of any of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by a competitor that operates a points-issuance/redemption business that competes in any material respect with the SYWR program or with any other rewards or points-issuance/redemption businesses operated by Sears Holdings or any of its affiliates, (3) 66 months after the effective date of the Separation by either party for convenience upon 180-days notice to the other party, (4) by either party upon 30-days notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) terminates the Separation Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, a Store License Agreement, or the Merchandising Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement, or (5) by Sears Holdings if SHO fails to consent to an amendment or modification to the SYWR program that applies on a non-discriminatory basis to all of Sears Holdings's authorized vendors and authorized providers but has a material adverse effect on SHO, provided that Sears Holdings has used commercially reasonable efforts to provide an accommodation for SHO's consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings against third-party claims arising or relating to, among other things, SHO's (1) negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct relating to the SYWR program, (2) breach or default of the SYWR Agreement, (3) fraud, (4) non-compliance with applicable law, or (5) infringement of intellectual property. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against third-party claims relating to, among other things, Sears Holdings's (A) negligence, recklessness or willful misconduct relating to the SYWR program, (B) breach or default of the SYWR Agreement, (C) fraud, (D) infringement of intellectual property, or (E) failure to satisfy any of its obligations or liabilities to SYWR program members.

May 2016 Amendment

Amendment No. 1 to the Shop Your Way Rewards Retail Establishment Agreement amends the Shop Your Way Rewards Retail Establishment Agreement to, among other things, (a) delay the ability of the Company and Sears Holdings each to exercise its rights to terminate the SYWR Agreement for convenience to December 31, 2019, (b) adds the Stale Claims Agreement and the Revised Payment Terms Agreement, and (c) adds the Company's obligation to pay Sears Holdings, under specified circumstances, increased fees and expenses from third-party providers.

Tax Sharing Agreement

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into a Tax Sharing Agreement with Sears Holdings regarding the sharing of federal, state, local and foreign tax liabilities, the preparation and filing of tax returns for such taxes and disputes with taxing authorities regarding such taxes. Under the terms of the Tax Sharing Agreement, Sears Holdings generally is responsible for all pre-Separation taxes that relate to SHO's business other than non-income taxes that are accrued and unpaid as of the Separation date, for which SHO is responsible, and SHO generally is responsible for all post-Separation taxes that relate to SHO's business. Subject to certain limitations and the agreement to cooperate in good faith with SHO, under the terms of the Tax Sharing Agreement Sears Holdings has the right to resolve any difference or disagreement on any matter that arises out of the application and interpretation of the Tax Sharing Agreement.

Employee Transition and Administrative Services Agreement

Initial Agreement

Prior to the Separation, SHO entered into an Employee Transition and Administrative Services Agreement with Sears Holdings (the "ETASA"). Under the ETASA, Sears Holdings provides SHO with transitional administrative services with respect to SHO's employees including payroll, benefits, and other human-resource support services.

Duration. The ETASA will expire in April 2018. The ETASA may be terminated (1) by either party for cause upon a material breach either if the breaching party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following written notice of such breach, or if such breach is not curable, immediately upon delivery of the non-breaching party's notice of intention to terminate, (2) by Sears Holdings upon a change of control whereby a majority of SHO's voting power, or a majority of the voting power of SHO's subsidiaries, is acquired by specified competitors of Sears Holdings, or (3) by either party upon 30-days' notice if such party (or any of its affiliates) terminates the Separation Agreement, any Store License Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, the SYWR Agreement, or the Merchandising Agreement as a result of the other party's (or its affiliates') material breach of or default under such agreement. The ETASA may also be terminated by either party on one-year's notice.

Fees. For the first 24 months of the ETASA, SHO will pay a per-employee fee to Sears Holdings, plus reimbursement of all payroll and other direct costs. Following the first 24 months, SHO will pay a negotiated per-employee fee based on a combination of Sears Holdings' costs to provide the services plus a specified profit margin. SHO and Sears Holdings will negotiate in good faith to determine the applicable fees. In addition, during the term of the ETASA SHO will be responsible for the payment of all taxes payable in connection with the services provided under the ETASA, including sales, use, excise, value-added, business, service, goods and services, consumption, withholding, payroll, unemployment, and other similar taxes or duties, along with any related interest and penalties.

Indemnification. SHO is required to defend and indemnify Sears Holdings against all third-party claims that relate to or arise out of the ETASA (including claims by employees), except to the extent such claims are caused by Sears Holdings' gross negligence or willful misconduct or willful failure in the performance of the ETASA. Sears Holdings is required to defend and indemnify SHO against any third-party claims that relate to (1) bodily injury or death of any person or damage to real and/or tangible personal property, to the extent directly caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Sears Holdings and used by Sears Holdings in the performance of the services, or (2) specified intellectual-property infringement claims. However, Sears Holdings will not indemnify SHO to the extent indemnification claims are caused by (A) SHO's breach of the ETASA, (B) SHO's gross negligence or willful misconduct or willful failure in the performance of the ETASA, or (C) with respect to infringement claims arising out of (i) SHO's use, misuse, marketing or distribution of Sears Holdings' assets except as provided for in the ETASA or (ii) information, directions, specifications, or materials provided by SHO or on SHO's behalf.

Statement of Work #1. SHO and Sears Holdings have entered into the Statement of Work #1 to the ETASA. The Statement of Work is required by the terms and conditions of the ETASA and provides that it replaces the Human Resources section of Appendix 101-A to the Services Agreement. The Statement of Work provides for the following human resource services to be governed by the terms and conditions of the ETASA: support center; payroll; time and attendance; human-resources reporting and analytics; unemployment; compliance; employee record keeping; learning; management/leadership development; compensation management; benefits and benefits administration; and human-resources systems.

May 2016 Amendment

Amendment No. 1 to Employee Transition and Administrative Services Agreement (the "ETASA Amendment") amends the Employee Transition and Administrative Services Agreement to, among other things, (a) delete for the remainder of the term (which ends on April 30, 2018) the obligation of SHO and Sears Holdings to negotiate the per employee administrative fee, (b) adds the obligation of SHO to pay Sears Holdings under specified circumstances increased fees and expenses from third-party vendors asserting that they are legally entitled thereto as a result of the SHO receiving benefits from Sears Holdings' relationship with the third-party vendors, (c) adds the Stale Claims Agreement and the Revised Payment Terms Agreement, and (d) incorporates by reference and restates a Statement of Work #1 to the ETASA Agreement that, among other things, removes specified human resource services that will cease to be provided by Sears Holdings in accordance with the Employee Transition and Administrative Services Agreement.

Services Terminated

The Company has terminated all of the services to be provided by Sears Holdings in accordance with the ETASA, as amended.

Table of Contents

Non-Competition and Exclusivity Arrangements between Sears Holdings and SHO

Following the Separation, the non-competition and exclusivity arrangements between Sears Holdings and SHO are governed primarily by the terms and conditions of the Restated MA.

Sears Hometown and Hardware Stores. New Sears Hometown and Hardware stores are permitted without restriction in all Micropolitan Statistical Areas (MicroSAs) as defined by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) (i.e., defined areas of less than 50,000 residents). New Sears Hometown and Hardware stores are permitted in Metropolitan Statistical Areas as defined by the OMB (i.e., defined areas of greater than 50,000 residents), but only if (1) such stores are located at least eight miles away from existing stores owned or operated by Sears Holdings and branded with the name Sears and at least two miles from specified Kmart locations (all such Kmart locations and existing Sears stores, Sears Stores), (2) SHO has, for those new Sears Hometown and Hardware stores located between five and eight miles from existing Sears Stores, notified Sears Holdings in advance of those stores and has received Sears Holdings' approval (which approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), and for each such store, SHO will pay to Sears Holdings on an annual basis a specified percentage of the new stores' EBITDA for the first five years such stores are open for business, (3) such stores distribute products primarily on a rent-to-own basis or (4) Sears Holdings has already approved of such stores' location.

Sears Outlet Stores. Existing and new Sears Outlet stores are permitted without restriction, except that on and after October 31, 2013 neither SHO nor its dealers and franchisees may sell specified New Products at any Sears Outlet store that is acquired or leased after that date and that is located within two miles of an operating Sears Store. The Restated MA also establishes an exclusive relationship, subject to certain conditions, until February 1, 2020 between Sears Holdings and SHO with respect to the sale and purchase of specified categories of distressed and refurbished merchandise and marked-out-of-stock merchandise (including apparel). In addition, Sears Holdings will give SHO a right of first offer on all of Sears Holdings' (1) discontinued or obsolete products, (2) overstock products and home goods and furniture that are new and still in original packaging, (3) distressed, refurbished, discontinued, and obsolete home goods and furniture, and (4) marked out-of-stock footwear except with respect to products that Sears Holdings does not sell to end-user consumers.

Sears Holdings. Sears Holdings may continue to, and may authorize others to continue to, own and operate all stores owned and operated by them on the date of the Separation. However, Sears Holdings is not able to do the following: (A) in any MicroSA open, own, or operate any new store, or authorize in any MicroSA any new specified Authorized Store, that is (1) branded with any Sears Mark that includes Kenmore or Craftsman or (2) a specified Sears Store ; (B) open, own, or operate any new store, or sell specified Prohibited Products to any new Authorized Store, that is substantially similar to one or more of the Sears Hometown Store, Sears Home Appliance Showroom, or Sears Outlet Store formats existing on the effective date of the Separation; or (C) open, own, or operate any new store, or authorize any new Authorized Store, that markets or sells, or authorizes (via a license agreement, operating agreement, or otherwise) any natural person, business entity, or non-entity business enterprise to market or sell, any item of specified Exclusive Merchandise at a store physically located in any postal zip code area with respect to which, and to the extent, Sears Holdings or SHO has agreed with the owner of a Hometown Store to refrain from selling Exclusive Merchandise in the postal zip code area.

SHO. SHO may not enter into or amend any agreement (each, an authorizing agreement) that authorizes an unrelated third-party owner or franchisee to operate a new Sears Hometown Store, Sears Hardware Store, or Sears Home Appliance Showroom if the authorizing agreement contains product-exclusivity rights. If SHO seeks to renew or permit the assignment of an existing authorizing agreement for a Sears Hometown Store, Sears Hardware Store, or Sears Home Appliance Showroom that includes product-exclusivity rights, SHO must use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the renewal or assignment also eliminates the product-exclusivity rights.

The Services Amendment provides that in connection with the Company's operation of its websites, the Company has agreed to limit its marketing efforts to users located within specified Zip-Code based territories and to pay to Sears Holdings commissions on sales transacted on the Company's websites that result in deliveries outside the specified Zip-Code based territories.

Real Property Transactions

Prior to the Separation, Sears Holdings assigned or sublet to SHO Sears Holdings's interests in the lease for each of SHO's stores as to which Sears Holdings, and not SHO or an independent authorized dealer or a franchisee, is the tenant and either (1) the lease for the store permits assignment or subletting of the lease or (2) Sears Holdings is able to obtain landlord consent to the assignment or sublease. However, a relatively small number of the leases for SHO stores, or the No-Consent Locations, do not permit assignment or subletting by Sears Holdings or may require landlord consent, which may be withheld. Sears Holdings entered into a sublease with SHO for each of the No-Consent Locations. In addition, a small number of SHO stores are in locations where Sears Holdings currently operates one of its stores. In such cases SHO entered into a lease or sublease with Sears Holdings for the portion of the space in which SHO's store operates, and SHO pays rent directly to Sears Holdings on the terms negotiated prior to the Separation.

Generally, the form of sublease from Sears Holdings to SHO with respect to SHO's premises subleased from Sears Holdings provides for the following, among other terms and conditions: (1) the duration of the sublease and the rent payable by SHO to Sears Holdings are the same as the duration and the rent payable by Sears Holdings to its landlord; (2) the premises are subleased to SHO on an as is basis and that Sears Holdings, as sublandlord, makes no representation to SHO regarding the condition of the subleased premises; (3) SHO as subtenant (A) is subject to all of the easements, covenants, conditions, and restrictions of Sears Holdings's lease from its landlord and (B) SHO will comply with and perform all of Sears Holdings's obligations as tenant under its lease from its landlord; (4) SHO will indemnify and defend Sears Holdings from and against all claims by (A) Sears Holdings's landlord that SHO has not performed Sears Holdings's obligations as tenant under Sears Holdings's lease from the landlord and (B) any person as a result of SHO's use or occupancy of the subleased premises or SHO's failure to comply with the terms of the sublease or Sears Holdings's lease from its landlord; (5) SHO may not sublet or assign the sublease without the consent of Sears Holdings; and (6) upon specified SHO defaults (including failure by SHO to observe and perform any provision of the sublease to be performed by SHO) Sears Holdings may, among other remedies, (A) reenter the subleased premises and expel SHO and (B) recover damages from SHO.

By means of an amendment to the Separation Agreement, SHO and Sears Holdings have agreed that, with respect to leases or subleases that require Sears Holdings's or its affiliates consent to sublease, Sears Holdings's affiliates will not unreasonably withhold or delay their consent to subleases by SHO to its dealers and franchisees. For each such request, SHO will pay Sears Holdings a $2,500 per-sublease consent fee. Sears Holdings's affiliates may not withhold their consent to a sublease due to the proximity of such location to a Sears Holdings full line store (unless such location is in violation of the proximity restrictions contained in the Merchandising Agreement).

SHO's Senior ABL Facility

Prior to the Separation and in connection with SHO's entry into an asset-based, senior secured revolving credit facility with a group of financial institutions (the Senior ABL Facility), SHO entered into an agreement with Sears Holdings and the agent under the Senior ABL Facility whereby Sears Holdings commits to (1) continue to provide services to SHO in connection with a realization on the lenders' collateral after default under the Senior ABL Facility notwithstanding SHO's default under the underlying agreements with Sears Holdings, and (2) provide specified notices and services to the agent for so long as any obligations remain outstanding under the Senior ABL Facility. On November 1, 2016 SHO and the group of financial institutions party to the Senior ABL Facility, agreed to amend and restate the Senior ABL Facility in its entirety (the New Senior ABL Facility). Also, on November 1, 2016, SHO entered into an agreement with Sears Holdings whereby Sears Holdings confirmed that its commitments in relation to the Senior ABL Facility also extend to the New Senior ABL Facility. See the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K for additional information regarding the New Senior ABL Facility.

Hadoop Services Agreement

SHO has entered into a services agreement with Sears Holdings for the provision of technology services and equipment (the Hadoop Services Agreement). The Hadoop Services Agreement will terminate during July 2017. Under the Hadoop Services Agreement, Sears Holdings will build a Hadoop system for SHO. Under the Hadoop Services Agreement SHO agrees to pay Sears Holdings a monthly services fee to maintain the Hadoop system and related hardware at a Sears Holdings facility.

Why Not Lease It Program

SHO has entered into a Consumer Lease Program Adherence and Indemnification Agreement (the Leasing Agreement) that allows SHO to continue participating in a Sears Holdings administered program whereby consumers that cannot immediately purchase SHO consumer products can instead lease them from a third party, Whynot Leasing, LLC (WNL). Under the Sears Holdings administered program, each SHO consumer product that is ultimately leased by a consumer is first purchased by WNL from SHO and then leased to the consumer. The Leasing Agreement requires Sears Holdings to forward to SHO 100% of the settlement funds for the products that SHO sells to WNL and clarifies that neither Sears Holdings nor WNL will receive any direct compensation from SHO for the right to participate in the leasing program. The Leasing Agreement also provides that Sears Holdings will deduct applicable sales taxes and remit them on SHO's behalf to the appropriate taxing authority and that SHO and Sears Holdings will defend and indemnify each other from claims resulting from SHO's or Sears Holdings's failure to comply with the Leasing Agreement and will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause WNL, or any other third party, to assume and bear financial responsibility for claims for which that third party is responsible. The term of the Leasing Agreement continues until the earlier termination of the Services Agreement or the Leasing Agreement. Additionally, either SHO or Sears Holdings may earlier terminate the Leasing Agreement upon 30 days' prior written notice.
